H. Wayne Huizenga

OWNER/
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

NFL..................15th Season
Dolphins ....15th Season
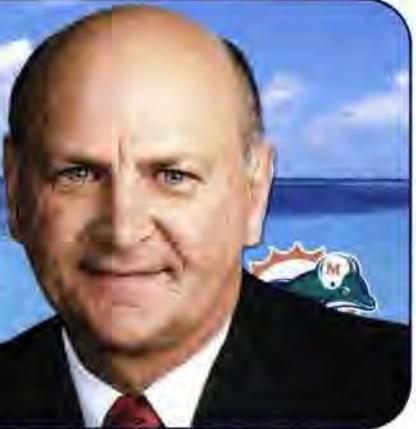

H. Wayne Huizenga began his active involvement in South Florida sports on March 7, 1990, when he purchased 15% of the Miami Dolphins and a 50% interest in Joe Robbie Stadium, now called Pro Player Stadium. That involvement was finalized on January 24, 1994, when he acquired the remaining 85% of the Dolphins and the additional 50% of the stadium, leaving him with 100% ownership of both entities.

Mr. Huizenga is Chairman of Boca Resorts, Inc. (a leisure time recreation resort and entertainment company).

Mr. Huizenga is a board member, founder and past Chairman of AutoNation, Inc., the nation's largest automotive retailer. He is also a board member and past Chairman of the Board of Republic Services (a non-hazardous solid waste collection company) and Extended Stay America (owner of 450 hotels).

He is also Chairman of Huizenga Holdings, Inc., and is the sole or majority owner of several service businesses. He has numerous real estate interests throughout Florida that include office buildings, warehouses, shopping centers and underdeveloped properties as well as the Marriott Harbor Beach Resort Hotel.

Mr. Huizenga was responsible for bringing major league baseball to South Florida in 1993, serving as chairman of the Florida Marlins through 1998, and under his direction the Marlins won the World Series in 1997. He also brought the National Hockey League to South Florida, serving as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Florida Panthers for the first eight years (1993-2001) of that team's existence, including the 1995-96 season when they reached the Stanley Cup finals.

Previously, Mr. Huizenga was Vice Chairman of the Board of Viacom, Inc. and Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation.

In January, 1971, Mr. Huizenga co-founded Waste Management, Inc. (now WMX Technologies, Inc.) which is the world's largest waste collection and disposal company. He served as President, Chief Operating Officer, Vice Chairman and Director of that company.

Mr. Huizenga then directed Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation into a position of world leadership in the video rental industry, serving communities in all 50 states and 26 countries. In 1994, Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation was sold to Viacom for $8.5 billion.

Business and academic groups have honored Mr. Huizenga seven times as "Entrepreneur of the Year". He is a five-time recipient of Financial World Magazine's "CEO of the Year" and was named the 1993 "Business Leader of the Year" by Georgetown University's Business School.

Among his other awards are the Horatio Alger Award in 1992, and the Gordon Grand Fellow Award, the highest non-academic award that Yale University bestows.

Mr. Huizenga also received the Fort Lauderdale Sun-Sentinel's 1989 Excalibur Award for business leadership. He was named the University of Missouri-Kansas City's International Entrepreneur of the Year in 2002. In 1996, he was inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame and the Greater Miami Sports Hall of Champions.

Mr. Huizenga's community involvement honors include the 1994 "Humanitarian of the Year" by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. In addition, he and his wife, Marti, were recognized as "Outstanding Philanthropists of the Year" by the Greater Broward/Fort Lauderdale chapter of the National Society of Fund Raising Executives. He was also honored by the Fort Lauderdale NAACP for his contributions to its programs. His effort to help build a homeless center in Ft. Lauderdale was recognized when he was awarded the Private Sector Award in 1999 by the National Alliance to End Homelessness. Mr. Huizenga sits as a board member of many civic organizations, including the Florida Council of 100, the Broward Economic Development Board, the Salvation Army of Broward County, the Boys and Girls Club of Broward County, and is a past Chairman of the Florida Council on Economic Education.

Mr. Huizenga and wife, Marti, live in Fort Lauderdale. They have four children: Wayne, Jr., Ray, Scott, and Pam, and six grandchildren, Savannah, Wayne III, Shelby, Chloe, Gerritt and Ainsley.

Eddie J. Jones
PRESIDENT

College ......Louisiana State
NFL..................37th Season
Dolphins ....17th Season

Eddie J. Jones, in his 37th season in the NFL, was named President of the Dolphins on January 16, 1996, after previously serving as the team's Executive Vice President and General Manager (1990-95) and as Vice President of Administration and Finance (1988-89). In his current capacity, Jones directs the business operation of the Dolphins and acts as the team's representative at all National Football League meetings.

During his tenure with the Dolphins, Jones has received numerous honors for his contributions to both the Dolphins organization and the South Florida community. Most recently, in 2001, Jones was selected to the LSU Alumni Hall of Distinction, an honor reserved for individuals who have brought credit and distinction to that school. Additionally, in 1999, Jones, in a unanimous selection by the Dolphins players, was honored with a special courage award from the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation, which recognizes individuals in the NFL who display courage in the face of adversity.

Jones was president and chief operating officer of the New Orleans Saints from 1982-85. He currently is a Trustee of the Bert Bell player pension plan.

A 1963 accounting graduate of LSU, Jones began his professional career as a CPA with Arthur Andersen & Co. He began his NFL career as business manager of the Saints in 1968.

An Air Force veteran, the Houston native and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Wendy, Todd and Jeff, and four grandchildren, Connor, Ashkon, Ian and Koosha.

LEAST WORN UNIFORM NUMBERS

Uniform No. 8 was the last number never to have been worn by a Dolphin in a regular season game. Punter Klaus Wilmsmeyer earned that distinction in 1998. In fact, Nos. 8, 12 and 39 are the only three jersey numbers donned by only one player in the 38-year history of the franchise. Quarterback Bob Griese (1967-80) was the only Dolphins player ever to wear No. 12, which was retired on May 6, 1982. Running back Larry Csonka (1968-74, 79) wore No. 39, which was retired on December 9, 2002.

Bryan J. Wiedmeier

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

College ....Carroll
NFL..................24th Season
Dolphins ....24th Season

In his 24th season with the Dolphins, Bryan Wiedmeier was named as the club's Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer on January 28, 2002. In that capacity, he is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the business side of the organization. He also continues to oversee the club's salary cap administration and player contract negotiations.

Wiedmeier's NFL career began in 1981 with the Dolphins, serving in the business operations of the team and the stadium. Wiedmeier has served as Assistant General Manager (1990-94), Vice President - Administration (1995-99) and Senior Vice President-Business Operations (2000-01).

Wiedmeier currently serves on the NFL Management Council's Working Club Executive Committee and is a Trustee of the NFL Player Insurance Trust.

Wiedmeier earned his J.D. degree from the University of Miami School of Law in 1989 and is a member of the Florida Bar. He received his B.A. degree in business from Carroll College in Montana where he was a captain and three year starter at center for the football team.

A resident of Miramar, he and his wife, Mary K., have five children, Lauren, Victoria, John, Danielle, and Matthew.

Jill R. Strafaci

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

College ....Florida
Dolphins ....16th Season

Beginning her 16th season with the Dolphins, Jill Strafaci assumed her current role as Senior Vice President - Finance and Administration in March of 2000 after serving as Vice President - Finance (1995-99) and Treasurer (1990-94). She originally joined the Dolphins as Assistant Chief Financial Officer in October, 1989. In her current position, she oversees the financial management of the club, working closely with team President Eddie Jones. Her duties include all financial operations of the team, human resources, and administration of the club's employee benefit plans. She also oversees the club's records and archives departments as well as the Miami Dolphins Foundation, which she helped implement in 1995.

Before joining the Dolphins, Strafaci, a CPA, was a tax specialist with Price Waterhouse in Miami for six years, specializing in the areas of professional sports and real estate. She also worked for an accounting firm in her native Sarasota.

Strafaci graduated from the University of Florida in 1980 (accounting/finance), where she was a four-year letter-winner on the Lady Gator golf team. She resides in Davie with her husband, Frank, and their sons, Trent and Tyler.

Bill Galante

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - OPERATIONS

College................St. Mary's
NFL...................11th Season
Dolphins ....11th Season

Bill Galante is beginning his 11th season with the Dolphins and Pro Player Stadium. As Senior Vice President - Operations, Galante is responsible for the supervision of the ticket office for the Dolphins and Pro Player Stadium, while overseeing several business aspects, including special events, facility operations, youth football and team travel.

Galante spent his first six years in Miami overseeing Pro Player Stadium ticket sales, including the last three seasons as Vice President - Ticket Sales and Operations. During that time, he also oversaw the ticket operations of the Florida Marlins, including their inaugural season in 1993 and their World Championship season in 1997. He began his career with the Chicago Cubs in 1983.

He and his wife, Barbara, live in Plantation with their son, Christian.

Harvey Greene

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - MEDIA RELATIONS

College ....Pennsylvania
Dolphins ....16th Season

Harvey Greene is in his 16th season with the Miami Dolphins, having been named as Senior Vice President - Media Relations in January of 2002. He and his staff are responsible for implementing the team's media policy on both a local and a national level.

During his tenure with the Dolphins, Greene and his staff twice were recipients of the Pete Rozelle Award (1993, 1999), an annual honor awarded by the Professional Football Writers of America to the NFL's best PR department, and were finalists again in 2003. In addition, Greene also has worked on the NFL public relations staff at 14 of the past 15 Super Bowls and at the 1992 Pro Bowl.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Greene spent almost four seasons as the Director of Media Relations for the New York Yankees (1986-89), and three years as Director of Public Relations and Broadcasting for the Cleveland Cavaliers (1983-86), where he twice won the McHugh/Splaver Award (1984, 1985) as the outstanding PR Director in the NBA. He also served as an Assistant Venue Press Chief for the men's and women's basketball competition at the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles and for the 1994 Soccer World Cup, and supervised media center operations for figure skating and short-track speed skating at the 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Salt Lake City.

Greene, an avid runner who has completed ten marathons (including the Boston and London Marathons four times each), resides in Parkland with his wife, Cathy.

Jim Ross

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - SALES AND MARKETING

College ....Colorado
NFL...................Fifth Season
Dolphins ....Fifth Season

In his fifth season with the Dolphins, Jim Ross was named as Senior Vice President - Sales and Marketing for the team and Pro Player Stadium in January of 2002. Ross is responsible for the sales, marketing and promotional efforts for both the stadium and the Dolphins. In addition, he oversees the club's internet, publications, community relations and alumni affairs programs.

Ross re-joined Wayne Huizenga's sports properties in 2000 after a season as President of AFL Properties of the Arena Football League. Prior to joining the AFL, Ross spent the previous four seasons (1996-99) as Vice President of Sales and Marketing for the Florida Marlins, including their World Championship season of 1997. With the Marlins, he oversaw the club's day-to-day sales and marketing operation, including season and group ticket sales, sponsorships, promotions, and in-game entertainment. He also has held marketing and promotional positions with the New York Mets (including Vice President of Marketing) as well as with Sports Illustrated and World Wide Ski Corporation.

Ross currently serves on the NFL's Marketing Committee, in addition to the Hugs and Kisses Board of the Miami Children's Hospital and the Genetic Disease Foundation. He also serves on the Florida Atlantic University MBA Sports Management Advisory Board.

Ross resides in Plantation with his wife, Elisa, their son, Alexander, and daughter, Emily.

DOLPHINS AT HOME AGAINST DOMED TEAMS

In 2003, Miami was 0-1 at home in games against teams which play their home games in a domed stadium in 2003. Overall, the Dolphins own a 32-12 (.727) record at home in regular-season games against teams which play their home games in a domed stadium.

Dave Wannstedt

HEAD COACH

College...............Pittsburgh
NFL..................16th Season
Dolphins ....Sixth Season
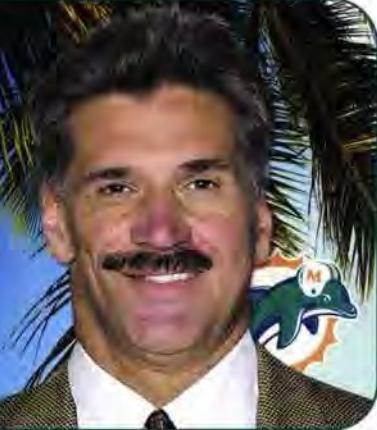

Dave Wannstedt was named Head Coach of the Miami Dolphins on January 16, 2000. He became the fourth head coach in club history, joining Jimmy Johnson (1996-99), Don Shula (1970-95), and George Wilson (1966-69). Wannstedt originally signed a three-year contract, and then signed a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season on February 2, 2001, a one-year extension through 2004 on February 13, 2002, and a two-year extension through 2006 on December 29, 2003.

Wannstedt is in his 30th season of coaching at major colleges and in the NFL. He has been on 20 winning teams, ten bowl teams, six NFL playoff teams and one Super Bowl champion. In his ten seasons as an NFL head coach, he has taken his team to the playoffs three times and twice has won a playoff game while advancing to the Divisional round. In addition, he has won nine or more games in six of those seasons. As a college assistant, Wannstedt's teams had a 106-45-4 record, including a 6-4 mark in bowl games. Combined with a 7-5 mark in NFL playoff games, his overall postseason record is 13-9.

In Wannstedt's four years as Dolphins head coach, Miami has been one of only three teams (along with Green Bay and Philadelphia) to record nine win seasons in each of those four years. His 41-23 regular season record in his four years as Miami's head coach is tied for the fifth best record among NFL head coaches in that span:

BEST HEAD COACHING WINNING PERCENTAGE, 2000-03

	COACH	TEAM(S)	WON	LOST	TIED	PCT.
1.	Andy Reid	Philadelphia	46	18	0	.719
2.	Mike Martz	St. Louis	43	21	0	.672
	Jeff Fisher	Tennessee	43	21	0	.672
	Mike Sherman	Green Bay	43	21	0	.672
5.	DAVE WANNSTEDT	MIAMI	41	23	0	.641
	Jon Gruden	Oakland, Tampa Bay	41	23	0	.641
	Tony Dungy	Tampa Bay, Indianapolis	41	23	0	.641

In addition, Wannstedt's four year winning percentage of .641 (41-23) from 2000-2003 is tied for the best winning record of any four-year period in Dolphin history since the club's last Super Bowl appearance in 1984:

BEST DOLPHINS WINNING PERCENTAGE OVER FOUR SEASONS (SINCE 1984)

	FOUR-YEAR SPAN	WON	LOST	TIED	PCT.
1.	2000-03	41	23	0	.641
	1998-01	41	23	0	.641
3.	1990-93	40	24	0	.625
	1999-02	40	24	0	.625
5.	1989-92	39	25	0	.609
	1997-00	39	25	0	.609

In 2003, the Dolphins finished 10-6 under Wannstedt, marking the fourth time in Wannstedt's four seasons that the Dolphins won at least nine games. The team went 4-2 in the AFC East and was 6-2 on the road. In addition, the Dolphins finished strongly, winning five of their last seven games. His defense finished third in the league in points allowed per game (16.3 points per game), and permitted the second fewest rushing yards (1,452) over a full season in team history. In addition, they were the only defense in the NFL not to allow a 100-yard rusher all season. Offensively, Ricky Williams rushed for the second highest single season total in club history, while Chris Chambers became the first Dolphin receiver to record 10 or more touchdown catches in a season in more than a decade.

In the 2002 season, Wannstedt guided the Dolphins to a 9-7 record. Along the way, his team produced seven Pro Bowl players, including six on defense. His defense was ranked third in the NFL, allowing just 291.0 yards per game. Offensively, the Dolphins ranked second in the NFL in rushing, the team's highest ranking in that category since they finished first in 1972.

In 2001, Wannstedt guided the Dolphins to an 11-5 record and a berth in the NFL playoffs as an AFC Wild Card representative. It marked the second time in Wannstedt's first two seasons at the Dolphins' helm that he took the team to the playoffs, and the Dolphins were one of only three teams in the AFC to make a repeat performance in postseason play. In addition, coupled with his 11-5 mark in 2000, Wannstedt's two-year regular season record of 22-10 was tied for the second best record among NFL coaches over that two-year span. By guiding the Dolphins to at least ten wins in each of those two years, it marked the first time Miami put together back-to-back ten win seasons since the 1984-85 campaigns. For his efforts, he received his second consecutive Florida Sports Award as the state's Pro Coach of the Year.

Wannstedt again fashioned one of the best defenses in the league in 2001, as the Dolphins finished fifth in total defense in the NFL. In addition, Wannstedt guided the Dolphins to five fourth-quarter comebacks, just one shy of the club record of six. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins outscored their opponents 142-55, and the point differential of plus-87 was the best in the NFL in 2001.

In 2000, his first season as the Dolphins' head coach, Wannstedt led the team to an 11-5 record and the AFC East championship, his first division title, and the first by the Dolphins since 1994. Wannstedt's 11 wins were the most he recorded in his seven previous years as a head coach, and the Dolphins' 11-5 record was the team's best mark since 1992. In addition, with the Dolphins having gone 9-7 in 1999, the two-game improvement under Wannstedt in 2000 was Miami's largest since the team went 11-5 in 1992 after going 8-8 the previous year. As a measure of the team's success in 2000, the Dolphins sent seven players to the Pro Bowl, the most since 1984, when the team advanced to the Super Bowl.

Wannstedt's reputation as an outstanding defensive coach was underlined in 2000 as the Dolphins finished third in the NFL in defensive points allowed, giving up a total of 226 points, the fewest ever allowed by a Dolphins team in a 16-game season. Under Wannstedt, the Dolphins also recorded an NFL high 28 interceptions, and their plus-15 takeaway/giveaway ratio was the best by a Dolphins team since 1983. Overall, it was the fourth best mark in franchise history.

Following the regular season, Wannstedt led the Dolphins to the AFC Divisional Round of the playoffs, defeating the Indianapolis Colts, 23-17, in overtime in a memorable first round game. For his efforts in 2000, Wannstedt won a "Terry" Award as NFL Coach of the Year by FOX analyst Terry Bradshaw and received consideration for NFL Coach of the Year honors. In addition, he received the Florida Sports Award as the Pro Coach of the Year in the state of Florida for 2000.

Prior to being named Miami's head coach in 2000, Wannstedt served as the Dolphins' Assistant Head Coach under Jimmy Johnson in 1999. In that capacity, he had a broad range of coaching responsibilities working with the team's offensive, defensive, and special teams staffs, as the Dolphins qualified for the postseason and won their first road playoff game since 1972 while advancing to the AFC Divisional Round game.

His current tenure with the Dolphins actually is Wannstedt's second tour of duty with the team. Prior to the start of the 1989 season, he served as Miami's linebackers coach for seven weeks under Don Shula before being named by Johnson as defensive coordinator with the Dallas Cowboys that February.

Before joining the Dolphins in 1999, Wannstedt served the previous six years (1993-98) as Head Coach of the Chicago Bears. In those six seasons in Chicago, Wannstedt posted 41 wins, the third most victories by a coach in the club's storied 80-year history. His teams posted back-to-back winning seasons in 1994 and 1995, but working with three personnel directors in six years resulted in major roster changes that ultimately affected the club's foundation that Wannstedt established.

In 1996, the Bears finished strongly, winning five of nine games after the bye week despite a rash of injuries that resulted in 19 different starters on offense and 18 on defense during the course of the season. In addition, they posted a 6-2 record at Soldier Field, their best home mark since 1991.

In 1995, the Bears again posted a strong finish en route to a 9-7 record, winning their final two games for the first time since 1986. Chicago's 4-4 mark in the NFC Central Division was their best mark since 1991. The club also led the NFL in fewest penalties for the second straight season. Just minutes after the Bears finished the year with a 20-14 win over Philadelphia, they were denied a playoff berth when the Atlanta Falcons upset the San Francisco 49ers to claim the final wild card spot when playoff tiebreakers separated the teams that finished 9-7.

In 1994, Wannstedt led the Bears back to the playoffs after a three-year hiatus. The team's 9-7 regular season mark earned them a wild card berth which led to a first round upset of NFC Central champion Minnesota at the Metrodome, the first road playoff win by Chicago since 1984. Wannstedt was named NFC Coach of the Year by Football News, UPI and Kansas City's 101 Club and was among the top three finishers for the NFL Coach of the Year by AP, Pro Football Writers, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest.

The Bears were one of four NFC Central teams in the playoffs in 1994, a berth earned after a four-game winning streak at midseason moved the team from 4-4 to 8-4. The Bears posted a season-high 35 points in beating the Vikings in the Wild Card game before losing to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers the next week on the road in a Divisional Round contest. Six of Chicago's seven losses in 1994 were against playoff teams, and among the Bears' wins were triumphs over four-time defending AFC Champion Buffalo and at Miami.

In 1993, Wannstedt's first season in Chicago, the Bears finished with a 7-9 record highlighted by two impressive winning streaks. After an 0-2 start, the Bears won three straight games, including a 17-6 win against the then undefeated Philadelphia Eagles (4-0) at Veterans Stadium. A four-game winning streak, which included a NFL-first three road wins in 12 days, had Chicago in a first place tie in the NFC Central with four games remaining. The Bears were in the midst of the playoff chase until the 17th week of the season as the team improved two games from their 5-11 record in 1992, the season before Wannstedt arrived in Chicago. In just his first year as a head coach, Wannstedt was among the top votegetters for the NFL Coach of the Year Award.

Wannstedt's stint as defensive coordinator of the Dallas Cowboys (1989-92) under Jimmy Johnson marked his first coaching position in the NFL. In Dallas, he took over a defense that had ranked 20th in the league the year prior to his arrival. By 1990, his defense led the league against the pass and was 18th against the run, and he was named The National's NFL Assistant Coach of the Year. In 1991, the Cowboys improved to ninth against the run as they made the playoffs for the first time since 1985. Wannstedt's success made him a finalist for the Pittsburgh Steelers head coaching position following the 1991 season, prompting Johnson to give him the additional position of Assistant Head Coach in January, 1992.

In 1992, Wannstedt's defense was the youngest in the NFL yet ranked first in the league, allowing an average of just 245.8 yards per game, including just 77.8 yards rushing. The exclamation point to his tenure in Dallas came in Super Bowl XXVII when his defense forced nine turnovers as the Cowboys routed the Buffalo Bills, 52-17. Overall, the Cowboys improved from a 1-15 team when Wannstedt became defensive coordinator in 1989 to a 16-3 World Championship club in his final season in Dallas.

Wannstedt began his coaching career in 1975 as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Pittsburgh under his college coach, Johnny Majors. Jimmy Johnson joined the Panthers' staff in 1977, and in 1979 Wannstedt followed Johnson to Oklahoma State, where Johnson had taken the head coaching position. Wannstedt served as defensive line coach with the Cowboys from the 1979-80 seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 1981, a spot he held for two years. He then served on Ted Tollner's staff at USC as defensive line coach for three seasons (1983-85) before re-joining Johnson as the defensive coordinator at the University of Miami. In his three seasons in that position (1986-88), Miami's defense held opponents to a 2.2-yard average per carry, yielded an average of 10.9 points per game and averaged 48 sacks a season. In 1987, the Hurricanes won the national championship by posting a perfect 12-0 record including an Orange Bowl win over Oklahoma. Overall, his defenses in Miami produced 11 players who were drafted by the NFL, including five in the first two rounds.

Wannstedt is a native of Pittsburgh, where he attended Baldwin High School. He then earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and a masters in curricular supervision at the University of Pittsburgh, where he played offensive tackle (1970-73). He captained the team his senior year at Pitt, which featured freshmen Tony Dorsett and Matt Cavanaugh. He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 15th round of the 1974 draft but spent the season on Injured Reserve with a neck injury. The next year he began his coaching career when he joined Majors' staff at Pitt.

Wannstedt and his wife, Jan, reside in Davie, where they are both active in many local charitable, church, and community projects. They have two daughters, Keri and Jami.

DOLPHINS TWICE OPEN WITH 10-0 RECORD

Since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues, Miami is the only NFL team to twice open up a season with 10 or more consecutive wins. The Dolphins did it in 1972 (14 wins) and 1984 (11 wins), while five other teams have accomplished a 10 or more game season-opening winning streak on one occasion — Minnesota in 1975 (10 wins), Chicago in 1985 (13 wins), N.Y. Giants in 1990 (10 wins), San Francisco in 1990 (10 wins), Washington (11 games) in 1991 and Denver (13 games) in 1998.

DAVE WANNSTEDT IS FOURTH COACH OF DOLPHINS

Dave Wannstedt was named Head Coach of the Miami Dolphins on January 16, 2000, and became the fourth coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69), Don Shula (1970-95) and Jimmy Johnson (1996-99). Excluding the NFL's three recent expansion teams (Carolina, Jacksonville and Houston) and the Baltimore Ravens, the Dolphins have had the NFL's low total of four head coaches in the history of their club.

Keith Armstrong

SPECIAL TEAMS

College ....Temple
NFL...................11th Season
Dolphins......Fourth Season

Keith Armstrong is entering his fourth season as the Dolphins' special teams coach, having been named to the post on January 15, 2001 by Head Coach Dave Wannstedt.

In Armstrong's three seasons with the team, the Dolphins have finished in the top eight in the NFL in punt return defense all three times, while having finished in the top nine in kickoff return defense twice. In fact, over the past three seasons, Dolphins opponents have averaged only 6.1 yards per punt return, including a 4.5-yard average in 2001 when Miami led the league in this category. In addition, the Dolphins are one of only three teams (Jacksonville, Dallas) that has not allowed a punt or kickoff return for a touchdown over the past three seasons.

In addition, the Dolphins have been in the top eight in the NFL in opponents' average drive start after kickoffs all three seasons, including a number one ranking in 2003 with a 25.0 mark.

Armstrong came to the Dolphins after serving the previous four seasons (1997-00) in the same role with the Chicago Bears. In 2000, Chicago's special teams blocked a pair of opponent field goal attempts while also ranking fourth in the NFL in punt return defense, allowing an average of just 7.0-yards per return. In 1998 and 1999, the Bears' special teams unit ranked fourth overall in the NFL based on a formula consisting of numerous categories. In 1999, his group recovered six fumbles and blocked an NFL-high four field goals. In 1998, the Bears' special teams units led the league in points scored (26) and blocked kicks (four). In Armstrong's four seasons, the Bears ranked in the top ten in the NFL in punt return average, punt coverage and kickoff coverage twice each. In 1999, they led the league in kickoff coverage, having allowed an average of just 16.6 yards per return.

Armstrong first started in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons in 1994, where he coached the safeties for two years before being promoted to secondary coach in 1996.

A four-year letterman (1983-86) as a running back and defensive back at Temple University, Armstrong started his coaching tenure as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1987. He went to the University of Miami (Fla.) in 1988 where he worked with the defensive backs and special teams on a staff that was headed by former Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson and also included current Head Coach Dave Wannstedt and offensive line coach Tony Wise. Armstrong spent one year with the Hurricanes before joining the Akron staff as receivers coach in 1989. A one-year tenure there preceded his move to Oklahoma State, where he served three years (1990-92) as secondary coach. His final collegiate post came as linebackers and special teams coach at Notre Dame in 1993.

Armstrong, who grew up in Levittown, Pa., attended Bishop Egan High School in Philadelphia. He and his wife, Kathleen, have two daughters, Kaitlin and Kristen.

Jim Bates

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

College ....Tennessee
NFL..................14th Season
Dolphins ....Fifth Season

Jim Bates is entering his fifth season as the Dolphins' defensive coordinator. He was named to the post by Head Coach Dave Wannstedt on January 24, 2000. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Bates spent the previous four years (1996-99) with the Dallas Cowboys, including each of the last two as that team's Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line. He was the Cowboys' linebackers coach from 1996-97.

In Bates' four seasons guiding the Dolphins' defense, Miami has finished no lower than tenth in the NFL in total defense. In 2003, the group was fifth in defending the run, as it yielded an average of just 90.8 yards per outing and was the only team in the league last year not to allow an individual 100-yard rusher. In addition, the Dolphins allowed an average of 16.3 points per game, third in the NFL last year and the sixth-lowest figure by a Dolphins team in a 16-game season. Four members of the unit were chosen for the Pro Bowl, the third time in Bates' four seasons that the Dolphins had at least this many Pro Bowl selections. In fact, over the last four years, eight different Dolphins defenders have been chosen for the Pro Bowl a total of 17 times.

In 2002, Bates' unit achieved a number three ranking in the NFL in total defense, permitting an average of only 291.0 total yards per game. They also yielded just 301 points, the top figure in the AFC and fourth in the NFL. The unit was recognized by having six players selected for the Pro Bowl, the most Miami defenders ever to earn this honor in the same season.

In 2001, the Dolphins led the NFL in pass defense, as they allowed an average of just 176.8 yards a game. Under Bates' guidance two Dolphins defenders were selected to the Pro Bowl. In addition, the defense set club records in 2001 with five interception returns for touchdowns and six total returns for scores.

In Bates' first season as defensive coordinator, the Dolphins ranked fourth in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in overall defense, allowing an average of 289.8 yards per outing. They were third in the conference and fifth in the league in pass defense, permitting an average of 181.3 yards a contest. In addition, the Dolphins yielded an average of only 14.1 points per game, the third-best mark in the NFL. Their 226 total points allowed were the fewest points ever by a Dolphins team in a 16-game season. Bates' unit also exhibited aggressiveness by forcing 41 turnovers, which ranked third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL. This included an NFL-high 28 interceptions. Following the 2000 season, five players from Bates' defense were selected to play on the AFC Pro Bowl squad.

Before joining Dallas in 1996, Bates spent one year as defensive coordinator with the Atlanta Falcons (1994) and one season (1995) as the secondary coach with the Cleveland Browns, his second stint with that team. He was Cleveland's linebackers coach in 1991 and their defensive ends coach from 1992-93.

Bates got his start in the pro coaching ranks as defensive coordinator with the San Antonio Gunslingers of the USFL in 1984. He was promoted to Head Coach for the 1985 season and served one year in that post. He was the defensive coordinator with the Arizona Outlaws of the USFL in 1986 before the league folded. He also was an assistant with the Detroit Drive of the Arena League in 1988. Following that, he was the linebackers coach at the University of Tennessee in 1989 and the defensive coordinator/secondary coach at the University of Florida in 1990.

Bates began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Tennessee in 1968. After a three-year stint as Head Coach at Sevier County (Tenn.) High School, he coached the freshmen at the University of Southern Mississippi in 1972. He moved on to Villanova University for the next two years where he was the Wildcats' offensive line coach in 1973 and the linebackers coach the following season. A two-year stop (1975-76) as linebackers coach at Kansas State and a one-year tenure (1977) as secondary coach at West Virginia preceded Bates' appointment as secondary coach at Texas Tech in 1978. He added the title of defensive coordinator in 1980 and spent the next four years in that post for the Red Raiders.

Bates was a linebacker at the University of Tennessee from 1964-67. He and his wife, Beverly, reside in Dania Beach. Bates has two sons, James and Jeremy, one grandson and two granddaughters. James, a former linebacker at the University of Florida, was a defensive captain on the Gators' 1996 National Championship team and now works as a sportscaster. Jeremy played at Rice University and is currently an assistant coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Clarence Brooks

DEFENSIVE LINE

College........Massachusetts
NFL.................12th Season
Dolphins ....Fifth Season

Clarence Brooks is entering his fifth season as the Dolphins' defensive line coach. He was named to the position by Head Coach Dave Wannstedt on January 24, 2000. Brooks joined the Dolphins after spending the 1999 season in the same post with the Cleveland Browns.

This marks Brooks' second coaching stop with Wannstedt, having worked for him from 1993-98 as defensive line coach with the Chicago Bears.

In Brooks' four seasons as the team's defensive line coach, the Dolphins have recorded at least 44 sacks three times and have averaged nearly three sacks a game over this four-year span. Adewale Ogunleye led the AFC in 2003 with 15 sacks, and combined with Jason Taylor's 13 (second in the AFC), Miami had the top sack tandem in the NFL last year.

Ogunleye was named as a starter for the Pro Bowl, the fourth different Dolphins lineman to earn this honor under Brooks' tutelage. In addition, the Dolphins have finished in the top five in run defense each of the last two years and allowed an average of only 90.8 yards per game in 2003.

In 2002, the Dolphins were second in the AFC and tied for fourth in the NFL with 47 sacks, the third-highest total in club history. Defensive linemen accounted for 41.5 of the total, including 18.5 by Taylor and 9.5 by Ogunleye, making them the most productive sack tandem in the NFL in 2002. Taylor's total led the league and tied a franchise single-season record, as he was named a starter to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. In addition, the Dolphins tied for fifth in the NFL in run defense (97.1 yards per game), due in large part to the tackle tandem of Tim Bowens and Larry Chester. Bowens was also a Pro Bowl selection.

In 2000, defensive ends Trace Armstrong and Taylor combined for 31 sacks, ranking them as the most productive sack tandem in Dolphins history and the top duo in the NFL in 2000. Armstrong's 16.5 sacks led the AFC and were tied for second in the NFL, while Taylor's total of 14.5 was second in the conference and fifth in the league. Both were named as starters to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first time that teammates have been chosen to start at defensive end in the Pro Bowl since the 1992 season (1993 Pro Bowl) when Philadelphia's Reggie White and Clyde Simmons were picked.

Prior to joining the Bears in 1993, Brooks spent the previous three seasons (1990-92) as the defensive line coach at the University of Arizona. That followed a nine-year stay (1981-89) at Syracuse University. He spent his first six years there tutoring the outside linebackers for the Orangemen, and his final three seasons as defensive line coach. His initial full-time coaching post came in 1976, overseeing the defensive ends at the University of Massachusetts, a position in which he served four seasons. In addition, during the summer of 1989, Brooks worked in the Dallas Cowboys' training camp as part of the team's minority coaching fellowship program.

Brooks was an offensive guard at the University of Massachusetts from 1970-72, and was the team captain his final season. He and his wife, Justa, have a son, Jason, and a daughter, Adrienne.

Joel Collier

RUNNING BACKS

College ..Northern Colorado
NFL.................15th Season
Dolphins ....11th Season

Joel Collier enters his 11th season with the Dolphins and his seventh as the team's running backs coach. He spent his first four years with the organization as a defensive assistant.

During Collier's stint tutoring the team's running backs, two different Dolphins have surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark a total of three times, including Lamar Smith (1,139 in 2000) and Ricky Williams (1,853 in 2002 and 1,372 in 2003).

Over the past two seasons, Williams has rushed for 3,225 yards, the second-highest total in the NFL over this span. This includes a 1,372-yard effort in 2003, as Williams now owns the two highest single-season rushing performances in team history. In addition, fullback Rob Konrad has developed into one of the more highly regarded blocking fullbacks in the NFL.

In 2002, Williams broke through with an NFL-high 1,853 yards rushing, the highest single-season total in Dolphins history and the eighth-highest figure in league history. Williams was a starter for the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first Dolphins running back to be named to the all-star squad since the 1978 season when Delvin Williams earned the honor.

Also during Collier's tenure as running backs coach, he has tutored three different players who finished among the top five rookie rushers in the NFL in their respective rookie seasons.

As a defensive assistant with the Dolphins from 1994-97, Collier assisted in coaching the team's linebackers and in the overall football operation. In 1997, Collier worked extensively with rookie linebacker Derrick Rodgers, a third-round draft choice who garnered several all-rookie accolades, including Sports Illustrated's Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Collier joined the Dolphins in 1994 after having worked three seasons (1991-93) in various capacities with the New England Patriots. He served in the pro scouting department in 1993 and worked as assistant running backs and wide receivers coach from 1991-92.

Collier joined the Patriots after serving as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1990. Prior to his experience with the Bucs, Collier worked two years with the quarterbacks and running backs as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker at Northern Colorado, Collier was an academic All-North Central Conference performer. He received his bachelor's degree in social science education.

Collier, the son of former Bills head coach and longtime Broncos defensive coordinator Joe Collier, served as a ballboy during Denver Broncos training camp while growing up. Joel and his wife, Shirley Ann, have a son, Jeremy Grayson (4/16/96) and a daughter, Evelyn (8/29/03). They reside in Davie.

Eric Fears

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

College ....Virginia
NFL..................First Season
Dolphins ....First Season
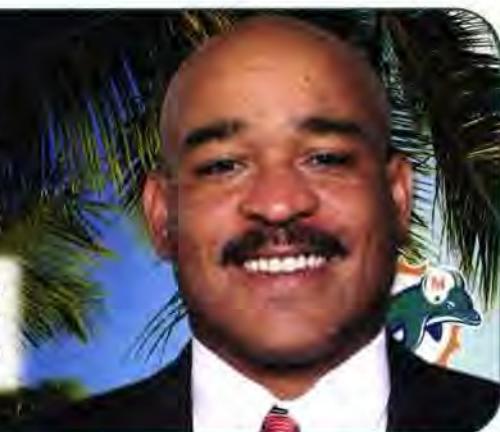

Eric Fears is entering his first season in the NFL following a 20-year stint as a strength coach at the collegiate level, including the last eight at the University of Georgia, where he had served as head strength coach since 1996.

Prior to arriving at Georgia, Fears was the head strength coach at the University of Virginia for two years (1994-95), where he took over for Dolphins head strength and conditioning coach John Gamble, who had held the same post at Virginia from 1984-93. In Fears' final year with the Cavaliers, he was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Strength Coach of the Year. Virginia went to a Bowl game in each of Fears' two seasons in Charlottesville, including 1995 when they were ACC co-champions. In addition to heading up the strength programs at Georgia and Virginia, Fears also served as the director of strength and conditioning at Washington State (1993), South Carolina (1992) and The Citadel (1987-88).

A native of Silver Spring, Md., Fears was a three-year letterman as a running back at the University of Virginia (1981-83). After earning his degree in elementary education in 1984, he went on to serve on the staff at his alma mater as both a graduate assistant (1984-85) and assistant strength coach (1985-87), during which time he also worked under Gamble. Fears and his wife, Sherri, have two sons, Eric Jr. and Naaman.

Chris Foerster

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

College........Colorado State
NFL..................12th Season
Dolphins ....First Season

Chris Foerster is entering his first season with the Dolphins. He was named to the coaching staff on February 2, 2004 as tight ends coach and was elevated to offensive coordinator on May 10. He joins the Dolphins after spending the last two seasons as tight ends coach with the Indianapolis Colts.

During Foerster's tenure with the Colts, tight end Marcus Pollard totaled 83 receptions for 1,019 yards and nine touchdowns. Last season, rookie Dallas Clark was developing into one of the league's top young tight ends as he caught 29 passes for 340 yards and one touchdown before an ankle injury caused him to miss the final quarter of the season. Prior to joining the Indianapolis staff in 2002, Foerster served the previous six seasons (1996-01) as offensive line coach with Tampa Bay. The Bucs reached the playoffs in four of Foerster's six seasons in Tampa Bay, including 1999 when they were narrowly defeated in the NFC Championship Game by the eventual Super Bowl champion St. Louis Rams. In addition, Foerster's line helped paved the way for running backs Warrick Dunn and Mike Alstott, as Dunn went over 1,000 total yards from scrimmage in each of his five seasons during this time (1997-01), while Alstott surpassed the 1,000-yard mark once and totaled more than 900 yards on four occasions. In 1998, the Bucs tallied 2,148 yards rushing as a team and yielded just 28 sacks.

Foerster got his start in the NFL as an assistant offensive line coach with Minnesota in 1993. He also worked with the Vikings' tight ends in 1994 before being promoted to tight ends/assistant offensive line coach the following year. The Vikings possessed one of the most potent offenses in the NFL during Foerster's tenure in the Twin Cities, and averaged more than 365 yards per game in each of his last two seasons there.

Overall in his 11-year NFL coaching career, the teams with which Foerster has coached have amassed a regular season record of 103-73 and have reached the playoffs eight times. This includes three division titles and two appearances in a conference championship game.

Foerster began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Colorado State, in 1983. He was promoted to a full-time assistant coach in 1984 and served in that post the next four seasons. He also held collegiate assistant positions at both Stanford (1988-91) and Minnesota (1992).

Foerster and his wife, Michelle, have a daughter, Kathleen, and two sons, Jake and Micah.

John Gamble

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

College....Hampton Institute
NFL..................11th Season
Dolphins ....11th Season

John Gamble enters his eleventh season with the Dolphins as strength and conditioning coach, having been named to the position on March 16, 1994. Gamble has the primary responsibility in the area of strength and conditioning for the club.

In his position, Gamble is responsible for the organization and implementation of the programs for the team's overall conditioning development. Eric Fears, the club's assistant strength coach whom Gamble coached and worked with at the University of Virginia, assists Gamble with the implementation of the programs and his interaction with the Dolphins' training and medical staffs. Gamble was named by the Professional Strength Coaches Society as its 1998 Coach of the Year.

Gamble joined the Dolphins after having served ten years (1984-93) as the head strength coach at the University of Virginia. He also served two seasons as assistant strength coach (1982-83) and one year on a part-time basis (1981) at Virginia. He was named 1985 Strength Coach of the Year by the National Strength and Conditioning Association. At Virginia, Gamble helped develop such future NFL stars as Jim Dombrowski, Jeff Lageman, Herman Moore and Ray Roberts.

Gamble served an eight-year stint as state director for the National Strength and Conditioning Association and was named Outstanding State Director for Region II in 1984.

A world renowned powerlifter, Gamble was the number-one ranked powerlifter in the world in the 275-pound class from 1981 to 1983. His personal records for total pounds in three lifts while competing in the United States Powerlifting Federation was 2,270 pounds, and he has personal bests of full squat, 892 lbs.; bench press, 573 lbs.; and dead lift, 826.5 lbs. in those three lifts. Gamble was inducted into the U.S. Weightlifting Hall of Fame in York, Pa. in June of 1999.

Gamble played linebacker at Hampton Institute and was a first-team Black College All-America selection. He also earned All-Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association honors in football and in track and field.

Married to Sharon, the couple has three sons, John Nathan III, Austin Craig and Tucker Scott and they live in Ft. Lauderdale.

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL/ RECEIVERS

College ....Princeton
NFL ....Eighth Season
Dolphins ....Fifth Season

Judd Garrett is entering his eighth season as an NFL assistant and his fifth with the Dolphins after spending the previous three seasons (1997-99) as an offensive assistant with the New Orleans Saints. In his role with the Dolphins, Garrett is in charge of quality control on the offensive side of the ball, while also assisting in various coaching responsibilities with the team's receivers.

Garrett was a three-year starter (1987-89) as a running back at Princeton University, where he was named the Ivy League Player of the Year and a Division I-AA All-American his senior season. He was selected by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 12th round of the 1990 draft, and after being released by the Eagles in training camp, Garrett spent the 1990 season as an assistant coach at Princeton. He went on to play with the London Monarchs of the World League from 1991-92. In his first year there, he led the league in receptions and was an All-League pick. His 71 receptions in 1991 stood as a league record until the 2000 season. After spending the 1993 season on the Dallas Cowboys' practice squad, Garrett played two years in the Canadian Football League, with the Las Vegas Posse in 1994 and the San Antonio Texans in 1995. He coached one year (1996) at his prep alma mater, University High School in Cleveland, Ohio, prior to joining the Saints.

Garrett is continuing his family tradition in the NFL. His father, Jim, just recently retired following a 30-year stint as an NFL assistant coach and scout. His older brother, John, is currently the receivers coach at the University of Virginia. Another older brother, Jason, has been an NFL quarterback since 1990 with Dallas and the New York Giants, and signed with Tampa Bay this offseason. Judd and his wife, Kathy, who was an All-America soccer player at Princeton, have two sons, Calvin (7/31/93) and Campbell (3/31/98), and two daughters, Frances (4/12/95) and Kassity (1/2/03).

Bill Lewis

DEFENSIVE NICKEL PACKAGE

College ..E. Stroudsburg St.
NFL ....Ninth Season
Dolphins ....Ninth Season

Bill Lewis is in his ninth season with the Dolphins after being named defense nickel package coach in 1996. Lewis joined the NFL coaching ranks after 32 years (1963-94) of coaching at the collegiate level. He teams with Mel Phillips in tutoring the Dolphins' defensive backs.

Under Lewis, the Dolphins have finished in the top eight in the NFL in pass defense five of the last six seasons, including a number one ranking in 2001.

Lewis spent 1995 as athletic director at The Marist School in Atlanta after three seasons as head coach at Georgia Tech from 1992-94. Prior to his stint at Georgia Tech, Lewis served as head coach at East Carolina for three seasons (1989-91), during which time he led the Pirates to an 11-1 record and a victory in the Peach Bowl over North Carolina State following the 1991 season. At the conclusion of the '91 campaign, Lewis received National Coach of the Year honors from A.F.C.A., UPI and Scripps-Howard.

Lewis began his coaching career at East Stroudsburg (Pa.) State in 1963 and made stops as defensive backs coach at Pittsburgh (1966-68), Wake Forest (1969-70), Georgia Tech (1971-72) and Arkansas (1973-76). He became head coach at Wyoming in 1977 and spent three years at the helm of the Cowboys. He began a nine-year stint at the University of Georgia in 1980 as defensive backs coach before occupying the job of defensive coordinator in each of his last eight seasons with the Bulldogs.

While in Athens, the Bulldogs won the 1980 National Championship and during his nine years at the school, Georgia appeared in nine straight bowl games and won three Southeastern Conference titles. He coached 23 All-SEC honorees and seven All-Americans.

Lewis was a four-year letterman as a quarterback at East Stroudsburg (Pa.) State from 1959-62 and earned Little All-America honors during his playing days. In addition, Lewis spent two years in the Detroit Tigers' minor league system as a pitcher.

He and his wife, Sandy, reside in Weston, and have two sons, Mark and Geoff, three daughters-in-law, Lisa, Laurel and Dawn, and a granddaughter, Ella.

College ....Ball State
NFL ....Third Season
Dolphins ....Third Season

Bernie Parmalee is in his third season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff and the first in his current role. He spent the 2003 season as an assistant special teams/offensive assistant with the Dolphins. He embarked on his NFL coaching career in 2002 after a nine-year playing career, including the first seven (1992-98) with the Dolphins and the final two (1999-2000) with the Jets.

During his career, Parmalee played in 134 games, starting 26 of them. He rushed for 2,179 yards and 17 touchdowns on 567 carries, caught 168 passes for 1,485 yards and three touchdowns and returned 16 kickoffs for an 18.1-yard average. Parmalee made Miami's roster as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1992. In his seven seasons with the club, he amassed 1,959 yards rushing and 15 touchdowns on 513 attempts, and totaled 144 receptions for 1,306 yards and three scores. His rushing figure currently is 12th on the Dolphins' all-time chart. He led the team in rushing two straight years with 868 yards (216 atts., 6 TDs) in 1994 and 878 yards (236 atts., 9 TDs) the following year. In addition, Parmalee established himself as one of the league's premier special teams players during his tenure, having recorded 122 tackles on coverage units, including 31 in 1997 and 30 in 1998.

Parmalee was a four-year starter (1987-90) at Ball State where he is the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,483 yards and 26 touchdowns. He earned his degree in business administration from the Muncie, Indiana school.

A native of Jersey City, N.J., Parmalee and his wife, Angela, reside in Weston with their daughter, Nakia Marie, and two sons, Tre Bernard and Torian.

Mel Phillips

SECONDARY

College..North Carolina A&T
NFL.................25th Season
Dolphins ....20th Season

Mel Phillips enters his 20th season as a coach for the Dolphins, teaming with Bill Lewis in coaching the secondary for the ninth consecutive year. During his first 11 years with the club, Phillips served as defensive backs coach. His 19 straight seasons with the same team is tied for the third-longest current streak among NFL position coaches, trailing only Pittsburgh running backs coach Dick Hoak (1972) and Cincinnati running backs coach Jim Anderson (1984), and tied with Detroit defensive assistant Don Clemons.

Aong with Lewis, Phillips has helped the Dolphins finish in the top eight in the NFL in pass defense five of the last six seasons, including a number one ranking in 2001.

Under Phillips, Dolphins defensive backs have had a knack for coming up with the big play, having returned 15 interceptions or fumbles for touchdowns over the last nine years. In Phillips' 19 previous seasons, the team's defensive backs have brought back a total of 26 interceptions or fumbles for touchdowns.

Over the past two years, three different Dolphins defensive backs have been selected for the Pro Bowl a total of five times, including three-fourths of the backfield in 2002 when cornerbacks Sam Madison and Patrick Surtain, as well as free safety Brock Marion were chosen. Phillips has been instrumental in the development of both Madison, who has been named to the Pro Bowl four times, and Surtain, who has been selected twice. They are the only two cornerbacks in Dolphins history to earn Pro Bowl honors.

In 1998, Miami registered an NFL-high 29 interceptions, the second-most in team history, trailing only the 32 from 1978. In 2000, Phillips' unit again led the league in interceptions, snaring 28 enemy passes, including an AFC-high seven by strong safety Brian Walker. Madison and Marion were voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first time since 1974 that two Dolphins defensive backs were chosen for the Pro Bowl in the same season. All four starters in Miami's secondary tallied at least five interceptions in 2000, as the Dolphins became the first NFL team since the 1981 Tampa Bay Buccaneers to have at least four players record five or more interceptions in the same season. In 2001, for just the third time in club history, the Dolphins led the NFL in pass defense as they allowed an average of only 176.8 yards per contest.

Before coming to Miami in 1985, Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84).

A native of Shelby, N.C., Phillips played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include ten interceptions for 106 return yards (including a 35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, he rushed for 648 yards and 11 touchdowns on 100 carries, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Paulette and Yvette and live in Miami Lakes.

Glenn Pires

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

College..Springfield College
NFL ....Ninth Season
Dolphins ....Second Season

Glenn Pires is entering his second season as the Dolphins' assistant defensive line coach after being named to the post by Head Coach Dave Wannstedt on February 13, 2003. In his role with the Dolphins, Pires assists defensive line coach Clarence Brooks while also handling quality control on the defensive side of the ball.

A veteran of seven NFL seasons, Pires joined the Dolphins after spending each of the previous two years (2001-02) as linebackers coach with the Detroit Lions. He got his start in the NFL coaching ranks tutoring the linebackers with the Arizona Cardinals in 1996, and spent the next five years in that post.

Pires was a four-year letterman (1976-79) as an offensive lineman at Springfield (Mass.) College. After earning his bachelor's degree in education from the school in 1980, he embarked on his coaching career as an assistant at Melrose (Mass.) High School. In 1983, he went to Syracuse as a graduate assistant and served the next two years with the Orangemen. After earning his master's degree in education from Syracuse, Pires got his first full-time position in the collegiate ranks coaching the linebackers and defensive line at Dartmouth College in 1985. After four years at the Ivy League school, he returned to Syracuse in 1989 where he served as both defensive line coach (1989-90) and outside linebackers coach (1991-94). A one-year stint (1995) as outside linebackers coach/recruiting coordinator at Michigan State University preceded his jump to the NFL.

A native of New Bedford, Mass., Pires and his wife, Lynn, have a daughter, Jackie, and a son, Michael.

Bob Sanders

LINEBACKERS

College ....Davidson
NFL ....Fourth Season
Dolphins......Fourth Season

Bob Sanders is entering his fourth season as an NFL assistant after spending the previous 22 years as an assistant at the collegiate level, including the final 11 years (1990-00) at the University of Florida.

In Sanders' three seasons tutoring the Dolphins linebackers, Zach Thomas has been voted to the Pro Bowl each time and has registered three of the four highest single-season tackle totals of his career. He also has overseen the development of Morlon Greenwood, a third-round draft choice in 2001 who has started 37 games over his first three seasons and put together his best season as a pro in 2003 as he registered 85 tackles. In addition, Junior Seau, acquired in an offseason trade with San Diego, posted 133 tackles last year, his highest total since 1996, while he also recorded three sacks, his most in the past three years.

Sanders coached virtually every position on the defensive side of the ball during his stint in Gainesville, including the 2000 season as the Gators' assistant defensive coordinator/line-backers coach. At Florida, Sanders was a part of five SEC championship teams, including the 1995 club that claimed the national title. While at Florida, the Gators ranked in the top ten in rushing defense in eight of his 11 seasons, including the three best performances in school history. They also finished first in the SEC in quarterback sacks four straight seasons (1996-99). In 1994, Sanders was named the SEC's Assistant Coach of the Year.

While at the University of Florida, Sanders tutored nine players who earned All-America accolades. He also coached such future first round draft choices as DE Kevin Carter, LB Jevon Kearse and DE Huey Richardson.

Sanders began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant at Georgia Tech in 1978. After spending one year as a high school head coach in 1979, Sanders re-joined the college ranks as an assistant at East Carolina University in 1980. Following a three-year stint as defensive line/linebackers coach with the Pirates, Sanders spent the next two seasons (1983-84) as linebackers coach at the University of Richmond. He moved on to Duke University in 1985, where he was a member of Steve Spurrier's staff for the next four seasons. Sanders' first three years in Durham were spent coaching the team's outside linebackers and defensive ends. In 1989, he was promoted to co-defensive coordinator, while still working with the outside linebackers. In that final season at Duke, the Blue Devils claimed the ACC championship as they posted a record of 8-4, the school's first conference title since 1965.

Sanders is a native of Jacksonville, N.C., where he prepped at Jacksonville High School. He went on to play collegiately at Davidson College, from 1973-75, and received his degree in political science from the school. Sanders and his wife, Kathie, have two daughters, Lindsay and Sarah, and a son, Robby.

Jerry Sullivan

WIDE RECEIVERS

College	Delta State
NFL	13th Season
Dolphins	First Season

Jerry Sullivan returned to South Florida on January 26, 2004 when he was tabbed to tutor the Dolphins' wide receivers by Head Coach Dave Wannstedt. A 12-year veteran of the NFL coaching ranks, Sullivan is a Miami native.

Most recently, Sullivan was a member of the Arizona Cardinals' coaching staff the last three seasons (2001-03). In his first two years with the club, Sullivan mentored the team's wide receivers, where he worked with a group that included current Dolphin David Boston. Under Sullivan's guidance, Boston led the NFL with 1,598 receiving yards on 98 receptions in 2001 and was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career. In 2003, Sullivan was promoted to the post of offensive coordinator where he worked with rookie wide receiver Anquan Boldin, a second-round draft choice who finished third in the league in receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,377) on his way to being named the NFL's Rookie of the Year as well as a starter on the NFC's Pro Bowl squad.

Sullivan embarked on his NFL coaching career in 1992 under Bobby Ross with the San Diego Chargers. One of his most notable accomplishments in his five seasons (1992-96) in San Diego was the development of receiver Tony Martin. In Sullivan's final season with the Chargers, Martin led the NFL with 14 TD receptions and posted his second consecutive 1,000-yard season en route to the initial Pro Bowl selection of his career. In 1997, Sullivan followed Ross to Detroit where he spent four seasons (1997-2000) working with a receiving corps that featured Herman Moore, Johnnie Morton and Germane Crowell. During Sullivan's tenure with the Lions, Morton and Moore were the league's top receiving tandem in 1997 as the duo combined for 184 receptions. They were second in 1998 with 151 catches and fourth in 1999 with 161 receptions. In 1999, Crowell caught 81 passes for 1,338 yards and seven touchdowns, as he finished third in the NFL that year in receiving yards, trailing only Minnesota's Randy Moss (1,413) and Chicago's Marcus Robinson (1,400).

Sullivan began his coaching career at Cooper High School in Vicksburg, Mississippi in 1970. He moved on to the collegiate ranks in 1971, first serving as a graduate assistant at Kansas State and then taking over the reigns of the Wildcats' freshman team the following season.

Sullivan spent the next three years (1973-75) as the tight ends and freshmen coach at Texas Tech before moving on to South Carolina in 1976. He spent the next seven years (1976-82) coaching the Gamecocks' wide receivers. After one season at Indiana (1983), Sullivan began another seven-year stint (1984-90) at Louisiana State. He wrapped up his collegiate tenure as wide receivers coach at Ohio State in 1991. In his 20 seasons as a college coach, Sullivan mentored numerous players who went on to play in the NFL including Wendell Davis (LSU), Joey Galloway (Ohio St.), Ira Hillary (South Carolina), Todd Kinchen (LSU), Eric Martin (LSU) and Brian Stablein (Ohio St.).

Sullivan attended Jackson High School in Miami before enrolling at Florida State to play quarterback for the Seminoles. After two seasons he transferred to Delta State (Miss.). Sullivan and his wife, Connie, have two sons, Jon Eric and Matthew, and a daughter, Allison.

Marc Trestman

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ QUARTERBACKS

College ....Minnesota
NFL..................17th Season
Dolphins ....First Season

Marc Trestman was named to his current position by Head Coach Dave Wannstedt on January 26, 2004. A veteran of 16 seasons as an NFL assistant, Trestman spent the last three seasons on the staff of the Oakland Raiders, including the last two as the team's offensive coordinator. He returns to South Florida, having served as an assistant coach at the University of Miami from 1981-84, the first stop of his 20-year career in the coaching profession.

Trestman was named to the Oakland staff in 2001 and after his first season, he was promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. He served the last two years in that position while helping the Raiders to a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII following the 2002 season.

Trestman began his NFL coaching career as the running backs coach with Minnesota in 1985. After two years in that post with the Vikings, he became quarterbacks coach with Tampa Bay in 1987. The following year he was named quarterbacks coach with Cleveland before being promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 1989. He re-joined the Vikings as quarterbacks coach in 1990, and served the next two years in that position before taking a three-year hiatus from the NFL to pursue a business career. He returned to the NFL in 1995 as offensive coordinator with San Francisco, and served in that capacity through 1996. He tutored the quarterbacks with the Detroit Lions in 1997 before taking on the role of offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach with the Arizona Cardinals for the next three years (1998-2000).

While Trestman was Oakland's offensive coordinator in 2002, the Raiders led the NFL in total offense (389.8 ypg) and passing offense (279.7 ypg), as quarterback Rich Gannon was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player and earned his second trip to the Pro Bowl in as many years. He threw for a team-record 4,689 yards that year as three different players surpassed the 80-catch plateau, while Charlie Garner rushed for 968 yards, averaged 5.3 yards per rush attempt and finished fourth in the AFC with 1,903 total yards from scrimmage. In Trestman's first season with Arizona, quarterback Jake Plummer passed for 3,737 yards, running back Adrian Murrell rushed for 1,042 yards and wide receiver Frank Sanders caught 89 passes for 1,145 yards as the Cards went on to win their first playoff game since 1947. In Trestman's lone year with the Lions, quarterback Scott Mitchell tossed for 3,484 yards, the second-highest figure in that franchise's history. In 1995, the 49ers' offense led the NFL in scoring and passing, and ranked second in total offense under Trestman's tutelage. In his two years in San Francisco, four different offensive players made a total of six Pro Bowl appearances, including quarterback Steve Young on both occasions. Wide receiver Jerry Rice set an NFL record in '95 with 1,848 receiving yards on 122 receptions. In Rice's two seasons under Trestman, he totaled 230 catches for 3,102 yards and 23 touchdowns. The 49ers put together 25 wins in those two seasons and made the playoffs both times. As quarterbacks coach with the Vikings from 1990-91, Trestman first tutored Gannon in his first two seasons as an NFL starter, as he combined for 28 touchdown passes and 22 interceptions over those two years. As quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator with the Browns, Trestman worked with quarterback Bernie Kosar and wide receiver Webster Slaughter, who led the NFL in 1989 with a 19.0-yard average per reception as he was selected to the only Pro Bowl of his career. Cleveland qualified for the playoffs both years in which Trestman was there, including 1989 when they advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

Trestman began his coaching career in 1981 as a volunteer assistant at the University of Miami while attending law school. In 1983, he was named the Hurricanes' quarterbacks coach, a position in which he served the next two years. He was part of the staff that led the school to a national championship in 1983. While at Miami, Trestman worked with quarterbacks Jim Kelly, Bernie Kosar and Vinny Testaverde, each of whom went on to play in the NFL, while he recruited a fourth to Coral Gables in Steve Walsh, who would later lead the Hurricanes to their second national championship.

A native of St. Louis Park, Minn., Trestman played quarterback at the University of Minnesota from 1974-76 before completing his college career at Moorhead (Minn.) State in 1977. He went to training camp with the Vikings in both 1978 and 1979 as a defensive back. Trestman earned his degree in political science from Minnesota and completed his Juris Doctorate at the University of Miami in 1982. He has been a Florida Bar member since 1983. Trestman and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Sarahanne and Chloe.

DOLPHINS RECORD IN HOME OPENERS

In home openers, Miami is 30-7-1 (.803). In road openers, the Dolphins are 22-15-1 (.592). In addition, the Dolphins own a 29-5 (.853) record in home openers since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, which is the best of any NFL club over that time span, ahead of the Raiders (28-5-1, .838).

Tony Wise

OFFENSIVE LINE

College ....Ithaca College
NFL...................16th Season
Dolphins......Fourth Season

Tony Wise was named the Dolphins' offensive line coach on January 15, 2001 by Head Coach Dave Wannstedt. Wise, a veteran of 15 seasons in the NFL coaching ranks, served in the same capacity with the Carolina Panthers for two seasons (1999-00) prior to his arrival in Miami.

Overall in Wise's three seasons with the Dolphins, the team's offensive line has yielded an average of less than 28 sacks a year and has led the way for the two highest individual single-season rushing totals in team history. The 83 sacks that the Dolphins have allowed over this three-year span is the sixth-lowest total in the NFL.

In 2002, the Dolphins' offensive line paved the way for a running game which was first in the AFC and second in the NFL, averaging 156.4 yards per contest. The unit also allowed only 25 sacks, fourth-fewest in the AFC and seventh in the NFL. In 2001, the Dolphins' offensive line allowed just 27 sacks, tied for fifth-fewest in the NFL.

In Wise's first year with the Panthers, the offensive line led a rushing attack that averaged 4.3-yards per rush attempt, the fifth-best figure in the league. Prior to his stint in Carolina, Wise worked with Wannstedt for six years with the Chicago Bears. He was the team's offensive line coach from 1993-94, and added the title of assistant head coach from 1995-98. In four of those six seasons, the Bears ranked in the top ten in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed, including a number one finish in 1995 (15 sacks).

Wise embarked on his NFL coaching career in 1989 with the Dallas Cowboys, and guided that club's offensive line through 1992. In his final season there, Wise's unit allowed the second-fewest sacks in the NFL (23) as Dallas captured the first of two straight Super Bowl titles.

Wise began his coaching career in 1973 tutoring the outside linebackers at Albany State. He then spent a year each at Bridgeport, Central Connecticut and Washington State, before moving on to the University of Pittsburgh, where he served from 1977-78, and worked with former Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson and Wannstedt. Wise joined the Oklahoma State staff in 1979, and had a five-year stint with the Cowboys. During that time, Johnson was the head coach and Wannstedt served on the staff as well. He then spent one year at Syracuse (1984), before re-joining Johnson and Wannstedt at the University of Miami from 1985-88, where he was part of the Hurricanes' 1987 National Championship team.

From 1969-72, Wise was an offensive lineman at Ithaca College, where he also lettered in lacrosse. He also played on the school's hockey team. Prior to that, he attended Shaker High School in his hometown of Latham, N.Y.

Jeff Dellenbach

FELLOWSHIP COACH OFFENSE/SPECIAL TEAMS

College ....Wisconsin
NFL.................First Season
Dolphins ....First Season

Jeff Dellenbach is no stranger to the league, having played 16 seasons with five different clubs, including the Dolphins. In 2003, Dellenbach served as a volunteer assistant on the Dolphins' coaching staff. In his role, Dellenbach will work alongside Tony Wise with the offensive line and Keith Armstrong with the special teams.

Dellenbach was a fourth-round draft choice of the Dolphins in 1985 out of the University of Wisconsin, and played with the team though the 1994 season. During that time he appeared in 145 games, starting 87 of them. With Miami, he saw action at both center, where he started all 16 games in both 1988 and 1994, and left tackle, where he opened 15 contests in 1989. He also played guard during his stint with the Dolphins.

Following his ten-year tenure with the Dolphins, Dellenbach signed with New England in 1995 as an unrestricted free agent. He was released by the Patriots two games into the 1996 season before signing with Green Bay on December 3. He was part of the Packers' team that defeated the Patriots in Super Bowl XXXI in New Orleans. He played with the Packers through the 1998 season before finishing out his career with Philadelphia in 1999 and Seattle in 2000. Overall in his career, he played in 211 regular season games, starting 115 of them. He also saw action in 12 playoff contests, including four starts.

Dellenbach lettered four seasons at the University of Wisconsin (1981-84), and was a first-team All-Big 10 selection as a senior.

A native of Wausau, Wis., Dellenbach and his wife, Mary, have three sons, Dane, Dax and Dilon, and a daughter, Dailey. The family resides in Ft. Lauderdale.

Rick Spielman

GENERAL MANAGER

College ......Southern Illinois
NFL ....14th Season
Dolphins ....Fifth Season

Rick Spielman is entering his fifth season with the Dolphins and his first as General Manager after being named to the post by owner Wayne Huizenga on January 12, 2004. Spielman joined the organization in 2000 as Vice President of Player Personnel and served in that position until being promoted to Senior Vice President – Football Operations/Player Personnel in 2002.

Spielman joined the Dolphins after a three-year stint (1997-99) as Director of Pro Personnel with the Chicago Bears. Prior to joining the Bears organization in 1997, Spielman spent seven seasons in the player personnel department of the Detroit Lions, including the final two (1995-96) as a pro scout and advance scout. He also was responsible for scouting college players during his tenure in Detroit.

A linebacker at Southern Illinois University from 1983-86, Spielman attended NFL training camps with both the San Diego Chargers (1987) and Detroit Lions (1988) before earning his master's degree from Ohio State in 1989.

A native of Massillon, Ohio, Spielman is the older brother of Chris Spielman, a former Pro Bowl linebacker with the Detroit Lions (1988-95) and Buffalo Bills (1996-98). Rick and his wife, Michele, are active with several South Florida philanthropies, most notably "His House", which houses foster children in Miami. The couple has two sons, Ronnie and J.D., and two daughters, Whitney and Omie. The family resides in Davie.

OFF AND RUNNING

In 2002, running back Ricky Williams established the Dolphins' single-season record for 100-yard rushing games with ten. In those ten contests, the Dolphins were 8-2. He followed that up with seven 100-yard rushing performances last season, in which the Dolphins were 6-1. Since 1996, including playoffs, the Dolphins are 29-5 (.853) in games when they have had a back rush for 100 yards or more. During this same span, they are 5-15 (.250), including playoffs, in games when an opposing player has reached the 100-yard plateau. In the 38-year history of the franchise, including both regular season and postseason, there have been 122 occasions when a Dolphins running back has reached the 100-yard rushing mark, with two players having accounted for 100 yards in the same game four times. In the 118 games when the Dolphins have had a 100-yard back, they have put together a record of 101-17 (.856). An opposing player has attained the 100-yard rushing barrier 113 times, with two players having done this in the same game once. In the 112 games when the opposition has had a player rush for 100 yards, the Dolphins are 34-78 (.304).

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

College ....Adrian
NFL..................15th Season
Dolphins ....15th Season

Ron Labadie was named the Dolphins' Director of College Scouting on May 9, 2001. He was promoted to the post after spending his first 11 years (1990-2000) with the club scouting the midwestern states for the Dolphins.

Labadie joined the Dolphins after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adrian College. A 1971 graduate of Adrian, Labadie returned to the school as head football coach in 1982. In his eight seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs, he posted a 53-20 (.730) collegiate record. He guided the Bulldogs to MIAA Championships in 1983, 1988 and '89, as well as leading his team to NCAA Division III playoff berths in 1983 and 1988. He was given the additional responsibilities of Director of Athletics for Men in May, 1985.

Before returning to Adrian, Labadie served as head football coach at Marshall (Mich.) High School (1974-81), where he compiled a 42-30 overall record, including a 39-15 mark over his last six years. Under Labadie, Marshall captured Twin Valley Conference Championships in 1976 and '77.

A native of Paw Paw, Michigan, Labadie earned the school's most valuable player award three times (1968-70) and was named captain of the 1969 and '70 teams. He earned first team All-MIAA honors and led the conference with 10 touchdowns in five MIAA games as a senior. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981.

Labadie and his wife, Marilynn, have three children, Lisa (29), Brad (26) and Ben (22), and one grandson, Gabe.

The 2004 season will mark the 16th that Tom Heckert, Sr. has been a member of the Dolphins organization. He initially joined the club in 1989 as Director of College Scouting, and spent three years in that position. He was named Director of Player Personnel in 1992 and Vice President - Player Personnel in 1995. He spent the 1996-99 seasons as the club's Director of Pro Personnel and 2000-03 as Assistant Director of Pro Personnel.

Heckert has a varied background in football, including spending seven years as a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Cleveland Browns. He also has both adminis-trative and coaching experience on the collegiate level as well.

Heckert joined the Dolphins after serving two years (1987-88) as a national scout for the Buccaneers. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1987, he spent the previous five seasons (1982-86) as the midwest area scout for the Browns.

A 1961 graduate of Youngstown (Ohio) State, he began his coaching career as an assis-tant at Fitch High School in Youngstown in 1961 before a two-year hitch as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He returned to Fitch where he stayed through 1965 prior to enrolling as a graduate assistant at Kent State, where he earned a master's degree in education. He served as Head Coach at Maumee (Ohio) High School in 1967 and then moved up to the college ranks as an assistant at Adrian (Michigan) College from 1968-72. He was named Head Coach at Adrian in 1973 and Athletic Director in 1977, where he remained until joining the Browns in 1982. His overall record as a Head Coach at Adrian was 43-36-2. His last three teams there were a com-bined 23-3-1, including a 9-0 season in 1980.

Heckert and his wife, Rose (married 12/29/62), have two children, Kim and Tom, Jr., and five grandchildren. Tom, Jr. is Vice President of Player Personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles, after having served in the Dolphins' personnel department for ten years (1991-00).

ALTERNATIVE JERSEY

In a 24-23 win over Washington last year in a Sunday night game on November 23, the Dolphins donned orange jerseys for the first time in the team's 38-year history. In fact, it marked the only occasion that they have worn a jersey color other than white or aqua.

Dwayne Joseph

PRO SCOUT

College ....Syracuse
NFL ....Seventh Season
Dolphins ....First Season

Dwayne Joseph is entering is first season with the Dolphins after spending the last six years with the Chicago Bears, including the last three as Director of Player Development. In his role with the Dolphins, Joseph will help to evaluate talent in the NFL and other professional leagues.

Joseph began his career with the Bears as a cornerback after signing with the club as an undrafted college free agent in 1994. After spending a majority of his rookie season on the team's practice squad, Joseph played in all 16 games, including one start, in 1995. He recorded 42 tackles, two interceptions, four passes defensed and a forced fumble that year. He spent the '96 season on injured reserve before being released in training camp the following year. In his career with the Bears, Joseph played for Dolphins Head Coach Dave Wannstedt, who held the same position with Chicago at that time.

After concluding his playing career, Joseph was hired by the Bears in 1998 as Coordinator of Player Programs before being promoted to his most recent position in 2001.

Joseph was a four-year letterman (1990-93) at Syracuse where he served as team captain his senior season. He earned his undergraduate degree in human development and went on for a master's in education leadership from DePaul. A native of Miami, Joseph attended Carol City High School. He and his wife, Lamindy, have two sons, Quintin and Damien.

He also has other specific administrative duties as assigned by Dolphins Head Coach Dave Wannstedt.

With the Cowboys, O'Neill was part of three Super Bowl championship teams. He also was a member of a National Championship club during his four years (1985-88) as Head Athletic Trainer at the University of Miami (Fla.).

A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, O'Neill earned his master's degree in physical education from the University of Arizona while serving as athletic trainer for Catalina High School in Tucson, Arizona. O'Neill spent three years as the head athletic trainer at Oregon State, and one year at the University of Central Florida before joining the University of Miami.

A native of Pittsburgh, O'Neill and his wife, Anne, have two daughters, McKenzie and Kaitlyn, and live in Fort Lauderdale.

1984 DOLPHINS OFFENSE IS BEST IN NFL

In the 1984 season, the Dolphins established a number of NFL season records, including most yards gained (6,936), most yards gained by passing (5,018), most first downs (387), most touchdowns (70), most passing touchdowns (49) and most PATs (66). Five of the six marks still stand as NFL records. The only exception is yards gained passing, which was eclipsed by the 2000 St. Louis Rams (5,232).

DOLPHINS RECORD WITH 70,000-PLUS FANS

The Dolphins owned a mark of 8-4 (4-4 at home and 4-0 on the road) in 2003 in games where the attendance was greater than 70,000. Overall since the club's inception in 1966, the Dolphins have a 116-73 (.614) record in regular season games where the attendance was greater than 70,000— 86-35 (.711) at home, 31-36 (.463) on the road and 1-2 (.333) in Super Bowls.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

The Miami Dolphins Foundation was established in 1995 as the fundraising arm of the Miami Dolphins Football Team. The Dolphins, through the Foundation, have made a commitment to the betterment of South Florida youth through a direct focus on, but not limited to, educational, health, social and community service issues.

The Miami Dolphins Foundation contributes, whenever possible, to charitable groups that are compatible with the philosophy of the Foundation. Resources for contributions are procured through various fundraising events throughout the year.

- Cigna Healthcare Miami Dolphins Fishing Tournament – This eight year old event is held in memory of Scott Chait, an avid fisherman and member of the Miami Dolphins Community Relations staff. Current and former players join avid fishermen for a full day of fun and deep sea fishing with

The tournament has grown to become a major fundraising event for the Miami Dolphins Foundation. Each year current and former players and coaches participate in the tournament, which has raised more than $1,000,000 in its seven years of existence.

EDUCATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS

The Miami Dolphins understand that the education of our South Florida youth is of utmost importance. It is for this reason that the Dolphins have partnered with both Broward and Miami-Dade County Public Schools on several extensive programs.

· Student of the Week Program – working in conjunction with Pro Player Stadium, the Miami Dolphins honor a selected student from each of the partner schools at all eight of the team's regular season home games. The students are selected by their principals and teachers for their citizenship and classroom achievements. In recognition of their accomplishments, they are presented with a plaque by Marti Huizenga, wife of Dolphins owner Wayne Huizenga, during an on-field presentation. Publix also donates a $25 gift certificate to each Student of the Week.

· Teacher of the Year Awards – One teacher from each partner school is selected as a Teacher of the Year and is recognized for their accomplishments during a pregame, on-field presentation.

· Pro Player Stadium/Miami Dolphins Scholarship – A $1,000 scholarship is awarded annually to both a Miami Carol City High School and Miramar High School senior who demonstrates strong community service along with a solid academic performance. A $500 honorable mention scholarship is also awarded.

DAILY BREAD FOOD BANK

The Miami Dolphins have an ongoing relationship with the Daily Bread Food Bank, an organization that provides food to the needy throughout South Florida. The Miami Dolphins team up with the Daily Bread Food Bank on the following projects:

· Canned Food Drive – Each year the "Make A Difference at the Holidays" canned food drive is held at a Dolphins home game prior to Thanksgiving. This year's canned food drive will take place prior to the game against the Arizona Cardinals on Sunday, November 7. Fans are encouraged to deposit canned goods and other non-perishable food items in collection containers located at each entrance to the stadium.

· Holiday Dinner – Several Miami Dolphins players take time during the December holidays to serve dinner at the Broward County Partnership for the homeless, a shelter that provides assistance to families and individuals in need, thanks to food donations provided by the Daily Bread Food Bank and Publix Supermarkets.

Shawn Wooden and David Bowens serve a meal during the holidays.

· Thanksgiving Turkey Giveaway – The Miami Dolphins organization, along with the coaches, players and staff, contribute monetary donations to purchase turkeys for underprivileged families in South Florida. Dolphins players join volunteers from the Daily Bread Food Bank to distribute turkeys to various agencies affiliated with the Daily Bread Food Bank. Publix Supermarkets contributes an accompanying item with each turkey.

Tight end Randy McMichael and linebacker Zach Thomas distribute turkeys to feed the needy.

THE MIAMI PROJECT TO CURE PARALYSIS

The Miami Dolphins and The Miami Project to Cure Paralysis enjoy a long-term relationship in the battle to defeat paralysis caused by spinal cord injury. During the 2003 season, linebacker Zach Thomas and defensive end Jason Taylor teamed up to put a "Crunch on Paralysis" by making a donation for every sack and tackle they made.

HOLIDAY HOSPITAL VISITS

Each year during the holiday season, Dolphins players, cheerleaders and mascot, T.D., visit area hospitals to brighten the holidays of sick children and military veterans who are not able to go home for the holidays.

While at the hospitals, the players, cheerleaders and mascot visit with the children and veterans, take pictures with them, sign autographs and give out Dolphins souvenirs to all the people they visit.

Morlon Greenwood, Olindo Mare and Rob Konrad help brighten the holidays during a visit to children in local hospitals.

TOYS FOR TOTS

Each year, at a Miami Dolphins home game in December, the team sponsors an annual toy drive for underprivileged children in the South Florida community. This season's Toys For Tots drive will take place when the Dolphins play host to the Buffalo Bills on Sunday, December 5. Dol-Fans are encouraged to drop off new, unwrapped

DRUG ABUSE RESISTANCE EDUCATION (D.A.R.E.) PROGRAM

Dolphins coaches and players recognize the importance of educating the youth in our local communities about the dangers associated with alcohol, drug, tobacco and domestic abuse. In an effort to offer alternatives to these vices, the Miami Dolphins work closely with area police departments by providing players and coaches

CYSTIC FIBROSIS FOUNDATION

The Miami Dolphins continue to be strong supporters of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, which is committed to finding a cure for the most common genetic disease in children. The Dolphins work with the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation on the following projects:

Miami Dolphins Superbowl of Fashion – This black-tie event features an evening of dinner and entertainment while raising much needed funds for cystic fibrosis research. The highlight of the event is a fashion show spotlighting current players as they escort their significant others to show off the latest fashions. Each year, this event raises more than $200,000. In its 15-year history, the event has raised more than $1,000,000 to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

BROWARD COUNTY COURT PROGRAM

Dolphins players make routine visits to kids at the Broward County Court House in Fort Lauderdale. During their visit, the players speak with at- risk kids in the courtroom of Broward County Circuit Court Judge Howard Zeidwig. Approximately 100 kids take part in each question and answer session. The players address many topics including education, peer pressure and family.

For several years the Miami Dolphins have joined with Habitat for Humanity in building homes building project for under-privileged families.

In addition to helping build the home, safety Shawn Wooden makes a monetary contribution to Habitat for Humanity for each game he plays in as part of the "Home Team."

DOLPHINS AUCTIONS

Dolphins players such as Sam Madison, Jason Taylor, Zach Thomas and Junior Seau are among the many players to lend over 400 signatures on items that are currently being auctioned off on the team's official web site to raise money for the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

In addition to the autographed memorabilia, Dol-Fans have the opportunity to bid on Dolphins game-used items and unique gameday experiences. The site is constantly updated throughout the year.

Zach Thomas signs a football to be auctioned off on the web site.

DOLPHINS IN SEASON OPENERS

In season openers, Miami is 22-15-1. The Dolphins are 14-10-1 in season openers on the road and 8-5 in season openers which have been at home. Prior to being edged by Houston, 21-20, in last year's opener, the Dolphins had won 11 straight league-openers dating back to 1992, the second-longest such streak in NFL history, trailing only the 17-game winning streak that the Dallas Cowboys compiled from 1965-81.

PERFECT AT HOME VS. NINE TEAMS

Entering 2004, there are nine NFL teams that are winless against the Dolphins during the regular season in Miami. The Dolphins are 4-0 vs. Arizona, 3-0 vs. Baltimore, 1-0 vs. Carolina, 6-0 vs. Denver, 4-0 vs. Detroit, 6-0 vs. Green Bay, 3-0 vs. New Orleans, and 4-0 vs. Washington. Jacksonville has yet to play a regular season game in Miami. Of these nine clubs, the Dolphins play host only to Arizona (November 7) in 2004.

T.D.

Height	7-0
Weight	All Mussel
Acquired	FA, 1997
Dolphins	Eighth Season

The Miami Dolphins' 1997 addition might have been their biggest – literally. The club unveiled "T.D.", its new mascot, on Friday, April 18, 1997, the first "official" mascot in the history of the franchise. The 7-foot tall mascot made its public debut at the team's Draft Day Party at Pro Player Stadium on April 19, 1997. In addition, the mascot performs at every Dolphins home game.

When the mascot was first unveiled, it was without a name. The club held a "Name the Mascot" contest that drew over 13,000 entries covering all 50 states and 22 countries, with 529 different names suggested. The name "T.D." was first submitted by Sara Fernandez of Miami, and when that name was selected by the Dolphins organization, she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII for her winning entry, which was announced at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

The club had a live dolphin, "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl during the team's early years, and "Dolfan Denny," who prowled the sidelines for many seasons. However, this marks the first time the club actually has an official mascot, one who participates in many of the team's programs in addition to his gameday activities.

"T.D." is available for appearances. For more information, call the Dolphins mascot hotline at (954) 577-8990.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

the-art open-air complex hosted its first football game in August, 1987, its first regular season
Major League baseball game in April, 1993 and stages world class events throughout the calendar year. Pro Player Stadium is one of only three facilities in the country to host NFL football and Major League Baseball in the same venue.

HISTORY
    Now in its 18th year of operation, the 75,000 seat, state-of-the-art, open-air facility, originally called Dolphin Stadium, was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing 115 million dollars when it was completed in 1987. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium" for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a Club Level, along with Executive Suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On January 24, 1994, Mr. Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100% ownership. Since 1991, over 80 million dollars have been spent to upgrade and renovate the stadium. The improvement and revitalization of the building under Huizenga allowed the stadium to remain the finest sports and entertainment facility in the United States.

On August 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. They became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten year absence. A second Super Bowl was hosted when Super Bowl XXIX was played in the facility on January 29, 1995, and the Super Bowl returned to Pro Player Stadium on January 31, 1999, when the facility hosted Super Bowl XXXIII.

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Pro Player Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers.

In 1997, Pro Player Stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game One on Oct. 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game Seven on October 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to thirteen spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Behind the scenes, Pro Player Stadium underwent renovations to accommodate Major League Baseball and the Florida Marlins. The conversion included the installation of retractable seating on the north side of the stadium, the construction of the baseball press box in the southwest corner of the facility, the building of the baseball dugouts, the addition of 660 new lights for suitable night play and the installation of a hydraulic disappearing pitcher's mound. The stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water. At the time, the only other facility to feature this type of track was Oriole Park at Camden Yards, home of the Baltimore Orioles. The renovation also included the construction of the Florida Marlins clubhouse and other amenities to accommodate baseball at Pro Player Stadium.

On the field, Pro Player Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March of 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of one million dollars, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rain fall.

LOCATION

The stadium is located at 2269 Dan Marino Boulevard in Miami, only one mile south of the Dade-Broward County Line. The 160 acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD CLASS EVENTS

Pro Player Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football and Florida Marlins baseball, college football takes the field with the FedEx Orange Bowl (which played host to the national championship game in 1998 and 2001 and will do so again in 2004). Super Bowl XXXIII was held at Pro Player Stadium on January 31, 1999, while it also is slated to host Super Bowl XLI following the 2006 season. Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at Pro Player Stadium in 1997 and 2003.

Pro Player Stadium has also played host to numerous concerts, featuring entertainers such as Pink Floyd, Elton John/Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, Chicago, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, The Who, Hall & Oates, Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block, the Three Tenors World Tour, U2 and 'N Sync.

Other events held in the past at Pro Player Stadium include international soccer games featuring the United States World Cup Team, high school football, Monster Truck Shows, and numerous trade shows.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Pro Player Stadium's 183 suites offer luxury and comfort in the ultimate setting to watch any event. The ten, twelve, sixteen, twenty four and thirty two seat suites have been completely renovated and offer DirecTV access, multi-feed sound systems, refrigerators, ice-makers and private telephone services. Uniformed Suite Captains provide personal service in each suite during the events. Distinctive Gourmet, a Boston Concessions division, caters the suites with a delectable, wide-variety of food and beverages from which to choose.

CLUB LEVEL SEATING

Located on the second level, the 10,200 club level seats provide exceptional luxury with the most space and leg room available in the stadium, featuring seats 21" wide (compared to the 19" wide general seating). The Club Seats lead to air-conditioned lounges with full-service bars and concession areas. The protective overhang, along with wait-staff service, also are unique elements of the club level.

HALL OF CHAMPIONS

Pro Player Stadium was proud to introduce the new Hall of Champions during the 1997 Miami Dolphins season. Located in the east endzone area of the Club Level, the Hall of Champions allows groups of 50 to 270 to experience a Miami Dolphins football or Florida Marlins baseball game in style. In addition to club level amenities and entertainment, the Hall of Champions offers interior and exterior seating, a full bar with bartender, a private elevator and many other exclusive privileges.

DINING

Full service concession facilities, managed by Boston Concessions, are available on all levels and include Pizza Hut and Carvel Ice Cream and Yogurt. The stadium was recently recognized by Sports Illustrated for the high quality of its food and beverage service.

VISIONS FOR THE FUTURE

Pro Player Stadium will continue to enhance the fan experience by its commitment to capital improvements. These continuing upgrades and renovations will heighten the guest experience by providing increased comfort, new amenities and better service.

DOLPHINS TRAINING FACILITY

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova-Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 93,452 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel and the club's administrative staff, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs as well.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include lounges, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings, a dance studio for the team's cheerleaders, and the Dolphins Pro Shop, which sells official team merchandise.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coaches' office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Pro Player Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Pro Player Stadium itself. When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the stadium were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova can accommodate 2,500 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop, ticket windows, and rest rooms.

DOLPHINS PRO BOWL TOUCHDOWNS

In the 2003 Pro Bowl, Dolphins running back Ricky Williams scored on a pair of one-yard runs as he was named the MVP in the AFC's 45-20 route of the NFC. He became just the fourth Dolphin to account for a touchdown in the NFL's annual All-Star contest. Prior to that, the most recent Dolphin to have accounted for a touchdown in the Pro Bowl was wide receiver Mark Clayton, who caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Buffalo's Jim Kelly in the 1991 game. The others who have achieved this feat are tight end Ferrell Edmunds, who had a five-yard scoring reception from Seattle's Dave Krieg in the 1989 game, and Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield, who caught a 32-yard TD pass from Dolphins teammate Bob Griese in the '74 contest.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2004

DAVID BOSTON ...
- Enters the 2004 season with 4,619 career receiving yards. Needs 381 more to reach the 5,000-yard plateau.

DT TIM BOWENS ...
- Enters the 2004 season having played in 155 regular season games with the Dolphins, 11th on the team's all-time list. With three more he would tie Larry Little (158) for tenth, with four more he would join Vern Den Herder (159) for ninth and the most among defensive linemen, with six more he would equal Bob Griese (161) for eighth, with eight more he would tie Don Strock (163) for seventh, with nine more he would join both Jim Jensen and Richmond Webb (164 each) for fifth and with 12 more he would equal Ed Newman (167) for fourth.

WR CHRIS CHAMBERS ...
- If he leads the Dolphins in receiving yards this year, he would become the first Dolphin to achieve this feat four straight times since Nat Moore did it from 1974-77.

DT LARRY CHESTER ...
- Enters 2004 having played in 88 regular season games. Needs 12 more to attain the 100 games played mark.

QB JAY FIEDLER ...
- Enters 2004 with 899 career completions. Needs 101 more to reach 1,000.

S SAMMY KNIGHT ...
- Enters 2004 having played in 92 straight league games and started 80 in a row.

CB SAM MADISON ...
- Enters the 2004 season with 29 career interceptions, tied for third on the Dolphins' all-time list. With five more he would join Dick Anderson (34) for second and with six more he would equal Jake Scott (35) for first.

K OLINDO MARE ...
- Enters 2004 with 786 career points, second on the Dolphins' all-time chart. With 44 more he would join Garo Yepremian (830) for first.
- Enters the season having appeared in 112 straight league games.

TE ED PERRY ...
- Enters 2004 having played in 87 league games. With 13 more he would reach the 100-games played plateau.

LB JUNIOR SEAU ...
- Enters 2004 having played in 215 league games, tied for seventh-most among linebackers in NFL history. With one more he would tie Darryl Talley (216) for sixth, with ten more he would join Hardy Nickerson (225) for fifth, with 12 more he would equal Rickey Jackson (227) for fourth and with 13 more he would tie Kevin Greene (228) for third.

DE JASON TAYLOR ...
- In his career, has recovered 16 opponents' fumbles, third on the Dolphins' all-time list. With his next one he would join Dick Anderson and Bob Baumhower (17 each) for first.
- Enters 2004 having returned four opponents' fumbles for touchdowns in his career, tied for second on the NFL's all-time list. With his next one, he would tie Jessie Tuggle (5) for first.
- Enters the 2004 season having had a sack in six straight games.
- Enters 2004 having started and played in 66 league games in a row.

LB ZACH THOMAS ...
- Can extend his streak of having recorded at least 100 tackles in eight straight seasons.

DE JAY WILLIAMS . . .
- Enters the 2004 season having played in 114 straight league games.

RB RICKY WILLIAMS . . .
- If he reaches the 1,000-yard rushing mark in 2004, Williams would become just the second Dolphin to have three or more 1,000-yard rushing seasons, joining Larry Csonka, who did it from 1971-73.
- Enters 2004 with 3,225 rushing yards as a Dolphin, fifth on the team's all-time chart. With 319 more he would surpass Tony Nathan (3,543) for fourth, with 420 more he would move past Jim Kiick (3,644) for third and with 653 more he would overtake Mercury Morris (3,877) for second.

DOLPHINS ARE BEST

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins are the winningest team in professional football. The Dolphins, who own a regular season record of 334-184-2 (.645) and an overall mark of 356-206-2 (.633), have the best regular-season and overall winning percentage of any NFL team during that span.

DON SHULA'S COACHING LONGEVITY

Former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula was one of only four coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula (1970-95) completed 26 seasons with the Dolphins. Green Bay's Curley Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) coached 23 years with their teams.

DOLPHINS AGAINST SUPER BOWL CHAMPS

Since 1970, the Dolphins own a 6-1 record in regular season home games against that year's eventual Super Bowl champion. Miami has defeated the 1970 Baltimore Colts (34-17), the 1985 Chicago Bears (38-24), the 1987 Washington Redskins (23-21), the 1998 Denver Broncos (31-21), the 2000 Baltimore Ravens (19-6) and the 2001 New England Patriots (30-10). Their only loss was a 19-13 overtime setback to New England on October 19 of last year.

DOLPHINS ON GRASS AND ARTIFICIAL TURF

In regular season action, the Dolphins were 6-6 in 2003 on natural grass (4-4 at home and 2-2 on the road) and 4-0 on artificial/field turf (all on the road). Since 1980 (regular season games only), the Dolphins are 170-88-1 (.658) on grass — 131-55-1 (.703) at home and 39-33 (.542) on the road. On turf over the same period of time, the Dolphins are 60-57 (.513).

DOLPHINS ARE 20-19 IN PLAYOFF GAMES

The Dolphins are 20-19 in the playoffs. The Dolphins own a record of 6-5 in AFC First-Round/Wild Card Playoffs, 7-9 in Divisional Playoffs, 5-2 in AFC Championships and 2-3 in Super Bowls. In the playoffs, Miami is 15-6 at home, 3-10 on the road and 2-3 on neutral sites.

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

Hall of Fame and former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula has had 14 of his former players enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The most recent inductee was Nick Buoniconti, who played linebacker under Shula with the Dolphins from 1970-76, and entered the Hall in 2001. Of this group, seven played for Shula while he was Head Coach with the Baltimore Colts (1963-69), while seven were on his teams with the Dolphins (1970-95). This total of 14 is tied for the second-most players that an NFL head coach has had inducted into the Hall of Fame, along with Paul Brown and Vince Lombardi. They trail only George Halas, who had 25 players enshrined.

PRO CAREER

CAREER PRO BOWL SELECTIONS: 2 (1999, 2002).

2003 – Started all 13 games in which he played, was inactive for three contests . . . Finished the year with 47 total tackles (24 solo), two sacks, 11 quarterback hurries, two forced fumbles and a pass defensed . . . Key member of a defensive line that allowed an average of only 90.8 yards per game, fourth-fewest in the AFC and fifth in the NFL, as the Dolphins were the only team in the league not to permit an individual 100-yard rusher . . . Average per rush attempt yielded of 3.3 was second in the NFL in '03 and was the best figure in Dolphins history . . . Tallied two stops, including his first sack of the season, in win vs. Buffalo (9/21) . . . Was inactive at Jacksonville (10/12) with a left hand laceration sustained the previous week at N.Y. Giants (10/5) . . . That marked just the third game he had missed in his ten-year NFL career . . . Notched a season-high nine tackles vs. Indianapolis (11/2) . . . Was inactive at New England (12/7) with a left calf strain sustained the previous week at Dallas (11/27) . . . Recorded four tackles, including a sack, in win at Buffalo (12/21) when the Dolphins held the Bills to just 177 yards of total offense, including 73 on the ground on 28 attempts (2.6 avg.) . . . In the Bills game, accounted for a pair of forced fumbles, one of which occurred on his sack of QB Drew Bledsoe and led to a field goal . . . It marked the third time in his career he forced two fumbles in a game, having also done it against Kansas City on December 11, 1995 and at N.Y. Jets on November 27, 1994 . . . Was inactive for season finale vs. N.Y. Jets (12/28) with a left calf strain . . .

GAMES PLAYED: Now the most tenured Dolphin on the team's current roster, Tim enters his 11th season having played in 155 regular season games, including 153 starting assignments . . . His 155 games played are 12th most all-time in club history, and second-most among defensive linemen, trailing only Vern Den Herder, who appeared in 159 contests from 1971-81.

2002 – Was released by the Dolphins on February 28, 2002 before being re-signed to a three-year contract plus two option years later that same day . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery prior to the season, on April 29, 2002 for loose body removal and a joint debridement in his left knee . . . The surgery was performed by Dr. John Uribe at HealthSouth Doctors' Hospital in Coral Gables . . . Started all 16 games at left defensive tackle, the first time since 1998 that he opened all 16 contests . . . Despite not having a sack, had one of the most effective seasons of his career . . . Tallied 46 tackles (27 solo) and was voted to the second Pro Bowl of his career, as a reserve . . . Teamed with Larry Chester in the middle of the defensive line as the Dolphins tied for fifth in the NFL against the run, having allowed an average of just 97.1 yards per contest and a 3.8-yard average per carry . . . Had a season-high six tackles at Minnesota (12/21) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was one of seven Dolphins named to the 2003 AFC Pro Bowl team, the most in the AFC and second in the NFL (Philadelphia, 10) . . . It was his second time being named to the Pro Bowl team, along with his selection in 1998 . . . It was his first time playing the game as he missed the contest following the '98 season with a torn right biceps tendon . . . Along with Jason Taylor, who also was named to his second Pro Bowl team, Bowens and Taylor became the third and fourth Dolphin defensive linemen in club history to record multiple Pro Bowl appearances, joining Bob Baumhower (5 - 1979, 1981-84) and Bill Stanfill (4 - 1971-74).

2001 – Started all 15 games in which he played at left defensive tackle . . . Was inactive for one game . . . Tied for seventh on the team with 60 total tackles (36 solo), a figure which ranked second among the team's linemen . . . Added three sacks, two forced fumbles and two passes defensed . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery to his right knee on August 16, 2001 to remove loose bodies and torn cartilage . . . That surgery was performed by Dr. John Uribe at HealthSouth Doctors' Hospital . . . Also underwent surgery on September 14, 2001 to remove loose articular cartilage and to resect a medial plica from his left knee . . . The surgery was performed by Dr. John Zvijac at HealthSouth Doctors' Hospital . . . Missed contest vs. Oakland (9/23) because of the surgery . . . Posted seven tackles, including a half-sack, in win at Seattle (10/28) . . . Recorded a season-high eight stops in victory at Buffalo (11/25) . . . Matched that total with eight tackles at San Francisco (12/16) . . . Registered four tackles in season-ending win vs. Buffalo (1/6/02) and was awarded a defensive game ball . . . Started First-Round Playoff game vs. Baltimore (1/13/02) . . . Collected five tackles (three solo).

2000 – Started all 15 regular season games in which he played at left defensive tackle . . . Finished the year tenth on the team with 53 total tackles (34 solo) . . . Also registered 2.5 sacks, an interception and a career-high five passes defensed . . . Sack total tied for third on the club . . . Only game he missed on the year was at Detroit (11/5) when he was inactive with plantar fasciitis in his right foot . . . That snapped a string of 104 consecutive contests in which Bowens had played, a streak which now is tied for the sixth-longest in club history . . . Opened the season with back-to-back five-tackle efforts, vs. Seattle (9/3) and at Minnesota (9/10) . . . One of his tackles in the Vikings game was a sack of quarterback Daunte Culpepper . . . Came up with the first interception of his career in that contest when he picked off a Culpepper pass . . . Also had five stops at Cincinnati (10/1) when he recorded 1.5 sacks, tied for the second-highest total of his career . . . Recorded a season-high six stops vs. Tampa Bay (12/10) . . . Matched that total in season finale at New England (12/24) . . . Started both playoff games following the 2000 season at left defensive tackle . . . Registered seven tackles (all solo), including six in Divisional game at Oakland (1/6/01) . . .

CONSECUTIVE GAMES PLAYED: From his rookie season through the eighth game of 2000, Bowens played in all 104 league games . . . That streak, which ended on November 5, 2000 at Detroit, is tied for the sixth-longest in franchise history . . . He missed the Lions game with plantar fasciitis in his right foot . . .

PRO CAREER

2003 – Started all 16 games in which he played, becoming the first Dolphins wide receiver to do this since Oronde Gadsden in 2000 . . . Finished the season with 64 catches for 963 yards and 11 touchdowns . . . Led the team in all three categories . . . Reception total tied for 14th in the AFC while his yardage figure ranked seventh . . . Tied for fifth in the conference in overall touchdowns and was first in the AFC and third in the NFL in receiving scores . . . Accounted for the most catches by a Dolphin since 1999 when Tony Martin had 67 receptions . . . His yardage total was the most by a Dolphin since Martin had 1,037 yards in '99 and his 11 touchdowns were the most since Mark Clayton hauled in 12 receiving scores in 1991 . . . Of his 64 receptions, eight went for 25 yards or longer, the most on the team . . . Over the course of the season, led the team in receptions nine times and in receiving yards on nine occasions . . . His average per reception of 15.0 tied for the ninth-highest figure among the top 50 receiving yardage leaders in the AFC . . . Also rushed for 30 yards on four attempts on the year . . .

FINS FACT

In addition to being a standout receiver in college, Chris also performed on the Wisconsin basketball team his freshman year (1997-98) where he appeared in seven games upon the conclusion of his first collegiate football season.

100-YARD GAMES: Accounted for two 100-yard receiving games in 2003, including 118 yards on seven receptions in the opener vs. Houston (9/7) and 153 yards on nine catches in the finale vs. N.Y. Jets (12/28) . . . The Dolphins were 1-1 in those games . . . Has now had seven 100-yard receiving games in his career, and the Dolphins are 4-3 in those games . . .

RECEIVING TOUCHDOWNS: Of Chambers' 64 receptions on the year, 11 went for touchdowns . . . This total led the AFC and was third in the NFL, trailing only Minnesota's Randy Moss (17) and St. Louis' Tory Holt (12) . . . That total marked the most by a Dolphin since Mark Clayton hauled in 12 receiving scores in 1991 and it was the fifth-highest single-season total in franchise history . . . In addition, Chambers' one touchdown catch for every 5.8 receptions was the highest of the top 50 receivers in the AFC and second among the top 50 receivers in both conferences:

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. HOUSTON (SEPT. 7): Led the Dolphins in receptions and receiving yards with seven catches for 118 yards and two touchdowns . . . Also had one rush for 12 yards . . . His touchdowns came on receptions of 57 and 21 yards, both from Jay Fiedler . . . His 57-yard TD catch is the third longest reception of his career and his seven catches tied his single-game career best, along with his seven catch games on December 22, 2001 at New England and on December 15, 2002 vs. Oakland . . . It marked the sixth 100-yard receiving game of his career . . . His two touchdown receptions tied for his single game career high, which he had accomplished three times previously, and now is tied for second . . .

VS. BUFFALO (SEPT. 21): Led the team in receptions with five catches for 51 yards and one touchdown, which came on a 12-yard TD pass from Jay Fiedler . . . It was his third touchdown catch of the season, which equaled his total for all of 2002 . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 19): Had three catches for 30 yards and one touchdown, which came on a six-yard pass from Jay Fiedler, marking his first of three straight games with a touchdown reception . . .

AT SAN DIEGO (OCT. 27): In Monday night game against the Chargers in Tempe, Ariz., led the Dolphins in reception yardage with 79 yards on four catches, including one touchdown, which came on a five-yard pass from Brian Griese, marking Griese's first ever pass attempt as a Dolphin . . . Chambers had a 49-yard reception in that contest, at the time the third longest reception of his career . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 2): Registered three catches for 56 yards and one touchdown, which came on a 28-yard TD pass from Brian Griese . . . It was the third straight game in which he had a touchdown reception, tied for the longest such streak of his career . . . He also had a TD reception in games 10-12 of 2001, during which time he totaled five scoring catches . . .

AT DALLAS (NOV. 27): In Thanksgiving Day game against Cowboys, led the Dolphins in both receptions and reception yardage with five catches for 96 yards and three touchdowns . . . His three TD receptions came on scoring passes of 39, 6 and 35 yards from Jay Fiedler . . . It was his second game of the season with two or more touchdown catches and the fifth of his career with multiple touchdown catches . . . His three touchdown catches represented a personal single-game career high . . . It also is tied for the third-highest single-game touchdown reception total in Dolphin history, and was the most since Lamar Thomas had three scores on December 21, 1998 against Denver . . . For his performance in the game, Chambers, along with QB Jay Fiedler, shared the Phil Simms Ironman of the Game Award . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (DEC. 28): In season finale, led the Dolphins in receptions and reception yardage with career-high figures of nine catches for 153 yards and one touchdown, which occurred on a 20-yard scoring pass from Jay Fiedler . . . His nine catches surpassed his former high of seven, which he had accomplished three times previously . . . His 153 yards in receptions surpassed his previous best in that category of 138 yards, which he achieved on December 15, 2002 vs. Oakland . . . His yardage total was the most by a Dolphin since October 10, 1999 when Tony Martin had 166 yards at Indianapolis.

2002 – Started all 15 games in which he played . . . Was inactive for one game . . . Led team with 52 receptions for 734 yards . . . Also scored three touchdowns . . . Totaled 78 rushing yards on six carries, including a long run of 45 yards . . . Had seven catches of 25 yards or longer, second-most on the team, trailing only James McKnight (9) . . . Led team in receptions five times and in receiving yards on five occasions as well . . . Was inactive for game vs. Buffalo (10/20) while recovering from a concussion sustained the previous week at Denver (10/13) . . . Rushing total on the year was the fourth-highest single-season total by a Dolphins wide receiver, trailing only the 115 yards by Paul Warfield in 1971 (nine atts.), the 89 yards by Nat Moore in 1977 (14 atts.) and the 87 yards by Freddie Solomon in 1975 (four atts.) . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. DETROIT (SEPT. 8): Caught three passes for 36 yards, including a nine-yard TD reception from Jay Fiedler in season-opening 49-21 win vs. Detroit . . .

AT KANSAS CITY (SEPT. 29): Hauled in six passes for 102 yards, the fourth 100-yard receiving game of his career . . . Had a long catch of 38 yards, his third-longest reception of the season . . . Six catches marked the second-most receptions of his career at the time . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 6): Had six receptions for 62 yards, including a seven-yard scoring catch from Jay Fiedler which gave the Dolphins a 14-0 lead in their 26-13 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Patriots . . .

VS. OAKLAND (DEC. 15): Turned in his second 100-yard receiving game of the season and the fifth of his career with seven catches for 138 yards, including a long catch of 40 yards, his second-longest reception of the season . . . Reception total tied a career-high at the time that he first set on December 22, 2001 at New England, while his yardage total represented a career-best at the time, surpassing his previous high of 124 yards achieved in that same Patriots game from 2001 . . . Also had a pair of catches of 29 yards apiece . . . Of his yardage total on the day, 117 came in the first half as he became the first Dolphin to have 100 yards receiving in a half since Chambers had 108 yards in the second half at New England on December 22, 2001 . . .

AT MINNESOTA (DEC. 21): Had two receptions for 58 yards, including a season-long 59-yard TD catch from Jay Fiedler on the game's fifth play from scrimmage . . . It was the second-longest pass play by the Dolphins in 2002 and the second-longest catch in Chambers' career . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (DEC. 29): Did not catch a pass, but rushed three times for 59 yards, including a long run of 45 yards . . . 59 yards rushing tied for the highest single-game rushing total by a wide receiver in team history, along with the 59 yards (1 att.) by Freddie Solomon on December 5, 1976 against Buffalo . . . Chambers' 45-yard run is the third-longest ever by a Dolphins wide receiver, trailing only the 59-yard TD run by Solomon in that Bills game and a 48-yard run by Frank Jackson on November 26, 1967 against Buffalo.

2001 – Turned in one of the most productive seasons of any rookie wide receiver in club history . . . . Started seven of the 16 games in which he played . . . Finished with 48 receptions for 883 yards and seven touchdowns . . . Yardage and touchdown totals both led the team, as did his 18.4-yard average per reception . . . Reception figure ranked third . . . Was 18th in the AFC in receiving yards, while his average per catch was first among the top 20 receivers in both the AFC and NFC . . . Led the team in receptions once and in receiving yardage on three occasions . . . Topped the 100-yard receiving mark three times . . . Also returned 36 kickoffs for a 22.5-yard average with a long of 47 . . . Second-round draft choice (52nd overall) by the Dolphins in 2001, with a choice obtained from Indianapolis though Dallas in a draft-day trade-up . . .

AMONG ROOKIE RECEIVERS: In 2001, Chambers established the Dolphins' rookie single-season record for most receiving yards, snapping the previous mark of 874 set by RB Terry Kirby in 1993 . . . He also established the rookie mark for receiving touchdowns, as he broke the record first set by Andre Brown, who had five scores in 1989 . . . His reception total tied for the third-most ever by a Dolphins rookie in a season, and was second among wide receivers . . .

100-YARD RECEIVING GAMES: Chambers had three 100-yard receiving games on the year, tied with Jack Clancy (1967) for the most ever by a Dolphins rookie . . . His first came on November 11 at Indianapolis when he had three catches for 113 yards and two touchdowns, representing the first 100-yard receiving game by a Dolphins rookie since December 19, 1993, when running back Terry Kirby had nine catches for 148 yards and a TD against Buffalo . . . It was the first by a rookie wide receiver since Andre Brown amassed 106 yards and a TD on five receptions on October 29, 1989 at Buffalo . . . He also had five catches for 101 yards and two touchdowns on November 25 at Buffalo, and seven catches for 124 yards on December 22 at New England . . .

ROOKIE OF THE MONTH: Chambers was named the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month for November . . . In four games that month, caught 14 passes for 293 yards and four touchdowns . . . Amassed more than 100 yards receiving in two of those four games . . . Became the third Dolphins rookie to win such an honor, joining LB Zach Thomas (October, 1996) and T Todd Wade (October, 2000) . . .

POSTSEASON HONORS: Was a consensus all-rookie selection . . . Was named the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by both Football News and Football Digest . . . In a vote of South Florida media and fans, was named the Dolphins Newcomer of the Year for 2001, the first rookie to earn this honor since Jason Taylor in 1997 . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – AT TENNESSEE (SEPT. 9): Made NFL debut in a starting role as the Dolphins opened with three wide receivers . . . Caught two passes for 52 yards . . . First NFL reception was a 36-yard grab from Jay Fiedler in the first quarter . . . He became just the fourth rookie wide receiver to start on opening day, joining John Roderick (1966), Karl Noonan (1966) and Otto Stowe (1971) . . .

AT ST. LOUIS (SEPT. 30): Had four catches for 59 yards with a long of 33 . . . Also fielded kickoffs for the first time in his career, as he returned two for a 34.5-yard average with a long of 47 . . .

AT SEATTLE (OCT. 28): Recorded three receptions for 76 yards, including a long reception of 43 . . . Marked his fourth-highest yardage total of the season . . . Was awarded an offensive game ball . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 11): Had three receptions for 113 yards and two touchdowns, marking the first 100-yard receiving game of his career . . . Was awarded an offensive game ball . . . It was the eighth-highest single-game yardage total by a Dolphins rookie . . . 37.7-yard average per reception in that game is the highest ever by a Dolphins rookie in a game (min. 3 receptions) . . . It was the first 100-yard receiving game by a Dolphins rookie since RB Terry Kirby had nine catches for 148 yards and a TD on December 19, 1993 against Buffalo . . . It was the first by a Dolphins rookie wide receiver since October 29, 1989 when Andre Brown had five catches for 106 yards and a TD at Buffalo . . . Had scoring catches of 74 and 29 yards . . . 74-yarder occurred with 3:04 to play in the first half and it marked the longest by a Dolphins rookie since FB Stanley Pritchett hauled in a 74-yard scoring catch from Dan Marino on September 15, 1996 against the N.Y. Jets . . . The 74-yard TD catches are tied for second for the longest receptions by a Dolphins rookie, trailing only the 80-yarder by TE Ferrell Edmunds from Marino on November 27, 1988 at the N.Y. Jets, while Chambers' is the longest by a rookie wide receiver . . . His 29-yarder came with 7:44 to play in the contest and provided the winning points in Miami's 27-24 victory . . . He became just the second Dolphins rookie ever to have two TD catches in a game, joining Mel Baker, who had scoring catches of 37 and 46 yards from Earl Morrall on December 15, 1974 against New England . . . Along with Travis Minor's 56-yard TD run, it marked the first time that a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown had been scored by Dolphins rookies in the same game since September 13, 1999 at Denver, when J.J. Johnson had a one-yard TD run and Rob Konrad had a 12-yard TD reception from Dan Marino . . . It was the first time that a rookie running back and wide receiver had touchdowns in the same game since October 24, 1993 against Indianapolis, when WR O.J. McDuffie had a 71-yard punt return for a TD and RB Terry Kirby had a 44-yard scoring reception from Scott Mitchell and a 14-yard TD run . . . It was the first time that a rookie wide receiver had a TD reception and a rookie running back had a TD run in the same game since November 19, 1989 at Dallas, when RB Sammie Smith had a one-yard scoring run and WR Andre Brown had a 48-yard TD catch from Marino . . .

AT BUFFALO (NOV. 25): Had five catches for 101 yards, and spearheaded a fourth-quarter comeback in which the Dolphins responded from an 11-point deficit with a pair of touchdown catches in the final period . . . First scoring catch was from 22 yards out and came with 4:07 to play in the game and closed the Bills' lead to three points at 27-24 . . . Hauled in a 32-yard scoring strike with 48 seconds remaining, lifting the Dolphins to the 34-27 victory . . . It represented his second 100-yard receiving game of the year and was the second time that he accounted for a pair of touchdowns . . . Along with Oronde Gadsden's 116 receiving yards, it was the first time that two Dolphins had 100 yards receiving in the same game since December 5, 1999 against Indianapolis when Gadsden (103 yards) and Tony Martin (109 yards) accomplished the feat . . . It was only the third time that a Dolphins rookie was involved in a dual 100-yard receiving game, as he joined TE Ferrell Edmunds (117 yards along with 116 by Mark Clayton on 11/27/88 at N.Y. Jets) and WR Andre Brown (105 yards along with 122 by Clayton on 10/29/89 at Buffalo) . . .

VS. DENVER (DEC. 2): Caught three passes for 35 yards, including an 11-yard TD catch from Jay Fiedler, his fifth TD reception of the year, tying him with Andre Brown (1989) for the Dolphins rookie record for most touchdown catches . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (DEC. 10): In Monday night game, hauled in three passes for 36 yards, two of which went for touchdowns, marking his third multiple-touchdown game of the year . . . First TD catch was a two-yarder, 4:19 into the second quarter as he established the club's single-season record for touchdown catches by a rookie . . . Also caught a 32-yard scoring pass in the fourth quarter . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (DEC. 22): Led the Dolphins with seven receptions for 124 yards, his third 100-yard receiving game of the year . . . Seven catches are tied for the seventh-highest single-game total by a Dolphins rookie, while his yardage figure is the third-highest total:

DOLPHINS POST THREE PLAYOFF SHUTOUTS

The Miami Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, in an AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Dolphins became just the fifth AFC team since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues to record a shutout in the playoffs. Amazingly, Miami has recorded three of the seven AFC playoff shutouts by having also earned a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the New York Jets (41-0 over the Indianapolis Colts on January 4, 2003), Oakland Raiders (27-0 over the Miami Dolphins on January 6, 2001), the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970).

2003 GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. HOUSTON (SEPT. 7): In season-opener, completed 17 of 32 passes for 227 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions . . . Touchdown passes came on scoring strikes of 57 and 21 yards to Chris Chambers and a 35-yard TD pass to Ricky Williams . . . The three touchdown passes matched his single-game career-high, which he had accomplished four times previously . . . In addition, his second TD pass of the game, a 21-yard touchdown toss to Chambers, was his 50th TD pass as a Dolphin . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (SEPT. 14): Connected on 14 of 19 passes for 190 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions . . . His touchdown came on an eight-yard TD pass to Randy McMichael . . . Completion percentage of 73.7 was his second-best mark of the season . . . Also had five carries for 35 yards and one touchdown, which came on a nine-yard TD run . . . It was his ninth career rushing touchdown as a Dolphin, tying him for first place among quarterbacks in team history for career rushing touchdowns, along with Dan Marino and David Woodley . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 19): Hit on 20 of 35 passes for 230 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions . . . His touchdown came on a six-yard scoring pass to Chris Chambers . . . Finished the game, but suffered a left knee sprain and was designated as the third quarterback for each of the next four games . . .

VS. WASHINGTON (NOV. 23): After missing the previous four games with a knee injury, entered the game late in the third quarter with the Dolphins trailing 23-10 . . . Proceeded to go 5-10 for 59 yards with no touchdowns or interceptions to lead Miami to a 24-23 comeback victory . . . His first attempt of the game was a 31-yard completion to Chris Chambers . . . In fact, completed each of his first three passes of the game, totaling 42 yards . . . It was his first fourth-quarter comeback win of the year and the eighth in his career (ninth, including playoffs) . . . In the fourth quarter he was 4-9 for 28 yards without a touchdown or interception . . .

AT DALLAS (NOV. 27): In Thanksgiving Day game, was 16-20 for 239 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions for a quarterback rating of 156.0 . . . Completion percentage of 80.0 represented a season-high . . . All three of his touchdown passes were to Chris Chambers, covering 39, 6, and 35 yards . . . His three touchdown passes tied his single game career-high, which he accomplished five times previously . . . He also rushed for minus-three yards on four carries including one touchdown, which came on a one-yard run . . . It was the tenth rushing touchdown of his Dolphins career and set a new club record for most career rushing touchdowns by a Dolphins quarterback, breaking the former club mark of nine rushing touchdowns, which was first set by David Woodley and then tied by Dan Marino . . . For his efforts, he and Chambers shared the Phil Simms Ironman of the Game Award . . . In addition, Fiedler was named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the week of November 27, 30, and December 1, the first such honor of his career . . . He was the first Dolphins quarterback to win the award since Dan Marino did it in week five of 1999 . . . Fiedler also is the third quarterback in Dolphin history to earn that honor, joining Marino and Scott Mitchell . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (DEC. 28): In season finale, was 21-29 for 328 yards with one touchdown and one interception . . . His touchdown came on a 20-yard TD pass to Chris Chambers . . . His 328 yards passing was his single game career high, surpassing his previous best of 320 yards, which he had on December 22, 2001 at New England . . . It was his first 300-yard game of the season, his third as a Dolphin, and the fourth of his career . . . In the fourth quarter, brought the Dolphins back from a 21-20 deficit to a 23-21 win, as he completed five of seven passes for 86 yards with no touchdowns and one interception . . . It was his second fourth-quarter comeback win of the year and the ninth of his career (tenth, including playoffs).

2002 – Was re-signed to a five-year contract through 2006 on February 13, 2002 . . . Along with C Tim Ruddy, was voted by his teammates as a co-captain on offense for the second straight year . . . Played in 11 games, starting ten of them . . . Completed 179 of 292 passes (61.3%) for 2,024 yards with 14 touchdowns and nine interceptions . . . Compiled a passer rating of 85.2, the highest passer rating by a Dolphins quarterback since Dan Marino had a passer rating of 87.8 in 1996 . . . His figure also tied for ninth in the AFC . . . Had at least one touchdown pass in nine of ten starts . . . Also rushed for 99 yards and three touchdowns on 28 attempts . . . Was inactive for five contests while recovering from a fractured right thumb sustained at Denver (10/13) . . . Underwent surgery on October 14, 2002 to stabilize the fracture . . . The surgery was performed by Dolphins Chief Team Physician Dr. George Caldwell at Holy Cross Hospital in Ft. Lauderdale . . . Began training camp on the Active/PUP list before being activated on July 31 . . . Underwent a successful arthroscopy on July 13 on his left hip to resect a labral tear that was present . . . Dr. Marc Philippon, a UPMC hip specialist, performed the surgery at Holy Cross Hospital in Ft. Lauderdale . . .

AMONG FASTEST TO 25 WINS: When Fiedler reached 25 wins in his 35th career start, a Miami 30-3 victory over the Jets on September 22 at Pro Player Stadium, he tied for the fifth fastest quarterback (along with Stan Humphries) to reach 25 wins since 1980, trailing only Dan Marino (30 starts), Kurt Warner (31), Jay Schroeder (32), and Steve Bono (34):

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. DETROIT (SEPT. 8): Completed 18 of 27 passes for 207 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions in season-opening 49-21 win over the Lions, the Dolphins' 11th straight victory on opening day . . . Three scores tied a personal high that he achieved on three previous occasions, most recently on December 10, 2001 against Indianapolis . . . Compiled a season-best passer rating of 126.6 . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (SEPT. 15): Hit on 13 of 18 passes for 187 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. . . Put together a passer rating of 119.4, his second-best figure of the year . . . Completion percentage of 72.2 was a season-high and is tied for the third-best figure of his career at the time . . . Also rushed for 30 yards on seven carries including a touchdown, which came on a one-yard run . . . In that contest he moved past David Woodley into third place in Dolphins history for most passing yardage . . . Was awarded an offensive game ball . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (SEPT. 22): Was 16 of 30 for 185 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions . . . His first completion of the game, a minus-one-pass to Chris Chambers, was Fiedler's 509th completion as a Dolphin, moving him past David Woodley into sole possession of third place on the Dolphins' all-time completion list . . . In addition, his 10-yard TD pass to Randy McMichael was his 40th touchdown pass as a Dolphin, moving him past Don Strock into third place on the team's all-time chart . . .

AT KANSAS CITY (SEPT. 29): Connected on 29 of 45 passes for 310 yards with one touchdown and four interceptions . . . The 45 attempts tied a career-high, equaling the mark that he first set on December 24, 2000 at New England . . . The 29 completions are the second-highest total of his career . . . The 310 yards represented a season-high as well, was the third-highest yardage total of his career at the time (now fourth) and the third 300-yard passing game of his career . . . Four interceptions also marked his most on the year and tied for the highest total of his career, a figure he first set on December 10, 2000 against Tampa Bay . . . Opened the game by completing his first nine passes before an incompletion, and coupled with his four completions in his final four attempts the previous week vs. the N.Y. Jets, he completed 13 passes in a row . . . Those 13 straight completions are tied for the third highest total in Dolphins history (along with 13 straight completions by Earl Morrall on December 1, 1975 vs. New England and by Dan Marino on November 10, 1996 vs. Indianapolis), surpassed only by the 14 straight completions by Marino on November 17, 1996 at Houston through November 25, 1996 vs. Pittsburgh, and Marino's club record of 15 straight completions, on November 8, 1992 at Indianapolis through November 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo . . . Also rushed for 15 yards on three carries on the afternoon, including a one-yard TD run, his seventh career rushing touchdown, tying him for third (along with Bob Griese) for most touchdown runs by a quarterback in Dolphins history . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 6): Completed 17 of 27 passes for 190 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions . . . Amassed a passer rating of 108.6 . . . Rushed for 18 yards on three attempts, including an eight-yard TD run to open the scoring in the Dolphins' 26-13 victory . . . The score was the eighth rushing touchdown of his career, moving him into sole possession of third on the Dolphins' all-time list among quarterbacks . . . Was awarded a game ball on offense . . .

AT DENVER (OCT. 13): Connected on 19 of 29 passes (65.5%) for 210 yards with no touchdowns and one interception . . . Sustained a fractured right thumb in the fourth quarter, but finished the game . . . Was 6-9 passing for 76 yards in the fourth quarter to lead the Dolphins back from a 22-21 deficit to a 24-22 win on an Olindo Mare 53-yard field goal with six seconds to play . . . Hit consecutive completions of 17 yards to Randy McMichael and 22 yards to Dedric Ward to move Miami from its own 26 to the Broncos' 35 to put the Dolphins in field goal range . . . It was Fiedler's eighth career fourth-quarter comeback win (including a home playoff game) and his fifth on the road . . . Was awarded an offensive game ball . . .

VS. BUFFALO (OCT. 20): Was inactive for the first of five straight games with a fractured right thumb sustained the previous week at Denver . . .

AT BUFFALO (DEC. 1): Returned to action as he replaced an injured Ray Lucas in the third quarter . . . Hit on five of nine passes for 15 yards with no touchdowns and an interception in a second half that was played through a snowstorm . . .

VS. CHICAGO (DEC. 9): Made first start since injury and led the Dolphins to a 27-9 Monday night win over the Bears . . . Connected on 15 of 29 passes for 196 yards with one touchdown and one interception . . .

VS. OAKLAND (DEC. 15): Completed 21 of 32 for 237 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in a 23-17 win over the eventual AFC champions . . . Touchdown came on a five-yard pass to Cris Carter, the 130th touchdown of Carter's career during the regular season, as Fiedler became the 13th different quarterback to throw a touchdown to Carter . . . Was awarded a game ball on offense . . .

AT MINNESOTA (DEC. 21): Hit on 15 of 21 passes for 177 yards with two touchdowns and an interception . . . Scoring pass came on a 59-yard strike to Chris Chambers, his longest completion of the season . . . Completion percentage of 71.4% was his second-best mark of the season . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (DEC. 29): Completed 11 of 25 for 110 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions . . . Touchdown came on a 32-yard pass to James McKnight, the 50th touchdown pass of his NFL career . . . It marked the fifth time in 2002 that Fiedler did not throw an interception, and the first time that the Dolphins had lost such a game.

2001 – Along with C Tim Ruddy, was voted by his teammates as a co-captain on offense . . . Started all 16 regular season games . . . Completed 273 of 450 passes for 3,290 yards with 20 touchdowns and 19 interceptions, for a passer rating of 80.3, which ranked seventh in the AFC . . . Established personal single-season career highs for passing yards, attempts, completions and touchdown passes . . . Became just the second Dolphins quarterback (Dan Marino) to throw for 3,000 yards in a season, and the third signal caller in team history to throw 20 or more touchdowns (Dan Marino, Bob Griese) . . . His rating was the highest by a Dolphins quarterback since 1997 when Dan Marino put together a rating of 80.7 . . . Also finished second on the team with 321 yards rushing and four touchdowns on 73 attempts . . . Led the team in rushing twice during the course of the year . . . It marked the first time since 1998, and just the third time over the last seven seasons (1995-01) that a Dolphins quarterback started every regular season game . . . Led the Dolphins to five fourth-quarter comeback wins over the course of the year . . .

3,000 YARDS PASSING: Fiedler threw for 3,290 yards in 2001, as he became just the second quarterback in club history to reach the 3,000-yard passing plateau, and the first since 1998 . . . He attained the 3,000-yard mark with a nine-yard completion to RB Travis Minor in the second quarter of a game vs. Atlanta (12/30) . . . It marked the 14th time that a Dolphins quarterback threw for 3,000 yards, as Dan Marino accomplished the feat on each of the first 13 occasions . . . Fiedler's figure ranks 13th among single-season totals in team annals . . .

RUSHING YARDS: In 2001, Fiedler totaled 321 yards on 73 carries, as he surpassed David Woodley (272 in 1981) for the highest single-season total ever by a Dolphins quarterback . . . His four rushing touchdowns in 2001 tied him with Woodley (1981) for the highest total ever by a Dolphins quarterback in a season . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – AT TENNESSEE (SEPT. 9): Led Dolphins to their tenth straight opening day win with a 31-23 victory . . . Completed 12 of 20 passes for 225 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions . . . It was his fifth-highest yardage total of the season, and his passer rating of 132.3 in that game was his best of 2001 . . . Was awarded an offensive game ball for his performance . . .

VS. OAKLAND (SEPT. 23): Connected on 16 of 34 passes for 217 yards with no touchdowns and two interceptions, but led the Dolphins to an 18-15 come-from-behind victory . . . Also rushed for 34 yards and two touchdowns on eight attempts . . . His first interception of the game came when S Derrick Gibson picked off a pass on the first series of the third quarter . . . That snapped a string of 77 straight passes that Fiedler had thrown during the regular season without being intercepted . . . Prior to that pass, the last time he was intercepted was by CB Jeff Burris against Indianapolis on December 17, 2000 at Pro Player Stadium . . . His second interception was returned 26 yards for a touchdown by S Anthony Dorsett, which gave the Raiders a 15-10 lead with 12:41 to play in the game . . . Trailing by that score, the Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 1:41 remaining and no timeouts . . . Fiedler led the Dolphins on an 80-yard scoring march which resulted in his two-yard TD run with five seconds to play . . . On the game-winning drive, Fiedler completed five of seven passes for 70 yards, including a nine-yard completion to Dedric Ward on fourth-and-three from the Raiders' 18 . . . In addition, Fiedler also scored on a two-yard run with 16 seconds to play in the first half, as he became just the third quarterback in Dolphins history to rush for two touchdowns in the same game, joining David Woodley (at Rams, 11/9/80) and Kyle Mackey (at N.Y. Jets, 10/18/87) . . .

AT SEATTLE (OCT. 28): Was 15 of 21 for 213 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions . . . Touchdown came on a 39-yard pass to James McKnight with 6:16 to play, giving the Dolphins a 24-20 lead in a game they would hold on to win by that same score . . . Completion percentage of 71.4 was a season-high . . . Completed all four of his pass attempts, totaling 73 yards, including the touchdown, in the fourth quarter . . . Was six of seven for 128 yards with one TD in the second half . . . It marked his second fourth-quarter comeback win of the season, the third of his career during the regular season and fourth overall, including playoffs . . . Also led the team in rushing that day with a season-high 41 yards on eight carries . . . With the Dolphins facing a third-and-13 from their own 17 with 1:44 to play, had a key 16-yard run which produced a first down and allowed the Dolphins to run out the clock . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 11): Hit on 17 of 29 passes for 259 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions . . . Both TD passes went to rookie WR Chris Chambers, from 74 and 29 yards out . . . It marked the fifth multiple touchdown game of his career (sixth including playoffs) . . . The 74-yard completion was the longest of his career and was the longest by a Dolphin since Dan Marino hit FB Stanley Pritchett for a 74-yard scoring pass on September 15, 1996 against the N.Y. Jets at Pro Player Stadium . . . His second TD strike was a 29-yarder to Chambers with 7:44 to play in the game, and gave the Dolphins a 27-24 lead as they went on to win by that same score . . . It marked the third fourth-quarter comeback win that Fiedler had led in 2001, the fourth of his career during the regular season, and fifth overall, including playoffs . . .

AT BUFFALO (NOV. 25): Completed 18 of 31 passes for 260 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions . . . Also rushed for 28 yards on four carries . . . Three touchdown passes tied a career-high that he first set on December 3, 2000, also at Buffalo . . . It marked the sixth multiple touchdown game of his career (seventh including playoffs) . . . All three occurred in the fourth quarter as the Dolphins entered the period trailing 21-10 . . . First one came four seconds into the quarter on an eight-yard pass to TE Jed Weaver, closing the Bills' lead to 21-17 . . . After Buffalo took a 27-17 lead at the 8:16 mark, Fiedler came back to hit Chris Chambers for a 22-yard scoring strike with 4:07 to play, making it a 27-24 game . . . After the Dolphins tied the game on an Olindo Mare 39-yard field goal with 1:11 remaining, the Dolphins recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff at the Bills' 42, and three plays later, Fiedler found Chambers in the end zone for a 32-yard TD pass . . . Overall in the fourth quarter, Fiedler completed 8 of 12 passes for 123 yards and three touchdowns . . . It marked the fourth fourth-quarter comeback win that Fiedler had led in 2001, the fifth of his career during the regular season, and sixth overall, including playoffs . . .

VS. DENVER (DEC. 2): Led the Dolphins to a 21-10 come-from-behind victory by completing 18 of 28 passes for 176 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions . . . Lone TD of the game came on an 11-yard pass to Chris Chambers, 1:15 into the fourth quarter, closing the Broncos' lead to 10-7 . . . It marked the fifth fourth-quarter comeback win that Fiedler had led in 2001, the sixth of his career during the regular season, and seventh overall, including playoffs . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (DEC. 10): Was 18 of 26 for 191 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions in Miami's 41-6 Monday night win . . . The win marked his 20th win as a starter in 28 total starts, as he became the sixth fastest quarterback to reach 20 wins as a starter since 1980 . . . The three touchdown passes tied a career-high that he had set on two previous occasions, including once in 2001 (at Buffalo, 11/25) . . . It marked the seventh multiple touchdown game of his career (eighth including playoffs) . . . Tossed a pair of scoring strikes to rookie WR Chris Chambers for the third time in 2001 and the second time against the Colts . . . Also had a nine-yard touchdown run in the game, his third scoring run of the year, tying him with David Woodley (1980) for the second-highest single-season rushing touchdown total by a Dolphins quarterback . . . In addition, QB Ray Lucas had a two-yard TD run in the Colts game, marking the first time in Dolphins history that two quarterbacks had a rushing touchdown in the same game . . .

AT SAN FRANCISCO (DEC. 16): Completed 16 of 28 passes for 149 yards with no touchdowns and three interceptions in the Dolphins' 21-0 loss . . . Led team in rushing with 33 yards on four carries, including a long run of 21 yards, his second-longest of the season . . . When Zack Bronson intercepted a Fiedler pass attempt on the Dolphins' first offensive series of the game, it snapped a string of 95 straight pass attempts that he had not thrown an interception, a span which included three full games . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (DEC. 22): Hit on 21 of 37 attempts for 320 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions . . . Yardage total was the highest of his career at the time (now second), surpassing his previous best of 317 yards, which he accounted for as a member of the Jacksonville Jaguars on January 2, 2000 against Cincinnati . . . It also marked the second 300-yard passing game of his career . . . With the Dolphins, it was the 11th time that he had attempted a pass in a game and not been intercepted . . . Of those 11 occasions, it was the first time that the Dolphins had lost . . .

VS. ATLANTA (DEC. 30): Was 16 of 29 for 191 yards with two touchdowns and one interception . . . Nine-yard completion to Travis Minor in the second quarter put him over the 3,000-yard passing mark for the season, just the second Dolphin (Dan Marino) to achieve that feat . . .

VS. BUFFALO (JAN.6): Completed nine of 16 passes for 110 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions . . . His TD pass came on a 16-yard strike to James McKnight and was Fiedler's 20th of the season, as he joined Dan Marino (13 times) and Bob Griese (twice) as the only quarterbacks in Dolphins history to throw 20 or more TD passes in a season . . . With the Dolphins, it was the 12th time that he had attempted a pass in a game and not been intercepted, with the team improving its record to 11-1 in such contests . . . Also rushed for 24 yards and one touchdown on seven carries, including an 18-yard TD run, his fourth rushing touchdown of the season, tying him with David Woodley (1981) for the most rushing touchdowns by a Dolphins quarterback in a season . . .

2000 – Signed a three-year contract with the Dolphins as an Unrestricted Free Agent from Jacksonville on February 17, 2000 . . . Started all 15 games in which he played . . . Finished the year by completing 204 of 357 passes for 2,402 yards with 14 touchdowns and 14 interceptions . . . Also was second on the squad in rushing with 267 yards and one touchdown on 54 attempts . . . His yardage total was the second-highest figure ever for a Dolphins quarterback in a season at the time (now third) . . . Was inactive for one game in 2000, on November 26 at Indianapolis due to a pinched nerve in his neck sustained the previous week against the N.Y. Jets (11/19) . . . Went 10-5 as a starter in the 2000 regular season . . . Missed each of the first three preseason games due to a hip injury . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair a labral tear in his right hip on August 3, 2000 . . . The surgery was performed by Dr. Marc Philippon at Holy Cross Hospital in Ft. Lauderdale . . . Also underwent surgery following the season, on January 12, 2001, to repair an extensive tear of his left rotator cuff . . . The surgery was performed at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York by Dr. Steven O'Brien . . .

CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITHOUT AN INTERCEPTION: Fiedler went 92 straight pass attempts, covering a five-game span (games 8-11 and 13), along with part of a sixth (14) without throwing an interception . . . The streak began on October 29 against Green Bay and ended on December 10 against Tampa Bay when Bucs LB Jamie Duncan picked off a Fiedler pass and returned it 31 yards for a touchdown (The streak counts a November 19 game against the Jets when Fiedler was forced from the game following the first play from scrimmage with an injury) . . . Those five full games established a new Dolphins record and broke the previous mark of four, formerly held by Bob Griese (games 5-8 in 1971) and Dan Marino (games 4-7 in 1997) . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. SEATTLE (SEPT. 3): Made his Dolphins debut in a starting role and led the Dolphins to a 23-0 victory . . . Completed 15 of 24 passes for 134 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions . . . Became the first Dolphin other than Dan Marino to start a season-opener at quarterback since David Woodley in 1983 . . . Also became the first Ivy League graduate to start a season-opener at quarterback since Columbia's Marty Domres started for Baltimore in the 1974 opener, on September 15 at Pittsburgh . . . Fiedler's touchdown pass in the Seahawks game, his first as a Dolphin, was a 16-yard strike to Oronde Gadsden . . .

VS. BALTIMORE (SEPT. 17): Completed 11 of 16 passes for 160 yards with one touchdown and one interception . . . Hit on all seven of his attempts, totaling 121 yards, with a touchdown in the second half of the contest . . .

AT CINCINNATI (OCT. 1): Was 14 of 21 for 155 yards with two touchdowns and one interception . . . Both of his touchdown passes went to Oronde Gadsden (7 and 21 yards) . . . It represented the first multiple-touchdown game of his career in the regular season and his second overall, including playoffs . . . Also rushed for a season-high 45 yards on four carries, including a career-long 30-yard run, which was the longest by a Dolphins quarterback since Scott Mitchell had a 32-yard run on November 14, 1993 at Philadelphia . . .

VS. GREEN BAY (OCT. 29): Completed 16 of 25 passes for 158 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions . . . Game began a streak of five straight games and 92 pass attempts in which he did not throw an interception . . . Also rushed for six yards on five carries, including a one-yard TD run, which marked the first rushing TD of his career and the first rushing TD by a Dolphins quarterback since December 27, 1998 when Dan Marino scored on a three-yard run at Atlanta . . .

AT DETROIT (NOV. 5): Connected on 13 of 18 passes for 112 yards, as he put together a season-best 72.2 percent completion mark . . . Also rushed for 42 yards on eight carries . . .

AT SAN DIEGO (NOV. 12): Completed 13 of 20 passes for 160 yards, including a 61-yard strike to Oronde Gadsden, marking his longest completion of the season . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (NOV. 19): Was forced from the game permanently following the first play from scrimmage when he was sacked by Jets LB Mo Lewis and suffered a pinched nerve in his neck with resultant symptoms in his right arm as well as a mild right A/C sprain . . .

AT BUFFALO (DEC. 3): Was 13 of 21 for 214 yards and a career-high three touchdowns in leading the Dolphins to their first win in Buffalo since 1996 after missing the previous week at Indianapolis (11/26) . . . Set a new team record by not throwing an interception in his fifth straight game . . .

VS. TAMPA BAY (DEC. 10): In a game that was played in a steady rain, was 13 of 28 for 175 yards with no touchdowns and a career-high four interceptions . . . His first interception of the game was snared by Bucs linebacker Jamie Duncan in the first quarter and returned 31 yards for a touchdown . . . It ended a string of 92 straight pass attempts and five consecutive games in which Fiedler did not throw an interception . . . Sustained a left shoulder injury in the contest that he played from for the remainder of the year . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (DEC. 24): Led the Dolphins to their first AFC East title since 1994 by completing 30 of 45 passes for a season-high 264 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions . . . Completion and attempt totals marked career-highs . . . Dolphins trailed 24-17 in the fourth quarter before Fiedler led two consecutive scoring drives in the final period, including one that ended with an Olindo Mare 49-yard field goal with nine seconds to play . . . On those two drives, Fiedler completed 11 of 14 passes for 100 yards . . .

PLAYOFFS: Started both playoff games following the 2000 season . . . Completed 37 of 71 passes for 361 yards with one touchdown and six interceptions . . . In First-Round victory over Indianapolis (12/30), hit on 19 of 34 passes for 185 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions . . . Also rushed for 43 yards on seven carries . . . Lone touchdown pass in the game was a nine-yard strike to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal with 34 seconds to play in regulation, as the Dolphins tied the game at 17 apiece before going on to record a 23-17 overtime victory . . . In the fourth quarter and overtime of that game, Fiedler was 10 of 16 for 106 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions, while also rushing for 27 yards on four attempts . . . In the Colts game, became the first Ivy League quarterback to start an NFL playoff game since the Rams' Jeff Kemp started against the N.Y. Giants in a Wild Card game on December 23, 1984 . . . Was 18 of 37 for 176 yards with no touchdowns and three interceptions in Divisional contest at Oakland (1/6/01) . . . The three interceptions tied the club's single-game postseason record, also held by David Woodley and Dan Marino.

1999 – Signed with Jacksonville as a free agent on April 16, 1999, four days after Minnesota withdrew their qualifying offer as a Restricted Free Agent . . . Appeared in seven regular season games with the Jaguars in 1999, including one start . . . Completed 61 of 94 passes (64.9%) for 656 yards with two touchdowns, two interceptions and a passer rating of 83.5 . . . THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

F I N S ⚫ F A C T

This past offseason, Rob became a partner in a financial services company called Allen Konrad Asset Management, a firm that has more than 300 clients

2002 – Played in all 16 games for the first time in his career, starting 12 of them . . . Rushed for two yards on three carries . . . Finished fourth on the team with 34 receptions for 233 yards and three touchdowns . . . Reception total equaled a career-high that he first set in his rookie season of 1999 . . . Touchdown total matched the figure that he attained over his first three years in the league combined . . . Also proved to be a key lead blocker for Pro Bowl running back Ricky Williams, who led the NFL with a Dolphins single-season record 1,853 rushing yards . . . In season-opener vs. Detroit (9/8), posted four receptions for a season-high 35 yards . . . The four catches are tied for the third-highest receiving total of his career, while the yardage figure was the third-highest total as well . . . Only catch the following week at Indianapolis (9/15) was a nine-yard TD reception from Jay Fiedler . . . The score gave the Dolphins a 14-0 lead in their 21-13 victory over the Colts . . . His receiving touchdown, along with Ricky Williams' ten-yard scoring catch from Fiedler, marked the first time two Dolphin running backs had at least one touchdown reception each in a game since December 12, 1988 vs. Cleveland, when Jim Jensen and Lorenzo Hampton both caught a touchdown pass from Dan Marino . . . Had four catches for 28 yards, including a six-yard scoring catch from Fiedler, at Kansas City (9/29) . . . Accounted for the Dolphins' lone touchdown at N.Y. Jets (11/10) on a four-yard grab from Ray Lucas . . . Collected a season-high five catches, totaling 27 yards, in Monday night win vs. Chicago (12/9) . . . Reception total that night led the team.

2001 – Played in 12 regular season games, starting nine of them . . . Was inactive for four contests . . . Rushed for 22 yards and a touchdown on five carries, and caught five passes for 52 yards and a score . . . Sustained a left ankle sprain vs. Oakland (9/23) and was inactive for each of the next two contests (at St. Louis, 9/30 and vs. New England, 10/7) . . . Had two receptions for 13 yards, including an five-yard TD catch from Jay Fiedler, vs. Carolina (11/4) . . . It marked the second touchdown of his career and his first since his NFL debut, when he caught a 12-yard TD pass from Dan Marino in the 1999 opener, on September 13 at Denver . . . Rushed for 19 yards on three attempts in Monday night game vs. Indianapolis (12/10), including an 18-yard scoring run, the first rushing touchdown of his career and the longest run of his career . . . Was inactive for each of the final two games of the season (vs. Atlanta, 12/30; vs. Buffalo, 1/6/02) with a left rib cage injury with added complications of a pneumothorax condition sustained at New England (12/22) . . . Was placed on injured reserve with the injury on January 12, 2002 . . . Spent First-Round Playoff Game vs. Baltimore (1/13/02) on injured reserve.

2000 – Started 14 of the 15 games in which he played . . . Was inactive for one contest . . . Rushed for 39 yards on 15 carries and caught 14 passes for 83 yards . . . Established himself as one of the better blocking fullbacks in the league in his first year as a full-time starter . . . Contributed to the resurgence of the Miami running game, which amassed 1,894 yards on the year, the most by a Dolphins team since 1984 . . . Also led the way for Lamar Smith, who rushed for 1,139 yards, the second-highest single-season total ever by a Dolphin at that time (now fourth) . . . Had numerous key blocks during the course of the year which helped spring Smith loose for 14 rushing touchdowns, also the second-highest single-season figure in club history at that time (now third) . . . Had a season-high 19 yards rushing on seven attempts in season-opener vs. Seattle (9/3) . . . Was inactive vs. Buffalo (10/8) with right knee and ankle sprains sustained the previous week at Cincinnati (10/1) . . . Only game that he played in but did not start was at San Diego (11/12) when the Dolphins opened with three wide receivers . . . Started one of the two playoff games following the 2000 season . . . Did not post any stats . . . Was an integral part of Smith's performance in a First-Round Playoff victory over Indianapolis (12/30) in which he rushed for 209 yards and two touchdowns on 40 attempts, the second-highest rushing total in NFL playoff history.

1999 – Appeared in 15 regular season games during his rookie season including nine starts . . . Was inactive for one contest . . . Finished with 16 yards rushing on nine attempts and 34 receptions for 251 yards and a touchdown . . . Also recorded one tackle on special teams . . . Reception total ranked fifth on the team and second among running backs, trailing only Stanley Pritchett's 43 catches . . . Konrad's reception total also was the most by a Dolphins rookie since Terry Kirby caught 75 passes for 874 yards and three touchdowns in 1993 . . . Opened each of the first five contests of the season . . . Made NFL debut in season-opener at Denver (9/13) when he started at fullback . . . Rushed for seven yards on two attempts and caught three passes for 26 yards, including a 12-yard TD reception from Dan Marino, marking his first NFL touchdown . . . Became the first Dolphins rookie to have a receiving touchdown in a season-opener since Andre Brown caught a TD pass in his first game, on September 10, 1989 against Buffalo . . . Along with J.J. Johnson's touchdown run, it marked the first time in club history that two rookies scored in the initial game of the year . . . Along with a touchdown run by Karim Abdul-Jabbar in the Broncos contest, it marked the first time since September 3, 1995 vs. the N.Y. Jets that three Dolphin running backs scored in the same game (Bernie Parmalee, Irving Spikes, Keith Byars) . . . Was awarded an offensive game ball for his performance . . . Caught three passes for 48 yards, including a season-long reception of 25 yards, vs. Buffalo (10/4) . . . Was inactive vs. Philadelphia (10/24) . . . Closed out the season with ten catches for 68 yards, including a long of 18, at Washington (1/2/00) . . . His reception total in the Redskins game marked a new club rookie record, surpassing the previous mark of nine first set by Kirby on December 19, 1993 against Buffalo . . . It also tied for the third-most ever by a Dolphin in the regular season and tied for fourth-most overall, including playoffs . . . In addition, it tied for the most by a Dolphin in 1999 . . . Overall, his reception total in that game is tied for the second-most by a Dolphins running back in a game, trailing only the club-record 12 catches that Jim Jensen had on November 16, 1988 at New England . . . It was the most catches by a Dolphins running back in a game since Keith Byars also had ten on September 25, 1994 at Minnesota . . .

Born 8/31/80
College ....Mississippi State '03
Acquired D5a, 2003
Signed Through 2006
NFL ....Second Season

PRO CAREER

2003 – Appeared in all 16 games in his rookie season, including five starts . . . Was one of only two tight ends on the Dolphins' 53-man roster for a majority of the season . . . Finished the year with seven receptions for 110 yards and a touchdown . . . Started on opening day, vs. Houston (9/7), as part of a two tight end set . . . Came up with the first reception of his career in that game, a five-yard grab from Jay Fiedler . . . Each of his five starts on the year came as part of a two tight end formation . . . Accounted for the two longest receptions of his rookie season with catches of 25 an 23 yards, both from Brian Griese, vs. Indianapolis (11/2) . . . First NFL touchdown catch occurred the following week when he snared a 21-yard pass from Sage Rosenfels at Tennessee (11/9) . . . First of two fifth-round draft choices (156th overall) by Miami in 2003.

FINS FACT

Donald overcame a reading disability to earn Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll recognition in his sophomore season, before going on to earn his degree in physical education from Mississippi State. "It shows you can do anything if you put your mind to it," Donald says. "It comes from a lot of hard work and determination. You set goals that you can reach. I used to write down all the goals I had and was able to reach them little by little."

COLLEGE

Was a four-year letterman for the Bulldogs (1999-2002), who started each of his final three seasons . . . Opnened 30 of the 45 games in which he appeared . . . Finished his collegiate career with 61 receptions for 611 yards and three touchdowns . . . Was used primarily as a blocker . . . Played in all 11 games, starting three of them, as a true freshman in 1999 . . . That year, hauled in a five-yard TD catch in Mississippi State's 23-20 victory over Ole Miss . . . Earned degree in physical education.

PERSONAL

Single . . . Attended Maben (Miss.) High School, where he lettered in both football and track . . . Spent the first three years of his prep career as a tight end and linebacker before being moved to tailback for his senior season . . . Led the state Class A ranks with 54 receptions for 1,447 yards and 11 touchdowns as a junior . . . Growing up, was a fan of the Denver Broncos and tight end Shannon Sharpe . . . Lists "Joe Dirt" as favorite movie, "Cosby" as favorite television show and "Sun Up" as favorite book . . . Full name is Donald Tywon Lee, born August 31, 1980 in Maben, Miss.

DOLPHINS RECORD IN BLACKOUT GAMES

In 2003, the local TV blackout was lifted for each of the Dolphins' 16 regular season games, the second straight year in which this has occurred and the only two times this happened since 1973, when the local TV blackout first could be lifted provided that a game is sold out 72 hours in advance of kickoff. During this span, Miami is 151-124 (.549) in games where the game is locally televised. The Dolphins are 89-36 (.712) when a home game has been televised in the Miami area. When a road game has been televised in the city of the opposing team, Miami is 62-88 (.413).

PRO CAREER

2003 – Started all 16 games at right cornerback . . . Posted 55 tackles (50 solo), three interceptions for 82 yards in returns and one touchdown, two fumble recoveries and 14 passes defensed, which were second-most on the team . . . Had his best game of the season in 24-10 win at Jacksonville (10/12) when he recorded the sixth multiple interception game of his career as he picked off a pair of a Byron Leftwich passes for 46 yards in returns . . . Had a fumble recovery in that game, which came when Sammy Knight forced the ball loose from Fred Taylor on the game's third play from scrimmage and Madison recovered at the Jaguars' 41, leading to a Ricky Williams touchdown run six plays afterward . . . Accounted for his first interception of the season later in the opening half after the Jaguars were at midfield . . . With the Dolphins leading 17-10 and the Jaguars at their own 16 with 1:28 to play, Madison snared another Leftwich pass and returned it 29 yards to put the game out of reach . . . It marked the second interception return for a touchdown in his career, with the first coming on December 5, 1999 against Indianapolis when he picked off a Peyton Manning pass and returned it 21 yards for a score . . . That total is tied with 11 other players for the fourth-most interception returns for touchdowns in Dolphins history, trailing only Zach Thomas (4), Dick Anderson (3) and Terrell Buckley (3) . . . Overall, his interception return in the Jaguars game marked the third touchdown of his career, having had a 20-yard fumble return for a score on October 8, 2000 against Buffalo . . . Also had seven tackles and four passes defensed in the Jaguars contest . . . Played in the 100th regular season game of his NFL career at Tennessee (11/9) . . . Had a 36-yard interception return of an Anthony Wright pass which led to a field goal in a 9-6 overtime win over Baltimore (11/16) . . . It was the 29th interception of his career, tying him with Glenn Blackwood for third on the Dolphins' all-time list . . .

CAREER INTERCEPTIONS: Madison has had six multiple-interception games in his career, with the last coming on October 12, 2003 at Jacksonville when he picked off a pair of Byron Leftwich passes . . . He also has had a pair of interceptions on September 20, 1998 against Pittsburgh, November 23, 1998 at New England, September 19, 1999 against Arizona and September 3, 2000 against Seattle . . . He had a career-high three interceptions on November 7, 1999 against Tennessee . . . His career total of 29 interceptions is tied for third on the Dolphins' all-time chart:

2002 – Started all 16 games at right cornerback . . . Registered 31 tackles (27 solo), three interceptions for 15 yards and a team-high 14 passes defensed . . . Along with DE Jason Taylor and LB Zach Thomas, served as a tri-captain on defense . . . First interception of the year came vs. New England (10/6) when he picked off a Tom Brady pass . . . Also defensed two passes in the Dolphins' 26-13 win over the Patriots . . . Posted a season-high five tackles, while also picking off a Brian Griese pass and returning it 15 yards, in a 24-22 win at Denver (10/13) . . . The interception occurred on the first series of the fourth quarter, and Madison brought it back to the Dolphins' 48, setting up a Ricky Williams two-yard TD run six plays later, giving the Dolphins a 14-12 lead . . . The interception also was his 25th as a Dolphin, moving him ahead of Louis Oliver and William Judson into sole possession of fourth place on the Dolphins' career list . . . It also was one of a season-high five passes defensed for Madison on the night, as he was awarded a defensive game ball . . . Collected four tackles and intercepted a Daunte Culpepper pass at Minnesota (12/21) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was an alternate for the AFC Pro Bowl squad, and made the team after teammate Patrick Surtain could not play because of a knee injury . . . One of seven Dolphins selected, the most by a Dolphins team since the 2000 season when they had seven representatives as well . . . For Madison, it was his fourth straight trip to the Pro Bowl . . . Along with LB Zach Thomas, they became the first Dolphins selected to four straight Pro Bowl squads since T Richmond Webb earned the honor seven times in a row, from 1990-96 . . .

They became the first Dolphin defenders chosen to the Pro Bowl four consecutive times since LB John Offerdahl was voted five straight seasons (1986-90) . . . Recorded one of six interceptions on the day for the AFC as they came away with a 45-20 victory.

2001 – Started all 13 games in which he played at right cornerback . . . Was inactive for three contests . . . Along with Zach Thomas, served as a co-captain on defense . . . Finished the year with 30 total tackles (23 solo), two interceptions and 13 passes defended . . . Part of the No. 1 ranked pass defense in the NFL in 2001, one which yielded an average of only 176.8 yards a contest . . . Registered a season-high six tackles in opener at Tennessee (9/9), when he also came up with an interception . . . It marked the fourth interception of his career off Titans QB Steve McNair, his most off any quarterback, just ahead of Drew Bledsoe (3) and Peyton Manning (3) . . . Second interception of the year came in the second quarter at Indianapolis (11/11) when he picked off a Manning pass at the Dolphins' 3 after the Colts had a first-and-10 from the Dolphins' 41 . . . Sustained a right shoulder A/C joint separation on the play and was forced permanently from the game . . . Was inactive for each of the next three weeks with the injury . . . The first game that he missed was vs. N.Y. Jets (11/18), ending a string of 57 straight contests in which Madison had started and played . . . Prior to the Jets game, the last time Madison sat out was on December 14, 1997 at Indianapolis due to a right ankle injury . . . Started First-Round Playoff game vs. Baltimore (1/13/02) . . . Was credited with one tackle . . .
POSTSEASON HONORS: For the third consecutive year, was named as a starter to the AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . He did not play in the game, however, because of a shoulder injury . . . Also was a second-team Associated Press All-Pro selection and a Pro Football Weekly All-AFC pick . . . Along with LB Zach Thomas, who was also chosen to his third straight Pro Bowl in 2001, they were the first Dolphins to be voted three years in-a-row or more since T Richmond Webb earned the honor seven consecutive times (1990-96) . . . Madison and Thomas became the first Dolphin defenders to be chosen three or more straight times since LB John Offerdahl (1986-90) . . . Madison was the first Dolphin to be selected as a starter three or more straight times since Webb (1992-95), while he was the first Dolphin defender to earn such an honor since Offerdahl (1988-90).

2000 – Signed a seven-year contract extension through the 2007 season on June 21, 2000 . . . Started all 16 regular season games at right cornerback . . . Finished the year with 40 total tackles (38 solo) . . . Came up with five interceptions, 16 passes defensed, two fumble recoveries and three forced fumbles . . . Scored one touchdown on the year via a fumble return . . . Key part of a defensive unit which ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in pass defense, allowing an average of only 181.3 passing yards a game . . . Also part of a defense that amassed an NFL-high 28 interceptions, tied for the fourth-highest single-season total in team history . . . Underwent surgery following the season, on February 13, 2001 . . . Had surgery to remove bone spurs from his right ankle . . . The surgery was performed by Dr. Robert Mills at Holy Cross Hospital in Fort Lauderdale . . .
INTERCEPTIONS: Five interceptions tied for second on the team, along with Brock Marion and Patrick Surtain, and tied for ninth in the AFC . . . Along with Brian Walker's seven interceptions, it marked the first time since 1981 that an NFL team had at least four players record five or more interceptions in the same season . . . That year, the feat was accomplished by Tampa Bay's Cedric Brown (nine), Mike Washington (six), Neal Colzie (six) and Cecil Johnson (five) . . . It was the first time in Dolphins history that this has occurred . . . Madison had one game with two interceptions in 2000 . . .
POSTSEASON HONORS: For the second consecutive year, was named as a starter to the AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . Joined six other Dolphins in the game, marking Miami's most representatives since they also had seven following the 1984 season . . . In addition, Madison was a first-team All-Pro choice by the Associated Press, Pro Football Weekly, The Sporting News, Football Digest and USA Today . . . Was a second-team All-Pro pick by College & Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Also was selected to the "All-Iron" team, as chosen by CBS analyst Phil Simms . . . Was the recipient of the Dolphins Jasper MVP by the Florida Sports Awards . . .
GAME HIGHLIGHTS: In season-opener vs. Seattle (9/3) came up with two interceptions as the Dolphins held the Seahawks to 72 net passing yards in a 23-0 victory . . . Returned one of the interceptions 34 yards, the third-longest return of his career . . . It marked the fifth multiple-interception game of his career . . . Recorded a season-high five tackles at Minnesota (9/10) when he also defensed a pass and forced a fumble . . . Had three tackles, a pass defensed and a fumble recovery vs. Buffalo (10/8) . . . Scooped up a Sammy Morris fumble and raced 20 yards into the end zone to give the Dolphins a 22-13 lead with 4:45 to play in the game . . . Notched interceptions in games at N.Y. Jets (10/23), at San Diego (11/12) and at Buffalo (12/3) . . . Had three tackles, a pass defensed and a forced fumble at Detroit (11/5) . . . Forced fumble occurred when he stripped Lions RB Larry Foster of the ball at the Dolphins'

3, the ball rolled into the end zone and Dolphins CB Patrick Surtain recovered . . . Recorded four tackles, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble vs. Indianapolis (12/17) . . . Started both playoff games following the 2000 season at right cornerback . . . Was credited with eight tackles (6 solo) and a pass defensed.

1999 — Started all 16 regular season games at right cornerback . . . Finished with 52 total tackles (43 solo) and a team-high seven interceptions for 164 yards, including a touchdown . . . Also tied for the team lead with 15 passes defensed . . . Tackle total tied for ninth on the team . . . In a vote of his teammates, was voted as permanent co-captain on defense, along with linebacker Zach Thomas . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery following the season, on February 10, 2000 to remove loose bodies from his left knee . . . The surgery was performed by Dr. Dan Kanell at Holy Cross Hospital in Ft. Lauderdale . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: Tied for the NFL-lead in interceptions, along with Baltimore's Rod Woodson, Kansas City's James Hasty, Tampa Bay's Donnie Abraham and Philadelphia's Troy Vincent . . . Became the third Dolphin to lead or share the league lead in interceptions . . . Dick Westmoreland had an AFL-high ten in 1967 and Dick Anderson led the NFL with eight in 1973 . . . His seven interceptions are tied for the ninth-highest total by a Dolphin in a season, and he now owns two of the nine highest single-season interception totals in club history . . . Had two games of two or more interceptions in 1999 with three vs. Tennessee (11/7) and two vs. Arizona (9/19) . . . From 1998-99, Madison totaled 15 interceptions, the most by a Dolphin in consecutive seasons, surpassing the previous best of 14, achieved by both Dick Westmoreland (four in 1966, 10 in 1967) and Jake Scott (eight in 1974, six in 1975) . . .

POSTSEASON HONORS: Was selected as a starter in the AFC Pro Bowl squad, joining kicker Olindo Mare and linebacker Zach Thomas on the team . . . The three representatives marked Miami's most since the 1995 season when they had four selections . . . It was the first Pro Bowl of Madison's career . . . Overall, he became the fourth Dolphins defensive back to be named, joining Dick Anderson (1972-74), Jake Scott (1971-75), and Tim Foley (1979), and the first cornerback . . . In addition, Madison was a first-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press, USA Today, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest . . . He also was chosen as the NFL Alumni Association's Defensive Back of the Year . . . In a vote of the South Florida media and the fans, Madison was chosen as the team's Dan Marino MVP award winner for 1999 as well . . .

PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week three times in 1999 . . . He was cited for his performances in wins vs. Arizona (9/19), at New England (10/17) and vs. Tennessee (11/7) . . . They were the first three AFC weekly honors of his NFL career . . . Since this award was first given out by the NFL in 1984, Madison was just the second player to win it three times in the same season, joining Cincinnati safety David Fulcher, who came away with the award three times in 1989 . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Had three tackles and two interceptions that he returned a total of 29 yards (15 and 14 yards) vs. Arizona (9/19) . . . It marked the third multiple-interception game of his career . . . Was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week his performance, the first such honor of his career . . . Was credited with four tackles at New England (10/17) when he held Patriots wide receiver Terry Glenn without a reception . . . That effort earned Madison his second AFC Defensive Player of the Week Award of the season . . . Had three tackles and three interceptions that he returned a total of 101 yards, including a career-long return of 42 yards, in 17-0 victory vs. Tennessee (11/7) . . . It was the fourth multiple-interception game of his career and marked a new career-high, earning him his third AFC Defensive Player of the Week award of the year . . . His three interceptions tied for the second-most in a game in Dolphins history, a figure achieved seven previous times in the regular season, most recently by Louis Oliver on October 4, 1992 at Buffalo, and eight times overall, including playoffs . . . The three interceptions are surpassed only by the team-record of four, set by Dick Anderson on December 3, 1973 against Pittsburgh . . . Madison's 101 return yards currently is the fourth-highest single-game total in club history and the most since Oliver amassed a club-record 170 yards in that Bills contest in 1992 . . . Had a season-high eight tackles with an interception and two passes defensed vs. New England (11/21) . . . Had three tackles and an interception that he returned 21 yards for a touchdown vs. Indianapolis (12/5) . . . It was the first touchdown of Madison's career and it was the 16th interception of his career, tying him with J.B. Brown for 11th on the Dolphins' all-time list . . . Started both playoff games following the 1999 season at right cornerback . . . Recorded seven tackles and two passes defensed.

1998 — Emerged as one of the best young cornerbacks in the NFL in his first season as a starter . . . Opened all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests at right cornerback . . . Finished the regular season ranked fourth on the team with 59 total tackles . . . Led club with 23 passes defensed . . . Tied for team lead, along with Terrell Buckley, and tied for second in the AFC and in the NFL with eight interceptions . . . Also notched one sack during the course of the year . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: Picked off eight passes in 1998 (114 yards in returns), seven more than his total from his rookie season of 1997 . . . Eight interceptions also tied for the second-highest single-season total in franchise history, along with Terrell Buckley, trailing only Dick Westmoreland, who picked off ten passes in 1967:

2003 – Played in all 16 regular season games . . . Connected on 22 of 29 field goals and 33 of 34 PATs for a team-high 99 points, a total that ranked sixth in the AFC . . . Of his 74 kickoffs on the year, 24 went for touchbacks, the highest total in the NFL . . . Dolphins led the NFL as their opponents' average drive start off kickoffs was the 25.0 . . . Hit four field goals of 50 yards or longer, the most of his NFL career and the most-ever by a Dolphin in the regular season . . . Including playoffs, Mare also had four 50+-yard field goals in 1999 while Pete Stoyanovich had four in 1992 . . . Enters the 2004 season having played in 112 consecutive contests, covering all six seasons of his NFL career . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Hit on all three of his field goals, including a long of 48, as he amassed a season-high 11 points in win at N.Y. Giants (10/5) . . . Notched his first 50+ field goal of the season and the seventh of his career during the regular season with a 51-yarder at Jacksonville (10/12) . . . Accounted for all nine points in the Dolphins' 9-6 overtime win over Baltimore (11/16) . . . His 52-yarder, which was his longest of the season, was the fifth-longest of his career . . . His 43-yarder with 8:48 left in the overtime period provided the margin in the victory . . . It was the eighth fourth-quarter or overtime game-winning kick in his career . . . Lone field goal the following week vs. Washington (11/23) was a 51-yarder as the Dolphins recorded a 24-23 victory . . . It marked just the second time in his career that he posted field goals of 50 yards or longer in consecutive weeks, with the first coming in 1999 (53 yards at New England, 10/17; 54 yards vs. Philadelphia, 10/24) . . . On Thanksgiving Day at Dallas (11/27), had a PAT blocked by Flozell Adams, the fifth missed PAT of his career and his first since October 6 of last year, snapping his string of 50 straight successful PATs . . . Connected on both field goal attempts in Monday night game vs. Philadelphia (12/15) . . . First one, from 27 yards in the second quarter, was the 176th of his career, tying him with Pete Stoyanovich for the most field goals in Dolphins history . . . His 50-yarder, which occurred with 14 seconds remaining in the game, established a new club record . . . Was three of four on field goals in finale vs. N.Y. Jets (12/28) . . . His 22-yarder with three seconds to play in the game was his second fourth quarter or overtime game-winning kick of the season and the ninth of his career . . .

TOUCHBACKS: Mare accumulated 24 touchbacks in 2003, the most in the NFL . . . This is the highest total by an NFL kicker since the advent of the K-Ball in 1999 . . . He now owns two of the five highest single-season touchback figures in the league over the past five seasons:

MOST TOUCHBACKS IN THE NFL SINCE 1999

2002 – Played in all 16 regular season games . . . Connected on 24 of 31 field goals and 42 of 43 PATs for a team-high 114 points, a total that ranked sixth in the AFC . . . Marked the fourth time in his six NFL seasons that he surpassed the 100-point plateau . . . Of his 84 kickoffs on the year, 12 went for touchbacks, the third-highest total in the AFC and fourth in the NFL . . . Dolphins were second in the AFC and in the NFL as their opponents' average drive start was the 27.3 . . . Hit a pair of 50+-yard field goals on the year, the second-highest total of his career to that point (now third) . . . Added six tackles on kickoff coverage during the course of the year . . .
   GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Posted a career-best seven PATs in 49-21 opening-day victory over Detroit (9/8) . . . That figure also tied a Dolphins record for most PATs in a game, along with the seven extra points kicked by Garo Yepremian on November 12, 1972 vs. New England, Yepremian again on November 24, 1977 at St. Louis, and Pete Stoyanovich, on September 3, 1995 vs. the N.Y. Jets . . . Established a season-high with three field goals among four attempts in 30-3 win over N.Y. Jets (9/22) . . . This included a 53-yard field goal, tied for the second-longest of his career and tied for the fourth-longest in Dolphins history during the regular season . . . Converted all three field goal attempts the following week at Kansas City (9/29), as he made good from 42, 29 and 25 yards out . . . Lone missed PAT on the year occurred the following week vs. New England (10/6) . . . Only field goal the week afterwards at Denver (10/13) was a 53-yarder with six seconds to play to give the Dolphins a 24-22 victory on a Sunday night . . . With Broncos K Jason Elam having converted a 55-yard field goal with 45 seconds to play, giving Denver a 22-21 lead, it marked the first time in NFL history that a kicker from each team has accounted for a field goal of 50 yards or longer with less than a minute to play in a game . . . For Mare, it was the seventh fourth-quarter game-winning field goal of his career, and it was the longest fourth quarter game winning kick he converted in his career . . . Connected on field goals of 42 and 49 yards out in win vs. Baltimore (11/17), marking the first time he kicked two or more field goals of 40 yards or longer in a game since December 24, 2000 at New England when he connected from 47 and 49 yards away . . .

2001 – Was re-signed to a six-year contract through the 2006 season on March 1, 2001 . . . Played in all 16 regular season games . . . Connected on 19 of 21 field goals and 39 of 40 PATs for a team-high 96 points . . . Conversion rate on field goals of .905 was the best in the NFL in 2001 and marked a new Dolphins single-season record . . . Of his 73 kickoffs on the year, 12 went for touchbacks, tied for the second-highest total in the AFC and in the NFL . . . Dolphins led the AFC and were fourth in the NFL as their opponents' average drive start was the 26.2 . . . Was a first-alternate for the AFC Pro Bowl squad . . .
   GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Converted each of his first 13 attempts of the season, including a season-best 3 of 3 in 30-10 win vs. New England (10/7) . . . Hit field goals from 19, 34 and 27 yards out that day . . . Surpassed the 500-point plateau for his career in the Patriots contest and also moved past Mark Clayton (492) into fourth on the Dolphins' all-time points list . . . In addition, five of his seven kickoffs went for touchbacks . . . Two weeks later at Seattle, connected on a season-long 46-yard kick . . . Tied a season-high by hitting on all three of his field goal attempts in 23-6 win over Carolina (11/4) as he hit from 36, 45 and 29 yards away . . . After hitting on a pair of attempts from 31 yards out the following week in win at Indianapolis (11/11), missed wide right on a 42-yard attempt vs. N.Y. Jets (11/18), snapping his string of 13 straight field goals made . . . Having been successful on his last two attempts of 2000, Mare's streak of 15 straight field goals was the fourth-longest such streak in club history . . . It also ended a string of 21 straight successful field goals at Pro Player Stadium during the regular season, dating back to 1999 . . . Converted both field goals at Buffalo (11/25), including a 39-yarder with 1:11 to play in regulation to tie the game at 27 as the Dolphins went on to win, 34-27, on a Jay Fiedler to Chris Chambers 32-yard TD pass just 23 seconds afterward . . . It was the ninth time in his career that he kicked a field goal in the fourth quarter that either tied a game the Dolphins went on to win or gave the Dolphins their final lead in a victory . . . Missed PAT in 41-6 win vs. Indianapolis (12/10) marked just the third missed extra point of his career in 168 attempts . . . Accounted for the Dolphins' only points in a 20-3 First-Round playoff loss to Baltimore (1/13/02) with a 33-yard field goal in the first quarter, which gave Miami a 3-0 lead . . .

FIELD GOAL ACCURACY: On the year in 2001, Mare hit on 19 of 21 attempts, a success rate of 90.5% . . . That figure eclipsed the Dolphins single-season record that Mare had set each of the previous two years, with an 84.8% mark in 1999 (34 of 46) and a 90.3% clip in 2000 (28 of 31) . . . In addition, his success rate in '01 was the best in the NFL . . .

2000 – Converted 28 of 31 field goals and 33 of 34 PATs for a team-leading 117 points in 2000 . . . Point total ranked fourth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL . . . 90.3% success rate on field goals not only marked a new team single-season standard to that point (now second), but also was third-best in the AFC and fifth in the NFL . . . Of his 72 kickoffs, seven went for touchbacks . . . Also had three tackles on kickoff coverage . . .

SCORING: On December 10 against Tampa Bay at Pro Player Stadium, Mare went over the 100-point plateau for the season, marking the second straight year and third time in his NFL career that he attained this mark . . . He also became the first Dolphin to post consecutive 100-point seasons since Pete Stoyanovich had six in-a-row from 1990-95 . . . Garo Yepremian (3, 1971-73) is the only other Dolphin to have three or more 100 point seasons . . . Point total in 2000 is tied for the fifth-highest single-season point figure in club history, and Mare currently owns three of the seven highest single-season point totals in franchise history:

2000 POSTSEASON HONORS: Following the season, Mare was an All-Pro selection by USA Today . . .

2000 GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Recorded 13 points on 3-4 FGs and 4-4 PATs at N.Y. Jets (10/23) . . . Had two field goals of longer than 40 yards (42,44) . . . His 42-yarder was the 100th field goal of his career and qualified him among the NFL's all-time leaders in field goal accuracy . . . Registered a season-high 15 points on 4-4 FGs and 3-3 PATs at Buffalo (12/3) . . . Point total also tied for the second-highest output of his career . . . Four field goals marked a season-best and tied for the second-highest single-game total of his career, while also tying for the third-highest single-game total in club history . . . Scored nine points on 2-4 FGs and 3-3 PATs in season finale at New England (12/24) . . . Hit first attempt of the game, from 47 yards out, to extend his streak of successful field goals to 16, tied for the second-longest in Dolphins history . . . Streak was snapped when he missed wide right on a 47-yard attempt in the third quarter, just his second miss of the season . . . Missed wide left on a 28-yard attempt in the fourth quarter, the shortest miss of his NFL career . . . With the scored tied at 24 apiece with nine seconds to play, came on to convert a season-long 49-yarder to give the Dolphins a 27-24 victory and clinch the AFC East title . . . It was his first fourth quarter or overtime game-winning kick of the year and the sixth of his career . . . Of the six, it marked his longest . . . Hit on 1-2 FGs and 2-2 PATs in the playoffs following the 2000 season . . . Missed a 38-yarder and made good from 38 yards out in First-Round victory vs. Indianapolis (12/30) . . . Did not have an attempt in Divisional contest at Oakland (1/6/01).

1999 – Had the most prolific season of any kicker in Dolphins history . . . Converted 39 of his 46 field goal attempts for a success rate of 84.8%, including a long kick of 54 yards . . . His 39 field goals and 84.8% accuracy mark both were team single-season records (accuracy mark now third) . . . Field goal total also represented a new NFL single-season record and were the most in the league in 1999. . . It was the third time that a Dolphin led or shared the NFL lead in field goals . . . Pete Stoyanovich twice tied with Chip Lohmiller for that distinction, with 31 in 1991 and 30 in 1992 . . . Overall on the year, hit on three field goals of 50 yards or longer, currently the second-most of his career . . . Connected on all 27 of his PATs, giving him 144 points for the season, establishing a new club single-season standard in that category as well . . . Point total was second-most in the NFL in 1999, one point shy of Indianapolis' Mike Vanderjagt, who had 145 . . . In addition 20 of his 84 kickoffs went for touchbacks, the second-most touchbacks in the NFL in 1999, trailing only Jacksonville's Steve Lindsey, who had 22 . . . Also recorded four tackles on special teams and punted once for 36 yards . . .

POINTS: Posted a Dolphins single-season record 144 points, eclipsing the old mark of 124, first set by Pete Stoyanovich in 1992 . . . Mare notched a season-high 21 points on October 17 at New England . . . That total is the third-most in a game in Dolphins history and is the most by a kicker . . . It trails the team-record 24 accounted for by both Paul Warfield (vs. Detroit, 12/15/73) and Mark Ingram (at N.Y. Jets, 11/27/94) . . . In addition, his 144 points currently are tied for the ninth-most by an NFL player in a season without scoring a touchdown:

In addition, four of his field goals in the Patriots game were from 40 yards or longer, tying the NFL record for the most field goals from that distance in a game in NFL annals, a mark which had last been achieved by Washington's Chip Lohmiller at Dallas on September 9, 1991 . . . The Patriots game was Mare's fourth straight with four or more field goals, setting a new NFL record and breaking the old mark of three, which had been held by Boston's Gino Cappelletti (1964), the Jets' Jim Turner (1968), Houston's Al Del Greco (1993) and Minnesota's Fuad Reveiz (1994) . . .

CONSECUTIVE FIELD GOALS: Starting with Miami's third game of 1999, on October 4 against Buffalo, through the their seventh contest, on October 31 at Oakland, Mare converted a club-record 19 straight field goals, eclipsing the previous team mark of 16, first set by Garo Yepremian in 1978 (games 8-16) . . . Mare's record streak started with a 30-yard field goal in the Bills contest and ended when a 46-yard attempt in the Raiders game missed wide right . . . He tied Yepremian's record of 16 with a 37-yard field goal against Philadelphia on October 24, and set the mark with a 54-yard field goal on his next attempt in the Eagles game . . . Mare also tied the club record for consecutive games with a field goal, when he accounted for a field goal in 20 consecutive games, starting with the Dolphins' seventh game of 1998, on October 25 against New England, through Miami's tenth game of 1999, on November 21 against New England . . . He tied the record first set by Yepremian, who achieved the feat from 1970-72 . . . Mare's streak ended on Thanksgiving Day at Dallas, on November 25, when he missed all three field goal attempts . . .

LONG FIELD GOALS: Including playoffs, Mare converted four field goals of 50 yards or longer in 1999 . . . His four field goals of 50 yards or longer tied for the most ever by a Dolphins kicker from that distance in a season, along with Pete Stoyanovich, who did it in 1992 (Mare subsequently did it again in 2003) . . . Mare's 54-yard field goal on October 24, 1999 against Philadelphia is the longest of his career, is tied for the second-longest by a Dolphin in the regular season and tied for the third-longest overall, including playoffs . . . His 53-yarder the previous week at New England is tied for the second-longest of his career and tied for the fourth-longest by a Dolphin in the regular season, and fifth overall including playoffs . . .

PLAYER OF THE WEEK/MONTH: In 1999, Mare was selected as the AFC Special Teams Player of the Week on two occasions . . . He was cited for his performance in Miami's 31-30 victory over the Patriots in New England on October 17. . . It was the first NFL weekly honor of his career and it marked the first time a Dolphins kicker had won such an award since Joe Nedney did it in week 16 of the 1996 season . . . He also was selected following Miami's 12-9 victory over San Diego on December 19 when his four field goals accounted for all of the Dolphins' points . . . In addition, Mare was named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October during which time he posted 65 points on 20 of 21 field goals, including a long of 54 . . . During this five-game span, he accounted for at least three field goals in all five contests, including four in three outings . . . He is the first Dolphin ever to win AFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors . . .

POSTSEASON HONORS: Mare was voted to the first Pro Bowl of his career following the 1999 season . . . He joined fellow Dolphins, CB Sam Madison and LB Zach Thomas on the team . . . The three selections marked Miami's most since the 1995 season when the club had four players chosen . . . Mare became the second Dolphins kicker ever to be selected, joining Garo Yepremian, who was a member of the AFC squad in 1978 . . . In addition, he became only the third Dolphins special teams player (now four) to be selected, along with P Reggie Roby, who made the AFC team in 1984 and 1989 . . . Mare was named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press, USA Today, The Sporting News, Football Digest, Pro Football Weekly, and College & Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Mare also was named the NFL Alumni Association's Special Teams Player of the Year for 1999 . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. ARIZONA (SEPT. 19): Scored 13 points by converting four of his five field goals and his only PAT . . . Hit on field goals of 39, 51, 48 and 44 yards . . . It was the first time in Mare's career that he converted three field goals of 40 yards or longer in a game . . .

VS. BUFFALO (OCT. 4): Notched 12 points as he connected on all four of his field goal attempts, from 30, 44, 26 and 26 yards away . . . The four field goals matched his single-game career-high at the time and now is tied for the second-most of his career and the third-most by a Dolphin . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (OCT. 10): Had his third straight game with four or more field goals, tying the NFL record also held by Boston's Gino Cappelletti (1964), the Jets' Jim Turner (1968), Houston's Al Del Greco (1993) and Minnesota's Fuad Reveiz (1994) . . . Hit field goals from 37, 27, 21 and 43 yards out, and accounted for 14 points on the day . . . His 43-yarder with 3:20 to play brought the Dolphins to within six points of the lead at 31-25, as Miami went on for a 34-31 victory . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 17): Posted a career-high 19 points on 6-6 field goals and 1-1 PATs . . . Connected from 20, 33, 45, 45, 41 and 53 yards out . . . His point total is the most-ever by a Dolphins kicker in a game, and is third-most overall, trailing only the 24 points accounted for by both Paul Warfield (vs. Detroit, 12/15/73) and Mark Ingram (vs. N.Y. Jets, 11/27/94) . . . His six field goals marked a new Dolphins single-game record, surpassing the old standard of five, first set by Garo Yepremian on September 26, 1971 at Buffalo . . . It also tied for the fourth-highest single-game total in NFL history, trailing only the seven accounted for by three different players . . . It was the fourth consecutive contest in which Mare converted four or more field goals, establishing a new NFL record . . . His 53-yard field goal is tied for the second-longest of his career, tied for the fourth-longest in club history during the regular season, and tied for fifth overall, including playoffs . . . In addition, that 53-yard kick came with 2:45 to play and brought the Dolphins to within five points of the lead at 30-25, as they went on for a 31-30 victory . . . It was the first time in Mare's career that he connected on four field goals of 40 yards or longer, and the second time that he hit three or more from that distance . . .

VS. PHILADELPHIA (OCT. 24): Registered ten points on 3-3 field goals, as he made good from 37, 37 and 54 yards out . . . His final field goal in that game was a career-long 54-yarder, tying for the second-longest in Dolphins history during the regular season, and tied for third overall, including playoffs . . . In addition, it was the second-longest field goal in the NFL in 1999, trailing only a 55-yarder by Denver's Jason Elam . . . The 54-yarder also was his 17th consecutive successful field goal, establishing a new Dolphins record previously held by Garo Yepremian, who connected on 16 straight in 1978 (games 8-16) . . .

AT OAKLAND (OCT. 31): Scored ten points by hitting on 3-4 field goals and 1-1 PATs . . . Field goals came from 21, 34 and 44 yards away . . . Missed wide right on his third attempt of the game, a 46-yarder, snapping a string of 19 straight successful field goals, a new Dolphins record . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (NOV. 21): Converted both field goal attempts (19 and 23 yards) and all three PATs . . . It marked the 20th straight game dating back to 1998 that Mare had accounted for a field goal, tying Garo Yepremian's club record . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (DEC. 5): Posted ten points on 2-2 field goals and 4-4 PATs . . . His second field goal in the game, a 32-yarder with 36 seconds to play, was his 31st of the season, tying Pete Stoyanovich's club single-season record that Stoyanovich had set in 1991 . . . The field goal also tied the game at 34-34, although the Colts went on for a 37-34 victory with a field goal on the last play of regulation . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (DEC. 12): Recorded eight points on 2-2 field goals and 2-2 PATs . . . Connected on field goals of 24 and 33 yards out . . . His first field goal of the game, a 24-yarder with 2:48 to play in the first quarter, was his 32nd of the season, breaking Pete Stoyanovich's club single-season field goal record of 31, which Stoyanovich had set in 1991 . . .

VS. SAN DIEGO (DEC. 19): Amassed 12 points on 4-4 field goals, as he hit from 32, 21, 30 and 31 yards out . . . His 30-yard field goal with 6:06 remaining in the game tied the game at 9-9, while his 31-yarder with 3:22 left provided the Dolphins with the winning margin in a 12-9 victory . . . It was Mare's first game-winning kick of the season and the fifth of his career . . . The 31-yarder also was his 37th field goal of the year, tying the NFL single-season record for field goals, which was first set by Carolina's John Kasay in 1996 . . . Mare's first field goal of the game, a 32-yarder in the first quarter, gave him 124 points on the season, tying Pete Stoyanovich's club record for most in a season (1992) . . . His second field goal of the game, a 21-yarder in the second quarter, broke Stoyanovich's record . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (DEC. 27): Was 1-2 on field goals and 4-4 PATs, for a total of seven points . . . His 37-yard field goal was his 38th of the season, eclipsing John Kasay's NFL single-season record of 37 field goals that Kasay set in 1996 . . .

PLAYOFFS: Appeared in both playoff games following the 1999 season . . . Registered nine points on 2-2 field goals and 3-3 PATs . . . Both field goals came in First-Round victory at Seattle (1/9), from 32 and 50 yards out . . . Two field goals are tied for the third-most ever by a Dolphin in a playoff game . . . The 50-yard field goal is the fourth-longest in Dolphins postseason history and was the longest by a Dolphin in the playoffs since Pete Stoyanovich hit a 51-yarder in the AFC Championship game on January 17, 1993 against Buffalo.

1998 — Played in all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests . . . Connected on a 25-yarder with 49 seconds left in regulation, tying the game at nine and sending it into overtime . . . Hit a 43-yard field goal 4:36 into the overtime period to give the Dolphins the 12-9 victory . . . It marked the fourth game-winning field goal of his career and his second in overtime . . . Was awarded a special teams game ball for his performance in the Patriots game . . . Connected on two of four field goals at Oakland (12/6) . . . Hit his first attempt of the game, a 25-yarder with 3:36 to play in the first quarter, extending his consecutive field goal streak to 14, two shy of Garo

Yepremian's club record of 16 straight, which was established in 1978 . . . Missed wide right on a 46-yard attempt in the second quarter to end the streak at 14 . . . Had a successful onside kick in games vs. N.Y. Jets (12/13) and at Atlanta (12/27) . . . Appeared in both playoff games following the 1998 season . . . Connected on his only PAT and four of his five field goal attempts with a long of 40 . . . In First-Round victory over Buffalo (1/2/99), posted ten points on 1-1 PATs and 3-4 FGs . . . Three successful field goals tied a Dolphins playoff record also held by Uwe von Schamann, who kicked three field goals in Super Bowl XIX against San Francisco on January 20, 1985 . . . In the Bills game, he hit from 31, 40 and 23 yards out, while his miss was from 28 yards.

1997 - Played in all 16 games as a first-year player . . . Led the Dolphins in scoring with 117 points . . . Was 28 of 36 on field goal attempts and 33 of 33 on PATs . . . On the year, 21 of his 78 kickoffs went for touchbacks, the second-most touchbacks by a kicker in the AFC and tied for fourth in the NFL . . . Strong leg on kickoffs helped the Dolphins achieve a 23.9 for their opponents' average drive start following kickoffs, tied for first in the AFC and sixth in the NFL . . . Point total tied for fourth in the AFC and was tied for the fourth-highest single season scoring total ever by a Dolphin (now tied for fifth) . . . Mare's point total was the most ever by a Dolphins rookie or first-year player . . . In addition, Mare's 28 field goals was the highest single-season total for a rookie or first-year player in club history, surpassing the former mark of 22, achieved by Fuad Reveiz in 1985 . . . Mare's 28 field goals tied with Garo Yepremian (1971) for the third-highest single-season total in franchise history to that point (now fourth):

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Made his NFL debut in season opener vs. Indianapolis (8/31) and scored ten points, going three of three in field goals and hitting on his only PAT . . . Field goals were from 23, 34 and 19 yards out . . . Was called upon for punting duties after John Kidd sustained a right hamstring injury after his first punt of the game . . . Came on and punted five times for a 47.0-yard average with a long of 53 . . . Two of his punts were downed inside the five yard line . . . It marked the first time that a non-punter punted for the Dolphins since September 14, 1992 against Cleveland, when Pete Stoyanovich punted twice for 90 yards, replacing an injured Reggie Roby (knee) . . . The following week against Tennessee, scored ten points on three of four field goals, making good from 23, 22 and 29 yards out, and missing from 25 yards . . . Converted his only PAT . . . 29-yard field goal came with 2:15 elapsed in overtime to give the Dolphins a 16-13 victory . . . Was four of four in field goals, converting from 24, 31, 22 and 34 yards at Green Bay (9/14) . . . Four field goals marked the most ever by a Dolphins rookie or first-year player, and tied with eight others for the second-most overall at the time . . . Was one of two in field goals and hit both PATs vs. Kansas City (10/5) . . . Lone field goal was a 26-yarder with 5:40 remaining in the game to break a 14-14 tie, as the Dolphins held on for the 17-14 triumph . . . Converted only field goal attempt - from 25 yards away - and was three of three in PATs in Miami's 27-24 loss at New England (11/23) . . . Dolphins almost came back from a 27-3 third-quarter deficit in part due to a pair of successful onside kicks by Mare in the fourth quarter . . . Had another onside kick that was recovered by the Dolphins, but it was nullified due to a penalty . . . Tied his season-high with four field goals vs. Detroit (12/7), converting from 19, 33, 21 and 42 yards . . . Point total of 15 in that game was a season-best . . . 42-yard kick as time expired snapped a 30-30 tie and gave the Dolphins a 33-30 victory before an ESPN Sunday night national audience . . . In season finale vs. New England (12/22), made good from 50 and 41 yards, while missing from 51 yards . . . Marked the first 50-yard field goal of his career, and the only time in 1997 he hit on two field goals of 40 yards or longer . . . Was the first time a Dolphin had kicked a field goal of 50 yards or longer since December 17, 1995, when Pete Stoyanovich kicked a 50-yarder at Buffalo . . . It also was the third-longest field goal by a Dolphins rookie or first-year player, surpassed only by Stoyanovich's 59-yard field goal on November 12, 1989 at the N.Y. Jets and Uwe von Schamann's 53-yard field goal on October 21, 1979 at New England . . . Converted on his only field goal attempt - from 38 yards out - in First-Round Playoff loss at New England (12/28) . . . Did not attempt any PATs.

BROTHERLY LOVE

In 2003, fullback Obafemi Ayanbadejo and linebacker Brendon Ayanbadejo, each of whom were in their first seasons with the Dolphins, became the second set of brothers in the franchise's 38-year history. They followed in the footsteps of the Blackwoods, which included Glenn (1979-87) and Lyle (1981-86), both of whom played safety.

MONDAY NIGHT MADNESS IN MIAMI

In their history, the Dolphins have appeared on ABC Monday Night Football a total of 69 times, the most of any NFL team, and seven games ahead of the Dallas Cowboys, whose 62 games are second-most in the 34-year history of MNF. In those 69 contests, the Dolphins have compiled a record of 38-31, including a home record of 31-17 (13-13 at Pro Player Stadium) and a road register of 7-14. Their 38 victories also are the most in the history of MNF, one ahead of San Francisco, which has posted 37 victories. Since the inception of MNF in 1970, 1989 has been the only year in which the Dolphins have not made at least one Monday night appearance.

2003 – Played in all 16 games in a reserve role . . . Was second on the team in rushing with 193 yards and a touchdown on 41 attempts . . . Also caught four passes for 13 yards and returned 34 kickoffs for a 21.4-yard average with a long of 49 . . . Added nine tackles and a forced fumble on special teams . . . Was very effective in spelling Ricky Williams, as he had key performances in several victories . . . Rushed for 27 yards on five attempts (5.4 avg.) in 21-10 win over N.Y. Jets (9/14) . . . In first half of that game, totaled nine yards on consecutive carries which put the Dolphins at the Jets' five and led to a Williams 2-yard TD run with 17 seconds remaining in the half . . . Rushed for a season-high 30 yards on five carries, including a season-long 26-yard run, in 9-6 overtime win over Baltimore (11/16) . . . In 24-23 win over Washington the following week (11/23), ran for 20 yards on just three carries . . . Long run of 11 yards came in the fourth quarter and led to a Williams 24-yard TD run three plays afterward to put the Dolphins on top for good, 24-23 . . . Lone touchdown of the year came on a 2-yard run in Monday night game vs. Philadelphia (12/15), to tie the game at 14 apiece in the second quarter . . . Was credited with a forced fumble on punt coverage unit at Buffalo (12/21) . . . In season finale vs. N.Y. Jets (12/28), fielded four kickoffs for a 29.0-yard average, including a long of 49 which put the Dolphins at the Jets' 48 and led to a touchdown in Miami's 23-21 victory . . . That marked the second-longest kickoff return of his career.

2002 – Played in all 16 games in a reserve role . . . Was second on the team with 180 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 44 attempts . . . Returned 46 kickoffs for 1,071 yards, a 23.3-yard average, and a long of 66 . . . Ranked third on the squad with 17 special teams tackles . . . Kickoff return average ranked eighth in the AFC . . . Rushed for a season-high 45 yards on 11 carries vs. Detroit (9/8) . . . Scored first touchdown of the year on a five-yard run two weeks later in 30-3 win over N.Y. Jets (9/22) . . . Posted 34 yards rushing on four attempts and broke loose for a season-long 23-yard run at Buffalo (12/1) . . . Second score of the year came on a four-yard run vs. Oakland (12/15), giving the Dolphins a 17-3 lead in a game they went on to win, 23-17 . . . Had a season-high three special teams tackles vs. N.Y. Jets (9/22) and vs. New England (10/6) . . .
KICKOFF RETURNS: Ranked eighth in the AFC with a 23.3-yard average on 46 kickoff returns . . . 46 returns represent the second-highest single-season total in Dolphins history while his 1,071 return yards are fourth:

FINS FACT

The 2003 season turned out to be a tumultuous one for Travis. The first night of training camp, his father, Leslie, was killed in a motorcycle accident in his hometown of Baton Rouge. Travis is dedicating each remaining season of his NFL career to his father. "I owe him for everything I that am," Travis says about his father. "We were real close. He gave me the opportunity to do what I'm doing today. He was the main reason why I'm able to play in the NFL. I was blessed to have a father figure in my life until last year. All I can do is hope to be as good of a father one day as he was to me."

Score came on a 56-yard run, the second-longest by a rookie in club history, trailing only the 77-yard TD run by Leroy Harris on December 5, 1977 against Baltimore . . . Along with rookie WR Chris Chambers, who had two receiving scores that day, it marked the first time that a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown had been scored by Dolphins rookies in the same game since September 13, 1999 at Denver, when J.J. Johnson had a one-yard TD run and Rob Konrad had a 12-yard TD reception from Dan Marino . . . It was the first time that a rookie running back and wide receiver had touchdowns in the same game since October 24, 1993 against Indianapolis, when WR O.J. McDuffie had a 71-yard punt return for a TD and RB Terry Kirby had a 44-yard scoring reception from Scott Mitchell and a 14-yard TD run . . . It was the first time that a rookie wide receiver had a TD reception and a rookie running back had a TD run in the same game since November 19, 1989, when RB Sammie Smith had a one-yard scoring run and WR Andre Brown had a 48-yard TD catch from Marino . . . Led Dolphins in rushing at Buffalo (11/25) with 38 yards on eight attempts . . . Only reception that day was an 18-yard catch in the fourth quarter of a drive that culminated with a game-tying field goal in a game the Dolphins went on to win, 34-27 . . . Caught a season-high seven passes for 65 yards and a 17-yard TD reception, vs. Atlanta (12/30) . . . His touchdown catch, which was the first of his NFL career, gave the Dolphins a 14-7 lead in the second quarter of a game they went on to win, 21-14 . . . Saw action in a reserve role in First-Round Playoff game vs. Baltimore (1/13/02) . . . Rushed for 14 yards on five attempts and caught two passes for four yards . . . Also recorded a tackle on special teams . . . First of two third-round draft choices by Miami in 2001 (85th overall).

DUAL 100-YARD RECEIVING GAMES

In the 38-year history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had 18 dual 100-yard receiving games, 20 including playoffs. The most frequent duo has been Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, who combined for four dual 100-yard receiving games. Overall, Clayton was part of eight such games while Duper was in seven. The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two receivers surpass the 100-yard mark occurred on November 25, 2001 when Oronde Gadsden accumulated 118 yards on eight receptions and Chris Chambers totaled 101 yards and two scores on five catches against the Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium. It marked the third time that Gadsden had been a part of a dual 100-yard receiving game, with the first two occasions coming in 1999.

2003 – Started all 16 games at left defensive end . . . Registered 73 tackles (50 solo), 15 sacks for 71 yards in losses, six additional tackles for loss, 40 quarterback hurries, two forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and six passes batted down . . . Sack total led the AFC and tied for second in the NFL . . . Also led the team in quarterback hurries . . . Tackle figure was sixth on the team and first among linemen . . .

SACKS: Ogunleye had five games with two or more sacks in 2003, including a high of three against the Jaguars in Jacksonville on October 12 . . . The Dolphins were 4-1 last year when Ogunleye posted two or more sacks . . . His sack total was first in the AFC and tied for second in the NFL, as he became the second straight Dolphin to lead the conference in sacks, joining Jason Taylor in 2002 . . .

FINS FACT

Adewale's paternal grandfather was a governor of the Nigerian province of Ondo State. His son and Adewale's father, Gabriel, moved to New York to get his master's degree. His father and mother have always made sure the entire family was aware of their roots. "Our parents wanted us to know where we came from," Adewale says. "We've got a culturally rich background and they wanted to teach us about that. At the same time, they wanted to teach us about the land of opportunity."

LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 — 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and '89 seasons the Dolphins also set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

DOLPHINS SEND 148 PLAYERS TO PRO BOWL

Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, a Dolphin has been selected to play in the Pro Bowl a total of 148 times, including four following the 2003 season and 11 over the last two years. Over the course of those 34 seasons, 89 offensive players, 53 defensive players and six special teams players have been chosen. The position that has been represented the most is guard, which has occurred on 19 occasions. The only seasons since 1970 that the Dolphins did not have a player selected to the Pro Bowl were 1980 and 1997.

DEFENSIVE SCORES = WINS

In 2003, the Dolphin defenders returned three interceptions or fumbles for touchdowns, and Miami won all three games. Since 2000, the defense has accounted for 12 touchdowns, and the Dolphins have put together a perfect 12-0 mark in those contests.

2003 – Signed a three-year contract extension through the 2009 season on March 2, 2004 . . . Started all 16 games at right defensive end in '03 . . . Recorded 71 tackles (50 solo), 13 sacks for 70 yards in losses, six additional tackles for loss, two fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles, five passes defensed and 36 quarterback hurries . . . Also recorded a safety on the season, the first of his career . . . Marked the fourth straight year in which he opened all 16 games . . . Enters 2004 having started and played in 66 consecutive contests . . . Sack total in '03 was second on the club, second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL . . . Registered 10.5 sacks over the final nine games of the season . . .

2003 GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Was credited with eight tackles and two forced fumbles at Jacksonville (10/12) . . . Registered three tackles, including a sack and a forced fumble, vs. New England (10/19), giving him 60.5 career sacks and moving him past Jeff Cross into sole spot of fourth on the Dolphins' all-time list . . . The following week, in Monday night game against San Diego in Tempe, Ariz., posted a season-high nine tackles as the Dolphins held the Chargers to just 250 yards of total offense in a 26-10 win . . . Also registered the first safety of his career, as he tackled Chargers tackle Damion McIntosh in the end zone for a safety after McIntosh recovered a Drew Brees fumble resulting from a Rob Burnett sack . . . It was the first safety registered by the Dolphins since October 8, 2000 vs. Buffalo . . . Game vs. Indianapolis (11/2) marked the 100th of his career during the regular season . . . Tied a season-high with nine tackles in 24-23 Sunday night victory over Washington (11/23) . . . Included in his total were two sacks, his first multiple sack game of the season and the 15th of his career . . . It also began a string of six straight games in which he would record a sack . . . Both sacks in the Redskins game came on third down plays, with the second occurring in the fourth quarter, and which was followed by the Dolphins' game-winning touchdown drive . . . For his performance in the Redskins contest, he was named as AFC Defensive Player of the Week for the week of November 23-24 . . . On Thanksgiving Day at Dallas (11/27), had two tackles, including one sack, as he tackled Cowboys quarterback Quincy Carter for an eight-yard loss . . . Also had one fumble recovery for a touchdown, when he recovered a Carter fumble forced by an Adewale Ogunleye sack and returning it 34 yards for a touchdown . . . Taylor's sack of Carter gave him 64.5 for his career, moving him ahead of Vern Den Herder into sole possession of third place among the Dolphins' all-time sack leaders . . . His fumble recovery for a touchdown was the fourth TD he scored on a fumble recovery in his career, moving him into a tie for second place in NFL history (along with Bill Thompson and Derrick Thomas) for most touchdowns scored on fumble recoveries, trailing only Jessie Tuggle . . . Produced five tackles, including three sacks at Buffalo (12/21) . . . Sack total tied a career-high that he had achieved twice previously, most recently on December 15, 2002 against Oakland . . . All three sacks, which totaled 20 yards in losses, came against Drew Bledsoe . . . When he sacked Bledsoe for a four yard loss in the second quarter, it gave Taylor 68 career sacks, breaking Bill Stanfill's former team record of 67.5 career sacks . . . Finished the season by recording four tackles and a sack vs. N.Y. Jets (12/28), the sixth game in a row in which he tallied a sack, tying for the second-longest sack streak in Dolphins history . . .

PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Taylor was named as AFC Defensive Player of the Week for the games of November 23-24 as a result of his play vs. Washington on November 23 . . . In that game he had nine tackles including two sacks for a total of nine yards in losses, tackling Redskins quarterback Patrick Ramsey once for a four yard loss followed by a five-yard sack of QB Tim Hasselbeck . . . It marked Taylor's third career AFC Defensive Player of the Week award, having won that honor twice during the 2002 season . . . He also has been named as AFC Defensive Player of the Month on two occasions in his career . . .

2003 SACK TOTAL: Taylor tallied 13 sacks in 2003, one year after he led the team and the NFL with 18.5 sacks . . . He became the first Dolphin to record double-digit sack totals in consecutive season since Jeff Cross had 10 in 1989 and 10.5 in 1990 . . . His sack total last year ranked second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL:

CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITH A SACK: Taylor finished the 2003 season by recording a sack in each of the last six games . . . During this span, he accounted for 9.5 sacks . . . This streak is tied for the second-longest in Dolphins history, and Taylor now owns three of the four-longest such streaks in team history . . . He established the longest sack streak in team history with a sack in eight consecutive contests in 2002:

SACK TANDEMS: Along with DE Adewale Ogunleye's 15 sacks, Taylor was part of the top sack tandem in the NFL in 2003, 4.5 ahead of their nearest competitors . . . It was the second straight year that this tandem has achieved this total and that they have led the NFL . . . In addition, Ogunleye led the AFC in sacks while Taylor finished second, marking just the third time since sacks became official in 1982 that teammates have finished 1-2 in a conference in sacks . . . They joined Carolina's Kevin Greene (14.5) and Lamar Lathon (13.5) in 1996, and the Dolphins' Trace Armstrong (16.5) and Taylor (14.5) in 2000:

With 28 sacks combined last season, Taylor and Ogunleye tied their own figure from 2002 as the third-highest total ever among Dolphins sack tandems . . . In addition, it is just the second time in Dolphins history that two players have accounted for double-digit sack totals . . . In 2000, DE Trace Armstrong tallied 16.5 sacks while Taylor notched 14.5 . . . Taylor now has been a part of three of the five highest single-season sack tandems in club history:

DOLPHINS MOST PRODUCTIVE SINGLE-SEASON SACK COMBINATIONS

5. Larry Gordon	1976-82	12

CAREER TOUCHDOWNS: Taylor's 34-yard fumble return for a touchdown on Thanksgiving Day at Dallas, on November 27, 2003, was the fourth fumble return for a touchdown of his career . . . The score occurred on the third play of the second half after Adewale Ogunleye sacked Quincy Carter, forcing the ball loose . . . Taylor's other career scores came on a one-yard touchdown return after recovering a Tom Brady fumble on October 7, 2001 against New England, a 29-yard touchdown return following an Akili Smith fumble at Cincinnati on October 1, 2000, and a four-yard TD return off of a Brian Griese fumble at Denver on September 13, 1999 . . . His four fumble returns for touchdowns are the most-ever in team annals:

CAREER INTERCEPTIONS: Taylor has come up with three interceptions in his career, the second-highest figure ever by a Dolphin defensive lineman, trailing only Kim Bokamper's six career interceptions . . .

2002 – Started all 16 games at right defensive end . . . Along with CB Sam Madison and LB Zach Thomas served as a tri-captain on defense . . . Had 76 tackles, a team-high 18.5 sacks for 162.5 yards in losses, eight passes defensed, seven forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries . . . Added one stop on special teams . . . Tackle total was good for fifth on the team and first among defensive linemen . . . Ranked first in the AFC and in the NFL in sacks, becoming the first Dolphin in club history to lead the NFL in sacks . . .

SACKS: With 18.5 sacks in 2002, Taylor became the first Dolphin ever to lead the NFL in this category . . . He tallied at least a half-sack in 12 of 16 contests, while accounting for 1.5 or more on seven occasions, including a season-high three vs. Oakland (12/15):

2. Simeon Rice, DE	Tampa Bay	15.5	Hugh Douglas, DE	Philadelphia	12.5
3. Dwight Freeney, DE	Indianapolis	13.0	6. 3 different players		12.0

With 18.5 sacks in 2002, Taylor tied for the highest single-season sack total in Dolphin history, along with Bill Stanfill, who also had 18.5 sacks in 1973 . . . Taylor tied Stanfill's club record when he shared a six-yard sack of Vikings quarterback Daunte Culpepper with Adewale Ogunleye at Minnesota on December 21 . . . Taylor now owns two of the six highest single-season sack totals in club history:

DOLPHINS SINGLE-SEASON SACK LEADERS

5. Adewale Ogunleye	2003	15.0
6. JASON TAYLOR	2000	14.5

CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITH A SACK: Included in Taylor's record-setting performance of 2002 was a streak of eight consecutive games (Games 8-15) that he recorded at least one sack, breaking the former club record of six consecutive games with at least one sack (since 1982), which was first set in 1983 by Doug Betters and then equaled by Taylor in 2000 . . . Taylor's streak was snapped when he was held without a sack in the season finale at New England on December 29 . . . During this eight-game span, Taylor totaled 13 sacks, including five contests in which he had more than one sack . . . His streak of at least one sack in eight consecutive games is tied for the fourth-longest such streak in the NFL since the statistic became official in 1982:

LONGEST SACK STREAKS IN NFL HISTORY (since 1982)

PLAYER	TEAM(S)	STREAK	DATES OF STREAK
1. Simon Fletcher	Denver	10	11/15/92 – 9/20/93

* A player can only be included in one sack tandem. Therefore, it does not include Carolina LB Mark Fields (7.5) and DT Kris Jenkins (7.0), Indianapolis DE Chad Bratzke (6.0), Philadelphia DT Darwin Walker (7.5) and DE Brandon Whiting (6.0), Tampa Bay DT Ellis Wyms (5.5) or anyone else with the Dolphins with 1.5 or more sacks.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK/MONTH: Taylor was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week on two occasions in 2002 . . . He was cited for his performances in wins at Denver (10/13) and vs. Oakland (12/15) . . . They marked the first two Player of the Week awards in his career . . . He also became the first Dolphins defensive lineman to earn Defensive Player of the Week accolades during the regular season since the award was instituted in 1984 (Trace Armstrong did win the honor following a 1999 First-Round playoff game at Seattle) . . . With his two AFC Defensive Player of the Weeks awards in 2002, it marked the second straight year and the third time in the last four seasons that a Dolphin defender won AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors two or more times in the same season; cornerback Sam Madison earned the award on three occasions in 1999, while linebacker Zach Thomas won the award twice in 2001 . . . Taylor also was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for both October and November . . . In three games in October, Taylor had 15 tackles, four sacks for 52 yards in losses, two forced fumbles and a pass defensed . . . It was Taylor's first Defensive Player of the Month Award of his career . . . Overall since the NFL first instituted the award in 1984, Taylor is the seventh Dolphin to be named AFC Defensive Player of the Month and the second lineman (defensive lineman Jeff Cross shared that award with linebacker John Offerdahl in October, 1990) . . . Followed that by being named as AFC Defensive Player of the Month for November . . . In four games in November, Taylor posted 15 tackles, 5.5 sacks for 33 yards in losses, two passes defensed, and a forced fumble . . . It marked the first time ever that a player earned AFC or NFC Defensive Player of the Month honors in back-to-back months . . . It also is the first time that a Dolphin has earned an NFL monthly award twice in the same season . . . In fact, only one other Dolphin, quarterback Dan Marino (November, 1986; October , 1988), has won a monthly honor twice in a career . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named as a starter to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, as he was joined on the team by six other Dolphins, the most in the AFC . . . It was his second time being named to the Pro Bowl team, along with his selection in 2000 . . . Along with Tim Bowens, who also was named to his second Pro Bowl team, Taylor and Bowens became the third and fourth Dolphin defensive linemen in club history to record multiple Pro Bowl appearances, joining Bob Baumhower (5 -- 1979, 1981-84) and Bill Stanfill (4 – 1971-74) . . . The seven Pro Bowl selections by the Dolphins tied for the second-most in team history (2000), trailing only the eight that went following the 1984 season . . . Six of the seven selections last year were defensive players, the most in team history, surpassing the previous high of five from 2000 . . .

POSTSEASON HONORS: Earned numerous honors following the season . . . Was a first-team All-Pro selection by Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest, The Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Also was named the Defensive Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Kansas City 101, and the Touchdown Club of Columbus (Ohio) . . . Was chosen as the Pass Rusher of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association . . . Along with Ricky Williams, was named as the team's co-MVP in a vote of South Florida media and fans . . . Was the winner of the team's Leadership Award, as voted on by his teammates . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS - VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 6): Tied for second on the club with six tackles, including two sacks, as he tackled Patriots quarterback Tom Brady twice for a total of 22 yards in losses . . . It was his first multiple sack game of the season and the eighth of his career . . . Also forced Brady to fumble on one of those sacks, which was recovered by Adewale Ogunleye and led to a Dolphins touchdown . . .

AT DENVER (OCT. 13): Posted six tackles, including two sacks, as he tackled Broncos quarterback Brian Griese twice for a total of 30 yards in losses . . . It was his second multiple sack game of the season and the ninth of his career . . . Also added two passes defensed and one forced fumble, when he stripped the ball from Mike Anderson on the Dolphins' one-yard line, which was recovered by Larry Chester . . . As a result of his play in that contest, he was named as AFC Defensive Player of the Week for the Games of October 13-14 . . . He became the first Dolphin to win a weekly award in 2002 . . . In addition, the AFC Defensive Player of the Week Award was the first weekly honor of Taylor's career . . . He also was the first Dolphins defensive lineman to earn Defensive Player of the Week accolades during the regular season since the award was instituted in 1984 (Trace Armstrong did win the honor following a 1999 First-Round playoff game at Seattle) . . . Also earned a defensive game ball . . .

AT GREEN BAY (NOV. 4): Tallied three tackles including one sack, tackling Packers quarterback Brett Favre for an eight-yard loss, marking the first of eight straight games in which he recorded a sack . . .

VS. SAN DIEGO (NOV. 24): Had three tackles, including two sacks, tackling Chargers quarterback Drew Brees twice for a total of 16 yards in losses . . . His second sack of Brees in that contest gave him 50.5 sacks in his career, becoming the sixth Dolphin to record 50 career sacks . . . Was awarded a defensive game ball for his performance . . .

AT BUFFALO (DEC. 1): Registered four tackles, including two sacks, tackling Bills quarterback Drew Bledsoe twice for a total of 20 yards in losses . . .

VS. CHICAGO (DEC. 9): Had two tackles including one sack, as he dropped Bears quarterback Jim Miller for a seven-yard loss . . . It marked his sixth consecutive contest with at least one sack, tying the club record held by both Doug Betters (1983) and Taylor (2000) . . . Added one pass defensed in the game . . .

VS. OAKLAND (DEC. 15): Finished second on the team as he tied a season-high with eight tackles . . . Included in that total were three sacks for a total of 25 yards in losses and two forced fumbles . . . All three sacks came against Raiders quarterback Rich Gannon, causing Gannon to fumble twice . . . Taylor's three sacks tied his single-game career high, which he first set on December 3, 2000 at Buffalo . . . It also was the seventh straight game in which he recorded at least one sack, breaking the former club record of six straight games . . . For his performance, was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week, in addition to earning a defensive game ball . . .

AT MINNESOTA (DEC. 21): Notched seven tackles, 1.5 sacks for a total of seven yards in losses, one forced fumble, and one fumble recovery . . . It represented his eighth game in a row with at least one sack . . . Sacked Vikings quarterback Daunte Culpepper for a four yard loss, causing Culpepper to fumble . . . That sack of Culpepper gave Taylor 57.5 in his career and moved him past Trace Armstrong into fifth place among the Dolphins' all-time sack leaders . . . His shared sack of Culpepper gave him 18.5 sacks for the season, tying him for the Dolphins' all-time single season sack record along with Bill Stanfill, who had 18.5 sacks in 1973.

2001 – Signed a six-year contract through the 2006 season on July 23, 2001 . . . Started all 16 regular season games at right defensive end . . . Was fourth on the club with a career-high 86 tackles (60 total), which ranked first among the team's linemen and surpassed his previous career-high of 68 set in 2000 . . . Led team in sacks with 8.5 for 44.5 yards in losses and collected a team-best 25 quarterback hurries . . . Also produced an interception, four fumble recoveries including one for a touchdown, four forced fumbles and seven passes defensed, which led Dolphins' linemen . . . Was named a second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press . . . Had five tackles, including a sack and a pass defensed, in opener at Tennessee (9/9) . . . Recorded four tackles, a sack and two fumble recoveries vs. New England (10/7) . . . Picked up a loose ball at the Patriots' 1 and scored the third touchdown via a fumble return in his career . . . Posted a season-high nine tackles at N.Y. Jets (10/14) . . . Had eight tackles and a sack at Seattle (10/28) . . . Notched four tackles, a sack, a pass defensed and a forced fumble vs. Carolina (11/4) . . . The sack in the Panthers contest was the 35th of his career, tying him with Manny Fernandez for ninth on the Dolphins' all-time chart . . . The following week at Indianapolis (11/11), tallied five tackles, a sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery . . . Recovered a Dominic Rhodes fumble at the Dolphins' 41 with 10:50 to play and Miami trailing 24-20 . . . The Dolphins then embarked on a seven-play drive which ended with a 29-yard TD pass from Jay Fiedler to Chris Chambers for the winning score in a 27-24 victory . . . Posted four tackles, a season-high 1.5 sacks and a forced fumble at Buffalo (11/25) . . . Recorded four tackles, a sack and an interception in Monday night win over Indianapolis (12/10), as he picked off a Peyton Manning pass . . . Had a half-sack in season finale vs. Buffalo (1/6/02), giving him 39.5 in his career and tying him with Kim Bokamper and Bob Baumhower for the sixth-highest total in Dolphins history . . . Started First-Round Playoff game vs. Baltimore . . . Recorded 10 tackles (6 solo) . . .

FUMBLE RECOVERIES: In 2001, Taylor recovered four opponents' fumbles, tied for the third-highest single-season total in franchise history . . . It marked the second year in-a-row that he recovered that many fumbles . . .

2000 – Started all 16 games at right defensive end . . . Registered a career-high 68 total tackles (46 solo), including 14.5 sacks for 92 yards lost . . . Also had an interception, four fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and five passes defensed . . . Tackle total ranked sixth on the team and first among linemen . . . Sack total was second on the squad, trailing only DE Trace Armstrong, who tallied 16.5 . . . It also was the second-highest figure in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in 2000 . . .

SACKS: Recorded a sack in 11 of Miami's 16 games in 2000, including three contests with two or more . . . Sack total of 14.5 established a new career-high to that point, surpassing his previous best of nine, which he first set in 1998 . . . Taylor's sack total was the fourth-highest single-season figure in club history at that time, and now sixth . . .

SACK STREAK: Taylor recorded a sack in six straight games in 2000 (5-10), tying the Dolphins team record for most consecutive games with a sack to that point, and now the second-longest such streak . . . The record of six was first set by Doug Betters, who accomplished the feat in 1983 (games 7-12) . . . Taylor was one of two Dolphins to record sacks in four or more consecutive contests in 2000, as Trace Armstrong had one in each of the first four outings . . .

SACK TANDEM: In 2000, Trace Armstrong (16.5) and Taylor (14.5) totaled 31 sacks, the highest sack total by a duo in Dolphins history . . . Armstrong and Taylor ranked first and second, respectively, in the AFC in sacks in 2000, marking only the second time since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 that teammates finished 1-2 in a conference in sacks . . . In 1996, Carolina's Kevin Greene finished first in the NFC with 14.5 sacks while Lamar Lathon

Also added seven special teams tackles over the course of the season . . . First NFL touchdown came in season-opener at Denver (9/13) when he recovered a Brian Griese fumble forced by Rich Owens and returned it four yards for a score . . . Had six tackles, a sack and a forced fumble vs. Philadelphia (10/24) . . . Posted a season-high seven tackles at Buffalo (11/14) . . . First career interception occurred when he picked off a Drew Bledsoe pass vs. New England (11/21) . . . Was inactive vs. San Diego (12/19) with a sprained right ankle sustained the previous week vs. N.Y. Jets . . . Started both playoff games following the 1999 season at right end . . . Totaled three tackles.

1998 – Played in all 16 regular season games, starting 15 of them . . . Opened 14 contests at right end and one on the left side . . . Finished with 52 total tackles, nine sacks for 37 yards lost, a team-high four forced fumbles and nine passes defensed . . . Nine sacks were second on the club, trailing only Trace Armstrong's 10.5 . . . The total also was ninth-most in the AFC . . . Nine passes defensed were fifth on the club and the most among linemen . . . Put together three multiple-sack games on the year . . . Played in a reserve role in season-opener at Indianapolis (8/31) due to a partial tear of the distal third of the sartorius tendon in his left knee (tendon located behind the knee) that he sustained during the preseason . . . Tallied three tackles and a sack in the Colts game . . . Notched seven tackles, including two sacks, vs. Buffalo (9/13), marking the first multiple sack game of his career . . . His two sacks were among eight by the Dolphins that day, tied for the second-highest single-game total in club history . . . Posted three tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble at N.Y. Jets (10/4) . . . Registered a season-high eight tackles and a pass defensed vs. New England (10/25), when the Dolphins held the Patriots without a touchdown in a 12-9 overtime victory . . . Was awarded a defensive game ball for his performance . . . Recorded five tackles, a sack and two passes defensed at Carolina (11/15) as the Dolphins held the Panthers without a touchdown in a 13-9 win . . . Was awarded a defensive game ball for his efforts in that contest as well . . . Had five tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble at Oakland (12/6) . . . His two sacks were among eight on the day by Miami as a team, tied for the second-highest single-game total in franchise history, as Taylor received a defensive game ball . . . Registered seven tackles and a sack vs. Denver (12/21) . . . Sustained a fractured right clavicle in the first half of season finale at Atlanta (12/27) . . . Was placed on Injured Reserve on December 29, and missed both of Miami's playoff games following the 1998 season.

1997 – Played in 13 games with 11 starts at right defensive end as a rookie . . . Was inactive for three contests with a fractured right forearm . . . Finished with 50 total tackles (43 solo), five sacks for 37 yards lost, two fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles and three passes defensed . . . Also came up with six special teams tackles on the year . . . Sack total tied with Derrick Rodgers and Tim Bowens for second on the squad . . . His five sacks tied Rodgers for the fourth-most ever by a Dolphins rookie at the time (now fifth), and they tied for fourth among NFL rookies in 1997, along with Minnesota's Dwayne Rudd:

Zach's work both on and off the field has made his eight-year tenure in Miami an extremely successful one. He has participated in numerous worthwhile endeavors that have touched many lives. None touched him, though, quite as much as the one he was involved with in May of 2003, when he and teammate and brother-in-law Jason Taylor visited various military bases and hospitals throughout Germany. There was one Marine in a hospital that made Thomas evaluate what's really important in life. "He felt like he was letting his guys down," Thomas said. "He wanted to go back out. They put their lives on the line every day. That's a true hero. We need to think about them. They are the true heroes. If they mess up, somebody is dead. This is no game. I was so proud to be an American, watching how they stick together."

Dolphins linebacker in a season, trailing only the four that John Bramlett accounted for in 1967 . . . In addition to Thomas having tallied three interceptions three times, Earnie Rhone did it in both 1980 and 1981, while Tom Erlandson (1966), Nick Buoniconti (1969), Ed Weisacosky (1969), Doug Swift (1972) and Larry Gordon (1978) attained that total once each . . . In Monday night game against San Diego in Tempe, Ariz., tallied nine tackles while also picking off a Drew Brees pass as the Dolphins held the Chargers to 250 yards of total offense in a 26-10 win . . . Registered a regular season career-high 22 tackles the following week vs. Indianapolis (11/2), but sustained a groin injury in the game and was inactive the week afterwards at Tennessee (11/9) . . . His total from the Colts contest topped his previous best of 21 tackles, which he achieved in the 2002 finale, at New England (12/29) . . . In first game back following the injury, vs. Baltimore (11/16), posted ten tackles while also recovering a Jamal Lewis fumble at the Ravens' 33 in overtime, leading to Olindo Mare's game-winning field goal four plays later . . . On Thanksgiving Day at Dallas (11/27), recorded eight tackles, a sack and an interception of a Quincy Carter pass . . . The interception was the 14th of his career, tying him with Earnie Rhone for the most-ever by a Dolphins linebacker . . . In Monday night contest vs. Philadelphia (12/15), notched 12 tackles, two passes defensed, a forced fumble and an interception of a Donovan McNabb pass . . . It was the 15th interception of his career, as he became the Dolphins' all-time leader among linebackers for interceptions . . . Registered 14 tackles and a fumble recovery at Buffalo (12/21) . . . Pounced on a Drew Bledsoe fumble at the Bills' 33 following a Tim Bowens sack, which led to a Mare field goal . . .

PRO BOWL: Was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad for the fifth straight time. . . Was one of four Dolphins representatives, all on defense . . . Became the first Dolphin selected to five or more straight Pro Bowl squads since T Richmond Webb earned the honor seven times in a row, from 1990-96 . . . He became the first Dolphin defender chosen to the Pro Bowl five consecutive times since LB John Offerdahl also was voted five straight seasons, from 1986-90 . . .

POSTSEASON HONORS: Following the season, was a first-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press and Sports Illustrated . . . Was a second-team pick by Football Digest . . .

CAREER TACKLES: In his career, has recorded 1,315 total tackles, including 892 solo stops . . . Has reached the 100-tackle plateau in each of his eight NFL seasons . . . Has led the Dolphins in tackles in seven of his eight seasons, including each of his first four . . . In fact, his season totals from five of those seasons (1996, 1998, 2001-03) all rank among the top ten figures in Dolphins history . . .

Also came up with his lone interception of the year as he picked off a Drew Brees pass . . . Was awarded a defensive game ball in the Dolphins' 23-17 win over the eventual AFC champion Oakland Raiders (12/15), as he produced 10 tackles . . . Posted a season-high 21 tackles in season-finale at New England (12/29), when he also came up with a pass defensed and his only fumble recovery of the year . . . His tackle total in that game marked a career-best to that point and surpassed his previous single-game regular season best of 19 tackles, which he attained on November 1, 1998 at Buffalo . . .

PRO BOWL: Was selected as a starter for the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the fourth straight time that he was chosen to the Pro Bowl and his second as a starter . . . One of seven Dolphins selected, tied for the second-most in team history (2000), trailing only the eight that were chosen following the 1984 season . . . Led the AFC with five tackles in the '03 game, in addition to accounting for an interception, as the AFC recorded a 45-20 victory . . .

POSTSEASON HONORS: Following the season, was a first-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press and a first-team All-AFC choice by Pro Football Weekly . . .

2001 – Started all 15 games in which he played at middle linebacker . . . Tied a career-high (since surpassed) that he first set in his rookie season of 1996 with 180 total tackles (112 solo) . . . Added three sacks for 27 yards lost, two interceptions for 51 yards and a touchdown, two forced fumbles and six passes defensed . . . Topped the team's tackle chart on 12 occasions during the course of the year . . . Along with CB Sam Madison, was chosen as a co-captain on defense in a vote of his teammates . . . In opener at Tennessee (9/9), led team with 12 tackles while also picking off a Neil O'Donnell pass and returning it 34 yards for a touchdown, the tenth interception of his career and his fourth for a touchdown, breaking the club's career mark which he had shared with Dick Anderson . . . For his performance, was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week . . . Led club with 15 stops, while adding two passes defensed, in win vs. Oakland (9/23), as the Dolphins held the Raiders to just 216 yards of total offense . . . Recorded nine tackles, 1.5 sacks and a forced fumble at N.Y. Jets (10/14) marking the first time in his career he had tallied more than one sack in a game . . . Recorded a team-high 12 tackles at Indianapolis (11/11) . . . Also picked off a Peyton Manning pass that he returned 17 yards . . . Interception occurred in the third quarter and led to an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal on the third play of the fourth quarter as the Dolphins closed their deficit to 24-20 in a game they went on to win, 27-24 . . . Posted a total of 55 tackles over his final three games of the year . . . This included 18 tackles at San Francisco (12/16), a season-high 19 stops at New England (12/22) and 18 tackles vs. Atlanta (12/30), in which the Dolphins limited the Falcons to 226 yards of total offense and clinched a playoff berth in the process . . . In the Falcons game, registered 1.5 sacks, tying a career-best that he first achieved in the Jets game on October 14 . . . Also included among his 18 tackles were three critical goal-line stops . . . Combined with Morlon

Greenwood to tackle Maurice Smith on second-and-goal from the two-yard line with 4:24 left in the third quarter . . . Two plays later, stopped Smith on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line . . . Teamed with Kenny Mixon to deny Bob Christian on third-and-goal from the 1 with 1:13 to play in the game . . . Was honored as the AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Falcons . . . Was inactive for season finale vs. Buffalo (1/6/02) with a cervical and right shoulder strain . . . Started First-Round Playoff game vs. Baltimore (1/13/02) at middle linebacker . . . Led team with a career-high 22 total tackles (14 solo) . . .

PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Thomas was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week on two occasions in 2001 . . . He was cited in Week 1 (31-23 win at Tennessee, 9/9) and in Week 16 (21-14 win vs. Atlanta) . . . They marked the first two Player of the Week awards in Thomas' NFL career . . . When he earned the accolade in the season-opening win over the Titans, he became the first Dolphins linebacker to do so since Derrick Rodgers in Week 7 of 1997 (at N.Y. Jets, 10/12) . . . He was the first Dolphins defender to win the award since S Brian Walker in Week 11 of 2000 (at San Diego, 11/12) . . .

POSTSEASON HONORS: Was chosen as a reserve for the AFC Pro Bowl squad, although he was not able to play . . . It marked his third consecutive selection . . . Was named a second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press . . . Was named the team's MVP in a vote of South Florida media and fans . . . Named as the captain of the "All-Iron Team" as selected by CBS analyst Phil Simms . . . Posted a team and season-high 12 stops two weeks later in 19-6 win over Baltimore (9/17) . . . Notched nine tackles and a fumble recovery in 10-3 victory over New England (9/24) before leaving the game early with a sprained right ankle . . . Was inactive the following week at Cincinnati (10/1) . . . The Bengals game marked just the second in his career he had missed to that point, with the first being on August 31, 1997 against Indianapolis when he was recovering from a fractured left fibula . . . By sitting out against the Bengals, it also snapped a string of 51 consecutive contests in which he had played and started . . . Returned to action in 22-13 win vs. Buffalo (10/8) and topped team's tackle chart with seven . . . Re-aggravated his sprained right ankle at N.Y. Jets (10/23) when he registered nine tackles . . . Was then inactive for each of the next four games: vs. Green Bay (10/29), at Detroit (11/5), at San Diego (11/12) and vs. N.Y. Jets (11/19) . . . Returned to the field for 17-14 win at Indianapolis (11/26) and led the team with ten stops . . . Was credited with seven tackles, including his only sack of the year, vs. Tampa Bay (12/10) . . . In season-ending win at New England (12/24), which clinched the AFC East title for the Dolphins, turned in a nine-tackle performance, which included his only interception of the year . . . That came with 3:44 to play in the game when he picked off a Drew Bledsoe pass, leading to the Dolphins' game-winning drive that culminated with an Olindo Mare field goal . . . The interception also was the ninth of his career, moving him past Nick Buoniconti, Larry Gordon and Bob Matheson into sole possession of second on the Dolphins' career list for interceptions among linebackers, trailing only Earnie Rhone (14) . . . Started both playoff games following the season at middle linebacker . . . Led the team in the postseason with 19 total tackles (14 solo), including 12 in Divisional contest at Oakland (1/6/01) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was selected by Raiders Coach Jon Gruden as the "need" player for the AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . It marked Thomas' second straight Pro Bowl selection, becoming the first Dolphins linebacker selected to play in the Pro Bowl in consecutive seasons since Bryan Cox from 1994-95 . . . In addition, Thomas was one of seven Dolphins to play in the Pro Bowl following the 2000 season, the most representatives by the team since they also had seven following the 1984 campaign.

1999 – Signed a new five-year contract through the 2003 season on February 12, 1999 . . . Started all 16 regular season games at middle linebacker for the second straight year and third time in his four NFL seasons . . . Led the team in tackles for the fourth consecutive campaign, as he tallied 167 total stops (117 solo), a figure which was the second-most of his NFL career to that point, now fifth . . . It also ranked as the fifth-highest in Dolphins history, now eighth . . . Was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career, and started in the game . . . Thomas became the third Dolphin in team history to lead the club in tackles four or more straight seasons, joining Nick Buoniconti (1969-73) and Bryan Cox (1992-95) . . . In a vote of his

FINS FACT

Derrius first started playing football at nine years of age. He played receiver from the first day he stepped onto the field and never played anything else. "They were trying to figure out a position for me, Derrius recalls. "I was skinny, but I wasn't the smallest and I wasn't the fastest. The reason they put me at receiver was because I was the only one who had enough coordination to catch the ball." He knew from that time forward that he wanted to play in the NFL. In fact, the only other job he's ever had was a two-week stint working at a Waco, Texas car wash during college.

2000 – Spent six games on the Redskins' practice squad and nine on the 53-man roster . . . Saw action in a reserve role in four games, was inactive for five . . . Did not post any stats.

1999 – Went to camp with Washington as an undrafted college free agent . . . Spent the first nine weeks of the season on the practice squad . . . Was signed to the 53-man roster on November 16 . . . Was inactive for each of the next six contests . . . Made NFL debut, in a reserve role, in regular season finale vs. Miami (1/2/00) . . . Was inactive for both playoff games.

COLLEGE

Was a four-year letterman (1995-98) at Baylor . . . Finished his career with 78 receptions for 1,088 yards and two touchdowns . . . Totaled career-best figures of 33 catches for 478 yards and a score as a senior . . . Majored in sports management.

PERSONAL

Single, resides in Dallas, Texas . . . Prepped at Cedar Hill (Texas) High School where he was a Blue Chip All-America selection and a two-time all-district wide receiver . . . Was active in the community during his tenure in Washington, including work with the "Redskins Read" program, in which he read to children and teamed up with Federal Express to distribute 25,000 books to D.C. students . . . Cousin, Reyna Thompson, was a cornerback in the NFL for ten years including Miami (1986-88), N.Y. Giants (1989-92) and New England (1993-95) . . . Full name is Derrius Damon Thompson, born July 5, 1977 in Dallas.

DOLPHINS STINGY AGAINST THE RUN

The Dolphins did not allow an individual 100-yard rusher last season, the first team to achieve this feat since the 2001 St. Louis Rams. In fact, entering 2004, the Dolphins have not permitted a player to gain 100 yards rushing in 20 consecutive contests dating back to 2002. That streak is the longest in the NFL since the Rams went 21 games in-a-row over a three-year period, from 2000-02. The last opponent to surpass the 100-yard rushing plateau against the Dolphins was Buffalo's Travis Henry, who picked amassed 151 yards and a TD on 35 carries on December 1, 2002 at Ralph Wilson Stadium.

PRO CAREER

2003 – Started all 16 games . . . Became the first Dolphins running back to start every regular season game in consecutive seasons since Larry Csonka opened all 14 contests each year between 1970-73 . . . Rushed for a team-high 1,372 yards and nine touchdowns on 392 attempts . . . Became just the second player in team history to record multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons, joining Csonka, who did it each year from 1971-73 . . . Also caught 50 passes for 351 yards and one TD . . . Rushing total was the second-highest single-season figure in Dolphins history, trailing only Williams' 1,853 yards from 2002 . . . It represented the ninth 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history . . . His total in 2003 also placed sixth in the AFC and 10th in the NFL . . . Reception total ranked second on the squad, while his receiving yardage figure was fourth . . . Racked up 1,723 total yards from scrimmage, sixth in the conference and ninth in the league . . . It also was the second-highest single-season figure in club annals, trailing only his 2,216 yards from 2002 . . . Put together seven 100-yard rushing days on the year, the second-highest single-season total in franchise history, trailing only his ten from 2002 . . . Accounted for 79 first downs on the season (68 rushing, 11 receiving), the eighth-highest figure in the AFC and 13th in the NFL . . .

SINGLE-SEASON RUSHING YARDS, ATTEMPTS & TOUCHDOWNS: In 2003, Williams established the club's single-season record for rush attempts with 392, breaking the standard that he had set the year before with 383 . . . His 1,372 yards rushing marked the second-highest single-season figure in franchise history, trailing only his 1,853 yards that he compiled in 2002:

RECORD WITH 100+ RUSHING YARDS: In 2003, the Dolphins were 6-1 in games when Williams rushed for 100 yards or more . . . In Williams' two seasons with the club, the Dolphins have posted a mark of 14-3 when he has run for 100 yards or more . . . Overall in his five NFL seasons, the teams for which he has played have poduced a record of 21-8 in games when he has reached the 100-yard rushing plateau . . .

TOUCHDOWNS: Williams scored a touchdown in each of the first five games of 2003 . . . Along with his touchdown in the final game of the 2002 season, he scored a touchdown in six straight games . . . That tied a team record for most consecutive games with a touchdown, along with Paul Warfield, who scored a touchdown in six consecutive contests in 1972, and Mark Clayton, who scored in six games in a row over a two-year period, from 1988-89 . . .

DURABILITY: Williams has shown tremendous durability during his career . . . In fact, he enters the 2004 season having started 48 straight games dating back to his first game of 2001 as a New Orleans Saint . . . This streak is tied for the third-longest active starting streak among NFL running backs, along with San Diego's LaDainian Tomlinson . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. HOUSTON (SEPT. 7): Led the Dolphins in rushing with 17 carries for 69 yards and added five receptions for 60 yards and one touchdown, which came on a 35-yard TD pass from Jay Fiedler . . . It marked his lone receiving touchdown of the season . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (SEPT. 14): Led the Dolphins in rushing with 34 carries for 125 yards and one touchdown, which came on a two-yard run . . . Also tied for the team lead in receptions with four catches for 37 yards . . . It was his first 100-yard rushing game of the year, and his 11th as a Dolphin, moving him past Mercury Morris into sole possession of second place for most 100-yard rushing games by a Dolphin . . .

VS. BUFFALO (SEPT. 21): Led the Dolphins in rushing with 42 carries for 153 yards and one touchdown, which came on a one-yard run . . . His 42 rushing attempts set a new team record for most carries, breaking the former club record of 40 rushes by Lamar Smith in an AFC First Round playoff game vs. Indianapolis on December 30, 2000 . . . It also was a new single game career high for Williams, surpassing his former high of 40 carries, which was set on October 31, 1999 vs. Cleveland as a member of the New Orleans Saints . . . His 42 carries, combined with his 34 carries in his previous game against the Jets, gave him a total of 76 rushing attempts in consecutive games, which tied an NFL record set by Earl Campbell of the Houston Oilers, who totaled 76 carries in two straight games in 1981 (37 carries vs. Cincinnati on October 4 and 39 carries vs. Seattle on October 11 that year) . . . In the contest, he moved past Lamar Smith (2,107) and Benny Malone (2,129) into ninth place among the Dolphins' all-time leading rushers . . . For his efforts in that contest he was named as the FedEx Ground NFL Player of the Week . . .

AT JACKSONVILLE (OCT. 12): Topped the Dolphins' rushing chart with 19 carries for 75 yards and one touchdown, which came on a 14-yard run . . . Along with his touchdown in the final game of the 2002 season, it was the sixth straight game he scored a touchdown, tying a team record for most consecutive games with a touchdown, along with Paul Warfield, who scored a touchdown in six straight games in 1972, and Mark Clayton, who scored in six consecutive games over a two-year period, from 1988-89.

VS. WASHINGTON (NOV. 23): Led the Dolphins in rushing with 23 carries for 107 yards and two touchdowns . . . Added two receptions for ten yards . . . It was his fourth 100-yard rushing game of the year, his 14th as a Dolphin, and the 26th of his career . . . His touchdowns came on runs of one and 24 yards, with both coming in the fourth quarter to key a Dolphins comeback . . . His one-yard run came on a fourth and goal situation with the Dolphins trailing 23-10, and his 24-yard TD run came with 4:19 left in the contest to give the Dolphins their final score in a 24-23 come from behind victory . . . It was the first time in 2003 and the 11th time in his career that he had two rushing touchdowns in a game . . .

AT DALLAS (NOV. 27): On Thanksgiving Day, led the Dolphins in rushing with 31 carries for 104 yards and added four receptions for 41 yards . . . It was his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the year and his 15th as a Dolphin, tying Larry Csonka's club all-time mark . . . In addition, Williams went over the 1,000 yard rushing milestone in the contest, his fourth career 1,000-yard rushing season and his second as a Dolphin, as he became only the second player in team history (along with Csonka) to record multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons . . .

VS. PHILADELPHIA (DEC. 15): In Monday night game, led the Dolphins in rushing with 18 carries for 107 yards and one touchdown, which came on a three-yard run . . . Had a season-long 45-yard run in that contest . . . It was his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the year and his 16th as a Dolphin as he broke Larry Csonka's team record of 15 career 100-yard rushing games . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (DEC. 28): Led the Dolphins in rushing with 20 carries for 73 yards and one touchdown, which occurred on a 16-yard run . . . Added four catches for a season-high 72 yards, including a 59-yard reception, the longest catch of his career, surpassing his previous long catch of 52 yards that he had on September 15, 2002 at Indianapolis.

2002 – Was acquired by Miami from New Orleans on March 8, 2002 in exchange for a first-round draft choice in 2002 (25th overall) and a conditional third-round pick in 2003 . . . That pick became a first round choice (18th overall) when he reached the 1,500-yard rushing mark in 2002 . . . In the trade, the teams also swapped positions in the fourth round of the 2002 draft . . . Started all 16 games in his first season with the Dolphins . . . Became the first Dolphin to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,853 yards and 16 touchdowns on 383 attempts . . . It marked just the eighth time that a Dolphin reached the 1,000-yard rushing mark in a season, and he became the sixth different player to do it . . . Also caught 47 passes for 363 yards and one touchdown . . . Reception total was second on the squad and yardage figure was fourth . . . 2,216 total yards from scrimmage were second-most in the AFC and in the NFL, trailing only Kansas City's Priest Holmes (2,287) . . . 17 total touchdowns tied for second in the AFC and third in the NFL . . . Was the first Dolphins running back to start all 16 games since Sammie Smith in 1990 . . . Accounted for 103 first downs on the season (89 rushing, 14 receiving), the third-highest figure in the AFC and in the NFL . . . On the year, established seven Dolphins single-season records and two single-game standards in regular season play . . .

RUSHING YARDS, ATTEMPTS & TOUCHDOWNS: In 2002, Williams established the club's single-season records for rushing yards, attempts and touchdowns . . . His 1,853 yards broke Delvin Williams' 14-year old yardage record of 1,258, which he set in 1978 . . . His 383 attempts surpassed the previous mark set by Lamar Smith, who had 313 carries in 2001 . . . His 16 rushing touchdowns were one more than the total that Karim Abdul-Jabbar amassed in 1997 . . .

NFL RUSHING LEADER: Williams became the first Dolphin to lead the NFL in rushing . . . With 1,853 yards, Williams' total was 170 more than San Diego's LaDainian Tomlinson . . .

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES: Williams accounted for ten 100-yard rushing games in 2002, shattering the Dolphins single-season record of five, formerly held by Delvin Williams (1978) . . . This included a season-high 228 yards at Buffalo on December 1, which represents a club single-game record . . . He reached the single-season mark when he accounted for 143 yards and two touchdowns on 29 attempts in a 30-3 win over San Diego on November 24 at Pro Player Stadium, his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the year . . . Williams also became the first player in club history to produce more than two 100-yard rushing games in a row, having accomplished the feat on two occasions . . . He went over the 100-yard barrier in each of the first three games of the year, and put together five straight such performances in games 10-14 . . .

200-YARDS RUSHING: Williams had two 200-yard rushing games on the season . . . This included a 228-yard effort at Buffalo on December 1, marking a new career-high and establishing the Dolphins' single-game record, as he eclipsed the old mark of 209, first set by Lamar Smith in a First-Round Playoff game against Indianapolis on December 30, 2000 . . . It was the first 200-yard rushing game by a Dolphin in the regular season . . . The previous regular season record was 197 yards by Mercury Morris against New England on September 30, 1973 . . . The following week in a Monday night game against Chicago, he amassed 216 yards rushing . . . Williams now owns each of the top two single-game rushing totals, and three of the top four regular season (three of the top five, including playoffs) marks in Dolphins history:

PLAYER OF THE WEEK/MONTH: During the course of the 2002 season, Williams was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week on two occasions, the second and third times in his career that he has come away with an NFL weekly honor . . . His first AFC Offensive Player of the Week honor came for the games of November 24-25, following his performance against San Diego on November 24 in which he led the Dolphins with 29 carries for 143 yards and two touchdowns and added two catches for eight yards . . . It marked the first time that a Dolphin was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week in the regular season since the 2000 season-opener when running back Lamar Smith earned that honor against Seattle . . . He also was named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the games of December 8-9, following his performance in a Monday night win over Chicago on December 9, in which he rushed for 216 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries . . . He became just the third Dolphin to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Week accolades two or more times in the same season during the regular season, joining quarterback Dan Marino, who did it on five occasions (1984, 1985, 1988, 1989, 1999) and quarterback Scott Mitchell, who won the honor twice in 1993 . . . Williams' first weekly award of his career occurred in 2001 as a member of the Saints when he was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week in the season's fourth week as he rushed for 136 yards and a touchdown on 30 carries and caught five passes for 42 yards in a win against Minnesota . . . In addition, Williams was named NFC Offensive Player of the Month for October, 2001 as a member of the Saints, when he rushed for 411 yards and two touchdowns on 99 carries, and caught 22 passes for 157 yards in four games . . .

PRO BOWL: Was one of seven Dolphins selected to the 2002 AFC Pro Bowl team, the most in the AFC . . . It marked his first career Pro Bowl appearance . . . He became the first Dolphins running back to be named to the Pro Bowl since Andra Franklin was chosen in 1982 (Keith Byars was selected as a fullback in 1993) . . . Overall, Williams became the sixth running back in team history chosen to the Pro Bowl, along with Byars (1993), Larry Csonka (1970-74), Franklin (1982), Mercury Morris (1971-73), and Delvin Williams (1978) . . . In the AFC's 45-20 victory, led the squad in rushing with 56 yards and two touchdowns on 11 carries . . . Added three receptions for 18 yards and a forced fumble on special teams . . . For his efforts, was named the game's MVP, becoming the second player in Dolphins history to earn the honor, joining kicker Garo Yepremian, who was named MVP of the 1974 Pro Bowl . . .

POSTSEASON HONORS: Following the season, Williams earned All-Pro status from virtually every media outlet . . . He was a first-team selection by the Associated Press, Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest, The Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Also was named to the "All-Iron" Team as selected by CBS-TV analyst Phil Simms . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. DETROIT (SEPT. 8): In his Dolphins debut, rushed for 111 yards and two touchdowns on 20 attempts, marking the 13th 100-yard rushing game of his career . . . Did not play at all in the fourth quarter as the Dolphins held a 42-14 lead entering the final period . . . His touchdowns came on runs of one and two yards . . . It marked the 12th 100-yard rushing game by a Dolphin in a season-opener and was the ninth-highest by a Dolphin on opening day . . . It also was the fifth-best rushing total by a Dolphin in his debut with the team . . . His two rushing touchdowns and his two overall touchdowns both were tied for the second highest single-game total of his career . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (SEPT. 15): Accounted for back-to-back 100-yard rushing games with 132 yards on 24 carries . . . Also caught two passes for a team-high 62 yards . . . This included a season-long 52-yard reception and a ten-yard TD pass from Jay Fiedler . . . It marked the first time a Dolphin posted consecutive 100-yard rushing games since 1994 when Bernie Parmalee had two straight 100-yard rushing games on October 16 (150 yards vs. the L.A. Raiders) and October 30 (123 yards at New England) . . . It was the tenth time in team history a Dolphins running back had back-to-back 100-yard rushing games . . . His receiving touchdown, along with Rob Konrad's nine-yard scoring catch from Fiedler, marked the first time two Dolphins running backs had at least one touchdown reception in the same game since December 12, 1988 against Cleveland, when Jim Jensen and Lorenzo Hampton each caught a touchdown pass from Dan Marino . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (SEPT. 22): Rushed for 151 yards and a touchdown on 24 attempts, and caught two passes for 23 yards in the Dolphins' 30-3 victory . . . It marked the 15th 100-yard rushing game of his career as he became the first Dolphin in club history to rush for 100 yards in three consecutive games . . . His 53-yard run in the game was the longest of his career to that point and now is the third-longest . . . Coupled with his 132 yards rushing the previous week at Indianapolis, his 283 yards rushing in those two contests was the most by a Dolphin in back-to-back games to that point, breaking the former team record of 273 yards rushing in consecutive games that was set by Bernie Parmalee in 1994 (150 yards rushing on Oct. 16, 1994 vs. L.A. Raiders and 123 yards rushing on Oct. 30, 1994 at New England) . . . Williams also had 110 yards rushing in the second half of the game, becoming the first Dolphin to rush for 100 or more yards in a half since Lamar Smith had 109 yards rushing in the first half against the Jets on October 23, 2000 in New York . . .

VS. BALTIMORE (NOV. 17): Rushed for 102 yards on 26 attempts and two touchdowns . . . Led the Dolphins in receiving as well with five catches for 28 yards . . . It was his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season (17th of career), as he tied Delvin Williams' club single-season record for most 100-yard rushing games first set in 1978 . . . His touchdowns came on runs of two and four yards . . . The two rushing touchdowns and his two overall touchdowns both tied for the second highest single-game total of his career . . . It was the third time on the season and the sixth time in his career that he had two rushing touchdowns in a game . . . For Williams, it began a streak of four straight games with a pair of rushing touchdowns . . .

Williams, R. • 273

VS. SAN DIEGO (NOV. 24): Rushed for 143 yards and two touchdowns on 29 carries and caught two passes for eight yards . . . His touchdowns came on runs of one and 12 yards . . . It was his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season (18th of career), as he eclipsed Delvin Williams' team single-season record of five, which had been set in 1978 . . . In addition, Ricky Williams went over the 1,000 yard rushing mark for the season in the contest, reaching that plateau in 11 games, tying Delvin Williams for the fewest games in a season to reach 1,000 yards rushing; Delvin Williams reached 1,000 yards rushing in 11 games in 1978 . . . His two rushing touchdowns and his two overall touchdowns both tied for the second highest single-game total of his career . . . It was the fourth time on the season and the seventh time in his career that he had two rushing touchdowns in a game . . . For his efforts in that contest, Williams was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for games of November 24-25 . . .

AT BUFFALO (DEC. 1): Turned in the most prolific rushing day in Dolphins history with 228 yards and two touchdowns on 27 attempts . . . His rushing total represents the highest single-game rushing total of his career, breaking his former single-game best of 179 yards rushing on 40 carries on October 31, 1999 against Cleveland as a member of the New Orleans Saints . . . It also was a new Dolphins record for most yards rushing in a single game, breaking the overall club record of 209 yards on 40 carries, set by Lamar Smith on December 30, 2000 against Indianapolis in an AFC First-Round Playoff game, and breaking the Dolphins regular season single-game rushing record, set by Mercury Morris with 197 yards rushing on 15 carries on September 30, 1973 against New England . . . It also was the second highest single-game rushing total in a loss in NFL history, surpassed only by O. J. Simpson's 273 yards rushing on November 25, 1976 as a member of the Buffalo Bills in their 27-14 loss at Detroit . . . Williams also set a new Dolphins single-season rushing record, breaking Delvin Williams' former club record of 1,258 yards that he set in 1978 . . . In that contest, Ricky Williams had 121 yards rushing in the first half, marking the second time in 2002 that he surpassed the 100-yard rushing mark in one half . . . He then had 107 yards rushing in the second half of the game, marking the third time in '02 that he recorded 100 or more yards rushing in a half . . . In addition, his total of 224 yards rushing after three quarters is the highest rushing total in NFL history after three quarters of play . . . It was his seventh 100-yard rushing game of the season and the 19th of his career . . . His touchdowns came on a 45-yard run on the Dolphins' first play from scrimmage and a 55-yard run in the third quarter . . . The 55-yard run is the second-longest run of his career and the 45-yard scamper is tied for the fourth-longest . . . It marked the fifth time in 2002 and the eighth time in his career that he had two rushing touchdowns in a game . . .

VS. CHICAGO (DEC. 9): In a Monday night win over Chicago, rushed for 216 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries, marking his second consecutive 200-yard rushing performance and the fourth straight game in which he posted a pair of rushing scores . . . His touchdowns came on runs of 15 and 63 yards . . . The 63-yard run marked a career-long . . . His rushing total represents the second highest single-game rushing total of his career and the second highest single-game total in Dolphins history . . . It was the second highest single-game rushing figure in Monday Night Football history, surpassed only by the 221 yards by the Raiders' Bo Jackson on November 30, 1987 at Seattle . . . It also was the most yards rushing by an individual against the Bears in that team's history . . . It was his fourth straight 100-yard rushing game, setting a new club record for most consecutive 100-yard rushing games . . . Overall, it was his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the season and the 20th of his career . . . It was the sixth time in '02 and the ninth time in his career that he had two rushing touchdowns in a game . . . For his efforts, Williams was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the games of December 8-9 . . .

VS. OAKLAND (DEC. 15): Put together his fifth consecutive 100-yard rushing game by compiling 101 yards on 27 attempts . . . It was his ninth 100-yard rushing game of the season and the 21st of his career . . . Also had five receptions for 39 yards . . . In the contest, surpassed Lamar Smith as the club's single-season leader for most rush attempts, which Smith had set in 2001 with 313 . . . Did not have a touchdown, snapping his string of four straight games with a score . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (DEC. 29): Rushed for 185 yards and two touchdowns on 31 attempts . . . Added two receptions for seven yards . . . His 185 yards rushing is the fourth-highest single game rushing total in Dolphin history (fifth, including playoffs) . . . It was his tenth 100-yard rushing game of the season and the 22nd of his career . . . The ten 100-yard rushing games in a career tied him with Mercury Morris for the second-most ever by a Dolphin . . . In the game he set a new Dolphins club record for most rushing touchdowns in a season . . . He tied the mark of 15, first set by Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1997, with his eight-yard run in the first quarter . . . He set the record with a 14-yard TD in the second quarter . . . It was the seventh time in '02 and the tenth time in his career that he had two rushing touchdowns in a game.

2001 – Started all 16 games in which he played with the Saints . . . Rushed for 1,245 yards and six touchdowns on 313 carries, and caught 60 passes for 511 yards and one score . . . It marked the seventh 1,000-yard rushing season in Saints history, and the first time it had been achieved in back-to-back seasons . . . He joined George Rogers (1981, 1983) as the only players in Saints history to rush for 1,000 yards two times (now three) . . . Rushing total was the fourth-highest single-season total in Saints history at the time (now sixth) . . . It also ranked fourth in the NFC and eighth in the NFL in '01 . . . Was third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with 1,756 total yards from scrimmage . . . Reception total was the second-most by a running back in Saints history, trailing only the 74 catches by Tony Galbreath in 1978 . . . Reception figure also tied for 19th in the NFC and tied for sixth among conference running backs . . . Totaled 77 first downs on the year (58 rushing, 19 receiving), fourth in the NFC and tied for eighth in the NFL . . . Rushed for 136 yards and a touchdown on 30 attempts and caught five passes for 42 yards vs. Minnesota (10/7) in the Saints' 28-15 victory . . . For his efforts, was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career . . . The following week at Carolina, compiled 147 yards rushing and a score on 31 carries, and tallied four receptions for 31 yards in a 27-25 win . . . Had a season-long 46-yard run in the game . . . Score came on a one-yard TD run as time expired to provide New Orleans with the winning margin . . . Had 51 yards rushing on 21 carries while tying a career-high with nine receptions for 65 yards vs. Atlanta (10/21) . . . In four games during the month of October, totaled 411 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 99 attempts (4.2 avg.) and caught 22 passes for 157 yards . . . For his performance, was named NFC Offensive Player of the Month . . . Rushed for 121 yards on 24 carries and had three receptions for 52 yards at San Francisco (11/11), as he surpassed Mario Bates for sixth on the club's all-time rushing list . . . Ran for 120 yards, including a 14-yard TD, on 28 carries, and had four receptions for 48 yards the week afterwards vs. Indianapolis (11/18) . . . Rushed 27 times for 102 yards and had four receptions for 72 yards, including a season-long 42-yard catch, vs. Carolina (12/2), as he moved ahead of Tony Galbreath into fifth on the Saints' career rushing chart . . . In just three years with the Saints, compiled 3,129 yards rushing, good for fifth on the team's all-time rushing chart.

2000 – Started all ten games in which he played . . . Missed each of the final six games of the year with a broken left ankle . . . Rushed for 1,000 yards and eight touchdowns on 248 attempts and caught 44 passes for 409 yards and one score . . . It marked the sixth 1,000-yard rushing season in Saints history, and he became just the fifth different player to accomplish the feat . . . Rushing total ranked 12th in the NFC and 23rd in the NFL . . . At the time of his injury, with six games still to play, his 1,000 rushing yards were second-most in the NFC while his 1,409 total yards from scrimmage also were second in the conference . . . At San Diego (9/10), rushed for 50 yards on 24 attempts and caught four passes for 27 yards, including a 13-yard TD catch from Jeff Blake for his first NFL touchdown reception . . . Rushed for 107 yards on 23 carries the following week at Seattle (9/17), commencing a string of five games in a row in which he reached the 100-yard rushing mark . . . Tied a team mark by rushing for 128 yards and a touchdown on 30 carries at Chicago (10/8), his third straight 100-yard rushing effort, tying George Rogers (1981), Wayne Wilson (1983) and Dalton Hilliard (1989) for that honor . . . In addition, the Bears game marked the first of five in a row that he tallied a rushing touchdown . . . Rushed 38 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns, and had three receptions for 35 yards vs. Carolina (10/15), as he established the club record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games at four . . . Also had a 34-yard completion to Keith Poole in the Panthers contest, his first NFL completion . . . The week afterwards at Atlanta (10/22), ran for a season-high 156 yards and three touchdowns on 29 carries, as he registered his fifth straight 100-yard rushing game . . . The three rushing touchdowns tied a club record that had previously been achieved by six others, most recently by Mario Bates at L.A. Rams on December 4, 1994 . . . Although the streak ended the following week at Arizona (10/29) with 54 yards rushing and a TD on 21 attempts, turned in the best receiving day of his career with nine catches for 92 yards . . . Rushed for 81 yards and a touchdown on 27 carries vs. San Francisco (11/5) . . . The score came on a one-yard run in the second quarter, marking the fifth straight game in which he had a rushing touchdown, tying the club record first set by Hilliard in 1989 . . . Compiled 93 yards on 16 attempts at Carolina (11/12) . . . Final carry was a two-yard run in the fourth quarter as he reached 1,000 yards rushing for the season . . . Sustained a broken left ankle on the play and was inactive each of the final six regular season games and NFC Wild Card Playoff game vs. St. Louis (12/30) . . . Saw limited action in a reserve role in Divisional Playoff contest at Minnesota (1/6/01) . . . Had six carries for 14 yards and one reception for two yards.

1990 – Started all 12 games in which he played as a rookie . . . Rushed for 884 yards and two touchdowns on 253 attempts and caught 28 passes for 172 yards . . . It stands as the third-best rushing figure by a rookie in Saints history, trailing only the 1,674 yards by George Rogers in 1981 and the 1,353 yards by Rueben Mayes in 1986 . . . It was the tenth-highest rushing total in the NFC and 20th in the NFL in 1999 . . . It was the most by a rookie in the NFC and third-most among NFL rookies, trailing only Indianapolis' Edgerrin James (1,553) and Denver's Olandis Gary (1,159) . . . First career 100-yard rushing game occurred in his sixth NFL game when he rushed for 111 yards on 25 attempts at N.Y. Giants (10/24) . . . In the process, became the first Saints rookie to rush for 100 yards since Mario Bates had 141 yards on 22 carries vs. Atlanta on November 13, 1994 . . . Followed up that performance by registering 179 yards on 40 carries vs. Cleveland (10/31), marking the third-highest single-game rushing total in Saints history and the second-best by a rookie . . . His 40 attempts represented a new club single-game best, as he surpassed the previous mark of 35, held by both Earl Campbell (at Minnesota, 11/24/85) and Dwight Beverly (at St. Louis, 10/11/87) . . . Became the first Saint since Bates in 1995 to account for 100 rushing yards in consecutive games . . . First-round draft choice (5th overall) by New Orleans in 1999 with a choice obtained from Washington in a draft-day trade-up, in which the Saints surrendered their six remaining picks in the 1999 draft, and first- and third-round draft choices in 2000.

DOLPHINS PERFECT IN 1972

The 1972 Dolphins continue to hold the distinction of being the only unbeaten, untied team through the playoffs. Miami went a perfect 17-0 in winning Super Bowl VII. In that season, the Dolphins became the first team to lead the NFL in scoring offense and defense in the same season since the 1970 merger of the AFL and NFL. Since that time, the only other team that has led the NFL in both points scored and points allowed was the 1996 Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers.

TAKE IT AWAY

For the Dolphins, the takeaway/giveaway ratio is the statistical category that has had the biggest correlation between wins and losses. Since 1996, the Dolphins are 54-12 in games where they have claimed the turnover battle, and 9-35 in games where their opponent has held the advantage in that department. In Miami's 77 regular season victories over the last eight years, the Dolphins are a combined plus-107 in the takeaway/giveaway ratio. In their 51 losses, they are a composite minus-79 in that category. This trend is even more pronounced over the last four years, during Dave Wannstedt's tenure as head coach. During this time (including playoffs), they are plus-55 in the takeaway/giveaway ratio in their 42 wins and minus-56 in their 25 losses. Their point differential off turnovers in their 42 wins is plus-177, while it stands at minus-236 in their 25 defeats.

DOLPHINS' UNDRAFTED ROOKIE FREE AGENT SUCCESS

Since 2000, a total of seven undrafted college free agents signed by the Dolphins have appeared on the team's 53-man roster during their rookie seasons. Of this total, five were on the roster for all 16 regular season games, including defensive end Otis Grigsby and guard Billy Yates in 2003. Since 1996, nine such players have been part of the Dolphins' roster in their rookie seasons, with seven having spent all 16 games there, including Larry Izzo, a rookie free agent out of Rice in 1996 who went on to earn Pro Bowl status as a special teams player following the 2000 season. Other undrafted free agents over the past eight years who found themselves on the Dolphins' roster in their rookie seasons include G Greg Jerman (2002), LB Justin Seaverns (2002), C/G Troy Andrew (2001), S Trent Gamble (2000), LB Tommy Hendricks (2000) and LB Anthony Harris (1996). In addition, defensive end Adewale Ogunleye signed with the Dolphins as an undrafted rookie free agent out of Indiana in 2000, and sat out his entire rookie season because of a knee injury. He has gone on to register 24.5 sacks over the past two years, and last season was voted as a starter to the Pro Bowl when he led the AFC with 15 sacks. Current Dolphins tight ends coach Bernie Parmalee also made the Dolphins' roster as an undrafted free agent, in 1992 out of Ball State, and proceeded to become one of the Dolphins' top special teams players in his seven-year career with the club (1992-98), while he also currently stands in 12th spot on the team's all-time rushing chart with 1,959 yards and 15 touchdowns on 513 carries.

PHILLIPS AMONG NFL'S LONGEST TENURED COACHES

Dolphins secondary coach Mel Phillips embarks on his 25th season as an NFL assistant coach in 2004, with each of the last 19 having been with the Dolphins after he joined the team in 1985 following a five-year stint with Detroit (1980-84). This streak ties Phillips for third among NFL position coaches for the longest current streak of having been with the same team. He trails only Pittsburgh running backs coach Dick Hoak (1972) and Cincinnati running backs Jim Anderson (1984). He is tied with Detroit defensive assistant Don Clemons.

STOFA TRADED TWICE BY DOLPHINS

The only player for whom the Dolphins received trade value twice is QB John Stofa. Stofa, who joined Miami as a free agent in 1966, was traded on December 26, 1967, to Cincinnati for first and second round draft choices in 1968. He re-joined the Dolphins as a free agent in 1969 and was traded on November 23, 1971, to Denver for a seventh-round pick in 1972.

2003 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

TEXANS 21, DOLPHINS 20
September 7, 2003

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins had their 11-game winning streak on opening day snapped. They also lost their first home opener since 1993 and had their streak of 17 consecutive home wins in the month of September snapped. The Texans took a 3-0 lead with 5:10 to play in the first quarter on a 36-yard field goal by Kris Brown, capping an 11-play, 64-yard drive in which David Carr completed passes of 26 and 33 yards. The 26-yarder, which went to Jabar Gaffney, came on a third-and-9 from the Houston 32 and was followed by an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the Dolphins. After taking over at the Dolphins' 32 on their first series of the second quarter, the Texans missed out on a chance to expand their lead when Brown missed wide right on a 43-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins scored their first points of 2003 when Jay Fiedler and Chris Chambers combined for a 57-yard touchdown, 5:40 into the second quarter. Houston got to within one point of the lead with 6:17 to play in the first half on a 50-yard field goal by Brown. The three-pointer came four plays after the Texans gained possession at the Dolphins' 36 when Charlie Clemons recovered a Ricky Williams fumble and the Dolphins were assessed a 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty. The Dolphins responded with a nine-play, 78-yard drive that used 5:17 of the clock and ended when Chambers made an acrobatic one-handed grab in the back of the end zone with 1:00 remaining in the opening half. Fiedler completed all six of his pass attempts on the drive, totaling 75 yards, including the touchdown, which was his 50th as a Dolphin. Houston took over at their own 20 and traveled to the Dolphins' 36 before Brown missed wide left on a 54-yard field goal attempt with two seconds to play in the half. Houston notched its first touchdown of the season when Carr connected with Corey Bradford for a 78-yard touchdown with 4:22 to play in the third quarter. The Texans attempted to tie the score with a two-point conversion, but Stacey Mack was stopped short of the goal line. The Texans re-gained the advantage on their next possession when Brown hit a 23-yard field goal with 21 seconds to play in the third quarter after Houston had taken over at the Dolphins' 46 six plays earlier. The Dolphins answered with an eight-play, 80-yard drive that culminated with a Fiedler to Ricky Williams 35-yard scoring pass. The key play was a 20-yard completion to Chambers on third-and-10 from the Dolphins' 20. The pass attempt for the two-point conversion was off the mark, and the Dolphins held a five-point lead. The Texans scored for the third time in as many series when, following the Dolphins' score, they embarked on a 16-play, 76-yard drive that utilized 7:29 of the clock and ended with Brown's fourth field goal of the afternoon, from 24 yards out. Carr completed six of his nine passes on the march, totaling 60 yards, including a pair of completions to convert third downs. Two plays later, Marcus Coleman intercepted a Fiedler pass that he returned to the Dolphins' 36 with just less than four minutes to play in the game. The Texans then used seven plays to gain 19 yards, setting up a 35-yard game-winning field goal by Brown, with 25 seconds remaining. A 10-yard run by Mack on third-and-6 from the 32 kept the drive alive and enabled the Texans to run off 3:28 of the clock.

September 14, 2003   East Rutherford, NJ

The Jets opened the scoring on their first possession of the game when Doug Brien connected on a 30-yard field goal to cap a 12-play, 83-yard drive. Four plays prior to the score, Vinny Testaverde hit Santana Moss for a 25-yard completion on third-and-16 from the Dolphins' 37. Overall on the drive, Testaverde completed six of eight passes for 82 yards, as the Jets converted a pair of third downs on the scoring march. The Dolphins responded with an eight-play, 71-yard drive that ended with a nine-yard touchdown run by Jay Fiedler with 38 seconds remaining in the first quarter, the ninth rushing score of his career, tying him with Dan Marino and David Woodley for the most rushing scores ever by a Dolphins signal caller. The key play on the drive came three plays prior to the score when Fiedler hit Chris Chambers for a 22-yard completion to the Jets' 23. Fiedler completed all four of his pass attempts, totaling 48 yards, on the drive. The Dolphins extended their lead on their next possession, 7:15 into the second quarter, when Fiedler hit Randy McMichael for an eight-yard TD pass, two plays after Ricky Williams broke loose for an 18-yard run to the Jets' 10 on third-and-16. In addition, Fiedler connected with Chambers for a 39-yard completion to the Jets' 37 on the second snap of the nine-play, 79-yard march. Miami notched its third touchdown in as many series when Williams scored on a two-yard run with 17 seconds to play in the first half, culminating a 12-play, 84-yard drive, which was kept alive by an offsides penalty on New York with the Dolphins facing a fourth-and-2 from the Jets' 42. Four plays before the touchdown, Fiedler and Williams combined for a 21-yard completion to the Jets' 14. Williams also had a 22-yard run on the drive's second play from scrimmage. The Jets had a first-and-goal from the nine midway through the third quarter on the strength of a 61-yard completion from Testaverde to Moss on third-and-15 from the 30. New York, however, could not capitalize when Testaverde's pass on fourth-and-goal from the three was incomplete. New York notched its first touchdown of the game 2:18 into the fourth quarter when Testaverde hit Moss in stride for a 32-yard touchdown on third-and-8, six plays after Shaun Ellis stripped the ball from Fiedler and Chester McGlockton recovered at the Dolphins' 48. With the Jets at the Dolphins' 43 and less than three minutes to play, Patrick Surtain came up with the Dolphins' first interception of 2003, ending any Jets comeback hopes.

DOLPHINS 17, BILLS 7
September 21, 2003

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins' defensive performance tied for their second-best ever in a game in terms of total yards allowed. The Bills were at the Dolphins' 13 early in the second quarter when Patrick Surtain intercepted a Travis Henry pass attempt at the one-yard line, two plays after Takeo Spikes returned a Ricky Williams fumble 29 yards to the Bills' 16. Buffalo held, though, and then re-gained possession at the Dolphins' 38. The Bills then traveled 30 yards and had a third-and-goal from the eight before Brock Marion picked off a Bledsoe pass in the end zone. Miami posted the first score of the night with 25 seconds to play in the first half when Jay Fiedler found Chris Chambers in the end zone for a 12-yard TD pass, capping an eight-play, 76-yard drive in which the Bills were penalized three times for 34 yards. The Dolphins took a ten-point lead with 5:40 remaining in the third quarter on an Olindo Mare field goal that culminated a 14-play, 85-yard drive that chewed up 7:38 of the clock. The key plays were an 18-yard completion from Fiedler to James McKnight on third-and-12 from the Dolphins' 29, followed two plays later by a 33-yard strike to Randy McMichael to the Bills' 16. The Bills accounted for their first points of the game 1:09 into the fourth quarter when Nate Clements intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass and went 54 yards for a score. The Dolphins then responded with a 13-play, 51-yard drive which had them at the Bills' 26, but Mare's 44-yard field goal attempt missed wide right. After forcing the Bills into a three-and-out, the Dolphins put the game away with a an eight-play, 51-yard drive that utilized 3:05 of the clock and ended with a Ricky Williams one-yard TD run on third-and-goal, with 1:52 to play in the game. Williams plowed his way for 46 yards on eight attempts during the course of the scoring march. On the night, Williams had a franchise-record 42 rush attempts, eclipsing the previous mark of 40, first set by Lamar Smith in a First Round Playoff game on December 30, 2000 against Indianapolis.

GAME 4

East Rutherford, NJ

The Dolphins broke through with the first points of the afternoon on an Olindo Mare 43-yard field goal 13 seconds into the second quarter, four plays after Patrick Surtain intercepted a Kerry Collins pass and returned it two yards to the Giants' 25. New York took the lead 5:44 into the second quarter on a two-yard run by Tiki Barber, four plays after Cornelius Griffin recovered a Jay Fiedler fumble at the Dolphins' 16 as he was sacked by Michael Strahan. The Dolphins re-gained the advantage three plays afterward when James McKnight took the ball from Ricky Williams on a reverse and went 68 yards for a touchdown, tied for the sixth-longest run from scrimmage in Dolphins history and the longest by someone other than a running back. On the ensuing series, Terrell Buckley forced and recovered an Ike Hilliard fumble at the Giants' 46, which led to a nine-play, 41-yard drive that ended with a Mare 23-yard field goal. Following the score, the Giants took over at their own 6-yard line and marched 69 yards in nine plays, with the final one being a Matt Bryant 43-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. On the drive, Collins completed six of seven passes for 54 yards. On their first series of the second half, the Giants marched 73 yards in 17 plays, but could not come away with any points after Jeff Feagles' 29-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right. Following the miss, the Dolphins gained possession at their own 20 and traveled 50 yards in 11 plays, en route to a 48-yard field goal by Mare, increasing the Dolphins' lead to six points. Fiedler completed four of five passes for 36 yards on the drive. Miami took a double-digit lead with 4:16 remaining in the contest when Ricky Williams' one-yard touchdown run on third-and-goal capped a 12–play, 64-yard drive that utilized 6:59 of the clock. Including the touchdown, the Dolphins converted three third downs on the march, while a fourth third down try was turned into a first down because of a Giants penalty. The key play was a 24-yard completion from Fiedler to Randy McMichael on third-and-nine, which put the Dolphins at the Giants' 17. Surtain sealed the game when he secured his second interception of the game, in the end zone with 2:22 to play in the contest.

GAME 5

DOLPHINS 24, JAGUARS 10
October 12, 2003

ALLTEL Stadium
Jacksonville, FL

The Dolphins posted their first-ever win at ALLTEL Stadium. Miami scored on their first possession of the game, 4:27 into the contest, when Ricky Williams took it into the end zone on a 14-yard run around the right side, on a play in which he first started towards the left and then reversed his field. Jay Fiedler threw a key block on Tony Brackens which sprung Williams loose into the end zone. The Dolphins started the drive at the Jaguars' 41 after Sammy Knight stripped the ball from Fred Taylor following a 17-yard reception and Sam Madison recovered. The Jaguars answered with a 27-yard drive in which they got to the Dolphins' 39 before Jason Taylor tipped a Byron Leftwich pass and Jeff Zgonina came up with his first career interception, at the Dolphins' 42. Miami then embarked on an eight-play, 25-yard drive that ended with an Olindo Mare 51-yard field goal. Following the score, Jacksonville went on a 15-play, 78-yard drive that ended with a Seth Marler 20-yard field goal, 3:36 into the second quarter. The Jaguars were aided by three Dolphins penalties, totaling 39 yards, on the drive. On the Jaguars' first series of the second half, they traveled 54 yards in ten plays before being stopped on fourth-and-1 from the Dolphins' 26. Jacksonville re-gained possession four plays later when Akin Ayodele recovered a Williams fumble at the Dolphins' 42. On the next play, however, Adewale Ogunleye stripped the ball from Leftwich on a sack, and Taylor recovered at the Dolphins' 48. The Jaguars tied the game with 1:07 left in the third quarter when Leftwich went up the middle for an eight-yard touchdown, culminating a five-play, 80-yard drive. Two plays prior to the score, Brock Marion was called for a 45-yard pass interference penalty, putting the Jaguars at the Dolphins' 22. The Dolphins went ahead 3:31 into the fourth quarter when Obafemi Ayanbadejo fumbled at the three-yard line with Randy McMichael recovering at the two and then taking it into the end zone. The score capped an 11-play, 63-yard drive in which the key play was a 33-yard completion from Jay Fiedler to James McKnight on third-and-10 that put Miami at the Jacksonville 30. The Jaguars had a chance to cut the lead to four points on the ensuing series as they put together a nine-play, 71-yard drive to the Dolphins'13 before Marler's 31-yard field goal attempt missed wide right. The Dolphins sealed the outcome with 1:28 to play in the contest when Madison intercepted a Leftwich pass and returned it 29 yards for a touchdown. The Dolphins were penalized 11 times for 149 yards on the afternoon, marking the highest yardage figure in franchise history.

GAME 6

New England won in Miami for the first time since 1997, and broke its 13-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami during the months of September and October, as the teams played to their second consecutive overtime contest in the series. The Patriots took a 3-0 lead with 2:24 to play in the first quarter when Adam Vinatieri connected on a 25-yard field goal. The score occurred seven plays after Tedy Bruschi stripped the ball from Chris Chambers following an 11-yard reception, and Rodney Harrison recovered and returned it 16 yards to the Dolphins' 26. The Dolphins produced their first points of the game 4:57 into the second quarter when Jay Fiedler found Chambers in the end zone on third-and-goal from the six-yard line. Miami gained possession five plays earlier when Jay Williams recovered a Tom Brady fumble at the Patriots' 16. The Dolphins took over at the Patriots' 40 two plays following the touchdown, after Larry Chester pounced on a Kevin Faulk fumble that was forced by Brock Marion. That led to a seven-play, 35-yard drive which resulted in an Olindo Mare 23-yard field goal with 5:08 remaining in the first half. The Patriots got to within four points of the lead with two seconds remaining in the first half when Vinatieri converted a 30-yard field goal, culminating an 11-play, 54-yard drive that was kept alive four plays prior to the score when Jason Taylor was called for roughing the passer after the Dolphins had stopped the Patriots on third-and-2 from the Miami 36. The Dolphins first series of the second half resulted in a seven-play, 34-yard drive that ended with a 34-yard field goal by Mare. Randy McMichael hauled in two passes for 37 yards en route to the score. The Patriots tied the contest with 1:49 left in the third quarter on a 24-yard touchdown pass from Brady to David Givens on third-and-10, capping a 14-play, 76-yard drive that utilized 7:57 of the clock. Including the touchdown, the Patriots converted four third downs on the march, in which Brady completed seven of nine passes, totaling 64 yards. The Dolphins had an opportunity to take the lead with 1:52 to play in the game, but Mare's 35-yard field goal attempt following a 16-play, 73-yard drive that used 9:11 of the clock, was blocked by Richard Seymour. The Dolphins had the initial possession in the overtime period and traveled 57 yards in seven plays, highlighted by Derrius Thompson's 31-yard reception, before Mare missed wide right on a 35-yard field goal attempt on third-and-7. Tyrone Poole intercepted a Fiedler pass at the Patriots' 18 on Miami's next series and, on the very next play, Brady and Troy Brown combined for an 82-yard touchdown strike, with 5:45 remaining in overtime.

GAME 7

DOLPHINS 26, CHARGERS 10
October 27, 2003

Sun Devil Stadium
Tempe, AZ

The Dolphins played on Monday Night Football for the 68th time and posted their 38th victory under the Monday night spotlight. It was a game that was moved to Sun Devil Stadium from Qualcomm Stadium the previous night because of the California wildfires. Patrick Surtain picked off a Drew Brees pass on the third play of the game and returned it 32 yards to the Chargers' 6. Two plays afterward, Brian Griese connected with Chris Chambers for a five-yard TD, in what was Griese's first pass attempt as a Dolphin. On the Chargers' next offensive series, Zach Thomas intercepted a Brees pass and returned it 19 yards to the Chargers' 24. That resulted in an Olindo Mare 44-yard field goal four plays later. The Chargers answered with a nine-play, 44-yard drive that ended with a Steve Christie 51-yard field goal. The Dolphins responded with their third score in as many series when they marched 65 yards in ten plays, ending with a two-yard touchdown pass from Griese to James McKnight on third-and-goal. Griese completed five of six passes, totaling 52 yards, on the drive. The Chargers were at the Dolphins' nine with less than five minutes to play in the first half when Surtain came up with his second interception of the night, as he picked off a Brees pass in the end zone. The Dolphins then embarked on a six-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a seven-yard TD pass from Griese to Randy McMichael with 1:55 remaining in the half. The key play was a 49-yard completion from Griese to Chambers, putting the Dolphins at the Chargers' 16. Overall, Griese completed all four passes for 73 yards on the scoring march. The Chargers were at the Dolphins' nine-yard line midway through the third quarter before being denied on fourth-and-1. After traveling 54 yards, San Diego had a fourth-and-goal from the five-yard line early in the fourth quarter and was stopped short of the goal-line by the Dolphins once again. Two plays later, Donnie Edwards forced the ball loose from Ricky Williams, which was recovered by Quentin Jammer at the Dolphins' 1, leading to a one-yard scoring run by LaDainian Tomlinson three plays afterward. The Dolphins notched their first safety since the 2000 season when Rob Burnett stripped Brees of the ball and Jason Taylor tackled Damion McIntosh in the end zone with 8:06 left in the contest.

GAME 8

COLTS 23, DOLPHINS 17
November 2, 2003

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

Indianapolis snapped Miami's four-game winning streak in this series. The Dolphins took a 7-0 lead with 41 seconds to play in the first quarter on a three-yard TD run by Ricky Williams. The Dolphins started the four-play scoring drive at their own 47 after stopping the Colts on fourth-and-1. Two plays later, Brian Griese connected with Randy McMichael for a 46-yard completion to the Colts' 4. The Colts got on the board for the first time on the day when Mike Vanderjagt hit on a 50-yard field goal, 3:49 into the second quarter. Indianapolis began the five-play scoring drive at the Dolphins' 45 after Dwight Freeney sacked Griese, forcing the ball loose, and Brad Scioli recovered. Vanderjagt connected on his second field goal in as many series when he hit from 44 yards out, with 2:20 remaining in the first half, capping a 14-play, 65-yard drive that used 6:45 of the clock and saw the Colts convert a pair of third downs. After forcing the Dolphins into a three-and-out, the Colts re-gained possession at their own 21 and traveled 72 yards en route to a 25-yard field goal by Vanderjagt as time expired in the first half. The key play was a 51-yard completion from Peyton Manning to Marcus Pollard on the second play of the six-play drive, which was first tipped by another Colts receiver, and put Indianapolis at the Miami 11-yard line. The Colts took the ball on the opening series of the second half and moved 74 yards in 11 plays, ending with an Edgerrin James one-yard scoring run. Manning completed three of his four passes, totaling 69 yards, on the drive, that used 5:42 of the clock. The Dolphins responded with a four-play, 69-yard drive that took just 1:51 and ended with a 28-yard scoring pass from Griese to Chris Chambers. Griese completed all three of his attempts on the march, totaling 58 yards, while Travis Minor accounted for the remaining yards on an 11-yard run. The Colts re-gained their nine-point advantage 5:20 into the fourth quarter when they embarked on a 13-play, 91-yard drive that used 8:18 of the clock and ended with a three-yard TD pass from Manning to Troy Walters on third-and-goal. Manning was a perfect 5-5 for 41 yards, while James rushed for 21 yards on three carries leading to the score. The Dolphins closed the gap to six points with 3:10 to play in the game when Olindo Mare connected on a 23-yard field goal. The eight-play, 50-yard scoring drive began when Arturo Freeman forced the ball loose from Marvin Harrison following a reception, and Terrell Buckley recovered before losing the ball and having Sam Madison recover at the Dolphins' 45. Griese went on to complete each of his next four passes and five of his next six to put the Dolphins in field goal range. Three plays after the field goal, Buckley picked off a Manning pass to give the Dolphins the ball at the Colts' 15 with 2:45 remaining in the contest. Two plays later, though, Freeney recorded his third sack and second forced fumble of the game as he stripped Griese of the ball, and Raheem Brock recovered to preserve the win.

GAME 9

TITANS 31, DOLPHINS 7
November 9, 2003

The Coliseum
Nashville, TN

   The Dolphins suffered their most lopsided loss since the ninth week of the 2001 season. The Titans took a 7-0 lead on the opening series of the game when Steve McNair hit Tyrone Calico for a 12-yard TD pass, 3:00 into the contest. The score occurred two plays after McNair connected with Derrick Mason for a 46-yard completion on third-and-9, putting the Titans at the Dolphins' 12. Tennessee scored for the second time in as many series when Eddie George capped a 16-play, 82-yard drive with a two-yard TD run, with 1:34 to play in the first quarter. McNair completed five of his seven passes, totaling 48 yards, while George rushed for 29 yards on the march, in which the Titans converted three third downs. The Titans opened a 21-point advantage with 1:02 to play in the first half when McNair hooked up with Justin McCareins for a 24-yard TD, one play after Robaire Smith stripped the ball from Brian Griese on a sack, and Albert Haynesworth recovered and went 12 yards. The Titans went up by 28 points 6:52 into the third quarter when Andre Dyson intercepted a Griese pass and raced 11 yards for a touchdown. The Dolphins were at the Titans' 24 late in the third quarter before Samari Rolle picked off a Griese pass and returned it 36 yards to the Tennessee 47. The Titans tacked on a Gary Anderson 35-yard field goal with 5:16 remaining in the contest, seven plays after Keith Bulluck snared a Griese pass at the Titans' 43. The Dolphins avoided the shutout when Sage Rosenfels found Donald Lee in the end zone for a 21-yard TD strike with 20 seconds left in the game.

GAME 10

DOLPHINS 9, RAVENS 6 (OT)
November 16, 2003

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins won for the first time in overtime since 1998, snapping a three-game losing streak in such games. The Dolphins took a 3-0 lead on an Olindo Mare 23-yard field goal, 3:48 into the second quarter, seven plays after Sam Madison intercepted an Anthony Wright pass and returned it 36 yards to the Ravens' 23. Lamont Brightful brought back the kickoff following the field goal 73 yards to the Dolphins' 15 before Terrell Buckley made a touchdown-saving tackle. That led to a Matt Stover 39-yard field goal four plays afterward. The Dolphins re-gained the lead with 3:07 to play in the third quarter on a 52-yard field goal by Mare, capping an eight-play, 47-yard drive in which the Ravens were penalized two times for 28 yards. The Ravens tied the game with 7:42 remaining on a 45-yard field goal by Stover, culminating a 13-play, 60-yard drive that used 7:10 of the clock. Baltimore threatened once again five plays later when Ed Reed intercepted a Brian Griese pass and returned it ten yards to the Dolphins' 36. Two plays afterward, though, Sammy Knight picked off a Wright pass that he took back 17 yards to the Dolphins' 47. Miami then embarked on an eight-play, 23-yard drive, which put the Dolphins in position to win the game in regulation. Mare, however, missed wide right on 48-yard field goal attempt with 2:29 to play. The Ravens stopped the Dolphins in the first series of overtime, and gained possession at their own 9-yard line. Four plays into the drive, the exchange between Wright and Jamal Lewis was mishandled, and Zach Thomas recovered the loose ball at the Ravens' 33, setting up Mare's 43-yard game-winner four plays later, the eighth game-winning kick in the fourth-quarter or overtime period in Mare's career.

GAME 11

DOLPHINS 24, REDSKINS 23
November 23, 2003

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

Wearing orange jerseys for the first time in franchise history, the Dolphins recorded their largest fourth-quarter comeback win since 1980. The Dolphins took a 7-0 lead on the third play of the game when Brian Griese connected with James McKnight for an 80-yard touchdown pass on third-and-2. The Redskins scored their first points 6:23 into the game when John Hall converted on a 28-yard field goal, four plays after David Terrell intercepted a Griese pass and returned it 20 yards to the Dolphins' 8. Washington scored for its second time in as many possessions when Hall hit on a 31-yard field goal with 2:01 remaining in the first quarter, culminating an 11-play, 43-yard drive. The Redskins took their first lead of the night when they scored on their third straight series, as Tim Hasselbeck hit Laveranues Coles in stride for a 37-yard TD pass, 2:54 into the second quarter. Hasselbeck, who had entered the game one series earlier for an injured Patrick Ramsey, completed all four of his passes, totaling 59 yards, on the five-play, 61-yard drive. The Redskins made it scores on four series in a row when Trung Canidate scored from two yards out, capping a 12-play, 80-yard drive that used 6:37 of the clock. The Redskins rushed for 56 yards on the scoring march, including 27 by Chad Morton and 18 by Canidate. The Dolphins answered with a nine-play, 48-yard drive that ended with an Olindo Mare 51-yard field goal, seven seconds prior to the half. The Dolphins were deep in Redskins territory on their first series of the second half, but Rashad Bauman intercepted a Griese pass at the 2-yard line and returned it one yard to the three. From there, Washington embarked on an 11-play, 56-yard drive, and although they were not able to score, they ate up 7:11 of the clock. Kendall Newson then fumbled the punt that followed, and Zeron Flemister recovered at the Dolphins' 16. That led to Hall's third field goal of the night, six plays afterward, with 48 seconds remaining in the third quarter. The Dolphins accounted for their first touchdown since the third play of the game when Ricky Williams scored on a one-yard run on fourth-and-goal, capping a 12-play, 71-yard drive, in which Jay Fiedler, who was in relief of Griese, completed each of his first three passes, totaling 42 yards. Four plays prior to the touchdown, Redskins S Ifeanyi Ohalete was called for pass interference in the end zone on third-and-15 from the 19, putting the Dolphins at the Redskins' 1. The Dolphins re-gained possession at their own 31 with 6:29 to play in the game. They moved 45 yards in six plays before Williams broke loose for a 24-yard touchdown run, giving the Dolphins the lead for good. Chad Morton returned the ensuing kickoff 44 yards to the Redskins' 43, but Brock Marion intercepted a Hasselbeck pass four plays later. The outcome was sealed when Patrick Johnson fumbled a Matt Turk 57-yard punt, and McKnight recovered at the Redskins' 16 with 2:00 left on the game clock.

GAME 12

Texas Stadium
Irving, TX

The Dolphins won for the fourth time in five tries on Thanksgiving Day. Miami took a 7-0 lead on the opening series of the game, 4:36 into the contest, when Jay Fiedler scored on a one-yard run, the tenth rushing touchdown of his career, a new Dolphins' all-time record among quarterbacks. The Cowboys committed a 30-yard pass interference penalty on the game's first play, while Ricky Williams rushed for 24 yards on six carries on the eight-play, 67-yard drive. Shawn Wooden recovered a Derek Ross fumble on the ensuing kickoff after Tommy Hendricks jarred the ball loose, giving the Dolphins the ball at the Cowboys' 30. On the next play, however, Terence Newman recovered a Williams fumble. The Dolphins extended their lead to ten points 36 seconds into the second quarter on an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal, which capped a ten-play, 51-yard drive that used 5:26 of the clock. Fiedler completed all four of his pass attempts, totaling 36 yards, on the scoring march. The Cowboys then went 66 yards in nine plays, using 4:05 of the clock and ending with a Richie Anderson four-yard touchdown run. Quincy Carter threw for 57 yards en route to the score. The Dolphins retaliated on the next series, four plays and 2:15 later, when Fiedler and Chris Chambers combined for a 39-yard touchdown pass. On the play prior to the score, Fiedler hooked up with Rob Konrad for a 25-yard completion. Dallas came right back once again and marched 80 yards in ten plays and consuming 5:20 of the clock, culminating with a Carter 27-yard scoring pass to Anderson, 2:44 prior to the half. The Dolphins scored for the fifth straight possession of the game when Chambers was on the receiving end of a six-yard Fiedler pass in the back of the end zone, on third-and-goal, ten seconds before the half. Flozell Adams blocked the point after attempt. On that drive, the Dolphins had taken over at their own 25 with 2:44 left in the half, before Fiedler completed five of seven passes for 58 yards. Miami opened a 16-point advantage on the third play of the second half when Adewale Ogunleye stripped the ball from Carter on a sack, and Jason Taylor picked it up at the Cowboys' 34 and raced into the end zone untouched, the fourth fumble return for a touchdown in Taylor's career. The Dolphins opened a 23-point advantage with 7:42 to play in the third quarter when Fiedler hit Chambers for a 35-yard touchdown, as Chambers became the first Dolphin since Lamar Thomas on December 21, 1998 to record three receiving touchdowns in the same game. The Dolphins tacked on three more points to reach the 40-point plateau for the first time since the 2002 season-opener, as Mare converted on a 42-yard field goal, 1:03 into the fourth quarter. The Cowboys notched their first points since the second quarter four plays later when Carter and Antonio Bryant combined for an 18-yard touchdown, 2:38 into the final frame, one play after Carter hit Terry Glenn for a 45-yard completion. The Cowboys were in the Dolphins' end of the field on each of their final two possessions of the game, including the Dolphins' 1 on the final series, but interceptions by Sammy Knight and Zach Thomas, respectively, thwarted both threats.

GAME 13

December 7, 2003   Foxboro, MA

   The Patriots swept the two-game season series with the Dolphins for just the fifth time and the first since 1997, in a game that started with snow falling and a temperature of 28 degrees and a wind chill that made it feel like 17. The Patriots took a 3-0 lead on an Adam Vinatieri 29-yard field goal with 1:46 to play in the first quarter, capping a 13-play, 41-yard drive that used 6:22 of the clock. The Patriots converted one third down attempt and one fourth down try en route to the score. Four plays prior to the field goal, the Dolphins were assessed a 10-yard unnecessary roughness penalty. The Dolphins had the ball at the Patriots' 10 late in the third quarter, but Rodney Harrison forced the ball loose from Jay Fiedler on a sack, and Mike Vrabel recovered at the Patriots' 30. That was the closest the Dolphins would come to scoring on the day. The only touchdown of the game was scored 6:05 into the fourth quarter when Tedy Bruschi intercepted a Fiedler pass and went five yards for a touchdown. The Patriots added a safety with just 1:13 to play, as Fiedler was sacked by Jarvis Green in the end zone. Overall, the Dolphins were in New England's end of the field five times in the second half, but were turned away each time, two because of turnovers.

GAME 14

EAGLES 34, DOLPHINS 27
December 15, 2003

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

Philadelphia won for the first time ever in Miami after five straight losses, as the Dolphins had their streak of four consecutive prime time wins snapped. The Eagles took a 7-0 lead on the first series of the game when Brian Westbrook scored on a 21-yard run, 1:11 into the contest and two plays after Donovan McNabb hit Todd Pinkston for a 59-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage. The Dolphins evened the count on their second series of the game, when Jay Fiedler's one-yard TD run capped a six-play, 63-yard drive in which Fiedler connected with Chris Chambers for a 38-yard completion on the play prior to the score. The Eagles re-gained the lead on the ensuing series when they marched 80 yards in eight plays, ending with a one-yard scoring run by McNabb. McNabb completed four of his five pass attempts on the drive, totaling 83 yards, including a 44-yard strike to James Thrash two plays preceding the touchdown. The Dolphins tied the game on the first play of the second quarter on a two-yard TD run by Travis Minor, capping a five-play, 70-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard run by Ricky Williams on the second play of the possession, putting the Dolphins at the Eagles' 25. Philadelphia scored for the third time when wide receiver Freddie Mitchell hit Westbrook for a 25-yard TD pass, 3:52 into the second quarter. The Eagles took a 10-point advantage with 2:50 remaining in the opening half on a 46-yard field goal by David Akers, capping a seven-play, 40-yard drive in which the Dolphins were assessed a 15-yard personal foul penalty. The Dolphins cut the lead to seven points with 26 seconds to play in the first half on an Olindo Mare 27-yard field goal, the 176th of his career, tying him with Pete Stoyanovich for the most in team history. The Eagles had stopped the Dolphins at their own 44, but the drive was revived after Philadelphia was called for roughing the kicker. The key play was a 24-yard completion from Fiedler to Randy McMichael, putting the Dolphins at the Eagles' 17. The Dolphins pulled even with the Eagles once again when they took the ball on the opening series of the second half and traveled 80 yards in ten plays, en route to a three-yard TD run by Williams, 5:16 into the half. Two plays prior to the touchdown, Fiedler hit McMichael for a 35-yard completion to the Eagles' 6. The Eagles re-gained the lead seven seconds into the fourth quarter on a two-yard TD run by Correll Buckhalter, culminating a seven-play, 62-yard drive. The key play was a 28-yard pass interference penalty on the Dolphins, giving the Eagles the ball at the Dolphins' 1. Philadelphia tacked on a 42-yard field goal by Akers with 2:00 to play in the game, four plays after Michael Lewis intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it five yards to the Dolphins' 32. Mare eclipsed the team all-time record for field goals with a 50-yarder with 24 seconds remaining in the contest. Ricky Williams rushed for 107 yards and a touchdown on 18 attempts, his 16th 100-yard rushing game as a Dolphin, breaking Larry Csonka's club career record. Zach Thomas came up with the 15th interception of his career, as he became the club's all-time leader for interceptions among non-defensive backs.

GAME 15

DOLPHINS 20, BILLS 3   Ralph Wilson Stadium
December 21, 2003   Orchard Park, NY

The Dolphins won for the second time in the last three years in Buffalo. With the victory, they secured their seventh winning season in a row, the 11th in the last 12 years and the 27th overall in the franchise's 38-year history. The Dolphins took a 7-0 lead on their fourth play of the game when Jay Fiedler connected with Chris Chambers for a 23-yard TD pass. The drive began at the Bills' 36 after the Dolphins pinned Buffalo deep in its own territory. The Dolphins took a 10-point advantage with 1:53 remaining in the opening quarter on a 28-yard field goal by Olindo Mare, capping an eight-play, 15-yard drive that started at the Bills' 24 after Arturo Freeman recovered a Nate Clements fumbled punt. Mare notched his second field goal of the afternoon, a 30-yarder 6:09 into the second quarter, eight plays after Zach Thomas recovered a Drew Bledsoe fumble at the Bills' 33, which was forced as a result of a Tim Bowens sack. The Bills posted their only points of the afternoon 2:58 into the second half when Rian Lindell converted a 23-yard field goal. The Bills began the scoring drive at the Dolphins' 38 after Sam Adams recovered a Fiedler fumble that was forced by Ryan Denney on the opening series of the second half. Four plays prior to the score, Bledsoe connected with Mark Campbell for a 31-yard completion, putting the Bills at the six-yard line. The Dolphins went up by 17 points with 7:45 to play in the third quarter when Terrell Buckley intercepted a Bledsoe pass and went 74 yards unscathed for a touchdown. The Dolphins' defense did not allow Buffalo to cross the midfield stripe on either of its next two series. Miami's defense sealed the outcome when it stopped Buffalo short of a first down on fourth-and-10 from the Dolphins' 33 with 4:24 to play in the game.

GAME 16

For the first time since 1996, the Dolphins were playing in a season finale where no playoff ramifications were on the line. The Dolphins became the first NFL team since 1991 to go 10-6 and not make the playoffs. They were the first AFC team this has happened to since 1986. The Dolphins took the ball on the game's opening drive and traveled 71 yards in 14 plays, ending with an Olindo Mare 23-yard field goal, 7:27 into the contest. Jay Fiedler connected on six of his eight attempts, totaling 60 yards on the drive, including a 24-yard completion to Chris Chambers four plays prior to the score. Mare notched his second field goal in as many series when he converted from 43 yards out, 15 seconds into the second quarter, four plays after Ricky Williams took a screen pass and reversed his field for a 59-yard gain to the Jets' 27. The Dolphins scored on their third possession in a row when Williams scored on a 16-yard run, 5:06 into the second quarter, capping a six-play, 54-yard drive. On the series' first play, Fiedler hit Chambers for a 21-yard strike to the Jets' 33. The Jets answered on the ensuing possession with their first points of the day, with 6:08 to play in the second quarter, when Curtis Martin scored on an eight-yard run, culminating a seven-play, 80-yard drive in which Chad Pennington hit Curtis Conway for a 45-yard completion three plays before the score, putting the Jets at the Dolphins' 22. The Dolphins responded 3:13 later when a five-play, 48-yard drive ended with a 20-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Chambers, on third-and-five. The scoring drive began at the Jets' 48 following a 49-yard kickoff return by Travis Minor. The Jets cut their deficit to ten points with 14 seconds remaining in the first half on a Doug Brien 36-yard field goal. The Jets took the ball on the opening series of the second half and put together a 12-play, 60-yard drive that used 6:39 of the clock and ended with a 22-yard field goal by Brien. Pennington completed each of his first four pass attempts on the drive, totaling 34 yards. New York added two more points with 22 seconds left in the third quarter when the ball was snapped out of the end zone with the Dolphins in punt formation from their own 15-yard line. The Jets then took the free kick and traveled 57 yards in 11 plays, ending with a one-yard TD pass from Pennington to Anthony Becht, 6:02 into the fourth quarter, as New York took its first lead of the afternoon. The pass for the two-point conversion was off the mark. The Dolphins threatened to re-gain the lead with just more than four minutes to play in the game when they were at the Jets' 1. The drive ended, though, when Victor Hobson intercepted a Fiedler pass in the end zone on third-and-goal and took it back 26 yards to the Jets' 25. The Dolphins then forced the Jets into a three-and-out and got the ball back at the Jets' 49 with 2:56 remaining in the contest. Fiedler then completed three of his next four pass attempts, all to Chris Chambers, totaling 36 yards, as the Dolphins moved to the Jets' 4, putting them in position for Mare's game-winning 22-yard field goal with three seconds left on the clock.

PRESEASON GAME 1

BUCCANEERS 20, DOLPHINS 19
August 8, 2003

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped a preseason opener for the fifth straight year and sixth time in the last seven seasons. The Bucs took a 7-0 lead 6:43 into the game on a six-yard scoring run by Michael Pittman. The score occurred six plays after Dwight Smith recovered a Randy McMichael fumble at the Dolphins' 45. One play prior to the touchdown, the Bucs converted a fourth-and-1 from the eight. Tampa Bay added to its lead 47 seconds into the second quarter when Shaun King hit Joe Jurevicius in the end zone for a five-yard TD, capping a 14-play, 74-yard drive that used 6:43 of the clock. King completed five of seven passes for 45 yards and scrambled for 20 yards on two carries en route to the score. The PAT failed. The Dolphins notched their initial points of the game with 5:42 to play in the second quarter on an Olindo Mare 27-yard field goal, which culminated a seven-play, 57-yard drive in which Travis Minor rushed for 30 yards on four carries. Mare hit his second field goal in as many series when he connected on a 38-yarder with 25 seconds remaining in the first half. The key play was a 27-yard completion from Sage Rosenfels to J.R. Tolver, which put the Dolphins at the Bucs' 39. Tampa Bay opened a 13-point advantage with 3:00 left in the third quarter on Thomas Jones' one-yard TD run. The Dolphins came up with their first turnover of the night on the third play of final quarter when Cedric Donaldson recovered a Reggie Barlow fumble at the Tampa Bay 40. The Dolphins then embarked on a nine-play drive that ended with a two-yard TD pass from Rosenfels to Ronald Bellamy, 5:51 into the fourth period. Leonard Henry accounted for 19 of the 40 yards with 12 on the ground and seven through the air. The Bucs missed a chance to put the game out of reach with 3:46 to play in the game when Brendon Ayanbadejo blocked Ralf Kleinmann's 25-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 and marched 80 yards in 13 plays, ending with a two-yard scoring pass from Rosenfels to Obafemi Ayanbadejo with 23 seconds to play in the game. Henry rushed for 31 yards on three carries on the drive, while Rosenfels hit on six of 10 passes for 49 yards. With a chance to win the game, the pass attempt for the two-point conversion was off the mark.

PRESEASON GAME 2

JAGUARS 27, DOLPHINS 23　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　ALLTEL Stadium
August 15, 2003　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　Jacksonville, FL

The Dolphins took a 7-0 lead on their second possession of the game, with 7:25 to play in the first quarter, on a 3-yard TD pass from Jay Fiedler to Ricky Williams on third-and-goal. The 47-yard scoring drive was set up by a 37-yard punt return by Charlie Rogers nine plays earlier. The key play en route to the score was a 16–yard pass from Fiedler to Obafemi Ayanbadejo on third-and-1 from the Jaguars' 38. Overall, the Dolphins converted three third downs on the march, including a 7-yard completion from Fiedler to Randy McMichael on third-and-3 from the 15. Fiedler hit on all six of his attempts, totaling 42 yards, on the drive. The Dolphins added to their lead 2:52 into the second quarter on an Olindo Mare 30-yard field goal, capping an eight-play, 43-yard drive. In his first series of the game, Brian Griese guided the drive as he connected on all three of his pass attempts, totaling 29 yards, including a 23-yard strike to Derrius Thompson. Jacksonville responded with a 14-play, 69-yard drive that used 7:22 of the clock and ended with a Seth Marler 30-yard field goal, with 4:46 to play in the opening half. David Garrard hit on six of seven pass attempts on the drive, totaling 53 yards, while also scrambling once for 11 yards. Griese then led the Dolphins from their own 40 to the Jaguars' 33 in a matter of 3:49, leading to a 51-yard field goal by Mare with 57 seconds to play in the first half. The key play was a 15-yard completion from Griese to J.R. Tolver on third-and-4, putting the Dolphins at the Jacksonville 39. The Jaguars then took over at their own 20, and Garrard went on to complete four of his next five passes, and then ran for 16 yards to put the Jaguars at the Dolphins' 2 with three seconds to play in the first half, before LaBrandon Toefied ran up the middle for a touchdown on the half's final play. The Jaguars opened the second half with a 13-play, 77-yard drive that used 5:27 of the clock and led to a James Tuthill 21-yard field goal, tying the game at 13 apiece. A pair of unnecessary roughness penalties on the Dolphins, totaling 30 yards, aided Jacksonville. The Dolphins re-gained the advantage when they followed with a 13-play, 55-yard drive that culminated with Mare's third field goal of the night, with 3:41 to play in the third quarter. Jacksonville took its first lead 2:01 into the final frame on a 2-yard TD run by Joe Smith, capping a 15-play, 71-yard drive in which Smith rushed for 34 yards on eight carries. The Jaguars faced a fourth-and-2 from the 5 on the play prior to the score, but the Dolphins were called for offsides. Sam Simmons returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to the Jaguars' 44, and seven plays afterward, Leonard Henry gave the Dolphins the lead once again when he scored from seven yards out. In fact, Henry accounted for 41 of the 44 yards on the drive, as he carried the ball five times. Trailing 23-20 with 4:13 to play in the game, the Jaguars started their first drive of the game at their own 30, led by first-round draft choice Byron Leftwich, who was taking part in his second series of the game. The rookie, who also was playing in his first NFL game, went on to complete five of his next six passes, totaling 69 yards, with the final one being a 17-yard strike to Donald Hayes in the end zone with just 1:02 left on the game clock.

PRESEASON GAME 3

DOLPHINS 30, FALCONS 21
August 22, 2003

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins tallied their most points in a preseason game since 1999 as they garnered their first win of the 2003 preseason. Although the Dolphins had a three-and-out on their first offensive series of the night, James McKnight stripped the ball from Allen Rossum on the ensuing punt return, and Morlon Greenwood recovered at the Dolphins' 48. That led to a 12-play drive that utilized 7:12 of the clock and ended with a one-yard TD pass from Jay Fiedler to Obafemi Ayanbadejo on fourth-and-goal. Fiedler completed all five of his pass attempts, totaling 44 yards, on the drive including a 20-yarder to Ricky Williams on third-and-4 from the Falcons' 34. Fiedler also had a two-yard scramble on fourth-and-1 from the Atlanta 5. The Dolphins tacked on an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal with 5:04 to play in the first half. The score occurred seven plays after Charlie Rogers returned a punt 30 yards to the Falcons' 32. Atlanta responded seven plays afterward when Doug Johnson found Peerless Price for a 35-yard TD strike. Johnson hit Brian Finneran for a 32-yard completion on the first play of that series to put Atlanta in Miami territory. The Dolphins notched their second touchdown of the night with 3:41 to play in the third quarter when Leonard Henry capped a 10-play, 64-yard drive with a one-yard scoring run. The key play was a 16-yard completion from Brian Griese to Derrius Thompson on third-and-13 from the Dolphins' 33. After forcing the Falcons into a three-and-out, Sam Simmons took back a punt 51 yards to the Atlanta 18, setting up a Sage Rosenfels to J.R. Tolver 16-yard TD pass three plays later, with 1:36 remaining in the third quarter. Atlanta made it a ten-point game on the second play of the fourth quarter when Karon Riley stripped the ball from Rosenfels on a sack, and Demetrin Veal scooped it up and lumbered 40 yards for a touchdown. The Dolphins came right back as Mare connected on his second field goal, from 38 yards out, four plays after Rosenfels hit Tolver for a 25-yard completion to the Falcons' 24. On the next play from scrimmage, Alphonso Roundtree intercepted a Kurt Kittner pass and returned it 29 yards to the Atlanta 16, leading to a 37-yard field goal by Mare four plays afterward. The Falcons concluded the scoring with a two-yard TD pass from Kittner to Jimmy Farris with 4:45 left in the contest, culminating a nine-play, 65-yard drive. The Dolphins got the ball back on the ensuing series at the Falcons' 37 when the onside kick attempt did not travel ten yards. Miami had a first-and-goal from the 10, but were stopped by the Falcons' defense, including a quarterback sneak on fourth-and-1.

PRESEASON GAME 4

DOLPHINS 24, SAINTS 10
August 28, 2003

Louisiana Superdome
New Orleans, LA

After pinning the Saints deep in their own territory on the opening series of the game, the Dolphins took over at the their own 49. Two plays later, Jay Fiedler connected with Chris Chambers for a 38-yard completion to the Saints' 14, leading to a Fiedler to Derrius Thompson TD strike on the very next play. The Saints tied the contest 2:58 into the second quarter when Todd Bouman hit Michael Lewis for a six-yard touchdown pass, capping a seven-play, 52-yard drive which began at the Saints' 48 after Keyuo Craver recovered a Robert Edwards fumble. Bouman completed all four of his attempts on the drive, totaling 37 yards. The Dolphins re-gained the lead for good with 2:36 to play in the opening half when Sage Rosenfels found Obafemi Ayanbadejo in the end zone for a one-yard touchdown, culminating a 12-play, 80-yard drive in which Edwards rushed for 32 yard on five carries. On the play prior to the score, Miami converted a third-and-5 from the Saints' 17 when Rosenfels hit J.R. Tolver for a 16-yard gain. After forcing New Orleans into a three-and-out, the Dolphins gained possession at their on 41 and notched their second touchdown in as many series when Rosenfels and Donald Lee combined for a one-yard TD. The key plays were a 17-yard run by Travis Minor and a 17-yard pass from Rosenfels to Kendall Newson, which gave the Dolphins a first-and-goal from the one. A squib kick by Olindo Mare followed, which was fumbled by the Saints' Willie Whitehead after being forced by Brendon Ayanbadejo, and then recovered by Obafemi Ayanbadejo at the Saints' 38. That led to a Mare 46-yard field goal three plays afterward. The lone score of the second half came on a John Carney 28-yard field goal with 55 seconds to play in the third quarter, which capped a 13-play, 47-yard drive that used 6:15 of the clock. The Saints converted three third downs on the scoring march, including two on runs by Ki-Jana Carter, who rushed for 39 yards on eight carries en route to the score.

DUAL 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

In the 38-year history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had four dual 100-yard rushing games. Two of these were accounted for by the tandem of Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick (both in 1971). The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two runners surpass the 100-yard mark occurred on October 5, 1975 at Green Bay when Mercury Morris rushed for 125 yards on 31 attempts, while Don Nottingham ran for 102 yards and three touchdowns on 21 carries.

1-2 PUNCH

In 2003, Adewale Ogunleye led the AFC in sacks with 15, while Jason Taylor finished right behind with 13. It marked just the third time since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 that teammates finished 1-2 in a conference in sacks, and the second time that a Dolphins tandem has accomplished the feat. In 2000, Trace Armstrong topped the AFC with 16.5 sacks while Taylor tallied 14.5, good for second. The first duo to achieve this was Carolina's Kevin Greene and Lamar Lathon, who registered 14.5 and 13.5, respectively, in 1996.

Sept. 21 — Miami suffers a heart-breaking 51-45 overtime loss to the N.Y. Jets in the Meadowlands as Dan Marino reaches 1,500 career attempts to qualify as the NFL's top-ranked passer of all-time. Marino finishes the afternoon 30 of 50 for 448 yards and six TDs. The six TDs are a personal high for Marino and tie the team record held by Bob Griese. Mark Duper (154) and Mark Clayton (174) each have over 100 yards receiving in the game. Standout LB Hugh Green suffers a knee injury which sidelines him for the season.

Oct. 12 — In what was billed as "Marino-Kelly I," the Dolphins and Dan Marino (24 of 41 for 337 yards) defeat the Buffalo Bills and Jim Kelly (20 of 28 for 218 yards, two INTs) 27-14 at the Orange Bowl.

Nov. 24 — The N.Y. Jets enter the Orange Bowl with a nine-game winning streak and the league's best record at 10-1. They leave with a 45-3 loss as Lorenzo Hampton rushes for 148 yards and two TDs on 19 carries (7.8 average) including a 54-yard TD run. Hampton's 100 yards snap a streak of 36 regular-season games (41 overall) for Miami without a 100-yard rusher. Marino completes a personal-high 80.6 percent of his passes (29 of 36) for 288 yards and four TDs.

Nov. 25 — Less than 24 hours after the memorable 45-3 win over the Jets, General Manager Mike Robbie announces at a press conference that Don Shula has signed a multi-year contract to remain as head coach.

Dec. 14 — Dan Marino sets an NFL career record with the seventh 400-yard game of his career as he passes for 403 yards in a thrilling 37-31 overtime win in Anaheim, Calif., over the playoff-bound L.A. Rams. Marino completes 29 of 46 with five TDs, including a 20-yarder to Mark Duper in OT to win the game. Marino is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts.

Dec. 22 — The Dolphins play their final game in the Orange Bowl – a 34-27 loss to the New England Patriots. New England captures the AFC East title with the win. The Dolphins finish 21 years in the Orange Bowl with an impressive 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. Marino sets NFL single-season records for completions (378) and attempts (623).

Jan. 8 — Four former Dolphins – Bob Griese, Larry Csonka, Jim Langer and Larry Little – are among a group of 14 finalists under consideration for the 1987 class of enshrinees for the Pro Football Hall of Fame, it is announced by the Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Chuck Studley is re-assigned as Linebacker Coach, with prime responsibility of run defense. Linebacker Coach Bob Matheson resigns.

Jan. 27 — Former Dolphin greats Larry Csonka and Jim Langer are among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They join Paul Warfield as the only members of the franchise to earn the honor, with induction scheduled for August 8.

Aug. 16 — The Dolphins play host to the Chicago Bears in the first game ever played in Joe Robbie Stadium. The date marks the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise. The Bears put a damper on the festive evening with a 10-3 preseason victory before 63,451. QB Dan Marino (dislocated ring finger on right hand) and LB John Offerdahl (torn right bicep) suffer injuries. Marino is out for three weeks; Offerdahl will miss the first six regular-season games.

Sept. 22 — NFL Players Association goes on strike; the Dolphins' home contest with New York Giants (first regular-season game in Joe Robbie Stadium) on September 27 is cancelled because of strike.

Oct. 4	—	The Dolphins' "replacement" team takes the field for the first time, traveling to Seattle to meet the Seahawks. The Dolphins lose, 24-20.
Oct. 11	—	Miami's replacement team records a 42-0 shutout victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in the first regular-season game played in Joe Robbie Stadium. Safety Liffort Hobley (two interceptions, 55-yard fumble recovery for a TD, four tackles, two passes defensed) is named AFC defensive player of the week for his efforts. Don Shula and Joe Robbie are given game balls by the replacement team following the contest in honor of Miami's first win in the new stadium. The next week (October 18), the replacement team loses its last game, 37-31 in overtime, to the N.Y Jets at the Meadowlands.
Oct. 25	—	After four missed weeks of action (one game cancellation, three replacement games), the regular Dolphin players return to action. Miami loses 34-31 in overtime at home to the Buffalo Bills. The 21-point comeback by Buffalo is the best ever by an opponent against a Dolphins team.
Nov. 1	—	Don Shula wins his 250th regular-season game as the Dolphins defeat Pittsburgh 35-24 at Joe Robbie Stadium.
Nov. 29	—	The Dolphins suffer their first shutout loss (27-0 at Buffalo) since December 12, 1982 – the famous snowplow game at New England (3-0). The game also sees the end of Dan Marino's streak of 30 straight games with at least one touchdown pass. His string is second all-time to Johnny Unitas' 47.
Dec. 20	—	Miami picks up its final win of 1987 with a 23-21 victory over Washington at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins lose the following week (December 28) in the '87 finale to New England, 24-10, at home. The Redskins, meanwhile, go on to win Super Bowl XXII, 42-10 over Denver.
Dec. 30	—	RB Troy Stradford is named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press.

July 11	—	Training camp opens for the Dolphins at St. Thomas University as Head Coach Don Shula welcomes 109 players – the largest group of players in Shula's tenure as Dolphin head coach.
July 31	—	The Dolphins make their first ever trip abroad and take on the San Francisco 49ers at Wembley Stadium in London for the third-annual American Bowl. Miami comes from behind to defeat the 49ers, 27-21, before 70,535 British fans to open the pre-season.
Sept. 18	—	Miami registers its first win of the season in a 24-17 triumph over the Green Bay Packers. It marks Miami's 18th win in 23 home openers, including 13 straight years, and a 17-2 record under Don Shula. Dan Marino goes over the 20,000-yard mark in career passing yardage and becomes only the 45th quarterback in NFL history to do so.
Oct. 9	—	The Dolphins reverse history by defeating the Raiders, 24-17, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It marks Miami's first win ever against the Raiders in their home stadium and the Dolphins' first victory over the Raiders in 10 years. The game is played in 96 degree heat - the warmest game in Dolphins' history.
Oct. 16	—	Miami wins its third consecutive game of the season as the Dolphins defeat the San Diego Chargers, 31-28. Quarterback Dan Marino throws for 329 yards and moves into sole possession of second-place on the NFL's career 300-yard passing games list with his 27th such game (behind only Dan Fouts with 51).
Oct. 23	—	Dan Marino records the second-best single-game passing yardage total in NFL history – 521 yards (Norm Van Brocklin holds the single-game record of 554 yards) and completes 35 of a team record 60 attempts, all to no avail as the N.Y Jets defeat the Dolphins, 44-30, at Joe Robbie Stadium.
Oct. 30	—	Shula Bowl III – Head Coach Don Shula and his assistant head coach and son, David Shula, are on the opposite side of the field of Mike Shula, a coaches' assistant for Tampa Bay, as the Dolphins defeat the Bucs, 17-14, in Tampa Stadium.
Dec. 12	—	Dan Marino becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards four times in a career in the Dolphins' 37-31 win over Cleveland. He also throws for his 193rd career touchdown, setting a new Dolphin record and surpassing the total of former quarterback Bob Griese, who had previously held the mark. Marino tops the record that took Griese 14 seasons to accomplish in only six-plus seasons. Also, receiver Mark Clayton surpasses Nat Moore in the record books as he catches a pass in his 37th consecutive game.

Jan. 22 — Joe Robbie Stadium hosts Super Bowl XXIII only two-and-a-half years after its initial opening. Sept. 10 — Jim Kelly scores on a two-yard run on the game's last play to give the Buffalo Bills a 27-24 win over the Dolphins. The loss dropped Miami's record in season openers to 10-13-1 and in home openers to 18-5-1 and it also snapped a 13-game winning streak in home openers, which had been the NFL's longest active home-opener winning streak.

Sept. 17 — In Miami's 24-10 win at New England, Dan Marino throws his 200th career touchdown pass, becoming the 13th player in NFL history to throw for 200 TDs. It was just his 89th career game, and he reaches the 200 touchdown pass mark faster than any quarterback in NFL history.

Oct. 8 — In Miami's 13-10 overtime win vs. Cleveland, Dan Marino goes over 25,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone. Marino also breaks Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 25,092 career passing yards.

Nov. 5 — Sammie Smith rushes for 123 yards in Miami's 19-13 win over the Indianapolis Colts, the third best single game rushing total ever by a Dolphin rookie. It also breaks a 27-game streak in which the Dolphins did not have a running back gain 100 or more yards.

Nov. 12 — Pete Stoyanovich kicks a team-record 59-yard field goal in a 31-23 victory over the New York Jets, a kick that also tied the third longest field goal in NFL history.

Nov. 19 — Miami defeats Dallas 17-14 in Shula Bowl IV, as Don Shula extends his record to 4-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time Shula was opposed by son Dave, the Assistant Head Coach of the Cowboys. The win also was the Dolphins' sixth win in their last seven games and moved them into a first-place tie with the Buffalo Bills atop the AFC East.

Dec. 3 — Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year in Miami's 26-21 loss at Kansas City. It was his sixth season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Dan Fouts' NFL record of six 3,000 yard seasons.

Dec. 24 — The Dolphins are eliminated from playoff contention with a 27-24 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs in the season finale at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is played in 40-degree weather, the coldest home game in the history of the Dolphins.

Sept. 9 — Sammie Smith rushes for an opening-day record 159 yards and a touchdown as the Dolphins break a five-year losing streak in season openers with a 27-24 win at the New England Patriots.

Sept. 16 — Team founder Joe Robbie is the first enshrinee on the "Dolphin Honor Roll" at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins record a 30-7 triumph over the Buffalo Bills, marking Don Shula's 200th career regular season win as the team's head coach.

Oct. 18 — In Miami's 17-10 win over the New England Patriots, Don Shula coaches in his 400th career regular season game as a head coach in the NFL.

Nov. 19 — During halftime of Miami's 13-10 loss to the Los Angeles Raiders, the team's four Hall of Fame enshrinees, Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer and Paul Warfield, are inducted into the "Dolphin Honor Roll."

Nov. 25 — Miami improves its record to 9-2 and clinches the team's first winning season since 1987 with a 30-13 win over the Cleveland Browns. Also, Dan Marino goes over 30,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 11th player in NFL history to reach the 30,000-yard mark. It is just his 114th career game, and he reaches the 30,000-yard plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history.

Dec. 9 — The Dolphins earn a 23-20 overtime win over the Philadelphia Eagles and clinch the team's first playoff berth since 1985.

Dec. 16 — In Miami's 24-17 win over the Seattle Seahawks, Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year. It is his seventh season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Joe Montana's NFL record of seven 3,000-yard seasons.

Dec. 19 — Richmond Webb becomes the first rookie offensive tackle – and second rookie offensive lineman overall – to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest.

Dec. 23 — Dan Marino throws his 20th touchdown pass of the season in Miami's 24-14 loss at the Buffalo Bills. It is his eighth season with 20 or more touchdown passes and he ties Johnny Unitas' NFL record of eight 20-plus touchdown seasons.

Jan. 5 — The Dolphins return to the playoffs after a four-year absence with a 17-16 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Pete Stoyanovich sets an NFL playoff record with a 58-yard field goal.

Jan. 12 — Miami drops a 44-34 playoff decision at the Buffalo Bills. The teams combine for 78 points – the highest scoring non-overtime playoff game in history. The only higher scoring playoff was Miami's 41-38 overtime loss to the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 2, 1982.

Jan. 24 — Monte Clark, the Dolphins director of pro personnel, announces his resignation.

Jan. 27 — Larry Csonka is named to the NFL's all-time Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team.

Aug. 3 — The Dolphins make the longest road trip in team history as they travel 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to battle the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami comes from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.

Aug. 20 — Dan Marino signs a five-year contract extension to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

Sept. 22 — Don Shula captures the 300th win of his coaching career with Miami's 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joins the immortal George Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more games.

Nov. 10 — In Miami's 30-20 win over New England, both Mark Duper and Mark Clayton surpass Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career receiving yards. Duper is the first to move past Moore with a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, while Clayton passes Moore with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.

Nov. 18 — During halftime of Miami's 41-27 loss to the Buffalo Bills, former Dolphin great middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 1 — Dan Marino sets an NFL record as he goes over 3,000 yards passing in a season for the eighth time in his career in Miami's 33-14 win over Tampa Bay. Marino entered the 1991 campaign with seven such seasons and was tied with Joe Montana for the record.

Dec. 9 — Miami defeats Cincinnati 37-13 in Shula Bowl V as Don Shula extends his record to 5-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time, Shula teamed with son Mike, a Dolphins coaches assistant, and was opposed by son David, the receivers coach for the Bengals. In the contest, Dan Marino sets an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.

Dec. 15 — Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with Washington's Chip Lohmiller.

Dec. 22 — The Dolphins drop a 23-20 overtime decision to the New York Jets in a winner-take-all battle for the AFC's final wild card spot. Miami takes a 20-17 lead with just 44 seconds left in regulation on a one-yard scoring toss from Dan Marino to Ferrell Edmunds. However, the Jets move the ball and tie the game at 20-20 on a 44-yard field goal by Raul Allegre with no time left on the clock. New York wins the game in overtime on a 30-yard field goal by Allegre.

July 17 — Don Shula signs a two-year contract extension to continue as the Dolphins' Head Coach through the 1994 season. The extension takes effect at the conclusion of Shula's current contract which expires following the 1992 season.

Aug. 16 — The Dolphins travel 9,908 round-trip miles and earn a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marks the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil. The Dolphins join the L.A. Rams as only teams which have recorded wins in contests played in each of the three American Bowl sites (London, Tokyo and Berlin).

Aug. 31 — Miami's season opening contest, scheduled for September 6 at Joe Robbie Stadium against the New England Patriots, is rescheduled for October 18, the National Football League announces. The date change is made in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew, which struck the South Florida area on August 25. Both teams originally were off that weekend, based on the NFL's 16-games-over-17-weeks schedule which allows each team one bye during the season. The Patriots and Dolphins will have their Open Week on September 6, which marks the beginning of the 1992 regular season.

Sept. 29 — The Dolphins dip into the free agent market and sign perennial all-pro tight end Keith Jackson.

Oct. 4 — The Dolphins improve to 4-0 and take over sole possession of first place in the AFC East for the first time in 34 weeks with a 37-10 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium. The win snaps Miami's six-game losing streak to the Bills at Rich Stadium. The Dolphins' last triumph in Buffalo was a 34-24 win on November 16, 1986. With the win, Miami moves ahead of the second-place Bills (4-1) in the AFC East for the first time since the second week of the 1990 season. Individually, safety Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his INTs for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.

Oct. 18 — Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.

Nov. 16 — During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 20 — The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list.

Dec. 23 — Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer.

Dec. 27 — The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

Jan. 10 — The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.

Jan. 17 — The 1992 season comes to a close. Miami suffers five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team drops a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship contest before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The attendance of 72,703 marks the largest crowd to witness a Dolphin game at JRS. The previous high was 71,224 which was set the previous week on January 10 to witness the Dolphins' 31-0 win over San Diego in an AFC Divisional Playoff game.

Jan. 26 — Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.

Jan. 30 — Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphin guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.

Feb. 7 — The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Feb. 11 — Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight end coach of the Chicago Bears.

Feb. 22 — Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff, who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970, will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.

May 21 — Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92, resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.

June 1 — Rich McGeorge is named as assistant offensive line/tight ends coach of the Dolphins.

June 4 — Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.

July 11 — Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.

Sept. 12 — Dan Marino surpasses the 40,000-yard passing mark during Miami's 24-14 loss to the N.Y. Jets. He joins Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040) and Johnny Unitas

(40,239) as the only quarterbacks to gain 40,000 passing yards. Marino attains the 40,000-yard mark in only 153 regular-season games and accomplishes the feat faster than any QB in league history. The previous record for fastest ascent to 40,000 yards was 168 games by Dan Fouts.

Oct. 10 — Scott Mitchell comes off the bench and replaces an injured Dan Marino (torn Achilles in right foot) and throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 24-14 win at the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell enters the game just before halftime and completes 10 of 16 passes for 118 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Mitchell is named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Browns. Marino is placed on Injured Reserve on October 13 and misses the remainder of the season.

Oct. 24 — Dan Marino misses his first starting assignment in 145 consecutive non-replacement regular season games as Miami earns a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. The game marks the first career NFL start at quarterback for Scott Mitchell as he hits on 12 of 19 passes for 190 yards with a touchdown. Mitchell becomes the eighth player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins since Don Shula was named head coach in 1970.

Oct. 31 — Don Shula wins the 324th game of his coaching career and ties George Halas for the all-time record for most wins by an NFL head coach as Miami earns a 30-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Shula achieves the coaching milestone in his 31st year (482nd game) of his NFL coaching career as compared to 40 seasons (506 games) for Halas to accomplish the feat. On the field, Scott Mitchell throws for 344 yards and three touchdowns and becomes the first Dolphin quarterback other than Dan Marino to pass for over 300 yards and throw three or more touchdown passes since David Woodley gained 408 yards and threw three scores on October 25, 1981, at the Dallas Cowboys.

Nov. 14 — The Dolphins endure another quarterback injury as Scott Mitchell suffers a separated shoulder during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia. The win enables Don Shula to record the 325th triumph of his coaching career as he becomes the winningest coach in NFL history surpassing George Halas. In the contest, Doug Pederson replaces Mitchell and enters the game in the third quarter with Miami trailing 14-13. He guides the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and the defense holds the Eagles scoreless in the second half to garner the victory.

Nov. 21 — Steve DeBerg becomes the third player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins in 1993 as he throws for 252 yards and a pair of touchdowns to lead Miami to a 17-13 win over New England. DeBerg, the NFL's oldest player, had joined the team just 11 days prior to the Pats game and was forced into his first start in place of the injured Scott Mitchell.

Nov. 25 — The Dolphins post a come-from-behind 16-14 win over the defending and eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day on a sleet covered field at Texas Stadium. Miami improves 3-0 on Thanksgiving as the team had posted victories at St. Louis (55-14 on November 24, 1977) and at Dallas (14-7 on November 22, 1973). In the contest, Miami trails 14-13 with just 15 seconds left in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich's 41-yard field goal attempt for the win is blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones. However, Dallas' Leon Lett attempts to pick up the loose ball and fumbles and Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovers the ball on the one-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stoyanovich converts on his second chance and boots a 19-yard field goal on the game's final play to win the contest. The win improves Miami's record to an NFL best 9-2, but the team will fail to win another game during the remainder of the season.

Dec. 13 — During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 21-20 loss to Pittsburgh, former Dolphin great and Hall of Famer Larry Little is honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 14 — Don Shula is named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year. He is the first professional coach to receive the honor.

Jan. 2 — The Dolphins lose by a 33-27 count in overtime at New England. It is the fifth consecutive loss for the Dolphins and the team is eliminated from the playoffs later in the day as the Raiders rally from a 17-point deficit to win over Denver and qualify for the playoffs.

Jan. 24 — The trustees of the Miami Dolphins sign a definitive agreement with H. Wayne Huizenga to purchase the Robbie family's interests in the Dolphin franchise. The agreement also includes an option for Huizenga to purchase the Robbies' interest in Joe Robbie Stadium.

Feb. 8 — Joel Collier joins the Dolphins as a staff assistant, replacing Carl Taseff.

March 16 — John Gamble is named as the Dolphins' strength coach.

March 23 — The National Football League clubs approve transfer of the majority interests in the Miami Dolphins from the Robbie family to H. Wayne Huizenga at the annual league meetings in Orlando, Fla.

June 28 — H. Wayne Huizenga's purchase of the Robbie Family's remaining 85% of the Miami Dolphins as well as their 50% share of the Joe Robbie Stadium is finalized. The closing leaves Huizenga with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and Stadium.

July 8 — The Dolphins and WIOD Radio (610 AM) announce the hiring of Bill Zimpfer as the team's play-by-play announcer and "Voice of the Dolphins." Zimpfer replaces Rick Weaver, who had served as play-by-play announcer for the Dolphins since 1970 and announced his retirement at the club's annual awards dinner on May 6, 1993. Zimpfer joins former Dolphin tight end and color analyst Jim Mandich in the broadcast booth.

July 21 — H. Wayne Huizenga announces that he has entered into a new agreement with Head Coach Don Shula that extends through the 1996 season. Under the new contract extension, Shula assumes the position of Vice President/Head Coach, and also adds an ownership interest in the team.

Sept. 4 — After missing the final 11 games of the 1993 season with a torn right Achilles' tendon, Dan Marino returns to action as he throws for 473 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 39-35 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino sets an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas, and also throws the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (343 touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns.

Oct. 2 — Shula Bowl VI makes sports history as it marks the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player as the Dolphins earn a 23-7 win over the Bengals.

Oct. 16 — Bernie Parmalee receives two game balls — one for offense and one for special teams — for his performance in Miami's 20-17 overtime win against the Los Angeles Raiders. Parmalee rushes for 150 yards on 30 carries and adds a pair of tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams. In addition, the Dolphins reverse history in the all-time series against the Raiders as Miami records wins in consecutive games against the Raiders for the first time in the history of the series. Miami earned a 20-7 win over the Raiders on December 14, 1992, in the last meeting between the two teams.

Nov. 13 — Chicago's Kevin Butler boots a 40-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in regulation and James Williams deflects a Dolphins field goal attempt with just seven seconds remaining in the game to give the Bears a 17-14 win over the Dolphins in Shula Bowl VII. Miami Head Coach Don Shula battles his son and Bears tight ends coach Mike Shula in the contest and it marks the first time that the elder Shula lost a game in which one of his sons, David or Mike, were either players or assistant coaches on the opposing NFL team.

Nov. 27 — Quarterback Dan Marino makes history once again with his famous "Clock Play". With the Dolphins trailing the Jets by 18 points in the second half at the Meadowlands, Marino orchestrates a 28-point second-half outburst, including 22 straight to close the contest, as Miami claims a 28-24 victory. All four scores in the second half occur on Marino to Mark Ingram touchdown passes. The game winning points come on first-and-goal with just 22 seconds to play, when Marino approaches the line of scrimmage, appearing poised to clock the ball. However, he takes everyone in the stadium by surprise as he receives the snap, drops back and tosses an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ingram, who ties the Paul Warfield's single-game record of four touchdowns and 24 points, which Warfield achieved against Detroit on December 15, 1973.

Dec. 7 — Don Shula suffers a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg and undergoes surgery on the injury on December 9 by Dr. Peter Indelicato and Dr. Dan Kanell. He misses a regular season practice for the first time in his 25 seasons with the team. Shula returns to practice on December 10 and coaches for the remainder of the season on a golf cart.

Dec. 12 — Bernie Parmalee rushes for 127 yards and scores a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinch a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins his 318th career regular season game and ties George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Center Dwight Stephenson is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies.

Dec. 25 — The Dolphins earn a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions and clinch the AFC East title. Miami and the New England Patriots both finish with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins win the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpasses George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami plays on Christmas Day for the second time in team history with the only other Christmas game for the Dolphins being the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971.

Dec. 27 — Defensive tackle Tim Bowens is named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. He becomes the first Dolphins player to win A.P.'s defensive rookie award since A.J. Duhe in 1977.

Dec. 31 — Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lives up to its pregame hype. Marino completes 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana counters by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. Marino sets an NFL playoff record as he throws for a touchdown pass in his 11th consecutive post-season game and moves past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak in NFL post-season history.

Jan. 9 — Natrone Means rushes for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the San Diego Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Dan Marino drove the team to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left was wide right.

Jan. 18 — Assistant head coach/offensive line John Sandusky announces his retirement. A veteran of over three decades of NFL coaching (he concluded his 36th season in 1994), Sandusky was one of only two coaches to serve as offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula, while Monte Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75.

Feb. 6 — Monte Clark is named as the team's offensive line coach. Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins, re-joining the team after having served as head offensive line coach at Stanford University during 1993-94.

Feb. 9 — Dolphins Executive Vice President and General Manager Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract to remain in that capacity through the 1996 season.

May 19 — The Miami Dolphins sign a two-year agreement with WCMQ radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for Dolphins games. WCMQ replaces WQBA radio, which had been the team's Spanish station for the previous 13 seasons.

Sept. 3 — The Dolphins open the season with an explosive offensive display in a 52-15 win over the N.Y. Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. The 52 points are the second-highest single-game total in team history (behind 55 points at St. Louis on November 24, 1977). In addition, the game is played in 94-degree weather, making it the warmest home game in team history.

Oct. 1 — The Shula coaching family again makes sports history as father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 7-1 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player with a 26-23 win at the Bengals.

Oct. 8 — Dan Marino passes Fran Tarkenton (3,686 completions) to become the NFL's all-time leader in career pass completions with a six-yard toss to fullback Keith Byars during the Dolphins' 27-24 overtime loss at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Marino suffers knee and hip injuries which force him to miss the next two games (at New Orleans and at the N.Y. Jets).

Nov. 12 — Dan Marino becomes the NFL's all-time career passing yardage leader as he jumps past Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career yards) with a nine-yard pass to Irving Fryar in the first quarter of the Dolphins' 34-17 loss to the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 26 — Dan Marino tosses a six-yard touchdown pass to fullback Keith Byars with 1:03 remaining in the first half for his 343rd career scoring pass and becomes the NFL's all-time touchdown pass leader (surpassing Fran Tarkenton's 342 TDs) during Miami's 36-28 loss at Indianapolis.

Dec. 11	—	Guard/Tackle Bob Kuechenberg is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during half-time ceremonies of Miami's 13-6 win over Kansas City at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dan Marino breaks the last of Fran Tarkenton's major passing records (6,467 career attempts) with an incomplete pass attempt to wide receiver Randal Hill in the fourth quarter. In addition, the game is a sellout and marks the second consecutive season and fourth time overall (also 1972-73) that every home game has been sold out and it is just the second time in team history (also 1973) that every game has been sold out before the television blackout deadline.
Dec. 24	—	The Dolphins post a 41-22 win at St. Louis to finish the regular season with a 9-7 record. The team clinches a playoff berth for the second consecutive season later in the day as the Denver Broncos come from behind late in the contest to win at Oakland and eliminate the Raiders from playoff consideration. Miami's win marks the 347th and final victory in the illustrious head coaching career of Don Shula.
Dec. 30	—	Miami's season ends following a 37-22 loss in an AFC First-Round Playoff Contest in Buffalo. The game is an offensive shootout as the teams combine for an NFL post-season record of 1,038 yards. Dan Marino leads the Dolphins by completing 33 of a career-high 64 pass attempts for 422 yards and a pair of scores, while WR O.J. McDuffie sets team playoff records with 11 catches for 154 yards. The game marks the final contest in Head Coach Don Shula's career.

Jan. 5	—	Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the NFL, moves from his role as head coach of the team as he assumes another role within the Dolphins organization. He continues to serve as a partner to owner H. Wayne Huizenga and becomes Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors in addition to his status as a part-owner of the team. Shula leaves the sidelines with an overall record 347-173-6 in his 33 years as a head coach, including the last 26 years with the Dolphins (1970-95). He won Super Bowl titles with Miami in 1972 and 1973, posting a combined 32-2 record in those two seasons, and his 1972 team went 17-0, the only undefeated season in NFL annals.
Jan. 11	—	Jimmy Johnson signs a four-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins, becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson joins the team with one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels before spending the previous two years as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports. He is the first head coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title (Dallas, 1992 and 1993) and a national collegiate championship (Univ. of Miami, 1987).
Jan. 16	—	Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that Eddie Jones has been named President and Chief Operating Officer of the team, and Jimmy Johnson has been named as the club's General Manager/Head Coach. Jones had spent the last six seasons with the team as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager.
Jan. 17	—	The Dolphins name Cary Godette (defensive line), Pat Jones (tight ends) and Bill Lewis (defense nickel package) to the coaching staff. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Godette, who replaces Joe Greene, had served as defensive line coach for the Carolina Panthers in 1995, Jones was head coach at Oklahoma State University from 1984-94, and Lewis was head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94.
Jan. 19	—	Kippy Brown joins the Dolphins coaching staff as running backs coach, replacing Tony Nathan. Brown had served as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1995) and N.Y. Jets (1990-92).
Jan. 24	—	Bob Ackles is named as the Dolphins Director of Football Operations. Ackles joins the team after serving as Director of Football Administration for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1995 and working three years with the Arizona Cardinals as Director of College Scouting (1992-93) and Assistant General Manager (1994).
Feb. 16	—	The Dolphins name Larry Beightol as assistant head coach/offensive line, replacing Monte Clark. In addition to his coaching the offensive line, Beightol also assumes additional administrative responsibilities involving the entire football staff. Beightol joins the Dolphins after having served as offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers (1995), N.Y. Jets (1990-94), San Diego Chargers (1989), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-88) and Atlanta Falcons (1985-86).
March 1	—	The Dolphins name Kevin O'Neill as head athletic trainer and Brad Roll as assistant strength and conditioning coach.
April 23	—	Dan Marino, who broke every significant passing record in NFL history during the 1995 season, signs a three-year contract through the 1998 season to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.
April 26	—	The Jimmy Johnson era officially begins as the Dolphins take the field for the first time in mini-camp under the new Dolphins head coach.

Aug. 26	—	Pro Player, a sports apparel company, enters into a ten-year agreement with Joe Robbie Stadium, home of the Dolphins since 1987, to re-name the stadium Pro Player Park. The deal is worth $2 million annually over the term of the contract.
Sept. 1	—	The Dolphins defeat the New England Patriots, 24–10 at Pro Player Park, in Jimmy Johnson's debut as head coach. Of the three head coaches in team history, Johnson is the only one to record a victory in his initial game. Also, rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 115 yards and a TD on 26 carries in Miami's victory over the Patriots, the first Dolphin rookie since Sammie Smith on November 5, 1989, against Indianapolis to rush for 100 yards. He also becomes the first player in Dolphins history to rush for 100 yards in his NFL debut.
Sept. 10	—	Pro Player Park is re-named Pro Player Stadium.
Sept. 15	—	On his 35th birthday, quarterback Dan Marino throws for 257 yards and three touchdowns as the Dolphins defeat the New York Jets, 36-27, at Pro Player Stadium. One of the scoring passes is a 74-yard strike to rookie fullback Stanley Pritchett, the longest completion to a Dolphins running back in team history. The win marks the third straight year and fourth time in the last five campaigns that Miami has opened the regular season with three consecutive victories.
Oct. 27	—	Quarterback Dan Marino plays in his 191st regular season game, against Dallas at Pro Player Stadium. In the process, he breaks Bob Kuechenberg's club career record for regular season games played of 190. The game is witnessed by 75,651 fans, the highest attendance figure in Pro Player Stadium history. The previous high was 75,129 for Super Bowl XXIII between San Francisco and Cincinnati on January 22, 1989. The former record for a Dolphins game was 73,080 for a November 20, 1995 contest against San Francisco.
Oct. 29	—	WQAM Radio (560 AM) signs a five-year contract for broadcast rights to the Dolphins, Florida Marlins and Florida Panthers. Dolphins football will be aired on WQAM beginning in the 1997 season and through the year 2001. The Dolphins' flagship station had been WIOD Radio since the team's inception in 1966.
Oct. 31	—	At the NFL fall meetings in New Orleans, the league awards the 1999 Super Bowl to the city of Miami. The game will be played at Pro Player Stadium.
Nov. 10	—	A 36-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter puts quarterback Dan Marino over the 50,000-yard mark for his career, the first quarterback in NFL history to reach that plateau. His eight-yard completion to Fred Barnett in the second quarter is the 4,000th completion of Marino's career, also making him the first quarterback in league history to achieve that feat. These accomplishments occur in a 37-13 victory over Indianapolis at Pro Player Stadium.
Nov. 17	—	The Dolphins defeat the Houston Oilers, 23-20 at the Astrodome, the 50th career regular season victory for head coach Jimmy Johnson.
Nov. 25	—	At halftime of a 24-17 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, former Head Coach Don Shula is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll. In that game, running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 57 yards on 16 attempts, breaking the club's rookie rushing record of 711 formerly held by Andra Franklin (1981).
Dec. 16	—	On Monday Night Football, the Dolphins record a 16-14 victory over Buffalo at Pro Player Stadium, marking the first time since 1986 that Miami has swept the season series from the Bills. It's also the first time since December 22, 1985, that the Dolphins have defeated Buffalo in the month of December or January, snapping a seven-game losing streak against Buffalo in such games.
Dec. 22	—	In a season-ending 31-28 win at the New York Jets, running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 152 yards and a TD on 30 carries. His performance is the fifth-highest single-game total in franchise history, and the second-most by a rookie. It is his fourth 100-yard rushing game of the year, establishing a new club rookie standard, also tying for the second-best mark in team annals. In the process, he also surpasses the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for the season, the sixth Dolphins player to achieve that feat and the first since Delvin Williams in 1978. Abdul-Jabbar's 1,116 rushing yards is the third-best single-season total in team history. He scores on a 17-yard run in the third quarter, his 11th rushing touchdown of the year, tying Ron Davenport's club rookie record, first achieved in 1985.

Jan. 14	—	Miami Dolphins unveil a modified team logo and new uniforms for the 1997 season. The basic logo and team colors remain the same. The sunburst on the logo is more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeters, while the dolphin's features are accentuated by navy highlights. The home and road jerseys added a script "Dolphins" below the collar, and several subtle accents were added to the uniform to highlight and strengthen the team's traditional colors.

Jan. 25	—	Former head coach Don Shula (1970-95), the NFL's all-time winningest coach with 347 victories, is selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.
March 11	—	At the NFL spring meetings in Palm Desert, Calif., the NFL Owners approve limited cross ownership, finalizing H. Wayne Huizenga's ownership of the Dolphins.
March 21	—	Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract extension, which runs through 1998, to remain as the team's president and chief operating officer.
April 17	—	Les Koenning, wide receivers coach at Texas A&M the previous three seasons, is named as an offensive assistant.
April 18	—	The Dolphins unveil the first "official" mascot in team history during a press conference at the team's training facility. He makes his public debut on April 19 at the team's Draft Day party at Pro Player Stadium.
June 3	—	Doug Blevins is named as the team's kicking coach.
June 4	—	"T.D." is picked as the name of the Dolphins official team mascot, it is announced at the team's annual Awards Banquet. Sarah Fernandez and her two sons, Nelson and Vincent, win the "Name the Mascot" contest, and receive two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego.
June 13	—	Dan Marino signs a one-year contract extension through the 1999 season.
July 26	—	Don Shula becomes the sixth former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Mike Haynes, Wellington Mara and Mike Webster.
Aug. 4	—	The Dolphins travel to Mexico City and earn a 38-19 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 104,629 fans at Estadio Guillermo Canedo. The attendance is the most to ever witness a Dolphins game, surpassing the previous high of 103,667 that saw Miami's 27-17 loss to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, in the Rose Bowl. The game marks the fourth time overall that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 4-0 in games played on foreign soil. Miami's previous American Bowl games had been in London (1988), Tokyo (1991) and Berlin (1992). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.
Aug. 31	—	The Dolphins defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 16-10, at Pro Player Stadium in their 1997 season-opener. It's the Dolphins' first-ever regular season game in the month of August. It also marks their sixth consecutive opening-day victory.
Oct. 5	—	The Dolphins defeat the Kansas City Chiefs, 17-14, at Pro Player Stadium, marking the 300th victory in franchise history, including playoffs. The Dolphins become the second team from the old AFL to reach the 300-win plateau. The Oakland Raiders were the first.
Oct. 27	—	After the Dolphins built a 33-18 fourth-quarter lead, the Chicago Bears storm back for 18 unanswered points, including a Jeff Jaeger 35-yard field goal with 5:35 remaining in overtime, to come away with a 36-33 victory on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium. It equaled the fourth-largest comeback win ever against Miami. The game originally was scheduled to be played on Sunday, October 26, but was pushed back due to Game 7 of the Marlins-Indians World Series.
Nov. 17	—	At halftime of a 30-13 win over the Buffalo Bills on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins honor the 25th anniversary of the 1972 Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII.
Nov. 23	—	RB Karim Abdul-Jabbar scores three rushing touchdowns in a 27-24 loss to the Patriots in Foxboro. His third touchdown of the game comes on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter. It is his 13th rushing TD of the year, a new Dolphins record. His 12 rushing scores had been tied with Mercury Morris, Don Nottingham and Larry Csonka.
Nov. 30	—	The Dolphins record a 33-15 victory over the Raiders at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. It's the first-ever win by Miami against the Raiders in Oakland after Miami had dropped each of their previous eight meetings there.
Dec. 14	—	The Dolphins are shut out, 41-0, by the Indianapolis Colts in the RCA Dome. The shutout snaps a streak of 162 consecutive games - the second longest active streak in the NFL at the time - in which the Dolphins had scored. The last time Miami had been held scoreless was on November 29, 1987, in a 27-0 loss at the Buffalo Bills.
Dec. 22	—	In the season finale against New England at Pro Player Stadium, left tackle Richmond Webb starts his 110th consecutive regular season game, a new Dolphins record. His 109 straight starts were tied with Jim Langer. The Patriots win the game, 14-12, giving New England the AFC East title. A win by the Dolphins would have made them AFC East champions, but instead they enter the playoffs as a Wild Card team where they must go on the road to face the Patriots the following week.

| Dec. 28 | – | The Dolphins drop a 17-3 decision to the New England Patriots in Foxboro in an AFC First-Round Playoff game, Miami's first postseason appearance under Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. |

Jan. 24	–	Former Dolphins center Dwight Stephenson (1980-87) is among a group of five who are elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
Feb. 11	–	Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson announces the following changes to the team's coaching staff: Kippy Brown, the Dolphins' running backs coach for the last two years, is named as offensive coordinator, replacing Gary Stevens; Larry Seiple, formerly the club's wide receiver coach, handles the quarterbacks; Joel Collier, a defensive assistant since 1994, coaches the running backs; Robert Ford, tight ends coach with the Dallas Cowboys since 1991, takes over as Miami's wide receivers coach; and Randy Shannon, an assistant at the University of Miami (Fla.), serves as a defensive assistant on the staff.
March 23	–	Jimmy Johnson signs a one-year contract extension to remain the Dolphins General Manager and Head Coach through the year 2000. Johnson originally signed a four-year contract with the club on January 21, 1996.
Aug. 1	–	Center Dwight Stephenson becomes the seventh former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Anthony Munoz, Mike Singletary, Tommy McDonald and Paul Krause.
Sept. 6	–	The Dolphins defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 24-15, at the RCA Dome, marking Miami's seventh straight opening day victory.
Sep. 20	–	The Dolphins shut out the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-0, at Pro Player Stadium. It marks Miami's first shutout under Head Coach Jimmy Johnson and their first since November 8, 1992, when they defeated the Colts, 28-0, at the RCA Dome.
Nov. 29	–	In a 30-10 victory over the New Orleans Saints at Pro Player Stadium, quarterback Dan Marino throws three touchdown passes, all to O.J. McDuffie. The second one, a seven-yard strike in the fourth quarter, the 400th TD pass of Marino's career, the first quarterback in NFL history ever to reach that plateau.
Dec. 21	–	The Dolphins record a 31-21 victory over the Denver Broncos at Pro Player Stadium in front of an ABC Monday Night Football audience. The win is Miami's 34th on Monday night, as they surpass Oakland as the winningest team in MNF history.
Dec. 27	–	In a season-ending 38-16 loss to the Falcons in Atlanta, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie catches five passes for 82 yards. His second reception of the afternoon, a 28-yard catch in the second quarter, is his 87th of the season, surpassing Mark Clayton (86 in 1988) as the Dolphins' single-season reception leader. McDuffie finishes the year with an NFL-high 90 receptions, the first Dolphin ever to lead the league in this category.

Jan. 2	–	The Dolphins defeat the Buffalo Bills, 24-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It represents Miami's first-ever playoff win under Head Coach Jimmy Johnson, and their first since December 31, 1994, when they posted a 27-17 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in a First-Round contest at Pro Player Stadium.
Jan. 14	–	Dave Wannstedt, head coach with the Chicago Bears from 1993-98, is named the Dolphins' assistant head coach.
Jan. 21	–	Paul Boudreau is named offensive line coach, replacing Larry Beightol.

June 15	–	Dan Marino signs a two-year contract extension through 2001.
Sept. 13	–	The Dolphins defeat the two-time defending Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos, 38-21, in a season-opening Monday night game at Mile High Stadium. The win was the 300th during the regular season in Dolphins history.
Oct. 10	–	The Dolphins set a franchise record by posting 25 fourth-quarter points, and in the process erase a pair of nine-point deficits to earn a 34-31 triumph over the Colts at the RCA Dome. Quarterback Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdowns in the final period, including a two-yard strike to Oronde Gadsden with 27 seconds to play, lifting Miami to victory. It marks the 35th time in Marino's career that he has led the Dolphins back from a fourth-quarter deficit for a win.
Oct. 17	–	Dan Marino completes an eight-yard pass to Tony Martin in the first quarter against the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. The completion, the first and only one of the game for Marino, puts him over the 60,000-yard passing plateau for his career, the only quarterback in NFL history to attain that mark. Marino leaves the game following the next series with a shoulder injury, forcing him to miss the next five contests. Damon Huard relieves Marino with the Dolphins trailing 7-0. After his first attempt in picked off and returned for a touchdown by Ty Law, Huard goes on to complete 24 of 42 passes for 240 yards with two touchdowns in leading the Dolphins to a 31-30 victory. The game-winning points occur on a five-yard TD pass to Stanley Pritchett with 23 seconds remaining in the game. The Dolphins become the first team in NFL history to win back-to-back road games when trailing by seven or more points after the third quarter.

Oct. 24 — Against Philadelphia on October 24 at Pro Player Stadium, Dan Marino sits out the first of five straight games with a shoulder injury. The Eagles games snaps a string of 46 straight games in which Marino had started, the third-longest current streak among NFL signal callers at the time. Prior to this game, the last time Marino missed a game was on October 20, 1996, also against the Eagles, at Veterans Stadium.

Dec. 5 — Former wide receiver Nat Moore becomes the 12th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium.

Dec. 12 — Kicker Olindo Mare accounts for two field goals against the Jets at Giants Stadium. His first field goal of the game, a 24-yarder, was his 32nd of the season, breaking Pete Stoyanovich's club single-season records of 31, which Stoyanovich had set in 1991.

Dec. 21 — Cornerback Sam Madison, kicker Olindo Mare and linebacker Zach Thomas are named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first selection for all three. Madison becomes the first cornerback in team history to be voted to the Pro Bowl squad.

Dec. 27 — Kicker Olindo Mare boots a 37-yard field goal against the Jets in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium. The field goal was his 38th of the season, as he became the NFL's single-season field goal leader, surpassing John Kasay, who had amassed 37 field goals with Carolina in 1996.

Jan. 2 — In a 21-10 loss to the Washington Redskins at FedEx Field, Olindo Mare kicks a 39-yard field goal, his 39th and final of the 1999 season, extending his NFL record of most field goal made in a single season.

Jan. 9 — The Dolphins defeat the Seattle Seahawks, 20-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at the Kingdome, the final football game at the stadium. The win is Miami's first road playoff victory since they defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1972 AFC Championship Game at Three Rivers Stadium. Quarterback Dan Marino completes 17 of 30 passes for 196 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the victory, in which he guided a late drive that led to the game-winning touchdown with 4:48 remaining.

Jan. 15 — The Dolphins drop a 62-7 decision to the Jacksonville Jaguars in an AFC Divisional Playoff game at ALLTEL Stadium. The contest would be the final one in the playing career of quarterback Dan Marino and coaching career of Jimmy Johnson.

Jan. 16 — Jimmy Johnson, the Dolphins' General Manager/Head Coach since 1996, retires. Dave Wannstedt, the team's Assistant Head Coach in 1999, is named Head Coach.

Jan. 24 — Jim Bates is named defensive coordinator, replacing George Hill. Clarence Brooks is named defensive line coach, replacing Cary Godette.

Feb. 1 — Chan Gailey, the Head Coach with the Dallas Cowboys from 1998-99, is named offensive coordinator, replacing Kippy Brown. Randy Shannon, a defensive assistant with the Dolphins from 1998-99, is promoted to linebackers coach.

Feb. 7 — Mike Shula, the offensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-99, re-joins the Dolphins as quarterbacks coach, replacing Larry Seiple. Shula previously had served as an assistant on Miami's coaching staff from 1991-92. Judd Garrett is named as an offensive assistant, and Robert Nunn is named as a defensive assistant.

Feb. 10 — Quarterback Dan Marino, the Dolphins' first-round draft choice in 1983 and the NFL's all-time leading passer, voids the final two years of his contract, thus becoming a free agent.

Mar. 7 — The Dolphins sign 12-year veteran running back Thurman Thomas to a three-year contract as a free agent. Thomas, who played with Buffalo for each of the first 12 years of his career and was a member of four Bills Super Bowl teams, is the all-time leading rusher against the Dolphins.

Mar. 13 — Dan Marino announces his retirement from professional football.

Apr. 14 — The Dolphins unveil Dan Marino's permanent encased locker at the team's Nova Southeastern University training faclity, the first of its kind in club history.

Apr. 28 — The Dave Wannstedt era officially begins as the Dolphins take the field for the first time in minicamp under the new Dolphins head coach.

May 3 — The Dolphins name Rick Spielman as Vice President-Player Personnel. Spielman had served as Director of Pro Personnel with the Chicago Bears since 1997.

June 12 — Huizenga Holdings, Inc., the private company that represents many of the non-publicly traded business interests of the Huizenga family, announces that it retained the investment banking firm of Morgan Stanley Dean Whitter to explore strategic alternatives regarding the financial structure of the Miami Dolphins and Pro Player Stadium. Alternatives include the potential of additional investors in the team and the stadium, as well as naming rights for the stadium.

Aug. 21 — The portion of N.W. 199 Street in front of Pro Player Stadium is re-named "Dan Marino Boulevard". The new address for the Dolphins' home becomes 2269 Dan Marino Boulevard.

Aug. 23 — More than 50,000 fans show up at Pro Player Stadium for the public tribute to Dan Marino. The night's festivities include appearances by the five other members of the famed quarterback "Class of '83" – John Elway, Jim Kelly, Todd Blackledge, Tony Eason and Ken O'Brien – as well as former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula and former Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw. The band "Hootie and the Blowfish" provide the musical entertainment, while the four-hour event concludes with a gala fireworks display.

Sept. 3 — Jay Fiedler opens at quarterback in the Dolphins' season-opener against Seattle at Pro Player Stadium. Fiedler is the first quarterback to start on opening day for the Dolphins other than Dan Marino since 1983. Fiedler completes 15 of 24 passes for 134 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the Dolphins' 23-0 win, the third shutout victory on opening day in franchise history and the first since 1983.

Sept. 17 — The Dolphins defeat the eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens, 19-6, in a game that was played through a steady rain at Pro Player Stadium. At halftime of the game, former quarterback Dan Marino has his jersey No. 13 retired, the second Dolphin ever to receive that honor. He also becomes the 13th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Oct. 8 — For the first time since September 21, 1997 at Tampa Bay, the Dolphins wear their white jerseys with white pants in a 22-13 victory over Buffalo at Pro Player Stadium.

Oct. 23 — On a Monday night at the Meadowlands, the Dolphins hold a commanding 30-7 fourth-quarter lead over the New York Jets. The Jets, however, post 30 of the 37 points scored in the fourth quarter to send the game into overtime, where John Hall ended the four hour, ten minute epic with a 40-yard field goal, 6:47 into the extra period. It was the largest comeback win ever against the Dolphins, while it also marked the longest game in the 31-year history of ABC Monday Night Football.

Dec. 10 — In a 16-13 loss to Tampa Bay at Pro Player Stadium, running back Lamar Smith rushes for 79 yards and surpasses the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for the season. Smith becomes the first Dolphin to accomplish the feat since Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1996 and the fifth player overall to do it.

Dec. 24 — The Dolphins earn a 27-24 victory over the Patriots on Christmas Eve at Foxboro Stadium to claim the 16th AFC East title in club history and the first since 1994. Thirty-five minutes following the apparent conclusion of the game, both teams were summoned back onto the field after it was determined that three seconds still remained with the Patriots having the ball at their own 40. Michael Bishop's final pass attempt of the game fell incomplete at about the Dolphins' 25.

Dec. 30 — The Dolphins erase a 14-0 third-quarter deficit by scoring 23 of the next 26 points en route to a 23-17 overtime win against the Colts in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It marks the second-largest comeback win in Dolphins postseason annals. The winning points are scored on a 17-yard run by running back Lamar Smith with 3:34 to play in the first overtime. It caps a day in which Smith set an NFL playoff record with 40 rushing attempts. His 209 rushing yards is the second-highest figure in NFL playoff history and the most-ever by a Dolphin (regular season or postseason) at the time.

Jan. 6 — The Raiders defeat the Dolphins, 27-0, in a Divisional Playoff game in Oakland. It is the first time that Miami has been shutout in 38 postseason contests.

Jan. 15 — Keith Armstrong is named special teams coach, replacing Mike Westhoff, and Tony Wise is hired as offensive line coach, replacing Paul Boudreau.

Jan. 27 — Former linebacker Nick Buoniconti, who anchored Miami's "No-Name" defense, leading the Dolphins to two straight Super Bowl victories, becomes the eighth former Dolphin to be elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and the first defensive player.

Feb. 2 — Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season.

Mar. 1 — Bob Sanders is named linebackers coach, replacing Randy Shannon, who became the defensive coordinator at the University of Miami.

Apr. 30	–	Offensive tackle Richmond Webb, the Dolphins first-round draft choice in 1990 and a seven-time Pro Bowl selection, officially ends his tenure with the Dolphins when he signs a three-year contract with the Cincinnati Bengals as an unrestricted free agent.
May 9	–	Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season. In addition, Ron Labadie is promoted to Director of College Scouting, after serving as the Dolphins' midwest scout since 1990. Tom Braatz, the team's Director of College Scouting since 1992, is named as a scout, and John Crea is named as the Dolphins' midwest area scout.
June 4	–	George Paton is named Director of Pro Personnel, replacing Tom Heckert, Jr., who was named Director of Player Personnel with the Philadelphia Eagles.
Aug. 4	–	Former linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the eighth Dolphin and first defensive player to earn that honor.
Sept. 9	–	The Dolphins record their tenth consecutive opening day victory with a 31-23 decision over the Tennessee Titans in Miami's first-ever visit to Nashville's Adelphia Coliseum. Among the Dolphins' four touchdowns on the night was a Zach Thomas 34-yard interception return for a touchdown, the fourth of his career, setting a new club all-time record.
Sept. 13	–	In the wake of the September 11 terrorist attacks, the NFL announces that it will cancel games for the weekend of September 16-17. The Dolphins game against the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium is re-scheduled for Sunday, January 6.
Dec. 10	–	The Dolphins earn a resounding 41-6 victory over the Indianapolis Colts on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium, the last game that these two teams would play as AFC East opponents, prior to realignment in 2002. For the Dolphins, it was their 36th victory on Monday Night Football, as they surpassed San Francisco as the winningest team in MNF history.
Dec. 16	–	The Dolphins are handed a 21-0 shutout by the San Francisco 49ers at 3Com Park. Coupled with their 24-0 loss to the Jets at Pro Player Stadium on November 18, it marks just the third time in franchise history and the first time since 1970 that the Dolphins suffer two shutout losses in the same season.
Dec. 22	–	Playing their third game in 13 days, the Dolphins drop a 20-13 decision to the New England Patriots, in the last regular season game ever played at Foxboro Stadium.
Dec. 30	–	With a 21-14 win over Atlanta at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins clinch their fifth playoff appearance in a row, as they become the only NFL team to reach the postseason in each of the last five years, a span ranging from 1997-01.

Jan. 6	–	In a game that was originally scheduled to be played on September 16, but cancelled because of terrorist attacks, the Dolphins clinch a home First-Round Playoff game with a 34-7 season ending win over Buffalo, just the fourth time in team history that the Dolphins have played a regular season game in the month of January. On the game's final play, Brock Marion picks off a Travis Brown pass and races 100 yards for a touchdown, as the Dolphins establish a club single-season record for interception returns for touchdowns (five) and defensive touchdowns (six).
Jan. 28	–	Bryan Wiedmeier is promoted to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and Rick Spielman is promoted to Senior Vice President – Football Operations/Player Personnel.
Feb. 5	–	The Dolphins name Norv Turner as their Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator, taking over from Chan Gailey, who had been named Head Coach at Georgia Tech. In addition to serving as Head Coach with the Washington Redskins from 1994-00, Turner also was the offensive coordinator with both Dallas (1991-93) and San Diego (2001).
Feb. 13	–	Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2004 season.
March 8	–	The Dolphins acquire former Heisman Trophy winning running back Ricky Williams from the New Orleans Saints in exchange for a 2002 first-round draft choice and a conditional third-round pick in 2003. In addition, the teams swapped positions in the fourth round of the '02 draft.
March 14	–	The Dolphins and WQAM Radio sign a new two-year contract for the station to continue to serve as the team's flagship through 2003.
March 26	–	Howard David is named as the Dolphins' new play-by-play announcer. He joins Jim Mandich, who will continue to serve as the color analyst on the team's radio broadcasts on WQAM.
June 5	–	At the team's annual Kickoff Banquet, President Eddie Jones announces that former running back Larry Csonka will have his uniform jersey No. 39 retired during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' December 9 game against Chicago at Pro Player Stadium. Csonka will become the third player to receive this honor, joining QB Bob Griese (No. 12 on May 6, 1982) and QB Dan Marino (No. 13 on September 17, 2000).

Sept. 8 –	The Dolphins record their 11th consecutive opening day victory with a 49-21 decision over the Detroit Lions at Pro Player Stadium. Making his Dolphins debut, RB Ricky Williams rushes for 111 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries, the fifth-highest rushing total by a player in his initial appearance as a Dolphin.
Sept. 22 –	The Dolphins snap an eight-game losing streak to the Jets with a convincing 30-3 win at Pro Player Stadium. The victory also marks the Dolphins' 17th straight at home during the regular season in the months of August/September. Ricky Williams rushes for 151 yards and a touchdown on 24 attempts, becoming the first player in team history to amass three straight 100-yard rushing games. Coupled with his 132-yard effort the previous week at Indianapolis, his two-game rushing total of 283 yards sets a new Dolphins record, surpassing the old mark of 273, which had been held by Bernie Parmalee since 1994. Williams will go on to break this two-game record three subsequent times during the course of the season.
Oct. 13 –	In their first of four prime-time appearances of the year, the Dolphins register a 24-22 win over the Denver Broncos in their first-ever visit to INVESCO Field at Mile High. Jason Elam's 55-yard field goal with 45 seconds to play gives Denver a 22-21 lead. Olindo Mare counters with a 53-yarder with six seconds remaining to lift the Dolphins to the victory. It marks the first time in NFL history that a kicker from each team has accounted for a field goal of 50 yards or longer with less than a minute to play in a game. Although he finished the game, quarterback Jay Fiedler sustains a fractured right thumb and misses the Dolphins' next five games and his next six starts. Wide receiver Oronde Gadsden, the team's leading receiver each of the previous two seasons (2000-01), suffers a wrist injury which sidelines him for the remainder of the year.
Nov. 24 –	Ricky Williams establishes a new club single-season standard with his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season with a 143-yard, two-touchdown effort in a 30-3 victory over San Diego at Pro Player Stadium. He breaks the old mark of five, which was first set by Delvin Williams in 1978.
Dec. 1 –	In a 38-21 loss to the Bills in Buffalo, Ricky Williams further etches his name into the Dolphins' record book when he rushes for 228 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries. This single-game total surpasses the previous record of 209 yards, set by Lamar Smith in a 2000 First-Round Playoff victory over Indianapolis. In the process, Williams also surpasses Delvin Williams' club single-season record of 1,258 yards, achieved in 1978. In addition, with Williams overtaking the 1,200-yard rushing mark, the conditional third-round draft choice in 2003 that the Dolphins sent to the Saints in the trade for Williams on March 8, now becomes a second-round pick.
Dec. 9 –	In a 27-9 victory over the Chicago Bears in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium, Ricky Williams becomes just the third player (fourth time) in NFL history to amass back-to-back 200-yard rushing games, as he runs for 216 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries. He joins Hall of Famers O.J. Simpson (1973, 1976) and Earl Campbell (1980) as the only players to achieve this feat. His two-game rushing total of 444 yards is the fourth-most in NFL annals, while his 587 yards over the three-game span is third-most in league history. In the process, he breaks his own club record with his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing performance. It also represents his fourth straight game with a pair of rushing scores. His total for the game gives him 1,500 yards for the season, as the second-round draft choice that the Saints get from the Dolphins as part of the trade now becomes a first-rounder in '03. At halftime of the game, former FB Larry Csonka has his jersey No. 39 retired, just the third Dolphin ever to receive that honor, joining quarterbacks Bob Griese (No. 12) and Dan Marino (No. 13). The rest of the 1972 "Perfect Team" is honored during the halftime festivities as well, as part of the 30th anniversary celebration of the 17-0 club that captured the franchise's first Super Bowl title.
Dec. 15 –	The Dolphins defeat the eventual AFC champion Oakland Raiders, 23-17, at Pro Player Stadium, as Ricky Williams extends his club-record streak of consecutive 100-yard rushing games to five with 101 yards on 27 attempts. Defensive end Jason Taylor leads the defensive charge with three sacks as he sets a Dolphins record with a sack in seven straight games.
Dec. 21 –	The Dolphins fall to the Vikings, 20-17, at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome on a Saturday afternoon. A win would have secured the AFC East title for the Dolphins over the weekend as New England is defeated by the Jets on Sunday. Jason Taylor is credited with 1.5 sacks as he ties Bill Stanfill's club single-season record for sacks with 18.5. He also extends his streak of consecutive games with a sack to eight. That streak will come to an end in the season finale the following week as he is shut out by the Patriots. Taylor's sack total leads the NFL in 2002, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to achieve that feat.

| Dec. 29 | — | The Dolphins drop a 27-24 overtime decision to the Patriots in their first-ever visit to Gillette Stadium. The Patriots produce 11 points over the final 2:46 to send the game into overtime, where Adam Vinatieri's 35-yard field 2:03 into the extra period gives New England the victory. A win by the Dolphins would have given them the AFC East title. A win by the Jets over the Green Bay Packers later in the day makes the Jets the 2002 AFC East champions, thus eliminating the Dolphins from the playoffs for the first time since 1996. Ricky Williams rushes for 185 yards and two touchdowns on 31 attempts. His second score of the game occurs on a 14-yard run in the second quarter, his 16th rushing touchdown of the season as he establishes a new Dolphins single-season record for rushing touchdowns, surpassing the previous mark of 15 by Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1997. Williams also finishes the year as the team's single-season leader for rushing yards (1,853), attempts (383), 100-yard rushing games (10) and total yards from scrimmage (2,216). His rushing total also leads the NFL, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to earn that distinction. |

Feb. 2	—	Ricky Williams rushes for 56 yards and two touchdowns on 11 attempts, catches three passes for 18 yards while also forcing a fumble on special teams in the AFC's 45-20 victory over the NFC in the Pro Bowl in Honolulu. For his efforts, Williams is named the game's MVP, just the second Dolphin ever to win that honor, joining kicker Garo Yepremian who came away with the award in the 1974 game.
Feb. 13	—	The Dolphins name Glenn Pires as assistant defensive line coach, replacing Robert Nunn, who left to become defensive line coach with the Washington Redskins. Pires had spent the previous two seasons as linebackers coach with the Detroit Lions.
March 28	—	The Dolphins sign linebacker Zach Thomas to a five-year contract extension through the 2008 season.
April 16	—	The Dolphins acquire perennial All-Pro linebacker Junior Seau from the San Diego Chargers in exchange for a conditional 2004 draft choice.
May 2	—	Tom Braatz, a veteran of 38 seasons as an NFL front office executive, announces his retirement. Braatz had joined the Dolphins in 1992 as Director of College Scouting and spent his final two years with the club as a college scout. Chris Grier, the team's southeast college scout the past three years, is promoted to national scout.
May 4	—	Former Dolphin David Woodley (1980-83), an eighth-round draft choice in 1980 who started at quarterback for the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII against Washington, passes away in his hometown of Shreveport, La.
May 9	—	Quarterbacks Coach Mike Shula, who played quarterback at the University of Alabama from 1983-86, is introduced as the school's head coach.
June 9	—	The Dolphins sign former Denver Broncos quarterback Brian Griese to a two-year contract. Griese is the son of former Dolphins quarterback, Bob, who played with the team from 1967-80 and led Miami to three Super Bowl appearances and two World Championships.
June 28	—	At a press conference, it is announced that former wide receivers Mark Duper and Mark Clayton, popularly known as the "Marks Brothers", will be inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll at halftime of a December 15 game against the Philadelphia Eagles at Pro Player Stadium.
Oct. 27	—	The Dolphins record a 26-10 victory over the San Diego Chargers in a Monday night game at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Arizona. The game originally was scheduled to be played at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, but was moved because of the wildfires that devastated Southern California. After arriving in San Diego Sunday evening, the Dolphins boarded a flight to Phoenix the morning of the game, at approximately 11:00 a.m. (PT).
Nov. 23	—	In a Sunday night game against Washington at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins don orange jerseys in a 24-23 win over the Redskins. It is the first time in franchise history that the Dolphins have worn a jersey color other than white or aqua.
Nov. 27	—	The Dolphins improve their Thanksgiving Day record to 4-1 with a 40-21 victory over the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The Dolphins wore their "throwback" jerseys, commemorating the 30th anniversary of the 1973 team that captured the club's second straight Super Bowl title.
Dec. 15	—	At halftime of a 34-27 loss to Philadelphia at Pro Player Stadium, former wide receivers Mark Duper and Mark Clayton become the 14th and 15th members of the Dolphin Honor Roll.
Dec. 21	—	In a 20-3 win over the Buffalo Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium, DE Jason Taylor registers three sacks, and in the process becomes the Dolphins' all-time sack leader, surpassing Bill Stanfill, whose mark of 67.5 had stood since 1976.

Dec. 29 — Owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that the Dolphins will restructure their football operations for the 2004 season, including the search for a General Manager who will be responsible for all personnel matters on both the professional and college levels, as well as the makeup of the Dolphins roster. Head Coach Dave Wannstedt is given a two-year contract extension through the 2006 season.

Jan. 12 — Rick Spielman is promoted to General Manager and Dan Marino is named Senior Vice President/Football Operations.

Jan. 26 — Joel Collier is promoted to offensive coordinator from running backs coach. He takes over the spot which became vacant when Norv Turner was named Head Coach with the Oakland Raiders. Marc Trestman, who had been with the Raiders each of the previous three seasons, including the last two as offensive coordinator, is named assistant head coach/quarterbacks. Miami native Jerry Sullivan is appointed wide receivers coach after spending each of the previous three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, including 2003 as the team's offensive coordinator.

Feb. 2 — Bernie Parmalee is promoted to running backs coach from assistant special teams/offensive assistant, while Chris Foerster is named tight ends coach after handling that same position with the Indianapolis Colts each of the previous two seasons.

Feb. 3 — Dan Marino resigns as Senior Vice President/Football Operations, saying, "I knew it would involve a significant lifestyle change but after further reflection, it became clear that those adjustments were ones that my family and I are not prepared to make at this time. As a result, I have decided that it would not be in the best interests of either my family or the Miami Dolphins to assume the role as the team's Senior Vice President of Football Operations."

May 10 — Head Coach Dave Wannstedt announces several adjustments to the coaching staff for the 2004 season. Chris Foerster, who was hired earlier in the offseason to coach the team's tight ends, was named offensive coordinator. Joel Collier will return to coaching the running backs, a position that he has held since 1998. Bernie Parmalee, who had been named running backs coach in the offseason following two years as an offensive assistant, will tutor the Dolphins' tight ends. These changes were necessitated because of health-related reasons on the part of Collier.

DOLPHINS ON THE INTERNET

All the information you need to read and hear about the Miami Dolphins in 2004 can be obtained on the Dolphins web site, located at http://www.miamidolphins.com.

Miami's official home page contains useful information that is updated on a daily basis throughout the year. Releases, rosters, statistics, depth charts and updated biographies are just a few of the things that are featured. In addition, the site is updated daily with sound bites from Head Coach Dave Wannstedt and Dolphin players. The quality of sound will enable not only fans to hear what the Dolphins are saying, but also can be used by the media. Pre-game and post-game analysis begins in preseason, and on gamedays, the site contains an analysis of the action on the field as it is happening, as well as photos throughout the course of the contest. Fans can submit questions and comments about the team daily. Live chats with Dolphin players, coaches and front office staff will be conducted twice a month.

Other information on the Dolphins, in addition to the latest on the National Football League and the other 31 teams, can be accessed through the NFL's home page on http://www.nfl.com.

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFLs scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, COLTS 0
January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin nine in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

COWBOYS 24, DOLPHINS 3
January 16, 1972

Tulane Stadium
New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, BROWNS 14
December 24, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, STEELERS 17   Three Rivers Stadium
December 31, 1972   Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

DOLPHINS 14, REDSKINS 7
January 14, 1973

Memorial Coliseum
Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

Miami, FL

    A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 27, RAIDERS 10
December 30, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

    A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

DOLPHINS 24, VIKINGS 7
January 13, 1974

Rice Stadium
Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays on the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 28, DOLPHINS 26
December 21, 1974

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

OILERS 17, DOLPHINS 9
December 24, 1978

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

STEELERS 34, DOLPHINS 14
December 30, 1979

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 41, DOLPHINS 38 (OT)
January 2, 1982

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

January 8, 1983   Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

DOLPHINS 34, CHARGERS 13
January 16, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards in 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 14, JETS 0
January 23, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

January 30, 1983　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEAHAWKS 27, DOLPHINS 20
December 31, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami s Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SEAHAWKS 10   Orange Bowl
December 29, 1984   Miami, FL

   The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo.
The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 45, STEELERS 28
January 6, 1985

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

49ERS 38, DOLPHINS 16
January 20, 1985

Stanford Stadium
Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BROWNS 21
January 4, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

PATRIOTS 31, DOLPHINS 14   Orange Bowl
January 12, 1986   Miami, FL

   The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, CHIEFS 16 Joe Robbie Stadium
January 5, 1991 Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 44, DOLPHINS 34   Rich Stadium
January 12, 1991   Orchard Park, NY

  The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, CHARGERS 0   Joe Robbie Stadium
January 10, 1993   Miami, FL

   Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore
Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest.
Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 29, DOLPHINS 10
January 17, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

December 31, 1994   Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped their lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took their first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 22, DOLPHINS 21
January 8, 1995

Jack Murphy Stadium
San Diego, CA

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee – in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BILLS 37, DOLPHINS 22
December 30, 1995

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead enroute to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with current teammate Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a short three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffle on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins than attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

PATRIOTS 17, DOLPHINS 3
December 28, 1997

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard perfromance against Washington in Supr Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. Marino's 13 straight playoff games with a touchdown is an NFL record. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Corey Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Chris Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions - getting as far as the 45 and 43 - but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BILLS 17
January 2, 1999

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third-down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

1998 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BRONCOS 38, DOLPHINS 3
January 9, 1999

Mile High Stadium
Denver, CO

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Davis ran for 38 yards on seven carries on the drive, and John Elway completed five of six passes for 48 yards. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. Dan Marino completed six of seven passes for 55 yards on the march. Denver scored a touchdown on their third consecutive series when Derek Loville ran it in from 11 yards out with 4:39 left in the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 87-yard drive that used 5:28 of the clock. As a team, the Broncos rushed for 62 yards on the drive, including 47 yards by Davis. Davis broke loose for a 62-yard run to the Dolphins' 18-yard line on the first play of the second half, leading to a Jason Elam 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. Denver opened a 28-point advantage 1:37 into the fourth quarter when Elway combined with Rod Smith for a 28-yard touchdown strike. The Broncos finished off the scoring when Neil Smith recovered an Oronde Gadsden fumble following a reception and rumbled 79 yards for a touchdown.

1999 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, SEAHAWKS 17   Kingdome
January 9, 2000   Seattle, WA

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Overall on the day, the Dolphins outgained Seattle by a 299-171 margin. They rushed for 108 yards while limiting the Seahawks to just 41 yards. The Dolphins held the ball for 34:48. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong. Johnson finished the game with 86 yards rushing and a touchdown on 27 attempts. McDuffie and Martin each caught five passes.

1999 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

JAGUARS 62, DOLPHINS 7
January 15, 2000

ALLTEL Stadium
Jacksonville, FL

The Dolphins allowed the most point in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. A 41-yard completion from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith to the Dolphins' 22 was the key play on the 73-yard drive, in which Jacksonville converted all three of their third down attempts, including the touchdown. On the next play from scrimmage, Aaron Beasley intercepted a Dan Marino pass and Jacksonville took over at the Dolphins' 41. From there, the Jaguars moved 14 yards, setting up a Mike Hollis 45-yard field goal, with 6:19 to play in the opening quarter. The Jaguars scored for the third time in as many possessions when Fred Taylor broke loose for a 90-yard touchdown run with 3:46 remaining in the first quarter. On the following play from scrimmage, Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, Brackens recovered and went 16 yards for the score. On the first play of the second quarter, Jacksonville scored again on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Taylor on third-and-14. The Jaguars gained possession at the Dolphins' 21 on their next series after Corey Chamblin blocked a Tom Hutton punt. That led to a James Stewart 25-yard TD run three plays later. Hollis added a 28-yard field goal 1:51 prior to the half. That score came five plays after Carnell Lake recovered a J.J. Johnson fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Miami got its first points of the game three seconds before halftime when Marino and Oronde Gadsden combined for a 20-yard TD pass, on third-and-10. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown pass, 2:57 into the third quarter, giving Jacksonville 48 points on the afternoon, marking the most points that Miami has ever given up in the postseason. Fiedler fired his second touchdown pass of the day with 6:19 to play in the third quarter when he hit Alvis Whitted for a 38-yard scoring pass. Jacksonville finished the scoring with a Chris Howard five-yard touchdown run 4:23 into the fourth quarter, one play after Donovin Darius recovered an Autry Denson fumble.

2000 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 23, COLTS 17 (OT)
December 30, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' four. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with an 11-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. Smith rushed for 42 yards on seven attempts on the march. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the First Round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smtih's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

2000 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 27, DOLPHINS 0   Network Associates Coliseum
January 6, 2001   Oakland, CA

The Miami Dolphins suffered the first shutout in the team's playoff history with a 27-0 loss to the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders got on the board first 3:34 into the contest when Tory James intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass and returned it 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest interception return ever against the Dolphins in the postseason. The score occurred after the Dolphins were at the Raiders' 16. The Raiders opened a ten-point lead with 4:52 to play in the first quarter on a Sebastian Janikowski 36-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 46-yard drive. Janikowski converted his second field goal in as many offensive series when he hit from 33 yards out, 6:24 into the second quarter. The 12-play, 78-yard drive was highlighted by a 32-yard catch-and-run by Terry Kirby to midfield. The Raiders took a 20-point advantage with 1:53 to play in the first half on a six-yard touchdown pass from Rich Gannon to James Jett on third-and-four. The drive began at the Dolphins' 43 after Charles Woodson recovered a Lamar Smith fumble that was forced by Tory James. Of the 43 yards on the march, Gannon scrambled for 19 yards. The final points of the day were scored on the Raiders' first possession of the second half when Tyrone Wheatley ran it in from two yards out, culminating a 12-play, 54-yard drive that used 6:50 of the clock. Gannon threw for 32 yards on the march, including a 12-yard completion to Tim Brown on third-and-seven, one play prior to the touchdown.

2001 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

RAVENS 20, DOLPHINS 3 Pro Player Stadium
January 13, 2002 Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Twan Russell stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grbac hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

INDEX OF DOLPHIN FACTS

Don Shula

HEAD COACH (1970-95)
VICE CHAIRMAN (1996-2004)

Born 1/4/30
College ......John Carroll '51
Player 1951-57
Assistant Coach ..1960-62
Head Coach 1963-95
Year Inducted 1997

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on January 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

Starting with the 1996 season, Shula has served as Vice-Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on January 5, 1996. This year marks his 35th season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named Head Coach of the club in 1970.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995 he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On November 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only five coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least ten games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (1976, 1988) in that span. He averaged more than ten wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on February 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Baltimore Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He was the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 though 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was further honored by being selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little, and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) in the same day.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way, and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On September 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also has received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami, and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful enterprises, Don Shula's Hotel and Golf Club along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's oldest son Dave, 45, and his wife Leslie have three sons, Danny, Christopher, and Matthew. David served as the Head Coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played Dave Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both in Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. Dave currently is President of Don Shula Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's other son Mike, 39, was named the head coach at the University of Alabama on May 9, 2003. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have two daughters, Samantha and Brooke Dorothy.

Mike and Dave Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children, Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon resides in New York, while youngest daughter Annie lives and works in Broward County.

Shula and his wife, Mary Anne, reside in Miami Beach and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. They were married on October 15, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children and 15 grandchildren.

SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

Nick Buoniconti

85 LINEBACKER

Born 1/15/40
College ......Notre Dame '62
NFL 1962-76
Dolphins 1969-76
Year Inducted 2001

Nick Buoniconti, the driving force of the Dolphins' famed "No-Name Defense," inspired his teammates with his outstanding play and fiery leadership. During his seven years with the Dolphins the team advanced to three straight Super Bowls (1971-73) and won twice (1972, 1973), with one of those wins coming after their unparalleled undefeated season in 1972. Buoniconti was only 5-11 and 220 pounds and was considered to be too small to play middle linebacker. However, as many coaches noted, he always "played bigger than his size" during a stellar 14-year career with the Dolphins and the Boston Patriots.

The first member of the Dolphins defense to be elected to the Hall of Fame, Buoniconti joined the team in 1969 after playing seven seasons with the Patriots. During his tenure with the Dolphins, he was named the team's Most Valuable Player three times (1969, 1970, 1973) and was named to the AFL All-Star game in 1969 and was selected to two Pro Bowls (1973, 1974) following the merger of the two leagues. In 1990, he was voted as a linebacker on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 18, 1991, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

Before joining the Dolphins, Buoniconti helped the Patriots capture the 1963 AFL Eastern Division title, and he played in five AFL All-Star games. Overall in his 14-year career, he played in 183 games and recorded 32 career interceptions. He was named to the All-Time AFL team in 1970, and overall was named a first team All-AFL/AFC choice eight times.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Buoniconti had an outstanding collegiate career at Notre Dame. Following his retirement from the Dolphins, he and his son, Marc, were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, one of the world's leading research and treatment centers for spinal cord injuries.

Buoniconti was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2001 after being named for the first time that year as a nominee from the pre-1976 era by the Hall's Seniors Committee.

Larry Csonka
39 FULLBACK

Born 12/15/46
College ....Syracuse '68
NFL 1968-74, 1976-79
Dolphins 1968-74, 1979
Year Inducted 1987

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphin coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 26th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium. Csonka was further honored when his number 39 was retired by the team during halftime ceremonies on December 9, 2002, becoming the third Dolphin to have his number retired.

Bob Griese

12   QUARTERBACK

Born 2/3/45
College ....Purdue '67
NFL 1967-80
Dolphins 1967-80
Year Inducted 1990

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. In 1990, he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

Jim Langer

62 CENTER

Born 5/16/48
College S. Dakota State '70
NFL 1970-81
Year Inducted 1987
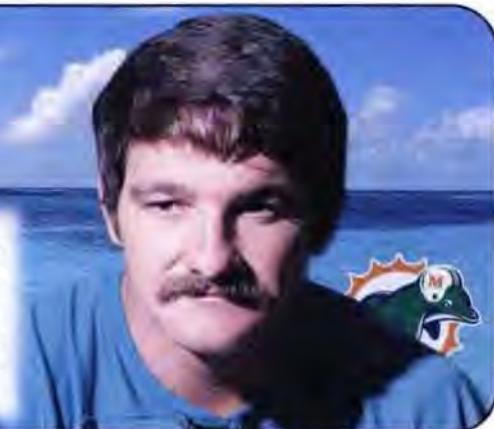

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, in 1972 he won the starting job, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). He played in a club-high 128 straight games during his career and also had a team-record 109 consecutive starts (a record since broken by Richmond Webb in 1997). Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

Larry Little

66 GUARD

Born 11/2/45
College..Bethune-Cookman '67
NFL 1967-80
Dolphins 1969-80
Year Inducted 1993

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphin player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions. On December 13, 1993, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

TIMING IS EVERYTHING

In the 64 regular season games that the Dolphins have played under Head Coach Dave Wannstedt (2000-03), the Dolphins have held the advantage in time of possession 35 times, and they are 28-7 in such games. They are 13-16 when their opponents have claimed this edge.

Dwight Stephenson

57 CENTER

Born 11/20/57
College ....Alabama '80
NFL 1980-87
Year Inducted 1998

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the "best at his position ever" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the third-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral colateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on December 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson's greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an Assistant Offensive Line Coach on Don Shula's Dolphin staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called "the greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on December 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

Paul Warfield

42 WIDE RECEIVER

Born 11/28/42
College ....Ohio State '64
NFL 1964-74, 1976-77
Year Inducted 1983

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs – good enough to place him 17th on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to three Pro Bowl squads with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. His 85 touchdown catches is tied for the eighth highest career total in NFL history. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO

The most recent modification to the Dolphins' logo was made prior to the 1997 season. This marked just the third logo change in the 36-year history of the franchise, and the first since 1972.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1972, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

RETIRED JERSEY #12
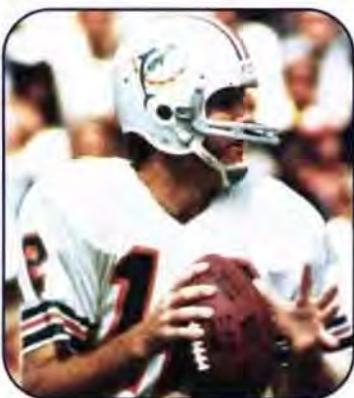

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

For a full bio of Griese, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

PRO CAREER

Dan Marino's number 13 jersey became the second Dolphin uniform number to be retired, on Sunday, September 17, 2000, at halftime of the Dolphins-Baltimore Ravens game at Pro Player Stadium . . . He was also inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll on that date . . . The only other Dolphin player to wear No. 13 was safety Jake Scott, who wore that number from 1970 through 1975 . . . Marino will be eligible to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame with the Class of 2005 . . . He announced his retirement on March 13, 2000 . . . Marino ranks among the NFL's all-time top ranked passers . . . In his 17-year career, Marino played in 242 games (240 starts) and he is 4967-8358 (59.4%) for 61,361 yards, 420 touchdowns, and 252 interceptions for an 86.4 passing efficiency rating, which ranks eighth among the all-time passing leaders . . . Marino holds 38 Dolphins regular season team records (50 overall, including playoffs) and is tied for four others (six, including playoffs) . . . He holds 23 NFL regular season records and is tied for four others . . . .

2. DAN MARINO	MIAMI	17	147-93-0	.613
3. Fran Tarkenton	Minn./N.Y. Giants	18	125-109-6	.533

In his career, with 8,358 attempts, Marino ranks first in NFL history in pass attempts, breaking Fran Tarkenton's NFL record of 6,467 attempts on Dec. 11, 1995 vs. Kansas City . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a two yard completion to Eric Green in the fourth quarter of that game and broke the record with an incomplete pass intended for Randal Hill later in that quarter . . . With 4,967 pass completions, Marino ranks first in NFL history in completions, breaking Fran Tarkenton's NFL record of 3,686 completions on Oct. 8, 1995 vs. Indianapolis . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a five yard touchdown pass to Irving Spikes in the first quarter of that game and broke the record with a six-yard completion to Keith Byars in the second quarter . . . With 61,361 yards passing, Marino ranks first in NFL history in total yards passing, breaking Fran Tarkenton's NFL record of 47,003 passing yards on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England on a nine-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the first quarter . . . With 420 touchdown passes, Marino ranks first in NFL history in touchdown passes, breaking Tarkenton's NFL record of 342 TD passes with a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars in the second quarter on Nov. 26, 1995 at Indianapolis . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a four-yard touchdown pass to O.J. McDuffie in the third quarter on Nov. 20 vs. San Francisco . . .

YARDAGE: Marino's 61,361 yards passing rank first on the NFL's all-time career passing yardage list . . . On Oct. 17, 1999 at New England, Marino's eight yard pass to Tony Martin (his only completion of the game) made him the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for 60,000 career yards . . . On Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England, with a nine-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the first quarter, Marino passed Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career passing yards), breaking Tarkenton's NFL record for most career passing yards and moving into first place on the NFL all-time career passing yardage list:

Marino reached the 50,000, 40,000 and 30,000 yards passing plateaus faster than any quarterback in NFL history . . . Marino is the only quarterback in NFL history to have six 4,000-yard seasons (1984-86, 1988, 1992, 1994) . . . Peyton Manning (five, 1999-2003), Warren Moon (four, 1990-91, 1994-95), Dan Fouts (three, 1979-81), Brett Favre (three, 1995, 1998-99), Drew Bledsoe (three, 1994, 1996, 2002), Steve Young (two, 1993, 1998), and Kurt Warner (two, 1999, 2001) are the only other QBs to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Along with Fouts and Manning, he is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three or more straight seasons (1984-86) . . . Marino passed for 3,000 or more yards 13 times (1984-92, 1994-95, 1997-98) in his 17 seasons in the NFL . . . When he went over the 3,000-yard passing mark on Dec. 21, 1998 vs. Denver, it marked the 13th time he passed for 3,000 or more yards, breaking his tie with John Elway and re-setting the NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons . . . Marino originally set the record for most 3,000 yard seasons in 1991, his eighth year of passing for 3,000 or more yards before Elway tied that record in 1996 . . . Before setting that NFL record, Marino had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons . . . Marino extended that mark to 11 seasons before being tied by Elway in 1996, and Marino now holds the NFL record alone by extending that mark to 13 seasons . . . Marino led the NFL in passing yards five times during a season, having accomplished that feat in 1984-86, 1988, and 1992 . . . Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (five) with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969) . . . Marino had 13 career 400-yard games (15, including playoffs) and the Dolphins were 8-5 in those 13 games (9-6 overall, including the playoffs) . . . Marino had 63 career regular season 300-yard games (67, including playoffs), and the Dolphins were 37-26 in those 63 300-yard games (38-29 overall, including playoffs) . . . Marino's 63 career 300-yard passing games extended his own NFL record for most career 300-yard passing games . . . He broke Dan Fouts' former NFL record of 51 career 300-yard games on Dec. 3, 1995 vs. Atlanta when Marino had 343 yards passing, the 52nd regular season game of 300 or more yards passing in his career . . . Marino tied Fouts' record of 51 regular season career 300-yard games when he had 333 yards passing on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England . . . Marino owns the top 11 and 42 of the top 50 passing yardage games in Dolphins history as well as 67 of the 82 300-yard passing games in club history . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass on Nov. 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was Marino's 343rd TD pass of his career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of most career touchdown passes (342), making Marino the league's all-time leader in career TD passes . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record vs. San Francisco on November 20, 1995, with a four-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie in the third quarter . . . On Nov. 29th, 1998 vs. New Orleans, Marino's seven-yard touchdown pass to O.J. McDuffie was the 400th TD pass of his career, becoming the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for 400 touchdown passes . . . Marino recorded 420 career touchdown passes:

Marino reached the 300 and 200 touchdown passes plateaus faster than any quarterback in NFL history . . . In his career Marino threw at least one TD pass in 203 of his 242 regular-season games as well as in 16 of his 18 playoff games (219 of 260 overall) . . . Overall in Marino's career, the Dolphins were 16-23 in the 39 regular season games in which Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass (and 16-25 in his 41 overall games, including playoffs) . . . Marino did not throw a touchdown pass in consecutive games only six times in his career . . . He never went three games in a row in his career without a TD pass . . . Marino had six career games of throwing five or more touchdown passes, and the Dolphins were 4-2 in those contests . . . Marino had 21 career games passing for four or more touchdowns, and he was 16-5 in those 21 contests . . . When Marino threw for five touchdowns on September 4, 1994 vs. New England, it was the 18th time he threw for four or more touchdowns, breaking an NFL record he had shared with Johnny Unitas for most career games (17) throwing four or more touchdown passes . . . Overall in his career he threw three or more touchdowns in 62 games (67, including playoffs), and he was 41-21 in those contests (44-23 including post-season games) . . . Marino threw for 20 or more TD passes in 13 of his 17 years in the NFL . . . The only seasons when he failed to reach 20 TD passes came in 1999, 1997, 1996 and in 1993, a season when he played only five games due to injury . . . By throwing for 20 touchdown passes in 1998, he extended his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown passes to 13 seasons . . . In 1991, Marino became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL . . . Marino also is the only player in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in his first ten NFL seasons and is one of two players (along with Brett Favre) to throw 20 or more TD passes in ten consecutive seasons . . . Four times in his career (1984-86, 1994) Marino threw for 30 or more touchdowns, and he is second to Brett Favre (seven, 1994-98, 2001, 2003) for the NFL record of most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes . . . Marino is the only QB to throw 40 or more touchdowns in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . .

TOTAL OFFENSE: With 61,361 yards passing along with 87 yards rushing, Marino had 61,448 yards in total offense (combined rushing and passing yards) in his career, and he is the all-time NFL leader in that category:

ALL-TIME NFL TOTAL OFFENSE LEADERS

NAME	TOTAL YARDS	PASSING YARDS	RUSHING YARDS	NFL SEASONS
1. DAN MARINO	61,448	61,361	87	17
2. John Elway	54,882	51,475	3,407	16
3. Warren Moon	51,061	49,325	1,736	17
4. Fran Tarkenton	50,677	47,003	3,674	18
5. Brett Favre	47,293	45,646	1,647	13

INTERCEPTIONS: In his career, Marino did not throw an interception in 85 games (90, including playoffs) . . . The Dolphins were 62-23 in those 85 games in which he was not intercepted (66-24, including playoffs) . . . Overall in his career, Marino threw 30 interceptions that were returned for touchdowns, 29 in the regular season and one in the playoffs . . .

SACKS: For the first eight years of Marino's career (1983-90), the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL . . .

RUSHING AND RECEIVING: In his career, Marino rushed for a touchdown nine times in the regular season (ten, including playoffs): Dec. 27, 1998 at Atlanta, three yards; Dec. 12, 1994 vs. Kansas City, four yards; Sept. 26, 1993 at Buffalo, four yards; Dec. 15, 1991 at San Diego, 10 yards; Dec. 10, 1989 vs. New England, one yard; Oct. 15, 1989 at Cincinnati, one yard; Dec. 7, 1987 vs. N.Y. Jets, five yards; Nov. 20, 1983 vs. Baltimore, one yard; and Oct. 30, 1983 vs. L.A. Rams, two yards (and one playoff contest – Jan. 12, 1991 at Buffalo in AFC Divisional Playoff contest, two yards) . . . The Dolphins were 7-2 in those regular season contests (7-3 including playoff games) when Marino rushed for a touchdown . . . Marino caught one pass in his career, on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England, when he caught his own deflected pass for a six-yard loss . . .

SERVICE: On Sept. 13, 1999, at Denver Marino began his 17th year of service with the Dolphins adding to his club record for most seasons as a Dolphin . . . In 1998 he broke Bob Kuechenberg's former club record for most seasons as a Dolphin (15 seasons), which Kuechenberg originally set from 1970-84 . . . Marino played in 242 regular season games with Miami . . . Marino missed 23 games during his career due to injuries . . . Overall in those 23 games that he missed due to injury, the Dolphins were 12-11 . . .

NFL RECORDS: Overall, Marino holds 24 NFL regular season records and is tied for three others . . . In addition to the above records for attempts, completions, yardage and touchdowns, Marino holds NFL single season records for yards (5,084 in 1984) and touchdowns (48 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, 1988, 1992, and 1997, Marino set a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass attempts (five) . . . He had previously been tied with three other quarterbacks (Sammy Baugh, Johnny Unitas, George Blanda) who led the NFL in that category four times each . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86, 1988, 1992 and 1997, Marino set a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass completions (six) . . . He had previously been tied with Sammy Baugh, who led the NFL in that category in five seasons . . . Marino and Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sonny Jurgensen as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Dan Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . .

COMEBACKS: Over the course of Marino's 17-year career with the Dolphins, he brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 37 times, with 21 fourth quarter triumphs at home and 16 on the road . . . Included in that total were three playoff games in which Marino led Miami back in the fourth quarter . . . Marino's total of 37 fourth quarter comeback wins does NOT include 13 additional games, (12 in the regular season and one in the playoffs), that Marino won when the Dolphins were tied (but never did trail) in the fourth quarter, ten at home (one playoff contest and nine regular season games) and three on the road; If those 13 fourth-quarter tied situations are included, then Marino led the Dolphins on a total of 50 game-winning drives (31 at home and 19 on the road) . . . With 37 fourth quarter comeback victories, Marino ranks second in that category: Denver's John Elway has 43 final period come-from behind wins:

ALL-TIME FOURTH QUARTER COMEBACK DRIVES

PLAYER	TEAMS	FOURTH QUARTER COMEBACK DRIVES
1. John Elway	Denver	43
2. DAN MARINO	MIAMI	37
3. Joe Montana	San Francisco, Kansas City	31
4. Jim Kelly	Buffalo	24

In Marino's 37 career fourth quarter comebacks, he completed 280 of 441 passes (63.5%) for 3,710 yards with 29 touchdowns and eight INTs in the final stanza for a rating of 104.4 . . .

UNDER DON SHULA: Marino is one of ten quarterbacks to have started games when Don Shula coached the Dolphins, from 1970 through 1995, and his 184 regular season starts under Shula is the most by any Dolphins quarterback during that time:

DOLPHINS STARTING QUARTERBACKS UNDER DON SHULA

Marino's 116 wins under Shula are the most victories by a head coach - quarterback combination in NFL history, surpassing the previous high of 107 wins recorded by Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll and Terry Bradshaw . . . In addition, the Marino-Shula duo was together for 13 seasons, which is tied for the second longest quarterback-head coach combination in NFL history:

LONGEST RUNNING QB-COACH COMBINATIONS IN NFL HISTORY

	QUARTERBACK	COACH	TEAM	YEARS TOGETHER
1.	Terry Bradshaw	Chuck Noll	Pittsburgh	1970-1983 (14)
2.	DAN MARINO	DON SHULA	MIAMI	1983-1995 (13)
	Danny White	Tom Landry	Dallas	1976-1988 (13)
4.	Len Dawson	Hank Stram	Kansas City	1963-1974 (12)
5.	Bob Griese	Don Shula	Miami	1970-1980 (11)
	Roger Staubach	Tom Landry	Dallas	1969-1979 (11)

HONORS: Marino won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week honor 18 times in the regular season (and 20 times overall, including playoffs), as well as two AFC Player of the Month Awards in his 17-year NFL career . . . It is the most times any player has won Player of the Week honors since the award was instituted in 1984 . . . John Elway is second with 15 awards

(in addition to two Player of the Month Awards), Joe Montana is third with 13 awards, while Boomer Esiason is tied for fourth with 12 awards (he also has two Player of the Month Awards) along with Steve Young and Jerry Rice . . . Marino won the AFC Player of the Week Award twice in the same season five times in his career (1984, 1985, 1988, 1989, 1999) . . . Including playoff games, Marino has won multiple weekly awards seven different years . . .

MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD: On January 28, 1999, Marino was named as the 1998 Sprint/NFL Man of the Year . . . It is the only league-sponsored award that recognizes player community service as well as excellence on the field . . . Off the field, Marino established the Dan Marino Foundation, which was created to benefit children's charities in South Florida . . . He hosted events throughout the year to raise money for the foundation . . . One major project was the newly created Miami Children's Hospital/Dan Marino Center in Weston, Florida that opened in 1998 and offers comprehensive health care to children with chronic medical needs . . . Marino also spearheaded the Dolphins' annual Thanksgiving turkey giveaway each year in conjunction with the Daily Bread Food Bank...Marino was the Dolphins' United Way representative in 1994-96 and has been a strong supporter of their programs . . . In 1998, Marino was chosen as one of three national spokesmen for the NFL's 25-year anniversary with United Way . . . Marino became the second Dolphin player to win the NFL Man of the Year Award; Dwight Stephenson won that honor in 1985 . . .

SOUTH FLORIDA AWARDS: In balloting of South Florida media for the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award, Marino won that award twelve times (1983-92, 1994-95) . . . Marino passed Bob Griese, who won that award six times (1967-68, 1970-71, 1974, 1977) . . . Marino won the MVP award each of his first ten years in the league (1983-92), and no other Dolphin has ever won more than two consecutive MVP awards . . . In addition, in 1995 Marino was named the winner of the Miami Dolphins' Leadership Award for the first time, an award presented annually to the Miami player chosen by Dolphin management and coaches for leadership on and off the playing field . . . Marino again won the Leadership Award in 1997, this time chosen by his teammates . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award ten times (1983-90, 1992, 1994) . . . His ten years winning that award surpassed the former team high set by Larry Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who had won that award six times...In 1998 Marino was chosen by the Dolphins organization as the club's winner of the annual Community Service Award . . . It was the second time in Marino's career that he had been selected as the winner of this award, having also been honored in 1996 . . . Since the award was first instituted in 1987, Marino is one of only three players to be honored more than once (John Offerdahl, 1989-90 and Bryan Cox, 1994-95) . . .

PLAYOFF CAREER: In his playoff appearances, Marino extended his Dolphin career playoff records for most attempts, completions, yards passing, and touchdown passes, playing in 18 playoff games, while Bob Griese, runner-up in all four categories, played in 12 post-season contests:

32 MARINO	4,510 MARINO	687 MARINO	385 MARINO	24 MARINO
10 Griese	1,467 Griese	208 Griese	112 Griese	12 Griese

Marino attempted 687 passes in his playoff career . . . He ranks second on the all-time NFL playoff list for most passes attempted; Joe Montana is first in NFL playoff history with 734 passes attempted . . . On Jan. 2, 2000, in an AFC Wild Card contest at Seattle, Marino moved into second place among the all-time NFL pass attempt leaders, passing John Elway, who had 651 attempts . . . Marino completed 385 passes in his playoff career . . . On Jan. 2, 1999, in an AFC Wild Card contest vs. Buffalo, he surpassed Jim Kelly (322) and John Elway to move into second place among the all-time NFL pass completion leaders; Joe Montana is first with 460 pass completions while Elway is third with 355 completions . . . Marino passed for 4,510 yards in his playoff career . . . On Jan. 2, 1999, in an AFC Wild Card contest vs. Buffalo, he surpassed Jim Kelly (3,863) and moved into third place among the all-time NFL passing yardage leaders (but has since been surpassed by Brett Favre); Joe Montana is first with 5,772 passing yards, John Elway is second with 4,964 yards passing and Favre is third with 4,686 yards passing:

MOST PASSING YARDS IN NFL POSTSEASON HISTORY

	PLAYER	TEAMS	PASSING YARDS	PLAYOFF GAMES
1.	Joe Montana	San Francisco/Kansas City	5,772	23
2.	John Elway	Denver	4,964	22
3.	Brett Favre	Green Bay	4,686	19
4.	DAN MARINO	MIAMI	4,510	18
5.	Jim Kelly	Buffalo	3,863	17

Marino had four postseason games of 300 or more passing yards, which ties him with Kurt Warner, Warren Moon, Troy Aikman, and John Elway for the third highest total in postseason history, surpassed only by the five 300-yard passing games by Dan Fouts and the six 300-yard passing games by Joe Montana . . . Marino threw 32 touchdowns passes in his 18 postseason games, at the time the second highest career total in NFL history . . . In an AFC Wild Card contest on January 9, 2000 at Seattle, Marino's one-yard TD pass to Oronde Gadsden moved him past Terry Bradshaw into second place (Brett Favre has since moved past him, leaving Marino currently in third place):

MOST TOUCHDOWN PASSES IN NFL POSTSEASON HISTORY

	PLAYER	TEAMS	TOUCHDOWN PASSES	PLAYOFF GAMES
1.	Joe Montana	San Francisco/Kansas City	45	23
2.	Brett Favre	Green Bay	33	19
3.	DAN MARINO	MIAMI	32	18
3.	Terry Bradshaw	Pittsburgh	30	19
5.	John Elway	Denver	27	22

Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 16 of his 18 playoff contests, throwing a TD pass in his first 13 postseason contests before being held without a touchdown pass in an AFC Wild Card game on Dec. 28, 1997 at New England . . . He also failed to throw a touchdown pass in an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup at Denver on Jan. 9, 1999 . . . Marino's 13-game postseason streak with at least one touchdown pass established the NFL record for the most consecutive games with a touchdown pass, and he broke that record on December 31, 1984 vs. Kansas City when he threw a touchdown pass for the 11th consecutive game before extending the mark to 13 straight games following his two touchdowns at Buffalo in an AFC Wild Card playoff game on Dec. 30, 1995, before having that streak ended in an AFC Wild Card game at New England on Dec. 28, 1997 . . . Brett Favre later broke that record in 2003:

NFL RECORD, TOUCHDOWN PASSES IN CONSECUTIVE PLAYOFF GAMES

PLAYER	TEAM	CONSECUTIVE SEASONS	PLAYOFF GAMES WITH A TD PASS
Brett Favre	Green Bay	1995-03 (current)	15
DAN MARINO	MIAMI	1983-95	13
Joe Montana	San Francisco	1988-90	10
Ken Stabler	Oakland	1973-77	10
John Elway	Denver	1984-89	9

PRO BOWL: Marino was selected to nine Pro Bowls (1983-87, 1991-92, 1994-95), including seven as a starter (1983-86, 1992, 1994-95), but due to injuries he was able to play in only two games (1984, 1992) . . . Marino's nine Pro Bowl selections set a Dolphins record for most career selections, surpassing the former record of six selections that had previously been set by quarterback Bob Griese (1970-71, 1973-74, 1977-78), center Jim Langer (1973-78), and guard Bob Kuechenberg (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83) . . . Marino's seven Pro Bowl starts set a Dolphins record for career starts, surpassing the former record of five starts that had previously been set by Langer (1973-77) . . . When Marino was selected to the Pro Bowl following his rookie season in 1983, he became the youngest quarterback ever selected to the Pro Bowl:

RETIRED JERSEY #39

Larry Csonka's jersey No. 39 became the third number in club history to be retired, during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' game against the Chicago Bears at Pro Player Stadium on December 9, 2002.

No player other than Csonka ever wore No. 39 in regular season play. Csonka wore that number in his eight years with the Dolphins, from 1968 through 1974 and again in 1979.

Csonka also was honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

For a full bio of Csonka, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

FIRST-ROUND OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

When the Dolphins selected Miami G/T Vernon Carey in the first round (19th overall) this year, it marked the seventh time in team history that the Dolphins selected an offensive lineman in the first round, and the first time since 1995 when they took Houston OT Billy Milner with the 25th overall pick. It is the ninth time that they have taken an offensive lineman with their top pick, and the first time since 2002 when they tabbed Texas A&M C Seth McKinney in the third round (90th overall). In fact, it is the third time in the last five years that they have made an offensive lineman their top pick (OT Todd Wade, 2nd round in 2000). It is the highest they have taken an offense lineman since 1990 when they picked Texas A&M OT Richmond Webb with the ninth overall selection.

DOLPHINS ON THE WEST COAST

With road games against Seattle (November 21), San Francisco (November 28) and Denver (December 12) in 2004, it marks just the second time in team history that the Dolphins will have played three games away from home on either Mountain or Pacific time zone in the same season (regular season only). The first occurred in the club's inaugural season of 1966 when they were scheduled for contests at San Diego (October 2), Oakland (October 9) and Denver (December 4). In 1999, the Dolphins played two such games during the regular season (September 13 at Denver and October 31 at Oakland), and came back to face Seattle in the playoffs at the Kingdome on January 9. They won all three of those games that year.

· The Dolphins and Cardinals will meet for the ninth time in series history this season. Miami owns an 8-0 advantage, as Arizona is one of only three NFL clubs that has never beaten the Dolphins in regular season play. Miami is also undefeated against Baltimore (4-0) and Carolina (2-0).

· These teams last met on September 19, 1999 at Pro Player Stadium. Miami kicker Olindo Mare's four field goals paved the way for the Dolphins 19-16 victory. Overall, this is the Cardinals' fifth trip to South Florida.

· Arizona Head Coach Dennis Green will lead a team into Pro Player Stadium for the first time in his NFL coaching career. While at the helm in Minnesota, Green's Vikings faced the Dolphins on two occasions, both at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. The Vikings were the victors in both games.

• With a 9-6 overtime victory over the Ravens in 2003, Miami now leads the all-time series 4-1, having won all four regular season matchups. Baltimore claimed the only postseason contest in this series with a 20-3 triumph on January 13, 2002.

• Including playoffs, this will mark the fifth straight season in which the Dolphins and Ravens have faced one another. Miami defeated Baltimore 19-6 on September 17, 2000, dropped a 20-3 decision to the Ravens in the divisional round of the 2001 playoffs, avenged that loss with a 26-7 victory on November 17, 2002 and followed that game up with another victory in last season's meeting.

• The Dolphins will journey to Baltimore for just the second time in this series. Prior to this season, Miami's lone road game against the Ravens occurred on October 19, 1997 when the Dolphins recorded a 24-13 decision at Memorial Stadium.

• Miami's five consecutive contests against Baltimore is the team's longest active streak against a non-divisional opponent since they faced the Oakland Raiders once a year over the course of seven straight seasons from 1996 through 2002, including one postseason meeting following the 2000 season. In addition, the three regular season meetings in a row with Baltimore is the Dolphins' longest active regular season streak against a team outside of the AFC East since they squared off with the Raiders each year from 1996-99.

• After having swept the season series in 2003, the Dolphins have now done so in three of the past four years (2000-01; 2003) with the Bills capturing both games in 2002. In fact, the past five seasons have resulted in sweeps, as the Bills also captured the 1999 series. Miami has now won six of the last eight meetings and leads the all-time series by a 49-30-1 margin.

• The Dolphins season sweep in 2003 was their 19th time winning both regular season contests in the 38-year history of the series. The Bills have won both games on eight occasions, most recently in 2002, while the teams have split 11 times.

• With a 20-3 win at Ralph Wilson Stadium on December 21, 2003, the Dolphins improved their all-time regular season record in Buffalo to 22-16. The Bills hold the postseason edge at home by a 2-0 margin.

• By handing the Bills a 17-7 loss at Pro Player Stadium on September 21, 2003, the Dolphins have now captured three of the past four, and seven of the last nine regular season contests in this series played in Miami. Overall, the Dolphins are 26-11-1 against the Bills at home during the regular season, and 1-1 in postseason games played in Miami.

• Miami set the NFL record for consecutive wins over one team with 20 against Buffalo, from 1970-79.

• This will be the first meeting between the Dolphins and Browns since October 10, 1993 when Miami registered a 24-14 victory at Cleveland Stadium. Scott Mitchell came off the bench to replace an injured Dan Marino (torn Achilles' tendon) and threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the way for the Dolphins.

• The game will break a string of 10 seasons in which Miami and Cleveland have not faced each other, the Dolphins longest active streak of not playing another NFL team in regular season or postseason play. The club's next longest layoff is five seasons, as Miami has not faced New Orleans or Pittsburgh since the 1998 season. The Dolphins and Steelers will meet on September 26, 2004.

• The Dolphins own an 8-4 advantage in this series, including a 2-0 record in the postseason. Miami has captured the last five meetings, with the Browns' last victory occurring on November 10, 1986, beating the Dolphins 26-16 at Cleveland Stadium.

• This year's game will be the first in this series played in Miami since October 8, 1989 when Pete Stoyanovich's 35-yard field goal in overtime lifted the Dolphins to a 13-10 victory at Pro Player Stadium. Overall, in regular season play, the Dolphins are 2-1 at home in this series and 4-3 in Cleveland. Both of the Dolphins' playoff wins over the Browns took place in Miami.

• Miami owns a 9-3-1 advantage in this series and has won six straight regular season contests against Denver, including the most recent matchup, a 24-22 victory on October 13, 2002 at INVESCO Field at Mile High. The last Broncos regular season win over the Dolphins came on October 27, 1968, at Denver. In addition, Denver registered a 38-3 postseason triumph over Miami on January 9, 1999 in a Divisional game.

• Including postseason contests, Miami is 3-3-1 all-time in games played in Denver, but has won two straight on the road in this series. The Dolphins own a perfect 6-0 record at home against the Broncos.

• This will be the fifth regular season meeting between these teams and sixth matchup overall in the last seven seasons. Prior to 1998, the Dolphins and Broncos did not face one another since September 29, 1985.

• Miami dropped both games to the Patriots in 2003. The Dolphins began playing the Patriots twice a year during the regular season in 1967 and have swept the regular season series 13 times while New England has owned the series on five occasions. Miami and New England have split the season series 18 times. In 1966 and 1982, the teams faced off only once during the regular season, with the Patriots emerging victorious on both occasions. The Dolphins lead the regular season series, 44-30, while the Patriots hold a 2-1 advantage in postseason contests.

• Prior to last season's loss, the Dolphins had recorded victories in five straight and 12 of the previous 14 games against the Patriots at Pro Player Stadium. Overall, the Dolphins are 30-8 against the Patriots in games decided in Miami, including a 29-7 mark in the regular season. Their record versus New England at Pro Player Stadium is 12-5. The Dolphins are 15-22 against the Patriots in New England during the regular season.

• When the Dolphins host the Patriots on Monday December 20, it will mark the first time these teams will have played a December game in Miami since the 1997 season. In that contest, also played on a Monday night, New England edged Miami, 14-12, in the final game of the regular season, forcing the Dolphins to travel to Foxboro the following week for the first round of the playoffs.

NO PLAYER WITH REGULAR SEASON STATS

• The regular season series between these teams is tied at four games apiece. Miami won the first four meetings while San Francisco captured the next four, including the most recent match-up in 2001. The lone postseason contest occurred on January 20, 1985 as the 49ers claimed a 38-16 victory in Super Bowl XIX at Stanford Stadium.

• The Dolphins' last win in this series came on November 6, 1983 at San Francisco. Miami was led in the game by the club's first-round draft choice that season, quarterback Dan Marino, who passed for 194 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions en route to the Dolphins' 20-17 victory.

• This will be the first contest in the series played in Miami since the teams met on November 20, 1995, a game in which the 49ers earned a 44-20 triumph.

• Miami leads the all-time series by an 8-3 margin, including a 2-1 advantage in postseason play. After handing the Seahawks a 24-20 loss at Husky Stadium on October 28, 2001, the Dolphins have now captured four of the last five regular season meetings and five of the last six contests overall, including wins in three straight games.

- The Dolphins own a 3-1 record on the road in this series and are 5-2 all-time when facing the Seahawks in Miami.

- Including playoffs, six of the last seven games these teams have played have been decided by seven points or less. The lone exception was the Dolphins' 23-0 shutout victory in the 2000 season opener staged at Pro Player Stadium.

- The Dolphins face the Seahawks as an NFC team for the first time in series history. As AFC rivals, Miami and Seattle battled in the playoffs on three occasions. The Seahawks proved the victors in the first postseason meeting on December 31, 1983. The Dolphins avenged that loss the following year and then took the lead in this playoff series with a 20-17 win in the divisional round of the 1999 postseason, the last game ever played in Seattle's Kingdome.

- The Dolphins have faced the Titans 28 times, including one playoff contest, and lead the all-time regular season series 15-12. Tennessee won the only postseason game, a 17-9 victory on December 24, 1978 at the Orange Bowl.

- The 27 regular season contests are the most Miami has played against a non-divisional opponent.

- Tennessee handed Miami a 31-7 defeat last season, breaking the Dolphins five-game win streak in the series.

- Overall, in regular season play, the Dolphins are 8-5 at home in this series and 7-7 when facing the Titans on the road. The last time these teams met in Miami was on November 17, 1999 as the Dolphins shut out the Titans 17-0.

- This year's matchup will mark the fourth in which these two teams have battled on opening day. The most recent meeting in a season opener occurred on September 9, 2001 when the Dolphins earned a 31-23 victory at The Coliseum. The other opening day contests took place in 1968 and 1985, with the Houston Oilers emerging victorious in both.

- The Dolphins and Redskins have squared off 13 times in preseason play, with Miami owning a 9-4 advantage.

- The Dolphins are 6-1 at home in this preseason series while they have split the four games played in Washington. In addition, on two occasions these teams have met on neutral sites, splitting those games as well.

- The most recent preseason meeting between these teams occurred on August 8, 1998 at FedEx Field as the Dolphins edged out a 19-16 victory.

- Miami and Washington have squared off in two Super Bowls. The Dolphins won Super Bowl VII on January 14, 1973, by a 14-7 score to preserve the NFL's only perfect season. The teams battled again for the NFL crown in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, with Washington winning the contest by a 27-17 margin.

RECORD WHEN LEADING PLAYOFF GAMES

Of the 39 playoff games in the history of the Dolphins, Miami has led at the half on 15 occasions and in those 15 games, the Dolphins are 11-4. In all playoff games, Miami is 20-19.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WQAM

The 2004 Miami Dolphins' season marks the eighth with WQAM (560 AM) serving as the flagship station for the Dolphins' radio network. The games also will be carried by WQAM's sister station, KISS Country (WKIS, 99.9 FM). This year the network has over 20 stations covering more than 70 markets in Florida.

Handling the play-by-play and entering his third season as "The Voice of the Dolphins" is Howard David. David spent the previous 23 years doing play-by-play for the CBS/Westwood One Radio Network, including his last six seasons as the national voice of Monday Night Football on CBS, where he was part of the radio team that aired six Super Bowls. Prior to that, David spent eight years broadcasting Sunday Night Football for the network. His radio work for CBS also included college football and basketball, as well as national events such as the U.S. Open golf and tennis championships and the Olympics, including anchoring the CBS Radio Network's coverage of the 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Salt Lake City.

In addition to his work nationally, David spent 14 years broadcasting locally in both the NFL and the NBA. He was the radio voice of the New Jersey Nets (1987-94), Milwaukee Bucks (1994-97) and Boston Celtics (1997-01), while also handling the play-by-play for the New York Jets for four seasons (1998-01).

Joining David in the booth is analyst and ex-Dolphins favorite Jim Mandich. He is in his 13th year as the color commentator on Dolphin game broadcasts and was a member of the Dolphins' 1972 club that was the NFL's only undefeated team. In his eight seasons as a Dolphins tight end (1970-77), Mandich caught 121 passes for 1,406 yards (11.6 yards per catch) with 23 touchdowns. He ranks 25th in Dolphins team history in receiving and is tied for 21st in club annals in scoring with 138 points.

In addition to his work on WQAM, Mandich also serves as a sports reporter for WPLG-TV and is a regular contributor to the station's popular "Sports Jam Live" show that airs during the football season.

WQAM is known for its outstanding sports programming, and is one of the leading sports and entertainment radio stations in the country. In addition to the Dolphins games, WQAM also broadcasts the games of the Florida Marlins, the Florida Panthers, and the University of Miami football, basketball and baseball contests. WQAM is the home of the popular "Howard David Show" in the morning, featuring the Dolphins' play-by-play broadcaster along with Steve Goldstein, followed by former Dolphin Joe Rose's morning talk show. Miami's leading talk show "The Neil Rogers Show" is heard mid-days. Dolphin analyst Jim Mandich follows Rogers with his talk show, while long-time South Florida sports personality Hank Goldberg handles the afternoon and hosts the weekly "Dave Wannstedt Show" with Dolphins Head Coach Dave Wannstedt. Former Dolphin Kim Bokamper also hosts a talk show as part of WQAM's line-up.

WQAM carries extensive Dolphins programming on game-days, beginning with a four-hour pre-game show and culminating with a two-hour post-game wrapup. WQAM also broadcasts several Dolphin player features weekly plus live broadcasts from the team's training camp and carries comprehensive Dolphins updates during the season from their on-site reporter and talk show host Orlando Alzugaray.

WSUA

In 2004, Dolphins games, both home and away, will be brodcast in Spanish on WSUA (1260 AM). In addition, many of those games will also air on WSUA's sister station in Mexico City. This marks the 23rd consecutive season that Dolphins games will be broadcast in Spanish.

Rene Giraldo, who has been part of the Spanish broadcasts of Dolphins games for all 23 of those seasons, will handle the play-by-play for his 20th straight year after previously serving as a color analyst. He will be joined by color analyst Roly Martin, also a long-time member of the Dolphins' Spanish broadcast team.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

All four of the Dolphins preseason games in 2004 will be telecast on both WFOR-TV (Channel 4) in Miami-Ft. Lauderdale and WTVX (Channel 34) in West Palm Beach. WTVK (Channel 6) in Fort Myers will broadcast three of the four.

The first game will be on Saturday, August 14, when the Dolphin host the Jacksonville Jaguars at Pro Player Stadium starting at 7:30 p.m. (ET). If the game is sold out 72 hours prior to kickoff, it will be shown live in the Miami-Fort Lauderdale, West Palm Beach, and Naples-Fort Myers areas; otherwise it will be shown on a delayed basis. The same is true for the next game, on Saturday, August 21, when the Dolphins play the Washington Redskins in Miami, also at 7:30 p.m. The team's last two preseason games wil be shown live, beginning on Saturday, August 28 when the Dolphins travel to Tampa Bay for a contest against the Bucs at Raymond James Stadium at 7:00 p.m. (ET), and their preseason finale on Friday, September 3, against the New Orleans Saints in the Louisiana Superdome at 8:00 p.m. (ET).

For the fourth straight season season, Craig Bolerjack will handle the play-by-play for the games on WFOR. He is a member of CBS Sports' NFL broadcast team and also has handled college football and basketball for that network as well as for ESPN. Joining Bolerjack as a color analyst will be former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Griese, a member of ABC's lead broadcast team for college football. In addition, Nat Moore, the Dolphins' third all-time leading receiver and one of the most popular players in club history, again will handle color commentary for all four preseason games on WFOR. Kim Bokamper, a member of the WFOR Sports staff and a former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker, will continue in his role on WFOR's broadcast team as a sideline reporter.

* Game will be broadcast live if sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise it will be shown on a tape delay basis.

Game also will be televised on WTVK (Channel 6) in Naples/Fort Myers.

FINS-TV

Forming a unique partnership between the Miami Dolphins and NBC-6, FINS-TV is a "first of its kind" broadcast that gives Dolphin fans an exclusive look at the team both on and off the field. Fifty-two weeks a year, FINS-TV offers the most comprehensive coverage of the Dolphins, taking viewers from the team's locker room to the players' living rooms. Highlights of the show include features on football strategy from inside the Dolphins coaches' meetings to following team scouts as they put the top college seniors through their paces.

Besides just X's & O's, the show also allows fans to see the Dolphins in a non-football atmosphere, as FINS-TV TV tours players' homes and follows them as they enjoy life away from the gridiron, ranging from bowling at a local lane to fishing on Biscayne Bay.

FINS-TV, the "official" show of the Miami Dolphins, airs every Saturday night at 7:00 p.m. and is hosted by NBC-6 Sports Anchor Joe Rose with contributions from reporters Lindsay Czarniak and Guy Rawlings. Jeff Tavss is the producer.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least one week in advance to: Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, 7500 S.W. 30th Street, Davie, FL 33314 (954/452-7010). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press gate, located outside Gate G of Pro Player Stadium, on the day of the game. ALL members of the media picking up credentials at the will call window must present a valid photo identification. In addition, all media members must show a valid photo identification upon entering the stadium.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area. ALL photographers and runners are required to wear wristbands that must be obtained prior to the game in the Gate G lobby.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHY: Still photography of any kind is NOT permitted at any time in the Dolphins' locker room following both home and road games, in addition to the locker room at the team's training facility during the course of the week.

VIDEO PHOTOGRAPHY: Video photography is limited to just interviews in the Dolphins' locker room following both home and road games, in addition to the locker room at the team's training facility during the course of the week. B-roll footage is NOT permitted at any time.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Pro Player Stadium press box, enter at Gate G. Go through two sets of doors and take the elevator to the third floor. Exit elevator and the broadcast booths are to the right. For the print section, make a left and exit the broadcast booth box into the club lounge area. Go 50 yards to the staircase and go to the lower level of the club lounge. The entrance to the print press box is just beyond the bottom of the stairs. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins will be honored for admittance to Pro Player Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with "Locker Room Access," will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on the ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the print press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator, bear right and go through the double doors to the corridor. Bear left to the Dolphins' locker room and continue past the Dolphins' locker room to reach the visitor's locker room. The Interview room is on the right.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Coach Wannstedt will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium.

PARKING: Press parking at Pro Player Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations, (954/452-7010).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Bonnie Edmundson, BellSouth Special Accounts at (800) 725-1688. Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (954/452-7010).

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Dolphin home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 8467 N.W. 61st Street, Tamarac, FL 33321 (954/720-9070; FAX: 954/720-0725).

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper and TV photographers and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, unless authorized by the Miami Dolphins.

PRACTICE: Regular-season practice sessions usually are held at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, 1:30 p.m. on Thursday, and at 11:00 a.m. on Friday and Saturday (home games). Practices normally are closed to out-of-town media (and, except for the first 15 minutes, all local media) unless special permission is granted by the coaching staff. To request permission, or to arrange any interviews, contact the Dolphins' media relations department. The team locker room is open to the media for 45 minutes (lunchtime) Monday and Wednesday through Friday. The players are off on Tuesdays.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations; Neal Gulkis, Director of Media Relations; and Gayle Baden, Executive Assistant. Office phone number is (954) 452-7010 and (954) 452-7000-switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at Nova Southeastern University during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in Davie at 7500 S.W. 30th Street.

FT. LAUDERDALE TO STADIUM: Take I-595 West to Florida Turnpike South. Upon approaching stadium, follow signs for "Stadium via I-95" (DO NOT take turnpike extension -exit 47 Homestead). Get off at Exit 2X (Dan Marino Blvd./199th St.). Proceed off exit and make a right onto Dan Marino Blvd. Enter through Parking Gate 4, which is on the right.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO STADIUM: Take I-95 North to Ives Dairy Road. Proceed west for five miles (name of road changes to 199th Street/Dan Marino Blvd.) and stadium is on right. Enter parking Gate 4.

MEDIA WEB SITE

To further assist the media, the Dolphins have created a Media-Specific Web Site, located at www.media.miamidolphins.com. Through this site, accredited media ONLY will be able to download feature news-clip files of current and former Dolphin player and coaches, gamebooks from past Dolphin games, transcripts from press conferences and much more. In addition, hundreds of photographs are available on the site for publication purposes. This site can be used 24 hours a day via your home, office or lap top computer. For more information on how to access this web site, contact the Dolphins at media@miamidolphins.com.

CAMP DOLPHINS 2004

The Miami Dolphins will open the 39th training camp in team history under fifth-year Head Coach Dave Wannstedt as players report to the team's Nova Southeastern University training facility on Friday, July 30. The first practice will take place the following day, on July 31.

Most practices are open to the public. Admission is FREE. The Dolphins will be in Houston, Texas from Friday, August 6 - Saturday, August 7 for practices and a scrimmage with the Texans. Two practices will be held on August 6 while a morning practice is slated for August 7 with an afternoon scrimmage set for that same day at Reliant Stadium. The last open practice for the general public is on Thursday, August 19. The Dolphins also will be holding two night practices this year; on August 10 and on August 17. Including the practices with the Texans, the Dolphins will have nine days of two-a-day practices in 2004.

Please note that practice times can change. For updated information, please call the Camp Dolphins hotline at (954) 452-7004.

SATURDAY, JULY 31
9:00 - 10:45 a.m.

*Practice and scrimmage times with Texans are approximate. No practices are scheduled for August 5, 8, 13 and 15.

FUTURE DOLPHINS SCHEDULES

On August 15, 2001, the NFL announced its scheduling rotation for the next eight seasons (2002-2009). These eight-season schedules will take each team through a cycle of games — home and away — against every other team in the league. In these eight seasons, every team will play every other team at least twice — once home and once away.

Under the new formula, every team within a division will play 16 games as follows:

- Home and away against its three division opponents (6 games).
- The four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating three-year cycle (4 games).
- The four teams from another division in the other conference on a rotating four-year cycle (4 games).
- Two intraconference games based on the prior year's standings. These games will match a first-place team against the first-place teams in the two same-conference divisions the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place and fourth-place teams in a conference will be matched in the same way each year.

	Home	Away
Intraconference by Division	Denver	Oakland
	Kansas City	San Diego
Interconference by Division	Atlanta	New Orleans
	Carolina	Tampa Bay
Intraconference by Position	AFC-South	AFC-North

2006

	Home	Away
Intraconference by Division	Jacksonville	Houston
	Tennessee	Indianapolis
Interconference by Division	Green Bay	Chicago
	Minnesota	Detroit
Intraconference by Position	AFC-West	AFC-North

2007

	Home	Away
Intraconference by Division	Baltimore	Cleveland
	Cincinnati	Pittsburgh
Interconference by Division	Dallas	Philadelphia
	N.Y. Giants	Washington
Intraconference by Position	AFC-West	AFC-South

2008

	Home	Away
Intraconference by Division	Oakland	Denver
	San Diego	Kansas City
Interconference by Division	San Francisco	Arizona
	Seattle	St. Louis
Intraconference by Position	AFC-North	AFC-South

2009

	Home	Away
Intraconference by Division	Houston	Jacksonville
	Indianapolis	Tennessee
Interconference by Division	New Orleans	Atlanta
	Tampa Bay	Carolina
Intraconference by Position	AFC-North	AFC-West

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Achilles' Tendon – The tendon at the back of the heel.

Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.

Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Anteriogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Articular Cartilage – Cartilage lining the opposing surfaces of bones.

Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis – Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.

Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner – Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture – Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia – A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavical – The collar bone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.

Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.

Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Cortisone – An anti- inflammatory medication.

Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Debridement – The removal of foreign material and dead or damaged tissue.

Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fascia – A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacar-pophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer – Contusion to the iliac crest.

Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy – Treatment using water.

Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Illiotibial Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Impingement Syndrome – Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue inthe shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) – Ligamament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Malleolus – Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) – Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle and to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Medial Retinaculum – The band of connective tissue that attaches to the medial structures of the knee joint, including the patella and patellar tendon.

Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals – Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals – Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Myosistis – Inflammation of a muscle.

Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.

Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."

Patellar Femoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalancia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx – Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.

Plantar – Pertaining to the sole of the foot.

Plantar Fascia – The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Pneumothorax – A collection of air or gas that enters the cavity surrounding the lungs as a result of a perforation through the chest wall or the cavity wall.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography – Taking of X-rays.

Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum - Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula – Shoulder blade.

Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) - Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis– Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum – The breast bone.

Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.

Stinger – Common term for plexus trauma in the neck.

Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) - The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.

Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea – The windpipe.

Trascutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Turf Toe – Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.

Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasodilation – Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out" – Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve truck, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Wrist – The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).
